piece entitled "Monbars" at the Opera

House, The following is clipped from the Philadelphia Inquirer of recent date: Robert Mantell began an engagement last night at the Walnut Street Theatre last night at the Walnut Street Theatre under auspices assuring crowded houses during the week. He was seen in Louis Nathal's version of "Monbars," a play by Adolphe D'Ennery, one of the most prolific and effective of modern French dramatists. It deals with the story of the self made man who falls in love with one of the aristocracy of France. Mr. Mantell does clever work as Monbars, and his impersonation is quite pictures-que. SENATE. clock by President Doughton, and rayer was offered by Rev L Branson.

WILMINGTON, N. C., SUNDAY, FEBRUARY 17, 1895.

A striking and realistic effect in the first act was produced by representing the cauterization of a wound on the arm of Monbars, inflicted by the teeth of a mad dog. A red-hot poker was used and the fiesh smoked and burned under the pressure of the incandescent metal. The illusion was so perfect that the spectator was bewildered, and a sympa-thetic feeling induced hardly suppressed exclamations of pain from the interested auditors. Mr. Mantell was well sup-

Revenue Cutter Collax.

The revenue cutter Colfax returned to Wilmington yesterday, after a two weeks' cruise to the the northward.

The Colfax went as far North as Hatteras, and reports strong gales, heavy seas and very cold weather all along the coast. In all the harbors and injets many vesiels are weather-bound, waiting an opportunity to go North.

In Blacon Island Roads, near Ocracoke Inlet, a large fleet of vessels is detained. Many of them were entirely out of fuel, which was supplied by the Colfax. The inhabitants of Ocracoke Island and the other islands along the coast are also suffering from want of fuel, they have had no communication with the main land for three weeks. The Colfax brought no information concerning the party of Baltimoreans wrecked on Rosnoke Island.

The W., N. & N. Railway will run special train for the Newbern Fair, in addition to the two regular trains, on Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday and Friday, on which the fare for the round trip, including admission to the Fair grounds, will be only $2.25. This train will leave Wilmington at 8 o'clock and arrive in Newbern at 11,80; returning, will leave Newbern at 5.30, arriving in Wilmington at 8.45. Tickets will also be sold for this train at the Surry street station, so that passengers in the southern part of the city will not be obliged to go to Mulberry street. The round trip rate on the regular rains will be $4, including admission coupons to the Fair, and will be good to return until the 26th, on any train. Tickets on regular trains will only be soid at the Mulberry street station.

The Wilmington Minstrels, which gave an enjoyable entertainment in Newbern Christmas night, will give a performance here on Monday evening next, February 25th, for the benefit of the Naval Reserves.

Their new and original first part, entitled "The Colonial Congress," is something that has never been seen in the Opera House here, Messrs, Henry Angel, Henry Newman, Geo. T. Hewlette and Johnson Graham will hold down "the ends," and Mr. Vincent "the middle."

The olio embraces solos by Mr. Herbert Holden, Mr. Fred Heins, Mr. Will Rehder, Mr. N. G. Smith, and other known singers, and Mr. Wiley T. Johnson will give some of his clever impersonations, one of the most notable being the "drummer boy of 1861-'65 and the typical drummer of 1895,"

"The Soldiers' Dream, or statue frill," participated in by sixteen Naval Reserves, is said never to have been equalled, and preparations are being made to have this a leading feature. A musical sketch by Prof. W. C. Shoemaker, Will. Rebder on the clarionette, Jas. H. Cowan, who performs on five instruments and Mr. Rob, S. Wescott, ornet soloist, will add much to their interesting part.

Wood Famine, There is almost, if not quite, a wood 'famine" in the city. The supply in flats at the docks and in the yards of dealers was completely cleared up yeserday, and the demand was by no means supplied. Late in the afternoon a car-load of wood came in on the W. N. & N. R. R., and stopped at the foot of Orange street. It was immediately surrounded by a score or more o clamorous buyers, and in less than thirty minutes all the wood was sold at $1.00 per dray-load and carried off. "I am opposed to cumulation and am opposed to going back to the old olan," said Senator Fortune, of Cleveties indisputable, and the bargain is land, in the Republican caucus. He earnestly advocated dropping both the Ewart and the Big Five bill, and starting out on the new line. He proposed, as a compromise, that each county should elect three commissioners by a direct 632 46-luch silk fin'hed Henrietta, $1 75c " " " $1.25 50c 40 inch " " 89c 75c 65c Diagonal stripe Batiste. vote of the people, and that then, upon the petition of 800 land owners, it shall 79c Satin striped Batiste. 34c Figured Mohair. be the duty of the Governor to appoint 45c Fancy Weaves, Board of Audit of Finance, who shall be of a different political party from the members of the Board of Commissioners. So belligerent did he get that a prominent Populist was heard to remark that while he went in as a co-operationist and a cumuli tionist, he wanted it distinctly under-stood that he went in as a white man and would come out as a white man, even though it meant a return to the Last night's meeting was far from a love feast. Hitherto the speedles had been comparatively quiet, but last night conservatism and gentle phrases were thrown out in the saow sturm, to freeze, and red hot words kept the temperature inside almost at blood heat. Outside it was snowing, inside it was raising. Raining hot boiling showers of cumulation and anti cumulation. The "nigger" was a factor and he was not forgotten. A regular old fashion second district gular old fashion second district row was threatened. Moody, Lusk, French, Hileman, Fortune, Rice, Grant, and the other leaders saw the angry and the other leaders saw the angry clouds gathering and they knew that unless something was done "rez re would be fijing in the air." So a motion was made to appoint a committee of seven Republicans and seven Populists to take the whole matter under advisement and report to a subsequent caucus. Of course such a committee will doubtless be unable to bring together the anisonning forces, but their gether the antagonizing forces, but their appointment headed off a big break in the co-operation ranks.
