OUTLINES

Proceedings in Congress yesterday. An American killed by bandits in Mexico; four of the murderers captured and will be shot.

The Atlanta Journal of last Saturday was a rattling edition of forty pages, with lots of pictures in it.

The Atlanta Exposition will have no difficulty in taking a fly, provided the machines work. No less than ten Tennessee inventors, who think they have solved the problem, will have flying machines there.

There is a bill before the Pennsylvania Legislature to appropriate $150,000 for the erection of a hospital for consumptives in some part of the State.

The New Orleans States denounces "the ruffianism" displayed by snow-balers during the snow craze, in which people were pelted with balls as hard as chunks of ice.

Three of the biggest guns in the United States will be placed at the Golden Gate to protect the entrance to the harbor of San Francisco.

Seventy-five per cent of the territory of Alabama is under strict prohibition laws and it is said a thirty denizen would have to get a search warrant to find a drink.

A gentleman who has spent many years in China said in Washington the other day that before the Emperor would see Pekin that the Japanese he would pile dead Chinamen so high around it that the Japs couldn't climb over them.

COUNTY GOVERNMENT.

The Plan Agreed Upon by the Rep-Pop. Committee of Finance. The Raleigh News Observer gives the following account of the Rep-Pop. caucus Monday night on the county government question:

But the Republicans know they cannot have it all their own way, and so they agreed last night to submit an ultimatum to the Populists. It is Senator Fortune's plan that has been advocated as the only basis of compromise.

At a late hour last night it was learned that, in spite of their loud professions that the Populists had surrendered, the Board of Commissioners, the Board of Audit and Finance, and the Board of Public Works, all agreed on all questions that were before them.

The committee on an adjourned meeting which was appointed to draft resolutions for the purpose of organizing a Baptist Sunday School Association for New Hanover county, met Monday night at 8 o'clock in the First Baptist Church.

The Association was then organized, and the following officers elected: James Calder, president; J. S. Canaday, vice president; G. E. Letwith, secretary; Benj. F. Murphy, treasurer.

Mr. Henry W. Angel, who appears with the Wilmington Minstrel Troupe next Monday night is without a superior in his impersonation of the ante-bellum dandy.

Mr. Johnson Graham, although a comparative stranger to Wilmington people, is not a stranger to minstrelsy.

On account of "A Week of Old Time Southern Sports," Southern Pines, N. C., February 15th to 22nd inclusive, will sell round trip tickets to that point at reduced rates, based on one first-class fare for the round trip.
