SUPREME COURT DECISION. CONCERNING THE ASSIGNMENT ACT PASSED BY THE STATE LEGIS-LATURE.

The Law Applies Only to Conditional Assignments and Deeds Made to Secure Pre-Existing Debts.

[Special Star Telegram.] RALEIGH, N. C., April 5 .- The Supreme Court has rendered a decision in the case from Durham. Judge Montgomery delivered the opinion of the Court, which holds that the Act is limited to conditional assignments, mortgages and deeds in trust, made to secure pre-existing debts, and that mortgages executed for present consideration do not come within the operation of the Act. Judge Avery dissented, holding that there was no properly constituted case before the Court.

Judge Clark concurred. [By Sou hern Associated Press.] RALEIGH, N. C., April 5 .- The Supreme Court of North Carolina has construed the preference law as only restricting the right to execute assignments, mortgages and deeds in trust, or make conditional sales to secure preexisting debts. Contemporaneous obligations may still be secured by such iens on sales. Farmers will be greatly embarrassed, however, by the fact that balances due for last year cannot still be carried by their commission merchants and secured with their notes for currency advancements. The Chief Justice, Justices Furches, Clark and Montgomery agree upon the decision. Justice Avery files a dissenting opinion, holding that no properly constituted case was before the court. Justice Clark concurs with Justice Avery that the case was not properly constituted.

This decision will have the effect of upon the passage of the bill just conconstrued. Mortgages will be valid as under the old law, except as to pre-existing debts. This decision puts an end to the total prostration of the credit of the State threatened by the Act.

Material Decrease in Production.

says the Charleston News and Courier, is having the expected effect on the many good resolutions made by the farmers two or three months ago that they would greatly reduce the acreage of the new crop. Our Greenville correspondent says that sixty days ago it would have been safe to say that there would be a reduction of 50 per cent. in the cotton acreage in the country; that "cotton has advanced in price, and the old song is being sung that cotton is the only thing that will pay debts." The result is that instead of reducing the cotton acreage 50 per cent. the reduction will not amount to more than 10 to 15 per cent. in Greenville county, and if the speculators would raise the price a few more points and keep the market "active with increasing demand for spot cotton" until the planting season is well over, we should not be surprised if the acreage will be larger than that of last year. The reports which we publish to-day from nearly all the counties in the State, as to the probable acreage devoted to cotton growing this year, give a fair view of the situation. It is generally stated that there will be a reduction in the acreage devoted to cotton. The estimates vary widely. In some counties it will probably amount to 50 per cent. in others the reduction will not exceed 10 per cent.; 25 per cent. would probably be a fair estimate for the State at large. fertilizers; in Anderson county 16 per cent. less cotton will be planted and 28 putting a stop to the withdrawal of northern capital which had been begun 40 per cent. less cotton planted and 40 per cent. less tertilizers used. Opera House last night to one of the largest audiences of the season. During the earlier part of the performance it seemed to go a little slow, and applause was slightly weak, but later on, especially in the latter balf, the warm enthusiasm and heartiness of applause was greater than usually experienced here. To say that the piece was a success is half expressing it. Mr. Albert Hart, as Wang, took the leading part, and by his droll, witty and irresistible sayings and acting completely captured the audience, and in fact, we think, came very near to De Wolf Hopper's interpretation of this character. He was ably assisted by Miss Virginia Earle as the Crown Prince of Siam. Miss Florence Drake, as Marie, is indeed a yery fascinating milkmaid, with an unusually charming voice. Frank Casey, the Ethiopian Elephant Keeper, and Camm Nauvel, French Professor of Etiquette, were much appreciated by the audience. It is seldom that we see a more graceful man than the latter on our stage. Mrs. Marion Singer, as the widow, is a very sweet singer, and at hearers. "Wang," as every one knows, is one of the greatest and best liked operas ever put on the opera stage, and as presented last night was far ahead of anything in that line ever produced here. The costumes were simply superb and fairly dazzled in their magnificence and wonderful grotesqueness. It is hardly necessary to say that the music was catchy. lively and exhilirating and was admirably conducted by Professor Frederick Intropidi, a gentleman well-known in Southern cities as being connected with Summer Opera.
