A "Sketch of the Forty-third Regiment, N. C. Troops," of Daniel's Brigage, Rodes' Division, Army of Northern Virginia, compiled and published by Col. Thos. S. Kenan, (who commanded the regiment)-a pamphlet of twenty-six pages-has been received by the STAR, And with it another pamphlet of a dozen pages, a "Sketch of the Duplin Rifles," Company A, of the Forty-third Regiment, "compiled from muster roll and memoranda by Sergeant B. F. Hall," now a prominent citizen and merchant of Wilmington. Another member of the Company was Capt. W. R. Kenan, now Collector of Customs at Wilmington, who was in command of the second corps of sharp-shooters of the regiment, and was wounded at Charlestown, Va., in August, 1864.

The record of the Dublin Rifles is a remarkable one. The total on the roll of the company-commissioned and non-commissioned officers and privates-during the war was 180.

Of this number there were-killed and died of wounds, 25; died of disease, 22; disabled by wounds, 10; discharges for disability, 12; transferred to other companies or regiments, 5; on roll at close of the war, 56; number living at close of the war, 88.

The Governor this morning took action as a private citizen against Oct. Coke, in issuing a summons to the clerk of the court. As no complaint has been yet filed, it is impossible to tell just what action will be taken. It is, of course presumed that he will follow out the instructions in Attorney General Osborne's letter. The object is to determine whether or not the assignment law is really a law at all. Hon. Thos. R. Parnell, counsel of Mr. E. D. Stanford, to-day took action against J.C. Ellington, State Librarian. Mr. Parnell filed papers with Clerk of the Court Young. The case is entitled, The Attorney General ex rel E. D. Stanord vs. J. C. Ellington. The plaintiff. E. D. Stantord, complaining of the defendant, J. C. Ellington, alleges :

1. That on the 18th day of March 1895, he, the plaintiff, was duly elected State Librarian by the General Assembly of North Carolina under the provisions of an act of the General Assembly, duly ratified on the 13th day of March, 1895.

2. That plaintiff has executed a bond as provided by law with good and sufficient security as such State Librarian tendered the said bond to the Governo and Secretary of State, who refused to accept or file the same or to otherwise qualify the plaintiff or induct him into the office of State Librarian. 8. That defendant's term of office as

State Librarian terminated on the 15th day of March, 1895, but defendant refused and still refuses to surrender said office or permit plaintiff to enter in, exercise the duties thereof, or draw the salary thereof, but holds over contrary to 4. That defendant has demanded surrender of said office by the said J. C Ellington before the commencement o this action-and defendant refused and still refuses to surrender said office or permit plaintiff to discharge the duties hereof. This is Mr. Stanford's case and it w come up at the next term of the Superior Court of Wake county, which convenes on the 22nd of April, Judge Starbuck presiding.

Mr. Purnell, of course, says his client will win.

paper to its present standard. "Think twice before you speak once" has always been one of its mottoes; and this was applied to the iraudulent assignment law which was uncarthed some ten days ago. Although the opinion of newspapers and lawyers was almost unanimously the other way, the STAR promptly expressed its view of the law as follows: "The title of the Act seems to settle the question of intention, which was to regulate assignments and other conveyances of like nature. But many persons, among them some Raleigh lawyers, appear to think that all sorts of mortgages are affected. The STAR does not believe there is a court in North Carolina that will sustain this view. There is no reason to suppose that the law will invalidate a mortgage given to secure a bona fide loan made at the time the mortgage is executed." 46-inch Hindoo Serge, in a splendid
