Electric locomotives for freight hauling are coming to the front. The Baldwin Works, at Philadelphia, are building one of 1,000 horsepower, which is to have a speed of thirty-five miles an hour. A Boston figurer estimates that the army of Christian Endeavorers who will visit that city next July will spend in the city not less than $350,000. That's the kind of visitors that Boston endeavors to attract.

Continental bicycle touring by Englishmen is not as brisk as it was before some of the custom officers punctured some of the air tires and found them crammed with Turkish tobacco (on which there is a high duty in England) instead of air.

CHAMBER OF COMMERCE.

A called meeting of the Wilmington Chamber of Commerce was held yesterday at 11 a. m. at the office of Messrs. Jas. H. Chadbourn & Co. The meeting was called to order by the President of the Chamber, Col. F. W. Kerchner.

The report of the Secretary and Treasurer, Col. Jao. F. Cantwell, was received and ordered to be spread upon the minutes. On motion an assessment of one dollar on each member was ordered, to pay salary of secretary and treasurer. A committee consisting of Messrs. Jas. H. Chadbourn, Jr., Wm. H. Sprunt, and Isaac Bear, was appointed to solicit new members.

On motion it was ordered that the present officers of the chamber be continued without compensation, from October, 1894, until the committee on new members shall have reported the president shall call a meeting of the chamber for reorganization. In the matter of a communication from the Bureau of Navigation, United States Treasury Department, as to the navigation of harbors, rivers and inland waterways, asking suggestions, the same was referred to a special committee, Messrs. Thomas Evans, George Harris, Edward Peschau.

On motion the meeting adjourned. Savannah Truck Moving. The truck growers are doing a good business from Savannah now, says the News. They are pushing everything now for all it is worth, and the quicker they get things to market the more money there is in it.

Yesterday over 400 crates of peas and beans, mostly peas, went North by the Plant system, and as many more went the day before, all of these being from Savannah. The same train, however, carried 3,000 crates on Friday and 3,400 crates yesterday. Those packages of the vegetables which were not sent from Savannah were turned over to the road by the Southern Express Company and other lines. Much of this stuff came from the territory immediately surrounding Savannah, and could practically be called Savannah truck.

PLEASING ENTERTAINMENT

By Wilmington Amateurs at Luther Memorial Building. An entire absence of standing room was the feature at the opening of last night's performance at the Luther Memorial Building, where some of Wilmington's talented amateurs rendered a most delectable programme. The frequent hearty applause is a good criterion and to those who were present is a better criticism than anything that could possibly be said in regard to this most enjoyable entertainment.

The first part was a rare musical treat, opening with a piano duet by Mrs. H. F. Oaten and Miss Oaten, which from an artistic point of view was perfect. These ladies showed skill and their effort was most appreciated. The male quartette, consisting of Messrs. Smith, Baker and A. S. and H. K. Holden, sang "A Stream of Silver Moonlight" to the great delight of the audience. Miss Annie Adrian, that charming young lady with a voice of peculiar and wonderful charm, pleased the audience with a solo entitled "Thy Blue Eyes," which was heartily applauded. A duet "Minstrel Boy," by Messrs. Baker and A. S. Holden, was the next number and was well received. Mr. Wm. Redder, with a voice of exceeding sweetness, sang "Forgotten." The event of the evening, it seemed, was the double quartette entitled "Wyken, Blynken and Nod" participated in by Messrs. Stoker, Adrian, Bissinger, Dorrer and Schwarz and Messrs. Smith, Baker, Holden and Redder. So great was the manifestation of delight that they were compelled to respond to an encore. After singing the "Flower Song," from Gounod's Faust, in her usual charming manner, Miss Minnie Schwarz sweetly responded to the vociferous applause of the audience. The male quartette sang "Good-Night," which ended part first.

The second part consisted of a laughable little comedy, entitled "Popping the Question." In this stirring little love scene all performed their parts with the utmost fidelity, and in a manner which displayed much talent. The applause was generous and deserving.

REDUCED COTTON ACREAGE. Indications of a Smaller Cotton Crop—But Estimates Seem Extravagant. A recent telegram from Arkansas says: Pursuant to resolutions adopted by the anti-cotton growers' league recently formed in this section, the year's acreage of cotton will be greatly reduced in proportion to that of preceding years. Many prominent agriculturists throughout this section are closely identified in the movement and are determined in their efforts to rule against enormous and unprofitable production of cotton. It is a peculiar feature of this section that they ought now and forever to return their independence of cotton and to turn their attention to the production of grains and stock raising. It is estimated that the acreage throughout this section has been reduced exceeding on an average one-half of that planted last year.

Dr. John A. Vann, of Ridgewood, S. C., is quoted as saying: "Planting operations are about ten days behind. The cotton acreage will be from 19 to 25 per cent less than last year." Mr. E. S. B. Jackson, of Sumter, S. C., says that in his section not more than 60 per cent, as much cotton has been planted this year as last, while the acreage in corn has been increased 100 per cent.

The Savannah Press says: "It has been generally conceded that the cotton acreage has been reduced 35 per cent." The STAR has no doubt that the reduction in cotton acreage is overestimated; but if it shall reach an average of 15 to 20 per cent, the next crop will be 2,000,000 bales smaller than that for the current crop; for, in addition to reduced acreage, the decrease in amount of fertilizers must be considered.

Wilmington Gas Light Company. The annual meeting of the stockholders of the Wilmington Gas Light Company was held at the office of the secretary and treasurer, Mr. R. J. Jones, at 11 o'clock yesterday. Colonel John W. Don MacRae was called to the chair and Mr. Don MacRae was made secretary. The old Board of Directors, consisting of Dr. A. J. DeRosset and Messrs. E. S. Martin, John F. Divise, G. H. Smith, George R. French, Geo. W. Kidder and Hugh MacRae, were elected for the ensuing year.

Subsequently this Board met and re-elected Mr. E. S. Martin as president, Mr. R. J. Jones as secretary and treasurer and Mr. John W. Reilly as superintendent. Magistrate's Court. Robert Guthrie, colored, was committed to jail yesterday by Justice Bunting in default of bail fixed at $100. Guthrie is charged with false pretences in obtaining several pistols from Mr. E. D. West, as told in the STAR.

Sheriff Scott of Wayne county, came here yesterday after Guthrie, who is an escaped convict from that county, but as Guthrie had been committed to jail here for trial and the authorities refused to surrender him, the sheriff returned without the prisoner. Oathene Kennedy Home. "The new home will be formally opened to-morrow and Friday to visitors, for 'pounding,' from 10 o'clock, a. m. to 10 p. m. The dedicatory services will be held Friday evening at half-past eight o'clock. All friends of the Home are earnestly invited to attend.

The Morning Star Calendar. The attention of readers of the STAR is called to THE MORNING STAR calendar, printed to-day, and which will be a regular feature of the paper hereafter. It will be found very convenient for reference, and it is likewise ornamental. The plates are gotten up expressly for the STAR, and will be changed every month.

FROM HOLLAND.

TALK ABOUT HOLLAND'S BOND AND HIS ABILITY TO MAKE IT. District Attorney Glenn Says It Will Be Fifteen to Twenty Thousand Dollars—It Is Not. He Can Give the Bond—Glenn Thinks Somebody Else Had Holland Spend the Bank's Money.

The following additional particulars are from the Observer of yesterday: When discussing the amount of bond Mr. Glenn remarked that he thought a $50,000 bond and ten years in the penitentiary would satisfy the government. "Do you suppose he will be sent for a longer term?" asked the Observer. "I don't know," said Mr. Glenn, "that is with Judge Dick. Five years, you know, is the very least he can get."

"Could not entreaties and petitions make it less?" "Not," said Mr. Glenn, "if every man, woman and child in the town went down on their knees to the judge. He might appeal to Comptroller Eckles; he is the only one who could shorten the term of years."

Two representatives from the American Surety Company are in the city. One is Mr. Long, the State Inspector; the other an expert, Mr. H. G. Springs tells the Observer that they have expressed their determination to pay their part of the bond. They are now investigating the matter, and studying bonds and all things pertaining thereto.

United States District Attorney Glenn, arrived last night at 10.40. He was seen at once by the Observer and asked when the preliminary trial would take place. He said he had not made any arrangements nor set any time. "I should think," said he, "that Mr. Holland would prefer not having a trial, as it would necessarily be very public, and I should think unpleasant. I should suppose that he would waive examination and that get his friends and lawyers to see me and arrange the bond, if he can give the bond required."

"What bond will be required, Mr. Glenn?" asked the Observer. "I have not decided in my mind fully," said he. "If Holland had not gone away or rather concealed himself like he has done, but had thrown himself on the mercy of the court, his bond would not have been over $10,000. Now I shall make it not less than $15,000 nor more than $30,000. 'I want you to state,' continued the District Attorney, 'that I have't the slightest feeling against him for the way he has acted as the amount of the bond is not regulated by personal feeling in the least degree, but his is a very aggravated case and I will have to require a bond that I think will satisfy the government. I have no idea of running the figures up to an exorbitant amount.'"

"Do you think he can give bond?" asked Mr. Glenn. "I do," said the reporter. "I think he can give it with no trouble." "Yes, a justified bond," asked Mr. Glenn. "Yes, a justified bond."

"I won't take any but the strongest kind of a bond and I won't accept as bondsmen any of the bank officials," said Mr. Glenn. "That is," said the reporter, "that they would be the last to offer to go on the bond. They could hardly offer a thousand dollars reward for the capture of Mr. Holland and then turn round to go on his bond."

"I am not satisfied with this business, yet," continued Mr. Glenn, "am going to probe it to the bottom, and am going to get Comptroller Eckles to issue an order giving me power to have Bank Examiner Miller go through the bank. I never expect to stop until I know all."

HOLLAND GIVES BOND. By Telegram to the Morning Star. CHARLOTTE, April 30.—Ex-Cashier Holland, who is in default to the Merchants' and Farmers' Bank of Roxboro, has given a bond of $50,000, and in making up the bond the defaulter's remarkable popularity was seen. District Attorney Glenn demanded a bond of $15,000. A score or more of Holland's friends, among the best citizens of Charlotte, came forward and signed the bond for $50,000. The signatures for $10,000 each more than covered the amount of bail required, but when all who asked it had been allowed to sign, Mr. Holland had done with so much money, not to have lived more extravagantly than he has.

Cotton Region Bulletin. There was considerable rain yesterday in the Wilmington district; at Newbern, 1.80 inches for the 24 hours ended at 8 p. m.; at Wilmington, 0.44; Weldon, 0.91; Goldsboro, 0.80; Lumberton, 0.88; Raleigh, 0.13. The Bureau report yesterday morning said that considerable rain had fallen in the eastern and central districts of the cotton belt, the heaviest being in this district. The weather remains unsettled throughout the belt, and it is difficult to say what the outcome will be, but it is believed that intermittent showers will prevail generally.

A telegram from the STAR's correspondent at Raleigh (published in another column) announces that the Supreme Court has reversed the decision of the Superior Court in the case of Lewis, receiver of the Bank of New Haven, vs. Adrian & Volders. This was an action for foreclosure of a mortgage from defendants to the bank and the Superior Court gave judgment in favor of plaintiffs, and decreed a sale of the property.

RVALEIGH NEWS BUDGET.

A LEGAL SPAT IN THE SUPERIOR COURT. Another Petition For Commutation of Death Sentence of George Mills—The Approaching City Election—Roxboro's Bank Trouble.

RALEIGH, N. C., April 30. Quite a nice legal spat was indulged in this morning in the Superior Court between the attorneys representing the claimants for the position of State Librarian and counsel for the Secretary of State. It happened in this way. Yesterday Mr. Thomas R. Purnell, Stanford's attorney, requested Mr. Plummer Batchelor, Private Secretary to the Secretary of State, to furnish him with a certified copy of a portion of the Legislative Journals relating to the alleged election of Stanford. Mr. Batchelor told Mr. Purnell that it would be a physical impossibility to do so, as the part desired was not in the records. The morning counsel for Stanford took action to compel the Secretary of State to have the journals produced in Court. Mr. Purnell's attorney appeared for the Secretary of State. He took the position that the secretary did not so much object to bringing his records in the court, but that if he was ordered to do so this time a precedent would be established, whereby he would be continually worried by demands for the records over the State. Judge Starbuck decided that the Secretary of State was not compelled to produce the records. The case comes up again this afternoon.

The case of the North Carolina School for Deaf and Dumb vs. the N. C. Institution for the education of the deaf, dumb and blind is in the Superior Court to-day. This is an action to obtain $5,000 bequeathed by John Kelly of Orange county in 1851 for the education of the deaf and dumb. Another petition of 250 names asking for a commutation of the death sentence of George Mills was handed the Governor this morning. There is a great diversity of opinion as to whether Mills will hang.

Mr. Frank Stronach has resigned as a director of the penitentiary. He is one of the five old directors. Mr. Stronach is at present a city alderman, and is also a candidate on the Democratic ticket for re-election. The aldermen will probably be evenly divided between Republicans and Democrats, when the result of the election is known, and Mr. Stronach resigned to prevent any anticipated trouble about double office holding. The Governor has not appointed his successor.

Mr. J. J. Rogers, Register of Deeds, also declines an appointment tendered him by the Legislature as a director of the Institution for the Deaf, Dumb and Blind, and the Governor has appointed proper Mr. Wm. Proctor, of Raleigh. Mr. Proctor was one of the Democratic directors turned down by the Legislature.

Mr. W. W. Kitchin one of the Directors of the Farmer's Bank at Roxboro came in to-day. He says the cashier has been released on a $3,000 bond and is at present assisting in the bank showing the officials what he can. He says the default of $5,000 has been made good and that the bank is going along just as usual paying checks and drafts. The cashier appointed was a temporary one and Treasurer Worth says he sees no reason for having a permanent receiver. It is just brought to light that North Carolina is entitled to a military post, this State being one of the very few without Federal military representation. An effort is being made to begin about securing a cavalry post in Raleigh. The proper military authorities are pushing the matter. It would be the means of distributing over $500,000 a year in Raleigh besides the outlay necessary to equip the post.

[Special Star Telegram] The Supreme Court handed down the following opinions: Bank of New Haven vs. Adrian & Volders, from New Haven, reversed. Wright vs. Brown, from Beaufort, affirmed. Treasurer (Worth) was summoned to appear before Judge Starbuck at six p. m. to show cause why the receiver of the Roxboro Bank should not be discharged. Failing to appear, Judge Starbuck dissolved the receivership.
