Congressman Patterson, of Tennessee, expresses the opinion that "the silver craze has reached its flood and has just begun to recede," but the other side is still doing a good deal of damming, or words to that effect.

A Goshen, N. Y., editor who didn't have much luck in fishing in the ponds and creeks tried his luck in a 200 foot artesian well and pulled up a half a dozen that averaged a foot in length and weighed a pound, but were as blind as bats.

The Chinese in Paterson, N. J., are striking on the Sunday school question. The Superintendent has forbidden the young lady teachers from walking with the Chinamen, and John consequently emphatically declares "no walkee no go schoolee."

When off duty on the bench Justice Harlan, of the U. S. Supreme Court, likes to romp with the dogs and children, and is fond of both. He never talks as sharply to them as he talked to the court when he was delivering that dissenting opinion.

Since Mr. Carter has delivered his opinion with so much candor on the free silver question, Eastern Republicans of the yellow metal school say he should be bounced from the chairmanship of the National committee, for a man of his views couldn't be a safe engineer.

It is said that the Japanese do not have any tooting of horns nor banging of drums in their armies, and no cheering or yelling or anything of that sort, but march in silence, and proceed to business in the same way when there is a fight on hand. The commands are given by signals, which they all understand. This silent way of doing business is what knocked the sand out of the Chinese so, who were not accustomed to seeing fighting done without beating the tom-tom and raising a terrible racket.

The St. Louis Republic announces that Rev. J. L. Gray, an Episcopal minister, of Macon, Mo., who has been in the ministry since 1843, will soon deliver a lecture to prove that P. S. Ney, who taught school in this State from 1819 to 1846, when he died in Rowan county, was Marshal Ney. Mr. Gray is a North Carolinian, and when a young man went to school to P. S. Ney. He has travelled much in this country and in Europe, and is fully convinced that P. S. Ney and the Marshal were one and the same person. It would be interesting to know whether he has seen Mr. Weston's book, or whether he has himself gathered the facts which he will use in proof.

Let us have limited free coinage of American silver, until it can be seen how much silver the trade of the country can stand without depreciation of the white metal. Supplement this with free banking on a basis that will make circulation and deposits absolutely safe. This will give the South what it needs. The South does not want, and does not need the free and unlimited and unconditional coinage of silver.

Some men are very thoughtless. An old fellow who died in Michigan recently is giving his heirs an amount of trouble hunting up the different names he used when depositing his money in banks, for taking different names was one of his freaks.

Millionaire Baker, who died in New York last June, didn't need much to make him happy. All he asked was to be turned into a mosquito and be permitted to come back and buzz around his wife and bite her some.

The money which travels on its face may be sound money, as a contemporary defines it, but the man who travels on his face isn't sound.

FOR FREE COINAGE

Mass Meeting of Citizens East—Resolutions Adopted—Committee Appointed to Attend the Free Silver Convention in Memphis. The mass meeting of those favoring the free coinage of silver at the Court House last night was attended by about one hundred and fifty citizens.

Mr. Gerald McCarthy, Secretary of the State Horticultural Society, in a letter to Mr. Heinsberger, Jr., says: "The fair will be held about the first week in August, lasting two or three days. The Society has usually required the successful bidder to furnish free and decorate a suitable hall; also to guarantee the premium list; but this is a safe plan, as the guarantee has never been called upon—the fair paying all its expenses. But this year we desire it possible to get not only a guarantee but a donation of at least half of the premium fund, so as to have a surplus for carrying on the work of the Society."

A RUMOR DENIED.

The rumor that Mr. H. M. Emerson would go from the Coast Line to the Seaboard Air Line is authoritatively denied. Yesterday, says the News and Courier, an afternoon paper published as a rumor a story to the effect that Mr. H. M. Emerson, assistant traffic manager of the Atlantic Coast Line, had been offered and would accept the position of traffic manager of the Seaboard Air Line system.

Mr. Emerson is one of the best known and most popular railroad men who come to this city. No one would have been surprised if the Seaboard Air Line or any other big system had wanted his services as its traffic manager, but it was thought strange that such an important change could have taken place or even been contemplated without the knowledge of Mr. Emerson's Charleston friends and admirers.

When the rumor was published yesterday afternoon Mr. Emerson was telegraphed to. He was told the rumor, and at once replied as follows: WILMINGTON, N. C., May 27.—The News and Courier, Charleston, S. C.: Your message this date; no truth in report returned to. H. M. EMERSON.

FOR FREE COINAGE

Several gentlemen who take a lively interest in the project of holding the next Fair of the State Horticultural Society in Wilmington had an informal conference in regard to the matter in the counting room of Messrs. George R. French & Sons yesterday afternoon. It was decided to call a meeting at the Court House on Friday next, at 10 o'clock, noon, of those interested in the matter and a large attendance is expected there on that occasion.

Mr. Allan B. Brown was elected secretary. It was moved and seconded that a committee of three be appointed by the chair to draft resolutions.

The following Committee on Resolutions was accordingly appointed: B. F. Keith, R. K. Bryan, Jr., and W. B. McKoy.

Mr. Jao, D. Bellamy, Jr., responded to a general call at some length. He spoke of the importance of the question, and of its speedy settlement, and traced the financial history of the United States from 1792 to the present time. He said that from 1792 to 1875, under an unlimited coinage, the country enjoyed the greatest prosperity, and that immediately after the demonetization of silver in 1875 financial trouble ensued and has been present ever since.

He said that America had been the first country to demonetize silver and that the world is waiting on her to re-establish it. That France, Germany, and other countries would immediately follow her example He was frequently applauded.

The following resolutions were presented by the Committee on Resolutions, through Mr. B. F. Keith, who spoke in their favor: WHEREAS, believing that the peace and prosperity of the United States depend upon equal and just laws to govern all alike, and believing that the restoration of the free and unlimited coinage of silver at the ratio of 16 to 1 is necessary to restore the peace and prosperity of our country, we, the undersigned, do hereby pledge ourselves into a bimetallic league for the purpose of promoting this cause to the full extent of our ability and just law to govern all alike.

1st. That we form ourselves into a bimetallic league for the purpose of promoting this cause to the full extent of our ability and just law to govern all alike. 2d. That we will fight this question out on its own merits.

3d. That we invite all lovers of liberty and justice to join us in thus removing from the statute books of the United States one of the most damnable and unjust laws that was ever imposed upon us through bribery and treachery, or by any other means since the foundation of our Government.

4th. And that we elect one vice president and five executive committees from each ward, and ask that the citizens of each town and city, in their respective townships; and that they come together and elect their chairman and formulate some plan by which we may carry forward this great and important work.

PUBLIC SCHOOLS

Closing Exercises at Hemenway Last Night—A Most Enjoyable Entertainment. Never was the interest taken in our public schools more fully demonstrated than last night at the closing exercises of the Hemenway school, there being about two thousand present and numbers were turned away.

The entertainment was in two parts. First, "The Jolly Picnic Party," and second, "Poses Plastiques."

The "Jolly Picnic Party" was participated in by the following young folks, who proved themselves experts in their lines, and showed every trace of good training by the teachers:

Characters—"Grandma," Norma Foster; "Dot," Kate Kelly; "Got," Marie Clawson; "Hazel," Mattie Keen; "Zena," May Galloway; "Josie," Nora Scott; "Mabel," Alice Craft; "Florence," Irene Peterson; "Mamie," Lilly Bell McLaughlin; "Annie," Annie Taylor; "Coachman," Clarence Smith.

Jolly Boys—Isiah King, Clayton Grant, Alex McClure, George White, Edwin Moore, Wallace West, Willie Gordon, David Clark, Willie Corbett, Harry Prempert, James Craft.

Brownies—Gilbert Ford, Ben Parmele, Joe Frank, Sig. Fried Goodman, Rob Rodgers, Buck Ward, E. T. Hancock, Almie Mitchell, Earl Webb, Walter McIntire, James Davis, Arthur King.

Chorus singers—Sylvia Hancock, Ruth Keen, Mary Rose, Neppie Woodcock, Olivia Darden, Ida Hankins, May Whitney, Lizzie Gibson, Lucy McIntosh, Maud Bulluck, Cora Wiggs, May Muse, Annie White, Mary Styron, Carrie Duffy, Mable Castle.

All of the prominent characters deserve special mention and received a great deal of applause. The singing of little Marie Clawson, Kate Kelly and Clarence Smith was exceptionally fine. During the intermission between the first and second parts, Prof. M. C. Nobles, Superintendent of Public Instruction, said he was never as much encouraged as he was last night; the outpour of citizens to witness the entertainment was flattering, and during the past session 596 scholars had been enrolled; that the County Commissioners and the County Board of Education, who were present, should also be gratified. He then presented Miss Bessie Burt, the school's organist and pianist, with a beautiful gold medal from the School Committee for efficient work and untiring efforts. She accepted it with thanks.

The "Poses Plastiques," stately drill and pictures were executed in a most admirable manner by nine of the scholars dressed in white robes with powdered hair. They presented a lovely appearance and were loudly encored. The following are the groups and pictures and those participating:

Noble Group—"Toilet of the Birds," "Death of Virginia," "Dance of the Amazons," "Smoking of the Indians," "Nessie, Cottchett, Nora Scott, Annie Taylor, Blanche Chadwick, Bessie Hankins, Celestine Fennell, Estelle Burnett, Lillie Horne."

The group who handled the large crowd so nicely were Masters William Clark, Leslie Wiggs, Lloyd Rose, John McDougal, James Cotchett, Fred Bolles Louis Keen.

CORRESPONDENCE

WILMINGTON, N. C., May 21. Captain W. H. Northrop, Commanding Wilmington Light Infantry, Wilmington, N. C.

DEAR SIR:—The undersigned officers, present in their several official capacities upon the parade in Raleigh on the 20th of May, desire to express to you their warm appreciation of your unselfishness in declining to take command of the Second Regiment on that occasion, although entitled to do so as ranking officer. In order that you might remain with the "Wilmington battalion," your action not only added to our pleasure in the parade, but resulted in enabling Wilmington to make an exceedingly creditable display—probably the most effective of the day—and has additionally brought our respective commands into that close touch of brotherly feeling which will, we trust, enable us to always work harmoniously together for whatever tends to promote the honor and prosperity of our city. With kindest regards, we have the honor to be, very respectfully yours,

On the part of the Naval Reserve: Geo. L. Morton, Lt. Commander Nav. Bat.; E. S. Lattimer, Pay Master Nav. Bat.; Jas. C. Morrison, Lt. Wil. Div.; W. R. Morrison, Ensign Wil. Div.

On the part of the Zeb Vance Division of the City of Wilmington: C. L. W. A. D. C.; Thos. D. Meares, Sr. Lt. Capt.; D. H. Lippitt, Jr. Lt. Lieut.; W. F. Robertson, Jr. Lt. Herald.

WILMINGTON, N. C., May 27, 1895. Lt. Commander Geo. L. Morton, Col. W. J. Woodward and others. GENTLEMEN—I have read your communication of the 21st inst., with a great deal of pleasure, and beg that you will accept my sincere thanks for your kind words. I do not think my action in the matter merited such praise, for it was not much more than my duty in declining the command of the Second Regiment, as the great pleasure it afforded me in being able to continue as a part of the "Wilmington Battalion." The parade was not strictly a military affair, so I felt that I had the privilege of choosing as I did. It was a source of great gratification to me to note the sympathy that existed between our respective commands, and I earnestly hope that this kindly feeling will ever continue, so that our mutual interests may be promoted, and thereby increase the honor and prosperity of our city.

Again thanking you, and with kind regards, I am, very respectfully, Yours, W. H. Northrop, Jr., Jr., Capt. Commanding Wil. Light Infantry.

A CARD.

On our return from our bridal tour the members and friends of the Young Men's Christian Association gave us a handsome token of their friendship. Again they added to our obligations by sending a bountiful supply to the pantry on the day we went to our new home. Our hearts are full of tender gratitude. We do not deserve it and did not expect any such expression of good-will. We cannot speak in person our thanks. Will they then, each and every one, accept this public word of appreciation? And may we say that God helping us, we hope in future to deserve something of their continued good-will!

MR. AND MRS. THOS. C. DIGGS. Wilmington, N. C., May 28, 1895.

RALEIGH HAPPENINGS.

GRADUATING EXERCISES AT PEACE INSTITUTE.

Baptist Sunday School Excursion to Norfolk—Body of Drowned Negro Recovered—A Murderer Captured—The United American Mechanics in Session—The Circuit—U. S. Court Convened.

[Star Correspondence.] RALEIGH, N. C., May 28.

The graduating exercises of Peace Institute took place last night. The class of 1895 is composed of nine young ladies.

Rev. L. B. Turnbull, of Durham, delivered the graduating address to the young ladies. Marshall O. J. Carroll, in a graceful speech, made the presentation of medals. To-night the annual concert given by the ladies will occur. These exercises close one of the most prosperous seasons in the history of the institution.

The excursion of the Baptist Tabernacle Sunday school to Norfolk tomorrow will be largely patronized. Two trains of fifteen coaches will be run to accommodate the crowd. The second section will remain over in Norfolk Thursday, enabling parties to visit Baltimore, Washington and other points and return.

The body of Alfred Sutton who was drowned in Crabtree, was found yesterday afternoon near the spot where he was supposed to have been drowned, after a twenty-four hours search. The body was pulled out by a fisherman.

The governor has received a telegram from the Sheriff of Rowan county, stating that Tom Moore had been arrested and delivered to him. Moore murdered Chas. Poston in Salisbury a few days ago, and also shot a woman. Her death is not improbable. No reward had been offered for the arrest of Moore by the Governor.

The circus gave very clever and satisfactory performances here. There were over 5,000 people at the afternoon performance, and about 3,000 at the evening. The show was a clean one throughout. Mr. Wallace says he will visit North Carolina again next year.

The State Council J. O. U. A. Mechanics conducted its grand council meeting at 10 o'clock. The delegates have not come as early as expected, though there are about thirty here now. To-night the local branch of the Mechanics give a banquet in honor of the visiting brethren.

Mr. Joseph Haywood, of Millburn, this county, yesterday instituted proceedings against the Wallace show. Mr. Haywood wanted $50 because bill posters had stuck up circus bills against some of his property. The case was compromised and it is said Haywood took $15.00.

Major J. W. Wilson, Railway Commissioner, has returned from Morganton. The Federal term of Court convened this morning, Judge Seymour presiding. There are thirty-three prisoners in Wake jail which have been brought here from the different counties in the district to meet trial.

SALEM FEMALE COLLEGE

Commencement Exercises—Essays by Members of the Graduating Class. [Special Star Telegram.] WINSTON, May 28.—To-night was Senior's second evening in the Commencement exercises of Salem Female College. Twenty-seven of the fifty-three members of the graduating class read essays on the following subjects: "Echoes of the Great Fair," "Two Years of Literary Study," "Chinese-Japanese War," "The European Position" and "World's Heroines."

Miss Jennie Wood, of Wilmington, discussed in a creditable manner "The European Position."

This afternoon the art exhibit attracted much attention. The college chapel was decorated with productions of the pupils.

Another interesting thing was "The Loan Exhibit," consisting of specimens from the early history of Salem and the renowned old educational institution.

CORBETT AND FITZSIMMONS.

Another Effort to Come to an Understanding as to the Date and Place of the Fight—Vendig Confident That He Can Arrange Both by July 1.

NEW YORK, May 27.—Another step forward was made to-day in the match between Corbett and Fitzsimmons. The men and their friends met in an up-town resort this afternoon, Fitzsimmons and his legal adviser, Emanuel Friend, Corbett and his manager, W. A. Brady, and Joe Vindig, the representative of the Florida Athletic Club. There was a good deal of lightning in the air and Corbett seemed anxious to bring on a fight on the spot, but Fitzsimmons was cool and sarcastic and did not respond to Corbett's advances. He allowed his lawyer to do most of the talking.

Fitzsimmons was asked by Vendig when he proposed to post the $5,000 to guarantee his appearance in the ring. "When the place and date of the battle are announced by the club we will put up $5,000 with P. J. Dwyer, the stakeholder," was Corbett's reply. "Sign articles that you'll do this," yelled Corbett. "Sign nothing," replied Fitzsimmons, with a grin.

"That will suit me exactly," said Vendig. "It does not suit me," Corbett retorted. "I'll take Mr. Friend's word, and I represent the club," Vendig replied firmly.

Corbett then, upon the advice of Brady, agreed to the inevitable. When it appeared that Corbett was rashing matters with Fitzsimmons, Vendig said he had given his word that there should be no trouble in the room, and he meant to keep his word. It was then agreed that the men should settle their differences in the ring.

Corbett left the room, but he returned a few moments later and apologized to his lawyer Friend for anything he might have said. Vendig is confident that he can pull the battle off, and will name the place and day on July 1. Corbett will begin training at Asbury Park at once.
