Benedicts vs. Bachelors. One of the features of Friday's game between the Bachelors and Benedicts will be the work on the coaching line by Wise, the arbiter of men's fashions, and Li Hung Chang Robinson, who are thoroughly competent to talk the men from base to base. The spectators will be expected to bear with these two, as much verbosity is essential to their happiness, and will be the only recompense they can get out of this function, except the satisfaction of having participated in something which the management confidently expect will add a number of dollars to the deserving charity for which it is given. It may not be out of place to state that the players will shouldermost, if not all of the expenses incident to the game, and that the proceeds of every ticket sold will go directly into the treasury of the Shelter of the Silver Cross: So, the managers ask that every one who is in the habit of going to the seashore forego this for one day and witness the game, that some poor soul may have the pleasure of a short sojourn at the Shelter during the hot days of Summer.

thoughts. If you like Christ, endeavor in your conduct to conform to his life. Do not judge Christ by Christians, but by the Master himself. The mistake made by the world is in judging Christianity by the acts of its professors. It is an error of reason so to do. This is but an evidence of the fact that the average man seldom thinks. If men rightly thought there would be more Christians. Men are chary to express an opinion on a novel never read, but there never was the man that would not express an opinion on the Bible when he had never read'it. I do not believe in infidelity. It is a myth-born of ignorance. "That arch-priest of Agnosticism, Ingersoll, is no infidel-witness his eulogy at his brother's grave-'Life is a narrow vale between the cold and barren peaks of two eternities. We strive in vain to look beyond the heights. We cry aloud, but echo only answers our waiting cry. But in the night of death hope sees a star and listening love hears the rustle of a wing,' Can a man who gives utterance to such sentiments be a believer in a dark eternal home? No! I desire to show you Christ as his enemies depict him. That is in three aspects. That he was an impostor. Do you believe it? Jesus did not work for profit. From the cradle to the grave his life affords us an unexplained instance of personal sacrifice. Have you ever stood by the bedside of a mother while the valley shadows closed around as a shroudthe stars marching from east to west presaging the dawning of the dayand as on the curtain of the dark God's eternal finger drew the dawning colors of the new day, the tired lips closed with the last word, 'Blessed Jesus, I come to Thee,' Can you believe he is an impostor? Again, it is said that Jesus offers more than He performs. Is that so? Contrast what the world offers against what Christ offers. Can the world offer pardon;

eternal peace-rest in that land where evening shadows never fall? "Again, Jesus says, if you follow me will never forsake you. In troubles here do not despair, call on the Almighty for sustenance; he will help you in all good resolutions. Help you to be true to your ideal; heal your wounded heart, and when your life's bark crosses the bar and on the wide expanse of eternity's ocean seeks a heaven, His love will guide you to the shores of that sunlit land. There in the bosom of your God eternal peace and felicity will be your portion. Can you afford in this life to neglect such offers as this dwine Saviour offers you-pardon for your shortcoming here; eternal rest hereafter? 'Send out thy light and thy truth that they may lead me unto thy holy bill and unto thy dwelling.' Resting in the shadow of a Saviour's love we will be assured of the rest that passeth all understanding.

"Come out for Jesus. Be a man; be for Jesus or against him. He is a faithful Saviour, he is a loving Saviour, he is a true Saviour. He is worthy of your obedience. Come out on the Lord's side. Show by your actions that you have accepted him as a personal Saviour. Then when winters have silvered your locks and Time with a gentle hand has drawn many a furrow in your face, when the day-dawn breaks on your last hours, and the eyelids close on earth forever, sink to rest with the testimony of a good conscience, in communion with the Saints departed to rest in the bosom of your God." In the after-meeting a large number availed themselves of the privilege to sigsignify their intention connecting themselves with the various brotherhoods of RALEIGH, N. C., June 18. The Governor is making appointments of Justices of the Peace, where those elected by the Legislature failed to qualify. A number have been appointed in this way.

The tax on beds in hotels, etc., is $1.00 instead of 50 cents as has been the prevailing opinion. The county gets 50 cents as well as the State. Regular Meeting - Statement Concerning the Issue of Bonds to Fund the Floating Debt of the City of Wilmington. The Board of Audit and Finance met esterday in regular session. Present: Messrs. Wm. Calder (chairman), H. C. McQueen, C. W. Yates and C. H. Gan-

The cash account of the city clerk and treasurer for the month of May was read; also, accounts of the chief of police and cattle weigher.

The chair-Mr. Calder-in reference to the funding of the floating debt of the city made the following statement, viz: I think the time is opportune to announce publicly, what is already known to the members of this Board, that the effort made to fund the floating debt of the city by the issue of fifty thousand dollars of five per cent, bonds, payable five thousand dollars in each year for a period of ten years, has been successful. It will be remembered that when the Board of Aldermen sent to this Board for their concurrence an ordinance passed by them March 27th, 1895, authorizing the issue of six per cent. bonds as the best arrangement that could be made, we decided that it was not impossible in our judgment, to float a five per cent. bond, and inexpedient to concur in the action of the Board of Aldermen without first making an earnest ef fort in that direction.

You therefore instructed your chairman to conduct a correspondence upon that line, and in obedience to your wishes I have since then corresponded with the several financial centres of the country, resulting in the successful placing of our five per cent. bonds at a pre-

Upon the conclusion of these negotiations the original ordinance was returned to the Board of Aldermen, and, having been amended by them as suggested by us so as to provide for interest at five instead of six per cent. has been concurred in by this Board, and the bonds awarded to Messrs. E. H. Rollins & Sons, bankers, of Boston, Mass., at 10014 and accrued interes:. This is a very satisfactory conclusion of the matter and results in the saving to our people of two thousand six hun dred and twenty-five doilars ($2,625.00) over the amount of interest that would have been paid on six per cent, bonds if sold as originally proposed. It demonstrates the excellent financial standing of our city, and keeps us on the five per cent. line, to have exceeded which, after once attaining it, would have been a

Considering the short time the bonds have to run, making them undesirable to large investors, it is the most successful financial transaction we have ever made. There was never any question as to our ability to float a twenty-year five per cent, bond to good advantage, but the principal and interest of such bonds would have amounted to one hundred thousand dollars, while the total payment for the loan as made will be only sixty-three thousand five hundred dol pars ($68,500.)

I think the result justifies the wisdom of insisting upon a short loan, and its gradual payment within ten years. The benefits accruing from the original expenditure of the money having been enjoyed by the present generation, it seems fair that they should pay the debt by a temporary increase only of our bonded liabilities.

Mr. Yates moved that a vote of thanks be tendered the chairman of the Board for the part taken by him in funding the floating debt.

Mr. McQueen seconded the motion, and it was adopted unanimously. The clerk of the Board was directed to notify the Committee on Public Buildings that no lease or bond of the lessee of the Opera House had been submitted to the Board of Audit and Finance for approval. Bills were audited and approved as follows: For current expenses, $649.78; for refunded taxes, $1.65.

The Board adjourned subject to the call of the chairman.

WHOLE NO. 8,778 INCENDIARY FIRE.

Blaze at . Fore & Foster's Mill-Lumber and Sheds Burned-Loss Hetimated at $1,500-No Insurance.

Fire broke out about 11 o'clock last night at Messrs. Fore & Foster's lumber mills, on the block bounded by Sixth and Seventh and Red Cross and Campbell streets. The fire is supposed to have been the work of an incendiary. It was discovered in a lumber shed on the Seventh street side of the mill yard, and spread rapidly, the flames communicating to the stables in which there were four horses and two mules. One of the horses, belonging to Sampson Iselin. colored, was burned with the building. The other animals were saved. The Fire Department turned out promptly in response to the alarm and prevented the further progress of the flames; the mill employes with fire-hose rendering efficient service. The loss on lumber and sheds burned is estimated at $1,500; no insurance. The saw and planeing mill were not endangered.

CAROLINA MUTUAL Fire Insurance Company, of Charlotte, N. C. The CAROLINA MUTUAL is a strong NORTH CAROLINA Company. It is, however, a stock company, and issues absolutely non-participating and non-assessable policies. Its mutual feature consists in a charter provision, that one-third of its directors must be POLICY-HOLDERS who are NOT stockholders elected by the POLICY-HOLDERS; this is a very strong point, the policy-holders who have great interests at stake, have a share in the management of the Company. and will always know its condition. Better than this, the CAROLINA MUTUAL deposits all premiums received at this agency to their credit with the WILMINGTON SAVINGS

Of Clarkson & Duls, Att'ys-at-Law.

These gentlemen stand among the wealthiest and most successful business men of North Carolina, and their names are a guarantee of the Company's honesty, conservatism and success. We heartily recommend the Company to the property owners of Wilmington. We also represent other good companies, and do a general insurance business. Come to see us.
