CITY MARKETS

Pretty Well Stocked With Everything in Season at Reasonable Prices.

The Wilmington markets are pretty well stocked just now with everything that grows in the neighborhood at this season in the way of vegetables and fruits. There is a very good variety of fish to be had, poultry is plenty, though not especially fine, and the meat markets offer a fair lot of excellent beef, amb. yeal and pork.; Cantaloupes are scarce. The crop is late. A few have appeared in market Green & Co., medicines; Jas. C. The election of Judge for the Criminal Court was not by joint ballot. Starbuck decided in the Stamford-Ellington case that where there was no quorum there was no election. Can he be removed? The fact stands that he did not received a majority.

Death of M. Sam'l S. Burtt, Mr. Samuel S. Burtt, an aged and respected citizen of Wilmington, died vesterday morning at his residence in this city, in the 81st year of his age. He leaves a wife and two sons-Mr. S. A. Burtt, cashier of the Standard Oil Co. here, and Mr. L. R. Burtt, of Love-were entertained by Mayor Fishblate. Toasts were given and responded to by gentlemen present, and in response to a toast by Mayor Fishblate, Mr. McAdoo said he was much pleased with the appearance of the naval militia, and not at all surprised at their excellent showing, knowing as he did the exceedingly able gentleman who was at their head, eminently qualified as that gentleman was in a professional way. The naval militia of the country was as yet somewhat in an evolutionary state. To what degree of proficiency they would yet attain, and what would be found to be the most practicable field for them as an auxiliary naval force, would be hard to say. They certainly were a most excellent element and powerful factor to the national

They are primarily a State organiza tion, and anything done for them by the State would certainly meet with great returns in the State having the very best of military organizations to uphold its domestic peace and dignity, and be in time of war an invincible shield to its coast. The North Carolina militia are second to none in intelligence, patriotism and enthusiasm, and any young man will be a better citizen and a better man by the military training and habits of obedience taught in such an organization. The Navy Department are in hearty accord with the organization, as they knew well the splendid military personnel of the old Commonwealth. I bespeak for them good local support. They do 'good honest, hard work, and deserve encouragement. With a small sum at the command of the Department we have to look after about 3,000 men in this great country, and therefore local support is essential.

This country, the richest in the world, has over 12,000 miles of nearly undefended seacoast, and to its defence this militia can be of the greatest aid. These organizations are being supplied with the very best and most powerful military weapons, and in this age 100 well armed disciplined men are equal to 1,000 ill armed or poorly disciplined ones, however brave the latter may be. Mr. McAdoo said he was much impressed with the fine business activity of Wilmington, its great geographical advantages and its pleasant and progressive aspect, and deeply thankful for the many courtesies and kindnesses extended to him while here.

Commander Winslow, in replying to Mr. McAdoo's remarks, stated that all present knew, of course, that the Naval Battalion of the State was part of the State Guard; that primarily its services were at the command of the State in exactly the same way as any other organization of the Guard. That aside from that duty his general idea had been to develop so far as possible the defence of what was generally considered important strategic points. That the United M. P. PEGRAM. Grist and Sawmill Burned - Fruit Trees and Grapsvines Destroyed.

[Special Star Telegram.] RALEIGH, N. C, June 22.-Kelly's grist and sawmill, near New Hill, Chatham county, was destroyed by fire this week. About 150 trees and many grapevines in the orchard of W. J. Olive, U. S. deputy collector, residing near New Hill, were destroyed by cutting bark from them. The neighborhood is pretty certain that the work was done by moonshiners. Several were up in the last Federal Court. Kelly and Olive were instrumental in breaking up a number of distilleries. It is known that moonshiners have made threats against them. The community is indignant. Jap Johnson, the notorious moonshiner, who was arrested recently and who is under $500 bond, lives in the community and 1s suspected.

DIED. S. S. BURTT-On the morning of June 22nd, a 5:30 o'clock, aged 80 years. Funeral from First Baptist church at 9 o'clock Sun lay morning, thence to Oakdale cemetery.
