Game Between High Point and Wilmington-Won by the Visitors-A Good Game-Large Attendance-Will Play Again To-day.

A large number of people went to the Hammocks yesterday on the 8 o'clock train to see the game of ball between High Point and Wilmington teams. It resulted in a score of ten to two in favor of the visiting club. The game was close and good playing was had up to the 5th inning, the score standing two to one, but Pearsall, the pitcher, was taken sick and retired, and the visiting club then had easy work of it and batted the ball to all parts of the field.

The High Point team has four players from the Oak Ridge team and four from the Guilford college team. They know work is immense. Delano, Jones, Belden and Zellers were "up to date" at the bat. Furlong, Belden and Zellers made some excellent plays. Pearsall's pitching was throughout the game the score would probably have been changed. Bailey, Jones and Strayhorn deserve special mention. Ragsdale's phenomenal stop at short was applauded.

The teams were as follows: Wilmington-Dahlgren, catch; Pearsall, pitch; Furlong, first base; Belden, second base; Stevens, third base; Bray, short stop; Zellars, left field; French, centre field; Delano, right field; Roberts and Rankin, substitutes. High Point-King, catch; Strayhorn, pitch; Armfield, first base; Watson, second base; Bailey, third base; Ragsdale, short stop; Ford, left field; Jones, centre field; Barbee, right field; Davis and Hoosier, substitutes.

They will play again this afternoon on the Hammocks, when the home team will be strengthened by a professional Wilmington's team to-day will be Oldham, catch; Wilson, pitch; Furlong, first base; Belden, second base; Johnson, third base; Bray, short stop; Zellars, left field; Rankin, centre field; French, right field. Substitutes, Roberts, Pearsall and Oldham and Wilson, from Louisville, Ky., will arrive at 10 a.m. The game will begin at 4 p. m.

RALEIGH HAPPENINGS.

Accident Near Durham. [Special Star Telegram.] RALEIGH, N. C., June 26. Dr. J. L. Carroll, of Chapel Hill, a prominent Baptist divine, died at that place to-day. He will be buried in Asheville to-morrow. The health report for the past two years appeared to-day. It makes a very creditable showing, only three per cent.

Miss Caroline Litchford was quietly married here to-day to Dr. Francis Atherton Macon, a prominent dentist of Henderson. A party here to-day tells of a remarkable and distressing accident at a station beyond Durham on the Lynchburg and Durham road. Just before the train rolled up lightning struck a carriage, splintering it, killing the driver and mule and seriously burning a young lady and gentleman on the rear seat. The escape from death was a miracle.

Though the dead horse has been removed from Raleigh's watershed, a fearful odor remains. The Superintendent of the Water Company is being roundly abused.

A movement is on foot to increase the membership of the Chamber of Commerce of Wilmington, with a view to the advancement of the interests of the city, to show to the outside world its advantages as a scaport and its growing commercial importance. GOLDEN WEDDING.

Fiftieth Anniversary of the Marriage of Mr. and Mrs. B. G. Worth-A Memorable Occasion-Gathering of Their Children and Grand-Children-Congratulatory Address from the Session of the First Presbyterian Church.

The fiftieth anniversary of the marriage of Mr. and Mrs. B. G. Worth was celebrated yesterday by a family reunion-a gathering of their children and grandchildren-at the residence on North Second street. There were present upon this memorable occasion. Mr. and Mrs. George R. French, Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Herring and child, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Worth, Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Woodward and family, of Wilmington; Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Weller and family, of Cincinnati, Ohio; Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Worth and family, of Creskill, the ball game thoroughly and their team | N. J.; Mr. and Mrs. Joseph B. Worth and family, of Petersburg, Va. Only two of the grandchildren were absent. Last evening, many of the friends of the family, including the elders of the faultless, and if he had remained First Presbyterian Church, called at the residence to extend their congratulations, when the following address from the session of the church was presented,

> WILMINGTON, N. C., June 26. Mr. and Mrs. B. G. Worth, Beloved of the Lord: The Session of the First Presbyterian Church of Wilmington, N. C., presents its loving greetings to you on this the golden anniversary of your wedding day. For half a century God has spared you to walk together in married love. For nearly the whole of this time you have been united in the service of the Lord lesus Christ, and thus the holiest of human relations has been made more sacred and more blessed by the Divine love and communion in the Divine life. Durng this period you have seen your children and grandchildren grow up around vou. All of your children you have seen enter the service of Christ and take positions of usefulness in the world. A number of your grandchildren have already witnessed a good confession, and others-presented to the Lord in their infancy — give promise of early piety. More remarkable still in a world of death and sorrow, there has never been a break in the widening circle in all those years, and with the single exception of one detained in a distant State, all are here to greet you, or to be greeted by you, on this auspicious day.

Our faith would be slow and unresponsive indeed, if we failed to connect these signal manifestations of God's mercy with the godly and useful lives that by His grace you have led in the world. While all of God's servants pass through affliction in some form-and you have not been exempt-and while many of his chosen are, in His wisdom, called to experience these bereavements that you have been spared. God's word and promise show that even in this life He delights to honor and bless the righteous. When we consider your long life we remember the promise : "He that dwelleth in the secret place of the Most High shall abide under the shadow of the Almighty. With long life will I satisfy him, and show him My salvation." (Ps. cxi: 1, 16.) When we see your children and grandchildren about you, we are reminded that "children are an heritage of the Lord; as arrows in the hand of a mighty man, so are children of the youth; happy is the man that hath his quiver full of them." (Ps. cxxvii: 8-5). When we see the peace and prosperity that crown your latter days we recall the admonition: 'Mark the perfect man, and behold the upright; for the end of that man is peace." (Ps. xxxviii: 87) And when we behold the honored place that you, our senior elder, hold in the Church and the community, and your continued and abounding usefulness in the service of God and man, we remember the promise "they shall still bring forth fruit in old age," (Ps. xcii:14), while to the dear partner of your life is given the harder but not less honorable lot of "bringing forth fruit with patience." until patience has had "her perfect work."

(Luke viii:15; James 1-4). In the name of our adorable Lord, we greet you on this day, and pray that God's richest benediction may abide upon you and yours, until all are gathered together in the eternal reunion in our Father's House. PEYTON H. HOGE, [Signed] A. A. WILLARD, C. H. ROBINSON, JOHN MCLAURIN, SAMUEL NORTHROP B. F. HALL, JOHN D. TAYLOR, D. G. WORTH.

A Trip Down the River. About three hundred of the Charlotte excursionists left vesterday morning on the steamer Wilmington for a trip to the sea shore, the occasion being an excursion under the auspices of the Second Regiment Band of Charlotte. On the way down different points of historic interest were shown the visitors. Some of the party stopped at Carolina Beach, the others going to Southport and twen-

Swift Davis, acting Captain, pending court-martial proceedings against Capt. THE

CAROLINA MUTUAL

Fire Insurance Company,

of Charlotte, N. C.

The CAROLINA MUTUAL is a strong NORTH CAROLINA Company. It is, however, a stock company, and issues absolutely non-participating and non-assessable policies. Its mutual feature consists in a charter provision, that one-third of its directors must be POLICY-

HOLDERS who are NOT stockholders elected by the POLICY-

HOLDERS; this is a very strong point, the policy-holders who have great interests at stake, have a share in the management of the Company, and will always know its condition.

Bet er than this, the CAROLINA

MUTUAL deposits all premiums received at this agency to their credit with the WILMINGTON SAVINGS

AND TRUST COMPANY. This makes it practically a local company.

The directors of the company are:

Of E. B. Springs & Co.,

E. B. SPRINGS,

B. D. HEATH,

These gentlemen stand among the wealthiest and most successful business men of North Carolina, and their names are a guarantee of the Company's honesty, conservatism and success. We heartily recommend the Company to the property owners of Wilmington. We
