N. C. PRESS ASSOCIATION: In Session at Greensboro—Officers elected—Will Visit Mecklenburg City To-day.

GREENSBORO, N. C., July 18.—Matters of interest to State newspapers were discussed to-day by the Press Association. The annual election of officers resulted as follows: President, C. L. Stevens; Vice Presidents, W. Marshall, Gastonia Gazette; W. W. McDiarmid, Lumberton Robinsonian and Editor Jacobson Washington Progress; Secretary, J. B. Sherrill; Orator, W. C. Dowd, of the Charlotte News; Poet, Hal W. Ayer, of the Caucasian; Historian, Editor Kernode, Graham Gleaner.

THE PRESIDENT OF THE SWISS REPUBLIC has a nice little job on hand. He has been chosen arbitrator by Brazil and France in the dispute about the ownership of Amapa. The boundary line has been a subject of contention for 300 years. Unless real estate is very valuable down here it might have been settled long before this.

Ghosts seem to be credible witnesses in Indiana, where friends are now circulating a petition for the pardon of a young man sentenced to the penitentiary for the murder of another young man, the story being that the ghost of the slain man appeared to his mother and told who did the killing. The accused was arrested and convicted. The Indiana jury couldn't understand why the ghost should come back and lie about it, and as the veracity of the ghost was unquestioned it stood unimpeded. If all ghosts were as thoughtful and accommodating as this one was, it would save the detectives a good deal of perplexity and nosing around, and clear up a great many mysteries that they never catch on to.

Some one who called on Governor Atkinson, of Georgia, found him reading the anti-obituaries which appeared in the papers during his late illness, and his conclusion was that the Georgians "liked him a great deal better dead than alive." It isn't every man who enjoys the privilege of finding out what people think of him after he is dead.

A German statesman who has been studying up the Friday unlucky day business comes to the rescue of Friday and shows that Monday is the unlucky day. Now you can go fishing on Friday, if you want to, and feel comfortable.

Colored Bell Boys Advance. Wilmington's colored team, Schenk's Black Stockings, defeated the Red Stockings of Newbern, yesterday afternoon at Hilton Park, by a score of nineteen to four. It was a very good game; and the Wilmington team was far superior in batting.

LOCAL DOTS: Items of interest gathered here and there and briefly noted.

Local forecast for to-day: Fair, light variable winds.

—Capt. Black of the steamer Lisbon reports the water in Black River rising.

—The Second Regiment Band, of Charlotte, having exhausted its wind, has disbanded.

—There was 5.7 feet water in the river at Fayetteville Wednesday at 8 a. m.; a rise of about 2 inches since previous report.

—Our Raleigh letter did not come to hand. The Southern train from Raleigh was too late to make connection at Goldsboro.

—It was real nice in Judge Timberlake to reduce the fine of $10,000 and costs imposed on the Raleigh Water Works to "one penny and costs."

—The steamer Frank Sessions brought a party of colored excursionists to the city yesterday. They visited the seashore and left for home last evening.

—Mr. Isaac M. Bear will occupy the store on Front street next north of Mr. J. C. Munde's pharmacy, where he will open a new stock of dry goods on or before October 1st.

—There will be a game of base ball at the Hammocks this afternoon, played by Wilmington team No. 2 and the Wrightsville club. The game will be called at 4.30 o'clock.

—There will be music for dancing by a string band, at Carolina Beach this afternoon and evening. The steamer Wilmington will make the return trip to the city, leaving the Beach at 9.30 o'clock.

—Senator Morgan delivered an able speech in favor of free colnidge at the Griffin convention yesterday. The STAR received an advance copy by mail, but, if printed in full, it would occupy about 2 1/2 pages of the STAR.

—How fortunate for Wilmington that Dr. Maynard was not permitted to remain in charge of the quarantine station at Southport. It may be doubted if he knows the difference between a case of yellow fever and one of appendicitis.

—Rev. M. A. Adams, pastor of the Baptist church at Reidsville, N. C., is holding a series of interesting meetings in the Southside Baptist church, corner Fifth and Wooster streets. The services this morning will begin at 8.15 o'clock.

This programme will occupy until August 8th after which she will sail to New York to join the North Atlantic squadron.

The Board of Audit and Finance and chairman of committees of the Board of Aldermen met in conference yesterday to consider the tax levy for 1895. An agreement was reached and the tax ordinance will be prepared and submitted to the Board of Aldermen at their next meeting. The tax on real estate and personal property, it is said, will be 1 1/2 cents on the $100 valuation.

MARRIAGE IN BRUNSWICK: Miss Lillian Sanders Johnson and Rev. Lowndes Walthour Curtis.

An occasion of unique interest was the marriage of Rev. Lowndes Walthour Curtis to Miss Lillian Sanders Johnson, on Wednesday, July 17, at 5 o'clock, at New Hope Presbyterian Church. The groom has been popular and beloved in the community for the three years in which he has ministered there in his Summer vacation. The bride was the lovely daughter of Mr. Jackson Johnson, through whose efforts the church was organized and erected, and she has herself been the life of every movement for the welfare of the church and the good of the community. Her beautiful character and unselfish life, her refined and cultivated mind and attractive person, made her one in whose happiness the whole community rejoiced; but whose departure to a distant land they cannot but lament.

This was the first marriage in the new church, and loving hands had made the pretty interior yet prettier by decorations of palm-trees and other evergreens. Long before the appointed hour the church was filled, and several drove their vehicles up to the windows, making an impromptu extension of its seating capacity. While Miss Julia Harris, of Wilmington, played the Wedding March, from Lohengrin, the ushers, Messrs. Daniel Johnson, Wm. Sanders, Edward Taylor and Foster Pridden, proceeded up the aisle, followed by two little girls, Alice Johnson and Alice Pridden, scattering roses. They were followed by the maid of honor, Miss Kate Johnson, who preceded the bride, leaning on her father's arm. Mr. Curtis approached from the side with his best man, Mr. Edwin T. Huggins. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Peyton H. Hoge, D. D., assisted by Rev. A. D. McClure. An old fashioned country wedding was held at Winsabow, Mr. Johnson's home, where young and old enjoyed themselves to a late hour.

Mr. and Mrs. Curtis will leave next Tuesday for Nashville, Tenn., to visit his family, and will sail from New York on the steamship Mohawk, August 17th. Their journey will take them through the Mediterranean and the Suez Canal to India. And it may be five months before they reach the field of their labor in North Laos, Siam. Miss Johnson and Mr. Curtis had both directed their lives to missionary work before they were providentially thrown together. Their friends will follow them with their best wishes and prayers.

A chief tried to enter Mr. W. D. Huhn's residence, near the corner of Sixth and Queen streets Tuesday night, but was detected by Mr. Huhn and driven away.

Major C. W. McClammy, of Scott's Hill, was in the city yesterday and showed the STAR a sample of broom corn raised on his farm. This product has heretofore been grown in the West almost exclusively, and is a new article in this section. The stalk shown is fourteen feet, and the part used in the manufacture of brooms three feet in length, and of superior quality; better than the Western growth.

Mr. H. E. Bonitz is also in the business and has a crop of broom corn on his farm near Goldsboro.

The Maxton Chief says: "Mrs. Mildred Radcliffe, a charming young widow of Wilmington, who is making an extended visit to Mrs. W. B. Harker, on last Friday evening gave a delightful reception to a number of her most intimate friends. Music—instrumental and vocal, social converse and repartee, refreshments, etc., filled the evening full to overflowing. One of the very small hours saw the happy company separate for their homes. Mrs. Radcliffe entertains most charmingly."

The entertainment which will be given to-night by a class from the Oxford Orphan Asylum, will consist of music, singing and recitations by well trained performers, and it should be well patronized. It is hoped that there will be a good attendance and hearty encouragement given the children and the noble charity they represent. The price of admission is only 25 cents for adults and 15 cents for children.

All persons are hereby cautioned against buying copies of the STAR offered for sale on the streets unless, in every case, the words "For Transient Sale" are stamped on the margin of the paper. Should any newsboy or carrier offer for sale a copy of the STAR not so stamped he should be promptly reported at this office.

MORE GLARING ERRORS IN LAWS DISCOVERED.

The Railroad Commissioners in Session—Hearing Complaints in regard to Assessments. (Special Star Telegram.) RALPH, N. C., July 18.

Another glaring error has been discovered in the laws of the Douglas Memorial Association, in regard to the charter of the town of Columbus, chapter 854 Private Laws, 1895. After the usual form of charter has been printed, together with the ratifying clause, the proceedings of a town meeting are given in full, asking for the charter, the chairman, secretary and other officers of said meeting, what they did and said, and after authorizing Mr. Morris to draw up a charter, it goes on to say that the law, meeting and all were "ratified March 13th 1895." At the end of the index both of the Private and Public Laws there is a note saying that the present State printers took the work at page 113. That page in the Private Laws, as will be seen on inspection, is right at the middle of a long Act, while in the Public Laws, as mentioned above, it is found they took up the hunch-backed of Revenue Act. There are several columns of Justices of the Peace; one as certified by the Secretary of State and the other as corrected and printed by the State Printers.

There was a meeting of the Railroad Commissioners to-day for hearings in regard to assessments made on railroads. Mr. R. N. Page, Treasurer of the Aberdeen and West End Railroad, appeared before the Commission in regard to the assessments made upon that road, asking the Commission to reduce the same. The Commissioners took the matter under advisement. Major John D. Shaw, of Rockingham, again appeared before the Commission in behalf of the Seaboard system, asking a reduction for that line, which will also have the consideration of the Commission.

There is nothing about the movements of the men who are getting up this big championship glove contest to indicate that they are worried in the slightest degree over the manifesto of the Attorney-General of Texas, or the alleged uprising of the moral element of the Lone Star State against the project. On the contrary, Dan A. Stewart (he does not call himself Daniel), who is the prime mover in the scheme, and who is to take one-half of the entire profits or pay an equal proportion of the losses, is proceeding quietly with the details, apparently unmindful of the efforts of the State's legal adviser to throw cold water in his direction.

Dan Mitchell looks like a business man and acts like one, too. For six months he has been working on this fight. Before he visited New York the contract for the erection of a monster amphitheatre were completed, and he returned to Dallas with several railroad contracts in his pocket. Now the big thing is at hand, and he is getting on. Within a week offices will be opened in the big cities and bookings for seats may be made.

The estimates beyond a doubt that Dan Stewart is an up-to-date manager. Madison Square Garden is a pretty big place, but the Dan Stewart Building, if the architects plan as faithfully carried out, will seat ten times as many persons as can be accommodated in the New York amphitheatre. Dan Stewart does not call himself Daniel. It would take 55,618 customers to bring this about. He believes, however, in being fully prepared for a rush.

As Dan Mitchell has been lipped up as the price of the cheapest seats. The next come at $20, and the boxes are $40, unless there is a mark-down sale. If the seats should all be sold the gross receipts amount to the neat sum of $1,295,244.94, without counting Mr. "One Eyed" Connelly's own contribution. This is a trifle more than Mme. Patti ever realized from a single concert. Dan Stewart is not a dreamer, however. He'll be satisfied if 8,000 sports buy tickets.

RAIDS UPON RESIDENCES IN THE CITY LEFT VACANT BY FAMILIES SOJOURNING AT THE SEASIDE ARE REPORTED. The residences of Messrs. B. R. Rankin, T. C. DeRosset, F. N. Lippitt and Norwood Giles were entered Tuesday night, and a few small articles were taken from each. The residence of Mr. C. W. Polvoigt on Princess street was also visited, and the furniture in several of the rooms was overturned and thrown about.

A chief tried to enter Mr. W. D. Huhn's residence, near the corner of Sixth and Queen streets Tuesday night, but was detected by Mr. Huhn and driven away.
