A U. S. Inspector in Alaska has just made a 4,000 mile trip with Williams, Burgaw; I. J. Kelly, Mount nothing but a canoe and a dog-sled. He did it in a little over six months.

It is said that the Hawaiians may talk for twenty-four hours without really saying anything. What a daisy language the Hawaiian would be for diplomats.

Mr. Corbett says he has invented a new punch, which he has dubbed the "rib roaster," with which we suppose he proposes to make it hot for the other fellow. Last year the Indians in this country raised 1,722,556 bushels of wheat, 1,373,230 bushels of corn and lots of other truck. That's better than rais-give the public some first-class games ing hades and scalps. before the season closes. THE SOUTHERN'S DEEP WATER TER-MINUS. People Hunting for Revolutionary Ancestors

-Mayor Russ to Have a Census of Raleigh Taken-Big Populist Rally in Concord-Important Cases to be Tried at Court in Green County.

[Star Correspondence]

RALEIGH, N. C., Aug. 11. Manager Meares, of the Academy of Music, has given out the list of attractions which have been booked to appear at the Academy during the season. Among the number is to be found Stewart Robinson, Robert Mantell, Modieska, "Princess Bonne," Walter L. Kennedy the "Sampson," Preston Clarke, and a number of others very well known.

There is no doubt about the fact of the determination of the officials of the way in reaching their deep water ter-Y. V. R. R. will sell tickets at the rate minus at Norfolk. It will not be many days before the road is relaid with heavier steel rails. Even though there s some uncertainty about the prospect of re-leasing the North Carolina road by the Southern, the latter named will utilize the road as one of their main lines. The reasons are many and obvious as to why they should continue to control it. I learn from a good source that as soon as the freight traffic is turned this way (which will be in a short while, as the Southern wants to compete with the Seaboard when the cotton shipping season begins anew, that new vestibule trains will be put on between Greensboro and Norfolk. This will be done about the time the Exposition opens in Atlanta.

Mayor Russ is contemplating taking a census of Raleigh with the police force n September. It can be do: e at comparatively little cost to the city. Senator Butler is in the city. He leaves this afternoon to be present at the big Populist rally in Concord. Senator Tillman will be on hand. It is significant to note that Senator Butler passes right by the State Alliance meeting to attend a political "meet." Sheriff Page has returned from Buffalo Lithia Springs, much improved to-day to attend court in that county. There is a big fight on hand between the county officers who are Democrats and the Fusion candidates for election, who failed .- The Fusion candidates are seeking to get control of the offices on the ground that fraud was in the election last Fall. The Atlantic Coast Line settled its taxes with the State Treasurer to-day. Their check amounted to $16,646.06. It is quite the "fad" now to trace up one's revolutionary ancestors, as well as Mexican war veterans, who served in the army. As a consequence, the Adjutant General's office is being flooded with letters. Major Hayes terms the headquarters now the "Bureau of Revolutionary Information." Letters are received daily, many of them coming from all parts of the republic. The revolutionary records are incomplete. all records of the State troops having been carried away, presumably when Sherman's army passed through. There is a complete list of the commissioned officers of the State troops, however, who were in the Continental line, Capt. E. V. White is coming this way n October, and he wishes to lecture at oints in the State on the "Virginia engagement in Hampton Roads in 1869. Captain White is well recommended, and was a participant in the conflict.

A HOT WAVE.

That's What is Predicted and Statements Seem to Agres. Weather Forecaster Dunn, of New York, according to the World, predicts exremely warm weather for the months of August and September, and Mr. Hicks, of Almanac fame, rather agrees with him. So, between the two, the people of this portion of the world will have about all they can attend to. The New York World contains the following from Mr. Dunn: "Look out for the balance of this month and September." "They will be the warmest months of the year. Everything points to scorching weather from now on. I've staved it off as long as I could, but I can't do it any longer. No doubt there are many who imagine the hot season to be practically over because it has been cool so long, but, as I have said, let them now prepare for warmth."

t Is a Fat Place, The News and Courier, referring to the vacancy in the position of commissioner of the Southern Railway and Steamship Association, says:

"The friends of Col. Thomas H. Carter are still pushing his candidacy, but the situation has been greatly complicated within the last few days by the association of three new but very strong names with the place, those of J. M. Culp. of the Southern; C. S. Haines, of the Plant System, and T. M. Emerson. of the Atlantic Coast Line. There are probably not three better traffic men in he country than these gentlemen, but whether there is any authority for using their names in this connection is not known. It is very certain none of their respective lines would willingly part with them for this or any other purpose.'

CORBETT-FITZSIMMONS SCRAP.

What an Eye Witness, a Friend of Corbett, Says-Corbett Spat in Fitzsimmons' Face -It Looks Like a Put Up Job on Fitz-

[Baltimore Sun]

PHILADELPHIA, August 11.—Pugilist Fitzsimmons left for New York this morning and Pugilist Corbett went to Scranton to-night. During the six hours which elapsed between their meeting at Green's Hotel last night and Fitzsimmons' departure they kept out of the way of each other, and there was no more trouble. It is generally agreed that the whole affair was an exhibition of childishness on the part of both men, far more worthy of a pair of school boys than of men who are claimants for the leadership in the art of self-defence.

Mr. H. F. Foote, Jr., an employe of the Reading Railroad Company in this city, was one of those who saw the trouble from start to finish.

"Joe Corbett and I," said Mr. Foote, "were standing at the oyster counter in Green's about midnight last night, when we noticed Fitzsimmons, Forest and another man at the bar. Presently Fitzimmons walked over to the hotel desk and leaned on the counter as if to regster. Just then the door opened and Brady, McVey and some others came in from the cigar store. I saw James Corbett outside, and Joe, catching sight of nim at the same time, ran out to meet him. In a few seconds James came in and walked straight over to where Fitzsimmons still stood at the desk. Leanng on one elbow, Corbett put his face close to that of Fitzsimmons and said: Well, you are up to your old tricks again, I see. Been saying you would pull my nose and all that sort of thing, hear.

"'I don't know that I have,' replied itzsimmons; 'but what of it anyway?' "'Why, that's what of it,' retorted Corett, as he reached over and caught Fitzsimmons by the nose. The latter jerked away, giving Corbett a slight push with his left arm as he did so. Then Corbett deliberately leaned over and spat squarey in Fitzsimmons's face. Fitzsimmons packed away and for an instant stood looking at Corbett. Then he said in a low, sneering tone, with a strong accent on the first word:

'Gentleman Iim.' 'Oh, yes, Gentleman Jim.'

"'I don't think.' "'This shows how much of a gentle man vou are.' "Just at this point," continued Mr Foote, "Brady came running up, and Fitzsimmons sneered: "There's that nanager of yours. I guess you have your whole gang here." "Nothing more was said then by either men," added Mr. Foote, "and I think that would have been the end of it, but Forrest and Joe Corbett rushed up to take a hand. Then there was a general scrimmage, in which all hands, except im Corbett, took part. He stood as cool as a cucumber until the others had quieted down. Finally Fitzsimmons riends got him over to a table and he sat down, while Joe Corbett took up his osition at the oyster counter nearby, "'I can lick you, myself, you redheaded chump,' shouted Joe Corbett, after a minute or two, at the same time shaking his fist at Fitzsimmons. The latter jumped to his feet, and picking up a caraffe that stood beside him, fired i straight at Joe Corbett's head. The bottle struck Brady squarely in the chest, almost knocking him down, Fitzsimmons reached for another bottle, but Forrest caught him and his hand.

"At this time James Corbett stood eaning against the desk laughing with all his might. 'Look at the duffer,' he said, 'he is as white as a ghost. He's scared to death. I wouldn't be that scared and show it for a million of dol lars. I won't hurt you; don't be afraid. And he laughed and jeered again until Fitzsimmons looked as if he was about to throw something at the older brother too. He did not, however, contenting himself with sneeringly remarking as he glared at the champion :

"'You fat-head." "'You red-head,' was Corbett's reponse. The two then stood calling ach other names in a childish way Then both went out.'

Richmond Insurance War. The Richmond Times says: "The in surance war is still on, and there does not seem to be much prospect of its being settled in the near future. The cutting of rates by companies in the Southeastern Tariff Association would seem to indicate that the association is workng to crush out all opposition and an nihilate the business of the three local agencies and two local companies refusing to unite with and help maintain the compact. It is said that this has been the plan followed by the association in other Southern cities where opposition was manifested. And when insurers have accepted the tempting bait of unreasonably low rates for the being, and generally can-policies in companies opposed to the association's methods, of course it has triumphed, and reasserted its dominion. The opposition agencies report that up to this time but few of their policies have been cancelled, and they think the people will stand by them, and continue to pay reasonable rates, rather than help the Tariff Association to become master of the situation again It has been stated that the Tariff Association is prepared to lose $200,000 here, if necessary, to win the fight."

THE CAROLINA MUTUAL

WHOLE NO. 8,825

Fire Insurance Company, of Charlotte, N. C.

The CAROLINA MUTUAL is a trong NORTH CAROLINA Com pany. It is, however, a stock company, and issues absolutely non-participating and non-assessable policies. Its mutual feature consists in a charter provision, that one-third of its directors must be POLICY-HOLDERS who are NOT stockholders elected by the POLICY HOLDERS; this is a very strong point, the policy-holders who have great interests at stake, have a share in the management of the Company, and will always know its condition. Bet'er than this, the CAROLINA MUTUAL deposits all premiums received at this agency to their credit with the WILMINGTON SAVINGS AND TRUST COMPANY. This makes it practically a local company. The directors of the company are:

P. M. BROWN. Of Brown, Weddington & Co., Wholesale Hardware. B. SPRINGS,

Of E. B. Springs & Co., Fertilizers and Wagons. M. P. PEGRAM. Cash'r First Nat'l Bank of Charlotte. D. HEATH,

Of Heath Brothers, Bankers. SAM'L E. WHITE. President Fort Mill Man'i'g Co." C. SUMMERVILLE, Lumber and Real Estate. T. ANTHONY, Wholesale Provisions and Grain. OHN W. MILLER, Real Estate and Cotton Broker. HERIOT CLARKSON, Of Clarkson & Duls, Att'ys-at-Law.

These gentlemen stand among the vealthiest and most successful business men of North Carolina, and their names are a guarantee of the Company's nonesty, conservatism and success. We heartily recommend the Company to the property owners of Wilmington. We also represent other good companies, and do a general insurance business. Come to see us.
