

Port timanac-October 1. Sun Riset. 5.54 A ...
Sun Sets. 5.44 P ½
Day's Length 11 h 49 m
High Water at Southport. 5.56 A M
High Water at Wilmington 7.43 A M

The Weather.

U S. DEP'T OF AGRICULTURE. ) WEATHER BUREAU, WILMINGTON, N.C., Oct. 1. M ampliogical data for yesterday T uperature: 8 a. m., 60°; 8 p. m., 60°; maximum, 69°; minimum, 58°; mean 64°. Rainfall for the day .00; rainfall for the month up to date, 4.46 FORECAST FOR TO-DAY. For North Carolina; Fair; northeasterly winds; slightly warmer in the in-

For South Carolina: Northeasterly winds; slightly warmer in northern por-

OUTLINES

Washington news-Secretary Herbert's departure for Alabama; Treasury receipts and expenditures; movements steamer Margaret, of the United States Plant line, sank; seventeen men and a your lady saved. - New York spots and futures market. -- Chicargo a daisy, but we are not disposed to grain and provision market. - Record of base ball games played yesterday. - Affairs in China-The government yields to the British ultimatum; Viceroy Liu degraded by Imperial decree; the American Commission will continue investigation of the outrages upon missionaries. — Earthquakes in the ocean off the coast of Africa. — Life insurance failure-The Valley Mutual, of Virginia, has assigned its assets to J. D. Clothier, trustee. -- Cuban independence-A rousing meeting held in the city of Chicago; many prominent men present: resolutions expressing sympathy with the insurgents, and call upon the United States to recognize them as beligerents -- Texas Legislature in favor of immediate passage of a law making prize fighting a felony. --

General Mahone, of Virginia, stricken with paralysis; his condition is serious. --- Death of Rev. Geo. W. Holland; President of Newburg College, yesterday. -- South Carolina Convention came near passing the woman's amendment to the Constitution. --New York market .: Money on call yesterday was easy at 11/02 per cent .: cotton quiet-middling gulf 9%c; middling 81/c: Southern flour quiet and firm-common to fair extra $2.00@ 2.70; good to choice $2.80@3 10; wheat -spot firmer and more active; No. 2 red in store and at elevator 66%c; affoat 67%c; corn-spot easy, more active: No. 2 at elevator 87% @88c; affoat 88% @89c; spiri's turpentine -; rosin, $1.45@150c; strained-common to good $1.45@1.50.

Tom. Reed and Hon. Stephen G. Elkins have gone into the bark business. They barked their shins tumbling from their bicycles.

The Bank of England had one note outstanding for 111 years. It was originally for $125, but with compound interest it footed up $30,000.

If there was a duty on imported c'estnuts the antiquated jokes that Hon. Chauncey Depew brings back with him from Europe would cost him something.

A French writer declares that three fourths of the dyspepsia in the world is caused by eating soups. This puts the soup gaters "in the soup," so to speak.

Krupp, the gun maker, of Germany, is called the gun king, but he is greater than the average king. He has put aside 1,000,000 marks as a fund for his workmen. These are all marks to his credit.

About 150 out of the 200 consular positions protected by the extension of the civil service rules, are held by Republicans, "Turn the rascals out" seems to have been in this instance, at least, a "barren ideality."

Politics and bees are causing a good deal of bad blood in Kentucky. The politicians are jumping on each other, and a regiment of bees lit on one of the politicians the other day and stung him up so that he died in a few days from blood poisoning. -

When meat is high, Cornelius Vanderbilt can go on an egg diet, He has 1,100 chickens and can count pretty safety on getting fresh eggs. In this he has the advantage of the his chances on getting eight out of a dozen, which were laid last year.

THE MORNING STAR

WILMINGTON, N. C., TUESDAY, OCTOBER 1, 1895.

as appeared in said paper of the pro-

ply, and with the sole intent, of giving the public the benefit of the court's pro-

Replying further, affiant says that he knows not what were the motives that induced the institution of this prosecution; that alone lies in the breast of the prosecutor Fishblate, and it may be as he alleges by him, that it is attributable to certain factional controversies and animosities of a political nature, but this affiant knows, and so asserts, that none of the editors are owners of the Dispatch, are either poli-

been a member of the Board of Aldermen-thus showing himself a man of great influence and popularity in the Affiant further says, that to move this a denial of justice to this defendant, entailing an expense upon him, which he

a very poor man, is wholly unable to sus-tain; that he has subpoenaed twenty-five witnesses, or more, who are now all, or nearly all, present, and the attendance of some of whom has already been a source of expense, and that it is impossible for him to secure their presence in any other county, and he begs the court to bear in mind that this removal

is asked for by the State, a most unusual request, in behalf of the chief executive officer of this city; and he finally alleges that he is informed and believes

R. K. BRYAN.

JOHN D. TAYLOR, C. S. C.

The State vs. R. K. Bryan, Jr., and .

the above entitled cause, after being

W. Meacham-Criminal Libe

This September 30th, 1895.

o'clock.

J. W. MEACHAM.
A. J. MARSHALL, Attorney.

After the reading of these affidavits to the Court, considerable time was spent in argument of counsel on all sides. The Court then overruled the motion and took a recess for dinner until 8.80

AFTFRNOON PROCEEDINGS.

pectant crowd of spectators at 8:30

The defendants, with their counsel,

were present, and His Honor Judge

Greene. At twelve minutes to 4 o'clock the Solicitor and counsel for the prosecution filed into the court room and took seats within the bar. The Court asked if counsel were ready to proceed.

fence, said that he regretted to announce home by the illness of his wife.

Mr. Strange, of counsel for the de-

Mr. Strange then made a motion that

Mr. S. H. Fishblate (who was present)

Solicitor Richardson then arose and be made prosecuting witness in the case.

said that it had been agreed by counsel,

and from what he had seen of the local political feeling, in this case he thought it would be impossible to secure a fair trial of the defendant and would submit in writing the reasons for his course. He then read from a paper in his hands as I have examined an affidavit of the delendant Bryan offered and introduced case. In it he swears that at the time of the publication of the alleged libel in with the local department of the paper,

way as manager or part owner of the paper, but that he was only its editorial writer. The State may not, therefore, advised and satisfied, that he was only a

The court room was filled with an ex-

ast election

fendant.

community.

tember, 1895.

duly sworn, says:

The Neapolitan milkman doesn't PERSONAL PARAGRAPHS carry milk to his customers, but drives the cow around and milks as much as his customers want. This is under pretence of assuring them that they get sure enough milk, but it is a bald-faced imposition on the cow, for the Neapolitan is too lazy to carry the milk, and takes this pretext to make the cow do it. It would be just like him to make her do the

VOL. LVII.-NO. 8.

churning for him, if he made butter. Spanish loyalists in Cuba are said to be threatening that when Spain has done up the Cubans, she will, with the 200,000 soldiers she will have in Cuba, take a whack at this country for the sympathy shown the Cubans. They should make these remarks loud enough to be heard, and have them officially sanctioned, and the job of effectually quashing the insurrection over here might become a much more interesting Russia now owns the fastest torpedo boat on the waters, the "Sokol, lately turned out from an English ship yard. It is 190 feet long, 181 beam and is propelled by two engines of about 4,000 horse power. On a trial race of three hours she made 293 knots an hour, and one mile it made a speed of 32 knots, equal to about 37 miles an hour. A craft that can reel off knots that fast is not to be fooled with. A Vienna professor believes in tobacco smoking as a protection against diphtheria and other throat affected by these diseases than non-28. We have heard a diphtheria terday. treater of considerable experience say that he never knew a tobacco chewer to have the diphtheria. Ex Gover Flower, of New York, appears in the role of a prophet and predicts a majority of 50,000 for the Democrats in November. Flower is think, at this writing, that he is a daisy prophet. Our opinion is that the Democrats would be willing to knock off at least one of the ciphers.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS

D. L. GORE-Seed rust oats, W. B. COOPER-Mackeral.

NEW BUSINESS LOCALS. WANTED-First-class cook.

LOCAL DOTS Items of Interest Gathered Here and There and Briefly Noted.

- Local forecast for to-day: Fair cooler; light, variable winds.

-Steamtug William, bound North, put in at Southport yesterday for a har-

- Revs. Quattlebaum and Taylor, revivalists, are holding tent meetings in Wilson, N. C.

- The mercury was falling steadly last night. Many persons thought it would be "cold enough for frost" this morning.

- The stage of water in the river at Fayetteville yesterday at 8 a. m. was 18 feet. No change in the previous wenty-four hours. - The bicycle parade is booming; new names coming in daily. Mr. Matt. P. Taylor, Jr., received four new wheels yesterday for the Postal Telegraph

- Gen. Toon's sketch of the Twentieth Regiment, the first installament of which appeared in the STAR of last Sunday, will be concluded next

- Messrs, Katz & Polvogt commenced last night to move into the building, No. 9 North Front street. They will open this morning in their new quarters ready for business.

- For the annual conference of the Blue Ridge M. E. Church at Clyde, N. C., October 9, the C. F. & Y. V. Railroad will sell -round trip tickets at reduced rates. From Wilmington, $16; Maxton and Fayetteville, $18.

- There are just as many people looking for houses to rent this year as ever. If you have a vacant house to rent advertise it in the STAR'S Business Locals. Only one cent a word. But no advertisement taken for less than 20

A serious affray occurred last night, about 11 o'clock, in Meginney's Hall, on the southeast corner of Second and Market streets, in which one Son Collins inflicted some paintul wounds upon Adolphus Thomas and John Faison with a weapon commonly known as a black jack. All are colored. They were arrested by Officer H, R. Kuhl.

Encyclopædia Britannica. The STAR Britannica Department is still filling orders for the Encyclopædia Britannica. This is the latest and best edition of this great work. Issued in 25 volumes, bound in cloth or sheep. For full particulars read announcement on hird page, or inquire at the STAR office.

Housekeepers who want servants are in the habit of supplying their needs from the STAR's want column. Are you looking for a situation? The STAR's want column will bring you the best results. One cent a word. But no ad. taken for less than 20 cents. President M. M. Lemmond of the Southern Business College of Asheville, man who buys store eggs and takes N.C. offers free R.R. to the Atlanta Exposition and return to all students Exposition of the Carolinas will be held who enter on the cash scholarship plan at Maxton October 30th and 31st and Pertinent Paragraphs Pertaining Principally to People and Pointedly Printed.

- Mr. Oscar Hinton is out after a short spell of sickness. - Dr. J. H. Dreher is reported sick and confided to his home. - Train master ]. C. Higgins, of Rocky Mount, is here on business. - Mr. J. W. Ragsdale, of Timmonsville, S. C., is here visiting old - Mr. J. H. Maxwell, of the Columbus News, was a visitor in the city unter" of Marlville, was a visitor at the STAR office yesterday.

- Miss Lena Sparkman, of Rocky Point, is visiting Misses Mary and Henrietta Shepard, of this city. - Mr. Joe. P. Whitehead, of Rocky Mount, formerly with the A. C.

L. in this city, is here on a visit. -Mrs. E. A. Silva, after spending the Summer with relatives near Burgaw, has returned to the city.

- Miss Katie Stotler will open St. Matthew's Parochial school on next Monday, next door to the church.

- Mrs. White, Mr. Phelps, Misses Annie and Letta Thompson, of Southport, left yesterday for Annapolis, Md. - Mr. Edward R. Wooten, the chief train dispatcher for the A. C. L. has returned from an extended visit through the South and West. He took

in the Atlanta Exposition. - Messrs. John K. Stout, Durham; A. W. Bell, H. Bowden, Warsaw; T. I. Hall, Wallace; S. V. Scott, Hub; diseases. Smokers, he says, are less | Clif Cohen, Clinton, E. A. Muse, F. B. Lewis, N. C.; L. L. McNair, Laurel Hill, smokers, in the proportion of 1 to were among the arrivals in the city yes-

BY RIVER AND RAIL.

Receipts of Naval Stores and Cotton Yesterday. Wilmington & Weldon R. R .- - 424 bales cotton, 9 casks spirits turpentine, 56 bbls rosin, 8 bbls tar, 8 bbls crude turpen-

Wilmington, Columbia & Augusta R. R.-1,381 bales cotton, 12 casks spirits turpentine, 8 bbls rosin, 47 bbls tar, 8 bbls crude turpentine. Carolina Central R. R.-232 bales cot-

Cape Fear & Yadkin Valley R. R .-18 bales cotton, 70 bbls rosin. Steamer A. P. Hurt-35 casks spirits turpentine, 5 bbls rosin, 9 bbls tar.

Schooner William-45 casks spirits turpentine, 151 bbls rosin. Total receipts-Cotton, 2,055 bales; spirits turpentine, 101 casks; rosin, 285 bbls; tar, 64 bbls; crude turpentine, 16

Cotton Notes. Receipts of cotton here vesterday 3,055 bales; same day last year 1,661.

Spot cotton closed quiet in New York at 91%c for middling; closed firm in Wilmington at 81/c, bid. The Bureau reports very little rain Sunday in the cotton belt, the most rain being in the Augusta and Savannah dis-

Killing frost in the Northwest and light frost as far South as Tennessee. The British steamship Oceana arrived vesterday to load cotton at the Champion Compress.

Funeral of the Late Mrs. Mitchell. Funeral services over the remains of the lamented Mrs. Louisa Arthur Mitchell were held Sunday afternoon at the residence by Rev. F. N. Skinner, rector of St. Paul's Episcopal Church The remains were followed to their last resting place in Oakdale cemetery by a large concourse of sorrowing relatives and friends. The pall bearers were Messrs, L. S. Belden, J. E. Crow, W. A. Williams, G. P. Kidder, J. G. Swann, J. C. Munds, Capt. J. I. Metts and Capt. John Cowan.

A Span of Life. A small audience greeted a "Span o Life" at the Opera House last night The show throughout was like a dime novel illustrated. The blood and thunder part elicited much applause from the galleries, but the opera-going public couldn't withhold from ridicule. It is useless to define the characters, as they were all poor. The scenery was shoved on the audience to shield the weakness of the troupe, but didn't suffice, although admired.

Foot Ball Club. The Wilmington foot ball team were

out for practice last night. The club had quite a number of applicants for positions on the team. The eleven has not yet been chosen, the boys needing additional men to practice with. They hope to see at least twenty-two "leather lunged pieces of humanity" at the next practice, on the lawn in rear of the W. L. I. armory, Wednesday night. Hereafter they will practice every Monday, Wednesday and Friday.

One Cent a Word, "Business Locals" department will be charged one cent per word for each insertion; but no advertisement, however short, will be taken for less than 20 cents,

This is a reduction from former rates and it is also a convenience to advertisers, who can calculate the exact cost of their advertisements, which must be paid for always in advance. Ten Years in the Penitentiary.

Babe Evans and Ed Bird alias Ben Brown (both colored) charged with burglary, submitted to a verdict of burglary in the second degree in the Superior Court yesterday morning and were sentenced by Judge Greene to ten years imprisonment in the State penitentiary.

The sixth annual Fair of the Border Exposition of the Carolinas will be held November 1st.

THE DISPATCH LIBEL CASE.

ounsel For State Move For Removal-Defendants' Counsel Object - Motion Denied-Nol Pros. Entered by the State -Solicitor Gives Notice of Intention to Indic: Owners and Publishers of the Newspaper.

The first case called when court convened yesterday morning was the case of R. K. Bryan and J. W. Meacham, charged with criminal libel. The defendants were both in court with their counsel-C. P. Lockey, DuBrutz Cutlor, Jr., Col. T. W. Strange and Col. A. M. Waddell for Mr. Bryan and Mr. A. J. Marshall for Mr. Meacham, The State was represented by Solicitor Richardson, Marsden Bellamy, Sol. Weil and D. - Mr. J. C. Stanley, the "mighty | L. Russell. The defendants both plead not guilty. Judge Russell on behalf of the State made a motion for a change of venue, and offered the tollowing affidavit in support of his motion:

STATE OF NORTH CAROLINA, NEW HANOVER COUNTY, SUPERIOR COURT, SEPTEMBER TERM, 1895. State vs. J. W. Meacham and R. K.

S. H. Fishblate. being duly sworn, deposes and says: That he is the agfor which the said defendants are now indicted, was published, a copy bill of indictment; that this affiant does not believe that a fair and impartial trial of this case can be had in the county of New Hanover; that the defendants were. at the time of the publication, editors of a daily newspaper called the Evening Dispatch; that previous to and since said publication, the defendant Bryan has been engaged in circulating abusive and scurrilous articles against this affiant in his said newspaper; that about every day, for many weeks and months, he has published such articles for the purpose of defaming this affiant and of prejudicing him with the public and of creating a public prejudice against him; that this affiant is the Mayor of the city of Wilmington; that this defendant, Bryan, has almost every day published false and defamatory reports of the proceedings of the Mayor's Court, and wilfully and maliciously and falsely misrepresented the acts of the Mayor and the proceedings of the Court, and by every means in his power attempted by such publications to bring the Mayor and his Court into disrepute and public contempt; that the style of | that there is an element of truth in the tional sort, so made for the purpose of and his newspaper, and for the further purpose of creating prejudice with the public against the Mayor of the city; that the Mayor of the city has no newspaper at his command and has not been in any condition to make public replies to these defamations and has not attempted to do so, and the result is, that as this affi ant is informed and believes that many persons have been misled, and a public prejudice created to the extent at least sufficient to prevent the State from obcounty; that during the session of this court, since this bill of indictment was found, said defendant Bryan has been circulating, in his daily newspaper, and publishing false, prejudiced and partisan reports of the proceedings of the court and of the debates of the counsel, such publication being for the purpose and having the effect of prejudicing the community against this prosecution;

ury to be obtained, some of whom would not belong to one or that this libel is attributable to certain the other of the contending political factional controversies and animosities factions of this city, and that he does believe that it would be hard for this ot a local political nature, and has grown out of various political disputes affiant to get a fair and impartial trial between people and politicians in the city of Wilmington, which city before a jury in New Hanover county on account of the apparent bitterness compromises about four-fifths of all existing between the two factions; that the people and voters and persons qualhe is anxious for as speedy a hearing of fied to be jurors in the county; that i his case as possible—a hearing that will will be simply impossible to obtain a be fair and impartial, and has heretofore lawful jury in this county without havinsisted upon his counsel pressing for a ing upon it men who belong to one or trial at this term of Superior Court and the other of the political factions from he now insists upon an immediate trial, which the bitterness and passion of unless the said case is removed to anwhich this libel and these defamatory other county; that he believes he could publications have resulted; that the get a fair and impartial trial in either of public and political matters from which he adjoining counties; and if it is rethis libel resulted have been notorious moved he asks that his Honor will refor many months; has been the subject duce his appearance bond to an amount of newspaper and of verbal discussion which he would be able to give-say $100 or $150.

among the people of this county, and especially of this city, and almost the entire community has been divided between the different political factions and about every person fit for jury duty is an adherent of one or the other faction; that these factional disputes, and the passions and disputes engendered by them, being entirely local, have not extended to the counties adjacent to the county of New Hanover.

S. H. FISHBLATE. Sworn to and subscribed before me this thirtieth day of September, 1895. JOHN D. TAYLOR,

Clerk Circuit Court. After reading the affidavit to the court copies were handed to counsel of each defendant. Mr. Bryan and his counsel retired to Col. Waddell's office in the Solicitor's room in the court house, and Mr. Meacham and Mr. Marshall retired to the jury room. Each prepared and returned affidavits respectively as follows: IN THE SUPERIOR COURT. SEPTEMBER

State vs. R. K. Bryan, Jr., and J. W. Meacham. R. K. Bryan, Jr., one of the defend ants, replying to the affidavit of S. H.

Fishblate for a removal of this case, being duly sworn, says: First, he admits that S. H. Fishblate is the party who is alleged to be aggreed by the so called libelous publicais based, but he denies that the defendants were at the time of the publication of said alleged libel the editors of the said newspaper, the Evening Dispatch, and in reply thereto, states that the defendant Meacham was not until some time-a week or more after said publication-an editor of said newspaper, at

by him on the motion to remove this which time he became its local editor; and the defendant Bryan, while he was at the time of sald publication editor of the editorial part of the paper, was not | the local columns of the newspaper he was not the local editor, nor connected editor of the local department, had nothing to do therewith, and was not employed for that purpose, nor to supervise that department of the paper, nor was and was not employed for that purpose; he interested in the paper as manager or | and that he was not interested in any part owner. Affiant further denies that he has been engaged either before or since in circulating abusive and scurrulous arti-

be able at this time to prove the concles against the said Fishblate in said newspaper, and says that he has pubtrary, and upon this state of facts the delished no article for the purpose, or with the intent of defaming him, or prejufendant would not be guilty. I propose sending a bill of indictment dicing the public against him, That he against those who are the owners and has only published the truth respecting publishers of the newspaper at the time the proceedings before the Mayor's Court, as it appeared upon the record of of the publication, so that there may be said court, and instead of the columns of submitted to the jury under the plea of the Dispatch containing matter scurru-lous, defamatory, or unjust to the said Fishblate, the matter published therein pertaining to him has been calm, and in not guilty, the issue of the truth or falsity of the accusation, as committed, by section 1195 of the Code. every sense just and true; that especial-As to the defendant Meacham, I am ly does he deny, as charged by said Fishblate, that he has published false, prejudicial, and partisan reports of the hired agent, who assisted in the libelproceedings of this court, and the delous publication, perhaps under the inpates of counsel; that such publications struction of others, without any actual malice on his part. He has been already ceedings of this court and the debates punished by imprisonment in jail, and I of counsel were absolutely and literally true, and were not made with the purdo not think that justice demands his pose and intent of prejudicing the comfurther prosecution. munity against the prosecution, but simdefendants. Mr. Lockey, of counsel for defendants, said they objected to a nol pros.

they could object. like to have an opportunity to show that he is not guilty.

icians or in any manner interested in the factional political controversies alleged to exist in this city, and that no publication that has appeared therein was made for the purpose of influencing any one in said alleged controversy, f any such exists, and he denies that it has done so-the Dispatch being an independent paper only started since the Affiant further says that the statement that public prejudice has been so created by the said Dispatch as to prevent the State from obtaining a fair and impartial jury in this county is absolutely untrue; and he believes that both the State and the defendants can obtain a fair trial before a jury in this county, and if there is any doubt as to either, it is to the prejudice of the de-The affiant Fishblate, is now, and has been three times elected Mayor of this resentation of the meaning of the vercity, and for nearly twenty years has

At the conclusion of Judge Russell's emarks, the Court said, "Enter nol pros, Mr. Clerk. The defendants are discase to any other county will amount to Mr. Strange renewed his motion to make Mr. Fishblate prosecutor. "It was not right," he said, 'that the State should be taxed with all the costs." Judge Green said that he would not pass upon that motion now.

He then directed that the gentlemen summoned for the special jury and all the witnesses in the case be discharged. then taken up and disposed of, and the court at 6 p. m. adjourned until 9 a. m. to-day.

that the same reason exists against the emoval to any adjoining county, fo the Dispatch circulates in said county and the publications have to the same extent influenced the inhabitants there. Sworn to before me the 30th of Sep-STATE OF NORTH CAROLINA, COUNTY OF NEW HANOVER, IN THE SUPERIOR J. W. Meacham, one of the defendants That he has heard the affidavit of S. I. Fishblate, upon which the State bases its motion for a removal of this cause to an adjoining county for a hearing; that heard fall from human lips.' he believes that it would be hard for a Latest Weather Report. . southward to the gulf coast.

warmer in the Northwest. portions of the South Atlantic States the central valleys and lake region.

Successful Applicants for Law License. [Special Star Telegram.] Worth appointed Stephen T. Crowder, Eastern District, and R. T. Joyce, of

Mt. Airy, for the Western District. Fifty-one applicants for law license before the Supreme Court passed successfully. Frederick Harper, of Wilmington, was among the number. The University class presented to Buy No Others. that Col. Waddell was called to his

> If there is anything you want, advertise for it. Is there anything you don't want? Advertise it in the Business Locals of the STAR. One cent a word. But no ad. taken for ess than 20 cents.

> > NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.

50 dozen MACKERAL.

85 CHEESE. 50 dozen TOMATOES. 150 boxes CAKES. Our stock is fresh not all bought t once to damage.

W. B. COOPER, Wholesale Grocer and Commission Merchant, 226 North Water Street,

One car load R. P. Oats. 15 bags RED ONIONS. 150 boxes CHEESE.

100 Pieces of BLACK DRESS GOODS

WHOLE NO. 8,867

Just Received.

Never before in the history of Wi

mington have the people ever been favored with the opportunity of having such a magnificent stock of

Domestic and Imported

Black

GOODS

French Serges, Storm Serges, Mo-

hair Serges, Camel's Hair Serges

Bengaline Serges, Surah Serges, Mo-

hairs, Sicilians, Pezola Cloth, Pebbe

Cloth, Granite Faucies, Empress

Suitings, Tamise, Cashmeres, Hen-

riettas, Bacte Fancies, Broadcloth,

Habit Cloth, Sponged Mohair, Cra-

vanette, Cheviots, Crepon and' Crepon Effects. Our beautiful line of Pancy Imported

DRESS

Patterns

ARE WORTHY OF YOUR IN-

SPECTION,

From $7 to $22 50 a Suit

Kid Gloves to suit everybody.

Johnson & Fore.

No. 111 Market St.

CLOTHING AT RETAIL

Strictly Wholesale Prices

Means just what it says. We can afford to do it. Our great manufacturing facilities, our wholesale business, the small expense of our retail department notwithstanding the large volume of business put us in

THE PRICES TELL THE STORY.

$7.50 all Wool Black Clay Dress

$5 and $6 splendid Dress Business

Suits, neat patterns, Plaids, Checks,

etc. Impossible to retail Clothiers,

$7.50 every possible pattern, easily

$10-Such Suits as you are accus-

$12 and $15 the highest pinacle of

Black and Blue Cheviots $5, $6,

BOYS' SUITS $2, $2.50, $3, $3.50.

DAVID & Co.,

Front and Princess Streets.

Myers & Lewis,

No. 8 SOUTH FRONT ST.

HEADQUARTERS FOR

School, Office and Typewriter Supplies.

Rubber Stamps and Engraving.

New Catch

MULLETS.

Put Up in Nice New Packages.

Send in your orders.

HALL & PEARSALL,

Nutt and Mulberry streets.

Save the Retailer's Profit.

the Tailor's art. Foreign and Do-position to sell at close margins.

Suits, Sack and Cutaway.

worth $10 to $12.

nestic Worsteds.

$7.50, $10, $12.

Louis H. Myers,

tomed to paying $15 for.

Agents for Dr. Jaeger's Woollen Un-

I, therefore, enter a nol pros, as to both

The Court said it did not see how Mr. Strange said he did not know what the practice is in cases of this kind. The defendant (Bryan) would

Ex-Judge Russell, of counsel for the State, said that defendant Bryan had sworn that he had nothing to do with the publication, and if that was the case he was entitled to a verdict of not guilty; but the prosecution did not propose to allow a verdict of not guilty to be returned Ebecause he had nothing to do with the publication, and thereby give the defendant an opportunity to say that verdict of not guilty was rendered because the publication was true; that the paper had owner and publisher, and when he was indicted the only issue that could be submitted to the jury, under the plea of not guilty, was the truth or falsity of the article; and that the State or prosecution was ready to face this ssue, so that there could be no misrep-

Two or three unimportant cases were

An Elequent Address.

The box sheet for Wendling's lecture Wednesday night opens at Yates's this morning. Judging from the interest already shown, there will be a good audience present. Tickets have been sent to the Y. M. C. A. members (as they have free tickets), but some were out when the messenger called. Any of those who have not yet received tickets can get them at the office this morning. No one should miss the opportunity of hearing this address, as the editor of the Globe-Democrat well says of Wendling, "He is easily at the head of the popular ecturers of the country," and Dr. Pritchard says: "I had rather be the author of that lecture (The Man of Galilee) than of any words I have ever

The Bureau at Washington telegraphs The barometer has fallen in New England and to the west of the Mississippi. It has risen from the lake region The area of high pressure covers the central valleys, the barometer being highest over Missouri, while it is decidedly low to the northeast of New Eng-

It is colder on the Atlantic coast and The indications are that the weather will continue fair except in the southern and the temperature will rise slowly in

BANK EXAMINERS

Appointed by Treasurer Worth-Fifty-One RALEIGH, N. C., Sept. 80.-Treasurer of Ridgeway, bank examiner for the Judge Sheppard a gold cane. All persons are hereby cautioned against buying copies of the STAR offered for sale on the streets unless, in every case, the words "For Transient Sale" are stamped on the margin of the paper. Should any newsboy or carrier offer for sale a copy of the STAR not so stamped he should be promptly reported at this Mackeral.

100 dozen OYSTERS.

D&W Wilmington, N. C.

Seed Rust Proof Oats.

200 bbls. new catch MULLETS. and car loads of other goods not advertised. When in need of anything n a wholesale Grocers line don't fail to get my prices. D. L. GORE,

120, 122, 124 North Water St.,

oct 1 tf

Wilmington, N. C.

THE MORNING STAR. THE-OLDEST DAILY NEWSPAPER

IN NORTH CAROLINA. The Only Six-Dollar Daily of its Class in the State.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.

TO-DAY

You Can

To select from, consisting of the fol- MAKE

YOUR

PURCHASES

-OF-

US AT

No. 9 North Front St.

KATZ & POLYOGT.

DRY

GOODS,

Carpets, Etc.

WHEN INSOME OMEN ANT

DERFECT FITTING GARMENTS THEY

Parisian Colored Plates, All work guaranteed. Formerly Cor. Princess and Front Sts.

sep 29 1 w To the Public.

WE ARE STILL AT THE OLD STAND No. 11 South Front street, where we would be pleased to have you call and see us whenever you are in need of a first class Hair Cut or Shave, or anything else in that line. Satisfaction guaranteed. Respectfully BH. C. PREMPERT'S BONS, Experts in Barbering.

like has

3.00.

the m et St.

incipal. South. laster,

Pow tail e hung tle pail, s horse,

g drum course, Powder. ozier & generquality on given and the on quite and soon, he eagle e silk, has ever

is eagleoor bird he hadn't he Jersey. gle Brand

the price

and if not

ood milk?

g 18 tf handsome gings

or Ladies. has a Bi-& Sons.

Packages.

You being D

UTT, Druggist.

tch LL, streets.

rescription