Sol Smith Bussell in "The Rivals" Thurs-

Thursday evening, the 31st, will witness the appearance of the premier of American stars, Mr. Sol Smith Russell, who will present his latest and greatest success, "The Rivals." This play is meeting with unbounded approval by press and public, and is said to be one of Mr. Russell's greatest character por-

Sol Smith Russell is justly proud of his position on the American stage. Critics regard him as an artist, and that the public agree with them is evinced by the crowded houses which greet him in all his engagements throughout the country. Mr. Russell is more than an actor. He is a man of keen perceptions, limitless wit and genuine humanity. One of the marked features about his humor, that few other comedians possess, is its refined and cultivated character. His pathos is equally true and affecting, and takes the audience with him quite as fully as his humor. His popularity never wanes, but waxes stronger with advancing years, and those who remember him in youth are all the more attached to him in the maturity of his powers.

Sale of reserved seats will take place Tuesday morning at Yates'; price $1.50, except for the first two and the last four rows of seats in the parquet, which will be one dollar each. This arrangement has been made with Mr. Russell, by special effort of the management. General admission, 75 cents.

THE STOLEN HORSE Fourd in Wimington and Recovered by the Owner-The Thief Escaped, The horse stolen from the stable of Mr. W. F. Alexander, on Middle Sound -as told in the STAR-was found yesterday by the owner in this city; but the thief-a young negro man about twenty years of age-had made his escape. The thief with the horse came to Wilmington early Friday morning, and endeavored to sell the animal to Mr. Breckenridge, of the firm of Breckenat Rocky Point during the present year, making a two-horse crop there, but becoming dissatisfied had decided to sell out and move to Rocky Mount. That he had already sold one of the horses, and told his son to carry the other horse to Wilmington and sell it, and take the train for Rocky Mount, and as he (the son) wanted to leave on the first train, he would sell the horse for twenty-five dollars. Mr. Breckinridge told the negro to put the horse in his lot, and went with him to see the lad's father who, the young negro said, was at a house in "Dross Neck;" but on the way to this place the negro gave Mr. Breckinridge the slip and has not been seen since. SPECIAL TRAINS TO MAXTON. Special Trains From Wilmington Next

Thursday and Friday-Fare One Cent a Mile Each Way. Secretary Harker, of the Border Exposition of the Carolinas, informs the STAR that the Seaboard Air Line will run special trains over the Carolina Central to the Maxton Fair next Thursday and Friday. These trains will leave Wilmington in the early forenoon and leave Maxton on the return trip late in the afternoon, giving about six hours for visitors to the Fair each day. Connection will be made with the Atlantic Coast Line both ways.

As the fare on these two special trains will be but one cent a mile each way there should be a large crowd from Wilmington and all intermediate stations. The Fair at Maxton next week will undoubtedly be the best ever held there. Unusual efforts have been made by the management, and they have secured more exhibits and more features of interest than ever before.

Remember the days, Wednesday, Thursday and Friday, October 80th and Bist and November 1st.

Watch the Nurses. Parents who permit nurses to take their children on the streets should be very careful, Yesterday a little child was left in a baby carriage near the "Merry-go-round," on Princess street, while the nurse went in to show her skill as an equestrienne. The child, becoming alarmed, cried as if its heart would break, and a bystander, whose sympathies were aroused by the cries of the child, went to the nurse and appealed to her to go to the child and take care of it. But she was so charmed with her skill in riding the untamed wooden steeds that no entreaties could move her. After exhausting her supply of nickels she carried the child home and no doubt satisfied the mother that the little one had heartily enjoyed its ride.

Change in the Drug Bustness.

Mr. H. L. Fentress, the well known and popular "Brooklyn" druggist, has purchased the stock of Mr. Geo. L. Harmon, at 128 South Front street, and will carry on the business there under the name of Fentress' Pharmacy. A thoroughly competent pharmacist will be in charge. It is not Mr. Fentress' intenwell established business at No. 521 North Fourth street. That will be continued. The difference now is that he has two drug stores instead of one.

Fred Hill and Peter Bryant, colored men, were arraigned before Mayor Fishblate, charged with violation of a city ordinance in working as scavengers without having procured license. They were each fined $10 and adjudged to pay the costs. Mr. C. P. Lockey, as attorney for the defendants, gave notice

RALEIGH, N. C., Oct. 26. The proceedings brought by H. L. Dockery for possession of the Penitentiary were taken up again in the Superior Court this morning. The various tables inside the bar railing are covered with law books. Each of the many counsel has a big pile. The trial so far has resulted in a wordy war among the lawyers on technicalities. The prospects are that this will continue throughout the day. The defence is trying to prove that the act creating the new Board was passed after the directors were elected. This morning Mr. T. R. Purnell is on the stand. The jury is composed of countrymen entirely. Five are Populists, ive Democrats and two are Republicans. Capt. W. F. The traffic of the Seaboard Air Line just now is greater than it ever was, both

FOOT BALL,

EDITOR STAR-Our city should appreciate the earnest efforts being made by the young athletes of our city to bring out a strong foot ball team this season; one that will be able to cope sucessfully with any team in the State.

Any night during the week you can see from filteen to twenty-five leatherlunged pieces of humanity practicing in the rear of the W. L. I. armory, and a prominent foot ball authority states the boys are making rapid progress and The material is much better than of last year and everything now points to 3 most successful season.

The management now hopes to have a game in about two weeks and we can then see what kind of "metal" (this has no reference to free silver or the single gold standard) our boys are made of, but the captain states the team will give any visitor something to beat and if we are defeated it will not be for the lack of hard work The team has received the additional suits expected and hope to see twentytwo men on the field to-morrow night promptly at 8 o'clock.

Hotly Contested Game of Foot Ball Between University Teams of Georgia and North Carolina at Atlanta. [Special Star Telegram.]

ATLANTA, GA., Oct. 26 .- The University of North Carolina defeated the University of Georgia to-day in a hotly contested game-six to nothing. Fifteen hundred people saw the game. The white-and-blue was worn by hundreds of Carolinians new living in Georgia. Stephens, by a seventy-yard run, made touch-down in five minutes. Whitaker kicked goal. The game was hot from beginning to end. Georgia, by good rushing and heavy interference over tackles, took the ball within two yards of the goal, when North Carolina by a supreme effort, uphill, carried Georgia oack ten yards. features of the game were ground-gaining by Stephens, Moore, Collins, Bacid. The right tackling of Butler, Stanley, Merritt, Gregory and Hurley was very creditable. White played splendid centre. Carolina's interference was ragged. The game was seen by Governor Atkinson, Hoke Smith and the fashion of Atlanta.

The city is full to-night of Virginia, Carolina and Georgia students. North Carolina, as usual, on top. The boys are taking in the Exposition, and enjoying the Southern Educational Association Profs. Winston, Alderman and Baskerville, of the University faculty, are here enjoying the sights with the students. OBITUARY.
