CHICAGO, November 19.—

The arrivals of wheat in the Northwest today did not indicate any serious falling off in the movement in that section and the bears claimed vindication of the views expressed by them.

Local shorts were good sellers throughout the day, but upon learning of a good crop from the before the close they covered rather freely, the best prices of the session being then established.

The oats market remained in pretty much the same position it has been occupying of late.

The tone of the provision market was easy at the start, but later, after the outside orders were received, but particular.

TRAIN WRECKERS' WORK.

FAST MAIL ON THE NEW YORK CENTRAL DERAILED.

The Wreckers Captured—No Passengers Hurt—Business Killed and a Number of Mail Casks Injured.

By Telegram to the Morning Star.

ROME, N. Y., Nov. 19.—

The deliberate wrecking of fast mail train No. 6 east bound on the New York Central Railroad was accomplished about three miles west of this city at 4:30 o'clock this morning.

The wreckers had broken open the company's tool house near by and obtained a wrench and crowbar with which the spikes and fish-plates from which the rails were fastened to the ties had been removed.

The train comprising four mail cars, engine and locomotive, was on the track at the rate of about forty miles an hour, the engine led the train, bounded over the ties and fell sideways into the ditch, the first two mail cars south of the wreck.

The first two mail cars shot over the engine, the first one landing fully seventy-five feet from the point where the engine left the track.

Under the second mail car, pinned down by a pair of trucks and stone dead, was found Engineer Hager.

The first two sleepers were scattered and the last one remained on the tracks. Strange to say, the two loose rails had not been thrown from the road-bed, the last car remaining upon the track.

There were about fifty passengers in the three sleepers, and not one of them was hurt. The passengers were scattered on another train shortly after the accident.

The killed and wounded in the smash-up are: Nathan N. Hager, engineer, Albany, killed; Elliott of Rome, killed; Syracuse, a tramp, died after being removed from the wreck; E. Reardon, Herkimer, mail clerk, head and body cut and bruised; J. E. Watson, New York, mail clerk, upper arm bruised and sprained and face cut; H. D. Robinson, Syracuse, mail clerk, ankle sprained; F. N. Paddock, Syracuse, mail clerk, arm cut and bruised; M. J. McGarity, Buffalo, porter, head cut and bruised; R. E. Beck, Syracuse, mail clerk, head cut and bruised; Conductor Chas. R. Reynolds, Albany, injured in the chest; Johnny R. Macy, tramp, right foot mangled and amputated.

The tools with which the spikes were pulled were found on the track after the wreck.

Carlisle said in part: Two years ago I said to you that the disposition and ability of the Government to maintain its own credit at the highest standard, and to preserve the integrity of all the forms of currency in circulation among the people, could not be reasonably doubted, and ought not to be the subject of further controversy.

AN INCIDENT UNPARALLELED IN ANNALS OF BRITISH DIPLOMACY.

Lord Salisbury's Speech at the Conference of Colonial Agents in London—Dental of the B-3-31; That Russia Rejected the Proposal for an Entente of European Powers in Regard to Turkey—The Spanish Government Declines the Negotiations for Peace in Cuba Are in Progress.

By Cable to the Morning Star.

LONDON, November 19.—

An incident that is unparalleled in the annals of English diplomacy occurred this evening at a conference of the Colonial Agents in London.

The speaker of the occasion was the Lord Salisbury, who delivered a speech that would afford the one he had delivered on the occasion of the banquet given by the Lord Mayor of London.

Lord Salisbury referred to the propriety of reading the letter at the conference, but he took advantage of the occasion simply to grant, so far as he could, the request made by the Sultan.

At the outset of his speech the Prime Minister said: "Allow me to say a word in answer to a very distinguished and distinguished correspondent who may not term him, who has requested me to make a statement in some public speech. My correspondent is no less a personage than the Sultan of Turkey."

Lord Salisbury then proceeded to read a letter from the Sultan of Turkey to the Prime Minister, in which the Sultan expressed his desire to see the reforms in Turkey carried out.

DRY GOODS MARKET.

Prices of Cotton Goods Show Little Change.

By Telegram to the Morning Star.

NEW YORK, November 19.—

It is something in favor of the cotton goods market that despite several weeks of admittedly slow business there has been no material accumulation of stocks and that leading lines of staples and of dark dress fabrics are in limited supply; and further, that considerable orders remain to be filled from the production of the former for the next two or three months.

Beyond this, however, current influences rather against the market. Prices of the governing makes of staple cotton goods show little change from the best price recently recorded, but there is an easier tendency in other directions.

In the woolen and worsted goods departments new heavy weight overcoatings and clay worsteds are selling with some freedom at $12.50 each.
