A MILITARY FUNERAL Burial of Remains of the Late Capt. Thos S. Smyth-Attended by the Officers and Crew of the Colfax, the Naval Reserves

The funeral services over the remains of the late Capt. Thos. S. Smyth, of the Colfax, were held yesterday morning at 11 o'clock in St. John's Episcopal Church by Rev. Dr. Carmichael. The funeral was attended by the seamen of the Colfax, under command of Lieut. F. S. VonBoskerck and Lieut. H. D. Glover, the Naval Reserves, under command of Lieut, W. M. Atkinson and Ensign W. F. Robertson, and the Wilmington Light Infantry, under command of Capt. Harriss Northrop and Lieut. C. H White. These commands marched to the church a few minutes before the time for the funeral procession to arrive and formed a long double line with Lieut. Boskerck as battalion commander. As the hearse and carriages drove up the military came to a "present arms" while the funeral cortege entered the church in the following order: Pall bearers-First Lieut. I. C. Moore and Chief Engineer C. V. Munroe, of the Colfax; Col. D. P. Heap and Lieut. Ed. Judwin, of the U. S. Eagineer Corps; Lieut. Commander Geo. L. Morton and Paymaster E. S. Latimer, of the Naval Battalion. The body carriers with the coffin came next, from the Colfax, A. Foske, P. P. Greenberg, I Kahnberg, Carl Morck, D. D. Benton,

C. S. Smith, J Wells and H. R. Kuhl. The mourners and friends came next, followed by Adjutant J. C. Morrison and Chief Engineer Wa'ter A. Furlong. of the Naval Battalion.

The services throughout were very and Kuights of Pythias acting as solemn. The military escorted the reguards of honor. In Raleigh, when mains to the newly made grave in Oakgiven last week, Dr. Winston, President | dale, where the Colfax's marines fired of the North Carolina University, took volleys, concluding with the bugler sounding "taps." The floral offerings were handsome. While the services were being conducted at the grave, the Colfax fired a salute of seven guns, as is customary upon the death of a commanding officer.

Winter Cultivation of Lettuce or "Salad"-A Proficable and Growing Industry. EDITOR STAR-In the issue of the STAR, January 19th, mention was made of the lettuce, or salad industry of our neighboring farmers and truckers. Later and more minute inquiry into the matter and upon consultation with Mr. Oilver C. Stevens, who is representing the firm of Sharp, Cox & Co., of Philadelphia, who are heavy receivers of this article of export from our country, we learn that this week's total shipment has been rather light, owing to the failure of this article to mature. Had weather been favorable for its maturing no reason or excuse could. be assigned for the defect. Total shipment this past week, ending Saturday, January 25, were 181 bbls salad, the average price these goods were sold by those receiving them, $4.75 per bbl. Less expense, nets the grower at least $3 90, and much of the earlier shipments were sold at over $6. While the cultivation of salad

NEW YORK, Jan. 27 .- The cotton market to-day showed no material change in the way of speculative interest and receded on this account, the March option selling at the end of the day at 7.98. There is absolutely nothing interesting to chronicle about cotton. Speculators are weary and have shifted their influence to grain and provisions, where they have received substantial returns. There was extensive liquidation on grain to-day in Chicago. After the May option had reached 96%c, a fusilade of selling orders were presented for execution and at the end a loss of 11/2c was registered. WHITE GOODS ets headway as the days go by. Such selling of Silks and Dress Goods, of Muslin Underwear and White Goods and Embroideries as we've been doing for a week past makes the store look as if holiday times were here again. This week some new stocks drop into the rush.

Two yards for the price of one; sometimes better than that. Those importers' stocks have upset all previous price ideas. We have gone through all the Dress Goods shelves and brought practically everything to the new price level. In some in stances there's but a Dress Pattern of a kind; in others the assortment is unbroken. The reductions are like

$2.00 goods at 98c. $4.00 goods at $2.75. $3.00 goods at $1.50. $2.00 goods at $1.00. $1.50 goods at 75c. 38c Suitings 19c.

45c fancy Jacquards, Cheviots and Check Novelties 25c, 54-inch. 60c all-wool Diagonals, Homespuns and Cheviots, very neat and stylish, 44c yard. 50c English Wool Novelty, Spring effects, 30c. 75c Wool Suiting, stylish striped effects, 50c. $2 00 Soleil, correct colorings, lustrous finish, $1.25. $1.25 Mohair and Wool Suiting, Jacquard figures, 85c.

ty, stylish and serviceable, 50c. $1.50 French Boucle, quiet plaid BLACK GOODS. WE HAVE PURCHASED THE Crepon Cheviots 68c and 75c yard; good value at $1 and $1 25.

swings into a new week with almost no end of interesting lots. Think of 200 kinds of Silk in a special sale and hardly two pieces alike! Think of quarter prices on some of them! Is it any wonder that they have made such a stir?

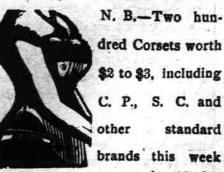

Four Special Lots.

No. 1, 1,000 yards of Silk at 25c. No. 2, 1,000 yards of Silk at 50c. No. 3, 1,000 yards of Silk at 75c. No. 4, 1,000 yards of Silk at 98c.

Women's WRAPS at less than half. Thank the so-far-side-tracked Winter for it. We've taken the stock of Jackets of the best maker. Finest goods up to date. CARPETS AND RUGS-Prices cut to zero. They must go. Don't miss our GREAT CLEAR-ING SALE.
