Forty-five years ago Squire Turner, of McLean county, Illinois, loved Amanda Gillespie, but they had a little spat and the Squire packed his duds and went West. He went to Kansas and grew up with the country. But he thought over that spat for forty-five years and finally concluded that he was a fool for letting a little thing like that drive him away from Amanda. He therefore wrote to his old girl to forgive him and come to him, and Amanda, who in the meantime had reached the age of 63 and grown sensible, did both. They are now a happy couple of 74 and 63.

One of the leading business men of Sampson county, and a large manufacturer, in renewing his subscription to the daily STAR, writes thus:
"Your position on the financial question is wise, broad and true; a sound Democratic one. It seems remarkable to me that all Democratic papers can't advocate what the party contended for in the 1892 platform.
I am convinced that permanent rest and prosperity can never come to this country, nor to any gold standard country, till the stricken metal is restored to its natural and legitimate place."

If Benjamin refuses to "take up the yoke" there will be at least one disconsolate denizen of Hoosierdom, a Mr. Shiel, who fears this country will have a sheol of a time if Benj. declines to bear the burden. Mr. Shiel rises to exclaim:
"While I know it will be a great hardship to him, I believe he owes it to the party and to the country to take up the yoke, though it be a great burden." Now if the new yoke statesman can resist such a plaintive appeal as this he must be built of stouter stuff than sole leather.

Holmes' lawyer, who is trying to save his client's neck, has discovered that he is afflicted with a peculiar malady, which amounts to insanity, namely, a "wild desire to lie and make himself ridiculous." With his known crimes a man like that ought to be hanged on general principles.
The rural denizens of Florida are too busily engaged in growing fruit, garden sals, &c., to pay much attention to poultry, and consequently the people of that State who are fond of chicken, eggs, &c., have to send from home to get 'em. There's nothing in that to crow over.

Eight in Balaban's Row—A Deputy Sheriff Saverey Hurt.
Deputy Sheriff J. P. Flynn, about one o'clock yesterday morning, in attempting to suppress a row among some negroes in Balaban's row, over in "Brooklyn," was assaulted by negro man, who struck the deputy a blow on the head, took a pistol from him, and also got possession of the officer's club. During the fight the deputy was seriously hurt, his head, face and arms being cut.
Deputy Flynn then went to the City Hall and with two police officers returned to Balaban's row, and arrested Fannie Baker, Leonard Holmes, Annie Freeman, Nannie McLean, William Taylor and Ingram Haar, all negroes, on the charge of resisting an officer in the discharge of his duty.
The negro man who fought Flynn was not arrested, as he could not be found.
It is said that he left for Goldsboro yesterday morning, that town being his former home.
All the persons arrested were committed to jail in default of bail, to await examination, set for the 11th inst.

North Carolina Board of Health.
The regular annual meeting of the North Carolina Board of Health, of which Dr. Geo. G. Thomas, of Wilmington, is president, will be held at Winston on the 19th inst. The Bulletin issued by the Board says: "This meeting, for a general discussion of sanitary matters by the leading men in the profession in the State, is one of real importance and should be well attended.
We hope especially to see a large number of the county superintendents of health, as well as other health officers, present that we may compare notes and prepare for a strong pull, a long pull, and a pull altogether for the cause of hygiene in North Carolina."

To Meet at Southern Pines.
The Southern Mining Association has issued an invitation to all persons interested in Southern mines or mineral lands to meet with the Settlers' Convention at Southern Pines, N. C., May 6th, 1896, when important matters relative to the Southern mineral industry will be practically considered with a view of securing increased interest in this direction and application of the best methods for opening up the mineral wealth of the South. A large attendance is assured.
Railroad fares are reduced more than one-half by the Seaboard Air Line for this occasion.
"Under Two Flags."
This thrilling masterpiece of dramatic construction which scored such a pronounced success as presented at the Opera House a short time since, will be repeated on next Tuesday evening. This meets with a general demand, and this beautiful play will, we believe, again easily draw another large audience. The prices for reserved seats will be 50 and 35 cents; general admission 25 cents. At these low prices for a most attractive entertainment for a noble cause we predict that everybody with his wife and mother-in-law will be on hand for an evening of delightful pleasure.

WILMINGTON MINSTREL TROUPE.

The Entertainment Given at Southport—A Highly Successful and Creditable Affair.
The Wilmington Minstrel Troupe, under the management of Mr. J. G.
Marshall, received a grand reception at Southport. The pavilion in which they performed was decorated and elaborately furnished by the Southport young ladies under the direction of Squire Warden John B. Haight and Mrs. M. V.
Webb, of St. Phillip's Episcopal church, for the benefit of which the performance was given. The moonlight excursion down the river on the steamer Wilmington, under the auspices of the troupe, was largely attended, and was much enjoyed by the ladies and gentlemen on board. Music was furnished on the boat by the Carolina Mandolin Club.
At 8:00 o'clock the troupe, which is composed of the best talent which Wilmington affords, opened the performance with Messrs. E. P. Boatwright as musical director, and Ed. Munson as accompanist. The first part, with Messrs H. K. Holden, Wm. Rehder, C. H.
Cooper, James D. Smith, Fred Heines, C. J. Bagg, soloists, interspersed with news and funny jokes by the end men, Messrs. James H. Cowan, Henry Newman, Geo. T. Hewlett and Johnson Graham, was escorted throughout. Mr. J.
G. Marshall acted as interlocutor, with Henry Howard, Geo. Delano, B. W.
Marshall, Wm. P. Croom, Wiley T.
Johnson, completing the first act; barique,
"The Colonial Congress." The pavilion was crowded with spectators and from the time the curtain rose until the end of the performance, encores were often an applause continuous. The quartette singing by Messrs. Holden, Cooper, Smith and Rehder was exceptionally fine. The specialty, consisting of singing, clog and jig-dancing by Mr.
Wiley T. Johnson, merited much applause. Mr. Henry Newman in his specialty "Five Minutes With Our Own Comedian," brought down the house, and he was the recipient of a "hot house." "The Black Millionaires," in their burlesque and statue dancing, imposed by Messrs. Cowan, Graham and Howard, showed much skill and received much applause. "The Apollod Wonders," by Prof. Delano, assisted by Messrs.
Marshall and Croom, was the crowning event of the evening, their wonderful acrobatic manoeuvres surprising the entire audience. The tenor solo by Mr.
Jas. D. Smith was highly complimented and encored. Fanny Jones as "The Solemn Johnson," by Messrs. Henry Howard and J. G. Marshall was rendered in their usual negro impersonation. "The Judge and Senator," by Messrs. Cowan and Graham, which was of their own creation, was very laughable and kept the audience in an uproar from the beginning to the end, closing with some excellent renditions of popular airs by the Carolina Mandolin Club, composed of the following members: J. S. Williams (leader), Stuart Heinberger, Ed. Heinberger, E. C.
Richard Platt, C. V. Motte, Ed. Neilson. The imitable ante-bellum darkey impersonator Mr. Geo. T.
Hewlett, with his funny make-up, received great applause and won the admiration of the audience. In this special act he is a genius. Mr. Holden's solo "The Mighty Deep" received continuous encore, and in response he sang his favorite song, "Six Feet of Earth Makes Us All of One Size." The show closed with the beautiful musical number, "The Darkey's Dream or Slavery Days on the Old Plantation," by the entire company, which was filled with amusing incidents, dancing, and closed with an old-time Virginia reel. Mr. Hewlett taking the part of the Old Man and Mr. Wm. P. Croom the Old Woman.
Mr. W. W. Vick shuffled the "pasteboards," and Mr. J. Darlington was at the door.
The boys are highly elated over the success of the trip financially and socially, and the large crowd which went with them from Wilmington was well pleased with the pleasant moonlight ride on the Cape Fear and the time spent at Southport. The troupe has been organized for three years and has given four performances in different towns and hopes to make a tour through the State this Summer. The executive staff are as follows: J. G. Marshall, manager; Henry Newman, stage manager; E. P. Boatwright, musical director; J. W. Graham, treasurer.

A Congressman's Joke.
The following will remind some readers of the STAR of the story told by a well known citizen of Wilmington as to the pronunciation of the word "Backkache."
The other day Congressman Stone, of Pennsylvania, who is one of the practical jokers of the House, approached Mr.
Mahany, of New York, who is an authority on Celtic orthography and orthography.
"Mahany," said Stone, "how would you pronounce this word," and he held it out very carefully—"M-a-c-h-i-n-ee-y?"
"That's easy," said Mahany: "that's the name of an old Irish dock—Mac-Hinery, a little bit of Danish mixed with Mishian."
"You're mistaken," said Stone, "that's pure English—machinery." Mahany collapsed. "Don't tell anybody," he implored. "If that got out among the Irish of my district it would run me."

Concerning Cotton.
The crop bulletin issued by the U. S.
Department of Agriculture for the week ended April 27th says:
"Cotton planting is about completed in Texas, Oklahoma, Arkansas and South Carolina, and is progressing in Missouri, Tennessee and North Carolina. Over the southern portion of the cotton region scraping and chipping has begun. In Northern Texas rain is much needed to bring up cotton."

NEWS FROM RALEIGH.

JUDGE RUSSELL'S SPEECH TO THE REPUBLICANS.
He Abused the Democrats and Played for the Negro Vote—Republican Club Organized in Rasecomb—Hyde County Democrats and P. Dulais Resolve in Favor of Free Silver Cottage—An Movement from Littleton.
[Special Star Correspondence.]
RALEIGH, N. C., April 30.
A "Mary Ann" Populist Club has been organized in Edgecombe county. It promises to do active work for the Populist party.
The Democrats in Hyde county and the Populists as well, recently met and passed resolutions favoring silver.
Judge Russell's speech last night was characteristic of the Judge. He abused the Democrats and played for the negro vote. The Judge said that there would still be fusion, and no power could prevent it. Jim Young said the Republicans had just as well not nominate a candidate for Governor if there was no fusion between Republicans and Populists, as he said with three tickets in the field the Democrats will win. Jim said fusion could not be defeated and that the two parties would get together sure.
He stated that he would support a committee would be sent to the Populists to effect co-operation and that if that committee failed another would be sent until fusion was secured. The meeting last night was largely attended.

THE FAIR ASSOCIATION.
EDITOR STAR—I called in at the City Hall one evening this week, when a committee was met to see that had been appointed to solicit subscriptions to a fair association.
Some gentlemen were discussing the subject and one of them made remarks something like this: "It is an uphill battle to get up any enterprise in this city. We have a few, and only a few, enterprising people in Wilmington. Some of those who are the most zealous to build up the city are the least able, and many are not so amply provided with funds to realize the greatest benefit from improvement, are the least inclined to improve their money."
"For instance," he said, "there are those who own real estate—stores and dwelling houses—for rent, who take no interest at all in trying to establish any new enterprise."
This gentleman spoke of Charlotte, Newbern, Raleigh, Durham, Wilson, &c., in this State and many places in other States, whose natural advantages were far inferior to Wilmington's, and were outstripping her. They had enterprising property owners, as well as merchant and other business men. He said that the North of the State, both in Winter and Summer, is the finest in the United States. That if we had fair grounds, a race track and a tract for public practice within or near the city of Wilmington, we should have a number of trainers here both Winter and Summer, and this alone would be an advertisement to bring us all over the world. This would bring a large number of people here on both business and pleasure.
There are many other advantages for stores, dwelling houses, hotels, boarding houses, saloons, barber shops and every other kind of business. There is no doubt a great demand for all kinds of labor as well as all kinds of goods and transportation."
It all fits true, it seems to me that the fair association will be of considerable interest to Southporters in view of the information that can thus be obtained of the lay of the different strata in this region. Dr. Eiger, the quarantine officer, intends to collect, during the boring, specimens of the different strata for analysis, and Dr. Holmes, State Geologist, has written expressing a desire to be furnished with samples of the layers of earth passed through as a contribution to the geological knowledge of Brunswick county.

Southport Items.
The Leader says that Lieut. Morrison of Wilmington urges the formation of a division of Naval Reserves at Southport and the matter is being quietly worked on.
The well known tug Italian has been sold by Mr. Skinner of Wilmington to John D. Dalley of New York. The tug left on Saturday and goes into the towing business on the Harlem river, New York.
Alligators are now very numerous on the muddy banks of the creeks tributary to the lower Cape Fear. Adrian Moore, who made a fine record last year by slay-ing twenty-eight of the slimy saurians on his farm at Walden Creek, laid in a supply of ammunition last week, and declares he will fight his hogs as long as he has a shot left, and there are re-pplies left in the creek for him to kill.
The driving of the artesian well at the quarantine station will be of considerable interest to Southporters in view of
tained of the lay of the different strata
in this region. Dr. Eiger, the quaran-
strata for analysis, and Dr. Holmes,
the layers of earth passed through as a

Rev. A. D. McClure.
The North Carolina Presbyterian says that Rev. A. D. McClure, of this city, has been invited to hold a ten days' meeting at Highland church, Louisville, Ky., including the second and third Sabbaths in May. This visit will be a most pleasant reunion of pastor and people, as Mr.
McClure served this church prior to taking charge of St. Andrews.

Craven County News.
A telegram received last night from Newbern says that Craven county Republican convention was held there yesterday. The delegates elected to the State Convention were unopposed, but two of them are for Russell for Governor.
