To day's features: Liverpool was lower again to-day and cotton prices here also declined. Liverpool was probably influenced by the same factor which caused the decline here, namely the weekly Government report. The report was better than had been expected. It said that in Texas cotton is in a splendid state of cultivation and it has been greatly improved, that as a whole, the outlook is for a fair crop and that picking is becoming general in here and at the South was easier. The depression in Wall street also adversely affected cott in. Stop orders were caught on the way down and contributed to the weakness.

IN THE QUIET LITTLE TOWN OF SALEM,

In Honor of W. J. Bryan, the Demograti Candidate for President-His Address-Talks Feelingly to the People of His Old Home-Declines to Discuss Political Matters Until Officially Norified of His Nomination.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star. SALEM Iil., July 15 .- Salem paid her CHICAGO, July 15.-The wheat mar- farewell to-day to William J. Bryan in a grand demonstration that exceeded by far the pyrotechnic reception given him on his arrival here Monday night. Yesterday morning the preparations were begun and the result was the transformation of the Democratic candidate's birthplace from an ordinary county seat to a place of variegated color and lavish decoration. In front of the court house, where, Mr. Bryan made his maiden speech export basis was given as the reason for and where his father presided as Circuit Judge for many years, a platform with a foundation of empty oil barrels had been erected and this was covered wi h red, white and blue bunting and other embellishments. In response to a proclamation of Mayor Lakin nearly every house floated the national standard or some other adornment, and pictures of Mr. Bryan, most of them clipped from daily papers, were prominent in the windows of shops and private residences.

Business was suspended and the whole town prepared itself for making the day the greatest little Salem had ever experienced. Excursions were run by the Baltimore & Ohio, Southwestern, and the Chicago, Paducah & Memphis roads. and people from nearly all the neighboring villages and the surrounding country took advantage of the opportunity forded by the cheap rates to hear and see Mr. Bryan. A promise that Governor Altgeld would also make an address was also another attraction.

A reception committee and several bands escorted Mr. and Mrs. Bryan from Mrs. Baird's residence to the park and their appearance was the signal for hearty cheers.

After the cheering had ceased, Mr. Bryan began slowly and distinctly. When he referred to his father and to his mother's recent death, there was much feeling in his tones. The speech contained very little about politics, and Mr. Bryan expressly disclaimed any in tention of making a political speech. "Mr. Chairman, ladies and gentlemen and fellow citizens," he said, "I have no disposition to talk politics to-day. shall leave discussion of party questions to those who shall follow. I remember with grateful appreciation the kindly feeling on church and party lines when I lived among you and I shall not attempt to divide by party lines those who are here to-day.

"I believe," said Mr. Bryan, "that there is an ideal plane in politics, and I believe we stand upon it to-day. We meet to day recognizing the differences of feeling, but with charity towards each other. We are imbued with the same spirit; all imbued with the same ambitions; all aiming to carry out the same southwest Texas, New Orleans de- purpose. We want government for clined quite sharply and spot cotton the people and by the people, and if not differ as honest citizens in purpose. I thank the Republicans who are assembled here; I thank the Prohibitionists: I thank the Populists as much as I do the Democrats, because, my friends, when these questions which rise to the surface and agitate people have passed away, we then understand those fundamental princip'es which underlie our Government. We all agree to this, whenever the Government comes in contact with the citizen and the citizen with the Government, we all stand equal before the law. We agree that the Government can be no respector of persons, and that its strength, its matchless strength, must be the protector of the fortunes of the great and the business of the poor, that it shall stand an impartial arbitrator between all of its citizens. Mr. Bryan quoted Abraham Lincoln's famous Gettysburg speech, referring to the absolute confidence with which the nation might look to its people in time of danger, and in conclusion said: "My riends, here and throughout the land, the nation can look with confidence that patriotism and courage will meet every danger."

GOLD BUG DEMOCRATS

Opened National Headquarters in Chicago and Claim to Have Sufficient Support to Make a National Convention a Certainty.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star, CHICAGO, July 15 - The gold Democratic leaders who have organized in Iilinois opened national headquarters in the Palmer House to-day and began in earnest their self-imposed task of getting as many States as possible to join them in their proposition to hold another Democratic convention. The first responses to the executive committee's manifesto and appeals were received to-day by mail and telegraph. Telegrams were received from individual gold Democrats in Indiana, Iowa, and Maine, stating that Illinois had done the right thing, and that conferences of anti-silver Democrats would be held as soon as possible to agree on plans of action looking towards sending delegations to a convention. The local leaders say they have been promised sufficient support to make a national convention a certainty even without the party organizations of the Eastern States upon which the Illinois league is not counting. President Robbins said to-day he expected to get answers from Ohio, Min nesota, Wisconsin and Michigan which would enable the executive committee to appoint committees to arrange the de-

By Telegraph to the Morning Star. CLEVELAND, OHIO, July 15 .- The strikers at the Brown Hoisting Works learned last night that the company was recruiting their non-union forces in them on fire. Quietly and secretly they planned decisive action. They organized committees of ten and twenty and each committee was given a section of territory to patrol and look for nonunion men. These committees were on duty early this morning and as the non-union men traversed the streets in the neighborhood of the works they were hunted down in the pouring rain by the strikers. The hunted men, pale with fright, run for their lives over back fences, taking refuge in sheds, and in many instances invading the homes of citizens. They climbed on street cars the speed of which was increased, and were then thrown violently to the pavements. In this way several men were

Party Convention, which will be held in the auditorium next Wednesday, will develop an interesting struggle between the leaders on the question of deposing Chairman Taubeneck. Mr. Taubeneck has repeatedly stated that the convention would not endorse the candidates of any other party, and that the plat-form that would be adopted would be modeled after the Omaha platform; with such modifications as changing condi-

There was a large attendance, but mostly of Milwaukee silverites. Among those present from the State were Dr. Frank A. Powell of La Crosse, Thomas Carmichael of Eau Claire, R. J. Walsh of Adams county, George F Cole of Sheboygan, and George H. Daubner of Brookfield, all of

Party circles. The convention was called to order by Rublee A. Cole, chairman, of the Wisconsin Silver party. Mr. Cole made a long address, reviewing the action of the St. Louis Convention and endorsing the nomination of Bryan and Sewall. He then introduced Dr. Frank Powell of La Crosse, as temporary chairman, who also made a long speech, declaring for Bryan and Sewall. The regular committees were then appointed and the BALTIMORE, July 15 -The war between the Baltimore Steam Packet Company and the Seaboard Air Line on one side and the Baltimore, Chesapeake & Richmond Steamboat Company and the Southern Railway Company on the other is becoming hot. The latter company recently put on a line of steamers between Baltimore and Norfolk, invading the Steam Packet Company's (old Bay Line) exclusive territory. Some slight cuts in rates are also alleged to have been made. To-day the Steam Packet Company retaliated. In connection with its ally the Seaboard Air Line, it announced a sweeping reduction in all rates, extending to all the principal Southern cities. In addition to the cut in rates the Steam Packet Company will beginning next Friday, run steamers between Biltimore and Richmond, Va.,

RALEIGH, N. C., July 15. The Populists are the only class of people in the State who do not know how they will vote in November. The feature of news in the Caucasian's editorial this week was that it did not come out against Bryan. A loop hole was left so that the paper can advise its readers to place themselves on the Bryan wagen in case the St. Louis convention declares for the Nebraskian. Another instance of Butler's cunning. He decrys the Damocratic party, and says it is in a hole, but still he is in a position to holler as loud as any one for the Democratic nominees.

A leading Populist says a great fight is going on in the party, and those in this tion goes out of existence.
