THE MORNING STAR

VOL. LVIII.—NO. 107.

WILMINGTON, N. C., SUNDAY, JULY 26, 1896.

WHOLE NO. 8,942

IMPORTANT ANNOUNCEMENT.

Attention is called to the following REDUCED RATES of Subscription to THE MORNING STAR:

TO MAIL SUBSCRIBERS.

Twelve Months.....$5.00
Six ".....2.50
Three ".....1.25
Two ".....1.00
One "......50

TO CITY SUBSCRIBERS.

The STAR will be delivered by carrier at any point in the city at 12 cents per week, or 45 cents per month.

We clip the following from the Petersburg, Va., Index-Appal: The claim that the Star will give Bryan fifty thousand majority is a virtual concession that the Star will go for McKinley. It takes a bigger majority than that to overcome the Republican vote outside the big city.

Supposing the Republican vote West of the city to be unbroken there would be something in this, but this year there will be thousands of votes in the rural districts cast for the Democratic Presidential ticket which have heretofore gone for the Republican party.

The STAR appreciates the following from its very clever contemporary the Salisbury World, which by the way, did some pretty good work for silver itself: "It is not too late to congratulate our esteemed contemporary the Wilmington Star, over the victory of silver in North Carolina. The STAR's work in behalf of the white metal was perhaps the ablest and most effective of any journal in North Carolina."

Some of the Eastern gold organs are still trying to persuade us that there is plenty of money. Well, if so, why does the Republican national platform promise to coin all the silver that can be had to the mints, when other nations give their consent? If we have enough, why coin more?

The New York Times has something to say about "McKinley and honest money Democrats." Neither "honest money" Democrats nor any other kind of honest Democrats should have anything to do with McKinley. The honest Democrat will do his level best to knock him out.

AN ELECTRIC STORM.

Lightning Struck Many Places in the City But No Serious Damage Resulted.

An electric storm of considerable severity passed over the city yesterday evening about six o'clock, but fortunately no serious damage resulted.

At the power house of the Wilmington Street Railway Company an armature of the railway generator was blown out, causing delay in the running of cars.

At the foot of Princess street, lightning struck and shivered the glass globe of the electric light, but did no other damage there.

At the residence of Mr. L. L. Boon, on North Seventh street, near Chesnut, the bath room was slightly damaged. Metal fixtures in front of the old Parcell house building were so charged with electricity that every one who touched the brasses in front of the windows was slightly shocked. Upon arrival of a lineman at the place, where a wondering crowd of people had gathered, it was ascertained that one of the Electric Light Company's wires had fallen and caught upon the iron hooks attached to the balcony in front of the building. The wire was removed at once.

Persons who came from Carolina Beach says there was no storm there.

Mr. Geo. H. Ballamy, who arrived from his farm in Brunswick county, says he was caught in the storm and noticed that several trees had been torn up and that the telegraph line was damaged considerably, some poles having been torn to pieces.

At the store of Mr. James Elder, corner of Exchange and Market streets, was struck, the lightning splintering the front door. Mr. Elder and his clerks, Mr. Williams and Mr. Walton, were severely shocked.

DEATH OF J. FRED J. HORTON.

The announcement of the death of Mr. J. Fred J. Horton, who has been for the past five years connected with the Car Accountant's office of the Atlantic Coast Line, will be heard by his many friends with much regret. He passed away yesterday at his residence on Mulberry street, after a short illness of consumption, in the nineteenth year of his age. He was a clever, quiet, kind hearted young man, well liked by his fellow employees and friends, and his death will be quite a shock to them.

He was a member of the First Baptist church's Sunday school, a regular attendant of the church and was a model Christian boy. He leaves a widowed mother and a younger sister. His remains will be carried to his old home, Raleigh, for interment, leaving this morning at 9:20 o'clock. The funeral services will be conducted at the family residence by Rev. J. B. Harrell, at 8:30 o'clock this morning.

A number of his old friends will accompany his remains to Raleigh, where the body will be interred in Oakwood Cemetery.

DR. DIAZ TO LECTURE

At the Opera House Tuesday Night Next on the "War in Cuba."

Rev. Dr. J. Diaz, the apostle to the Cubans, will deliver a lecture on the Cuban war, at the Opera House Tuesday night, July 28th, for the benefit of the new church fund of Brooklyn Baptist Church.

Dr. Diaz is pastor of the Baptist Church in Havana and was compelled by Gen. Weyler to leave Cuba after having been arrested and imprisoned, charged with being in sympathy with the insurrection. His imprisonment caused a good deal of excitement at the time and numerous petitions were sent to Congress demanding his release, he being at that time a citizen of the United States. Dr. Diaz followed the fortunes of the Cubans on the battlefield, and consequently knows more about the war than any one else in the country. He has met with great success with his lectures. His subject is an interesting one, and the cause a worthy one, and all who fail to attend will miss a treat.

After New Year's.

"General" La Fayette Brown, an old employe of Messrs. Burr & Bailey, left upon an excursion train yesterday afternoon to visit his son at Florence, S. C., from whom he has been separated for about forty years. What is remarkable about this visit is, that the son was in Wilmington on an excursion a few days ago and went to the shops where his father worked. Both looked at each other but asked no questions, each supposing the other dead until after the son returned to Florence, when the "General" found out it was his son from whom he had been so long separated, and conceived the idea of making him a visit.

Death of Mrs. Margaret Hodges Crocker.

A special dispatch to the STAR, from Portsmouth, Va., announces the death of Mrs. Margaret Hodges Crocker, in that city yesterday morning at 10:30 o'clock after a protracted illness following a stroke of paralysis. The funeral will take place Monday.

RALEIGH NEWS ITEMS.

REPUBLICANS AND POPULISTS TRYING STRENUOUSLY TO FUSE.

Talk About Taking Down the Republican Electoral Ticket—The Railway Commission and the Rate War—A Woman's Invention—Mad Dog—Requisition for the Daulster Murders.

[Special Star Correspondence.]

RALEIGH, N. C., July 25.

Chief O. T. of the Charlotte police, arrived here yesterday with application papers for a requisition for Myers, the defaulter of $3,500 of the Seaboard's money. Mr. Orr will go to New York with the requisition papers and will return with Myers.

Another mad dog was killed in the city Friday. The dog was bitten fifteen days ago by a dog with the rabies.

A telegram from Franklinton says that no further trouble is apprehended since Moore has been transferred to the Louisiana jail. The troops were relieved of duty last Thursday.

Mrs. Mary J. Wyatt has invented a railroad fire extinguisher which will convey smoke and cinders from the smokestack of an engine over the top of a train (passenger) through a piping arrangement. She has taken out a patent.

Logue won't say whether he will support McKinley or not. There is a prospect of a large defection from the Republican ticket.

It is expected that the Railway Commission will take a hand in the rate war at an early date. They will seek to secure a reduction of local rates, so it is said.

A Populist accused the Democratic party of stealing the Populist platform in the presence of F. H. Busbee and other gentlemen. Mr. Busbee replied that the Populist Convention should be platform for the Democratic platform in this State. The fact is said Mr. Busbee, "We adopted the present national platform in North Carolina before the Populist party was born."

There is evidently something in the air, relative to the taking down of the McKinley ticket, which has not been made public. Recently every Republican in Raleigh, except John Nichols, denies that the electoral ticket will be taken down. Jim Young would not have declared himself for the Populist ticket without consulting Judge Russell. The question is being asked, where does Russell stand? Is he with Loge Harris and the Populist party, or is he decidedly firm in his stand against putting down the McKinley electors. He is quoted to have remarked in the Park Hotel last week that he could return to the U. S. Senate and take to plowing a bull in Madison county if McKinley was elected.

Mr. W. W. Horton says that if the Populists do not endorse Bryan he will come out third in the race.

It is no secret that the Republicans are making strenuous efforts to get together. A leading Populist says that if Bryan is not endorsed no power on earth can keep the Republicans and Populists together.

On Thursday afternoon the Wilmington cutter, the Colfax, arrived in port and dropped anchor alongside the Commodore. Every one wondered what she had come for. Yesterday a number of Cubans appeared in the city. The Cubans do not look like the "rank and file," but like hot air. A number of them registered at the Buttall. They were all well, and they seemed to be the most prominent were: Martino Brito, New York; Jose Barlos, New York, and Santiago Arago, also New York. Who they were, what they were doing, etc., they positively declined to say.

At 6 o'clock last evening a ripple of excitement was caused by the arrival of another cutter. This was the Buttall. She steamed into port and anchored near the Colfax.

What the two cutters are doing here cannot be ascertained. They cannot stop the Commodore from leaving, as she cleared in a perfectly legitimate manner at the Custom House yesterday, with arms and ammunition for Jacksonville, Florida. To Jacksonville, however, she has no right to go under the law. The cutters can follow her if they choose, and if she does not go into Jacksonville, or attempts to transfer her cargo, she can arrest her. That is, they could if they could catch her, but as the Commodore's speed is vastly superior to that of either of the cutters, she will doubtless elude them.

It was ascertained last night that a consignment of rifles reached the city yesterday for the Commodore. The arms are in boxes of three and covered with canvas. Up to a late hour they were still on the Clyde wharf.

Shortly after midnight it became evident that the Commodore was preparing to move. There had been lights aboard of her throughout the early hours of the evening, and a boat had run down alongside of the little filibuster carrying, it was said, the guns, which had come for her on the Clyde steamer. She got her anchor up and moved a little way up the stream. A boat left her side and went over towards the Colfax and it was believed that the Commodore was making place between the two vessels. Then the Colfax was seen to have steam. She came over towards the city and circling around the Buttall that was still lying quietly at anchor, she steered out across the harbor. The Commodore in the meantime swung slowly around and moved off slowly towards White Point buoy as though she was going out. The Colfax was going much the faster of the two. When the Commodore was down near the buoy the cutter was lying just off quarantine, and in these positions both boats slowed up and appeared to come to anchor again. At an early hour this morning each still held its place. It was supposed that the Commodore was moving down the harbor preparatory to going to sea at daybreak and that the Colfax was taking a position from which to follow her to advantage.

At 11 o'clock, C. July 25.—There were no startling developments in the case of the filibuster Commodore to-day. At an early hour this morning she left her station and started across the harbor. The cutter was promptly following her down to the quarantine and there both remained until their former position.

During the day the cutter had had an officer aboard of the Commodore three times, but for what purpose it is impossible to say. As the U. S. cutter cannot be approached and Captain Morton of the Commodore, remains silent when spoken to. There is nearly a week of Cuban war in New York in the city who are in constant communication with the agent of the Commodore on her, and it is thought that they are going to propose to prevent.

—Two old sports who visit Wilmington regularly. Rem. L. Prempert of Louisville, Ky., and Emmet E. Levy, of Baltimore, arrived in the city yesterday.

STEAMER COMMODORE

Closely Watched by Revenue Cutters Colfax and Bonwater in Charleston Harbor.

The little filibustering steamer Commodore which came to Wilmington last Summer and was detained several months, until released by the United States authorities is now engaging the attention of the people of Charleston, S. C.

The News and Courier of yesterday says that for a week or more past it has been very evident that something was about to happen. There has been an almost feverish action among the Cuban sympathizers in the city.

There have been consultations and consultations at the various places where the Cuban consulate. When the Commodore left Johnston's coal wharf three days ago it was announced that she would not leave port for several days. The News and Courier says that the "agent," was absent from the city on business. Some people believe he was in New York consulting with the Cuban Junta. Whether Rojo bought the boat or not is not known, but two days ago five small boats arrived from New York by the Clyde steamer. Capt. Thomas H. Morton, who is the U. S. Agent at the Commodore, examined the boats, took two, but rejected the others because, it was reported, they could not carry enough freight. Other boats were afterwards purchased in the city. They were immediately painted green, to match the Commodore, and put on board.

On Thursday afternoon the Wilmington cutter, the Colfax, arrived in port and dropped anchor alongside the Commodore. Every one wondered what she had come for. Yesterday a number of Cubans appeared in the city. The Cubans do not look like the "rank and file," but like hot air. A number of them registered at the Buttall. ## BATH HOUSES.

EDITOR STAR—Will you allow me through your columns to call the attention of the owners and managers of the bath house at Ocean View to the importance of protecting the clothing of the patrons when in the bath by locking the room doors and only allowing a certain number to each room at one time. I mention this because some visiting ladies who were here the present week with one of the excursionists complained after coming out of the water they found that others had gone into the same rooms they occupied and paid for their clothing badly scattered, and one or two articles missing.

There was also complaint in reference to being charged full fare for meals and after long and patient waiting receiving only fare and no meals.

OUR CY ALL RIGHT.

EDITOR STAR—A gentleman of this city, who had never heard of Mr. C. W. Watson previous to his nomination by the Democrats for Governor of North Carolina, and who was often asked about Mr. Watson, wrote to an intimate friend who is pastor of a church in Winston, making enquiries concerning him, and was gratified to learn that he is a member of the church, a faithful attendant of the Sunday school and preaching, is a good man, and if elected will make a first rate Governor. The matter was also that he would take great pleasure in voting for him. P.

THIS WEEK ONLY.

Until 5 p. m. Friday, July 31st.

From time to time we have published articles from the pen of our most eminent writers on the subject of eyesight. It would seem that we have left nothing unsaid that ought to have been written in warning our people towards the proper use and preservation. Those suffering from some optical defect are often deceived into putting on glasses selected especially on account of some name given to the glasses used, presuming that the material used is that which gives or benefits the sight. Such is an erroneous conclusion. It is necessary in all cases of impaired eyesight, no matter how simple its form, that the person affected should apply first to a reputable examining oculo optician, who understands the anatomy and the physiological parts of the eye and can rightly judge of its mechanical need by scientific tests of refraction and accommodation, after which he adapts the glasses best made and calculated to compensate for the lacking parts. During a stay here of over two months Dr. Mathez at The Otton, has given the best evidence of not only the superiority of his skill and judgment as an optician but in the skilled workmanship he makes. His professional attainment and his work has made him one of the high ecclesiastics from the best people of Wilmington, and now in place of one to endorse him there are hundreds who are looking to him for relief. His eye here will be brought to a close Friday next, July 31st, and can be consulted up to and until 5 p. m. of that day. Those who wish him this week at 4 up until his closing hour will receive the same precise benefit and service as those who have applied to him at any other time. There will be no postponing or reopening. He will positively close his office on this day and hour.
