Mr. McKinley says the only way to restore prosperity to this country is to go back to Republican protection. Hon. John Sherman agrees with him, but doesn't see how the thing is to be done. In reply to an inquiry made of him on this line a few days ago he said, "The only way in which a Republican administration can correct the evils of the past is by increasing the revenue by a new tariff law, and this, I fear, is not practicable." Well, if it isn't practicable why is all this parading and loud talk about it, and why are Mc-Kinley and Hanna trying to run their campaign on the tariff issue?

Hon. Mark Hanna is commended for his level headedness in telling the Boston millionaires that the East is entirely too confident and that it will take work (and money) to run McKinley in. Mark may be scared or he may not be, but he was after those chaps for cash and he didn't want them to harbor the belief that Bryan was knocked out, for that would lessen or stop the contributions. Mark is cute. He's after those Boston checks.

Some of the organs which find fault with Mr. Bryan's reminder to the dwellers in the elegant homes on the Hudson that they should think occasionally of the men who toil in the sun, might perhaps object to Mr. Bryan's reminding the Hannaites that they should occasionally think of the toiling millions and not insist on levying more tribute upon them to further enrich themselves.

The following wail is from the Chattanooga Times, gold organ: "Democracy is in need. Her brave sons will now remain true to her in her hour of peril." The Democracy represented by the Times is doubtless in need. But if it needs money it can draw on Mark Hanna and

That any Southern Democrat can reach the point of voting for McKinley is one of the ways that are "past finding out." This man was with Sheridan when he rode through the Shenandoah Valley of Virginia, the sword of the murderer in one hand and the torch of the incendiary in the other, and was an active participant in the hellish work of laying waste one of the most beautiful valleys in the South. Loteresting Events On the Track at Ocean Visw-The Winners and the Priget. CERNED.

WILMINGTON, N. C., SATURDAY, AUGUST 29, 1896.

The much talked of Beach bicycle races came off vesterday afternoon at from every point of view. The 280 train on the Sea Coast Railroad carried down quite a number of bicycle enthusiasts, who were eager to wager that their favorites would win. The wind being very high, the course was laid on the southern part of the beach, the starting point being nearly opposite the Atlas House. The management had made all the necessary preparations, and the race passed off without a hitch. Messrs. M. P. Taylor & Co., and T. H. Wright & Co., the managers, cerefforts in getting up the "meet" and the successful termination thereof. The first race on the programme was a quarter-mile dash. The entries were J. R. Turrentine, R. G. Rankin, Jr., T. H. Wright, Ed Heinsberger and Sam Hall. The report of the starter's pistol had not died away before the mighty "pedal pushers" Rankin and Turrentine had shown their heels to the other men and were dashing towards the tape, Turrentine succeeding in winning by a very small margin, The time was 32 1-5 seconds, and the prize, the Seacoast

For the second race, the novice combat, one-fourth mile, there were only two entries, Messrs. Oscar Peck and Walter Morris. Much interest was manifested in this race, inasmuch as the young riders represented the two rival bicycle firms here. Mr. Peck growth. won the race by a good margin, planting the banner of M. P. Taylor & Co. on top. His time was 34 seconds, and the prize, a handsome pocket-book; while Mr. Morris received a soda water

The third event on the programme was the one-half mile open; the entries | the Nationalist being the same as the first race. After a hard fight R. G. Rankin, Ir., crossed the tape first, his time being 56 seconds, while "Trilby" Turrentine stuck to him "closer than his paternal relations," and came in a close second. The prize for this race was the Ocean View championship medal.

Last, but not least, was the half mil tendem race. The entries were, 1st Messrs. Taylor and Newkirk; 2d, Southerland and Wright. This was an exceedy pretty race and was won by Messrs. Taylor and Newkirk. Time, 106 8 5. It is but just to mention here that the winners had paced the previous race and had also acted as starters in the other races and were somewhat fatigued when their race was called. All the prizes had not been fully decided upon; among them are two crates of beer. Messrs. F. L. Huggins and Stuart Heinsberger

NAVAL RESERVES

Expect to Get a New Ship to Take th Place of the Nantucket.

The Wilmington Division North Carolina Naval Reserves, which discontinued drills during the Summer months owing to so many members beng out of the city at the Summer resorts, will begin again next Tuesday night with their regular weekly drills. The company is now on a boom, and there are a large number of applications to be voted upon. Commander Geo. L. Morton is now in correspondence with the Washington, D. C., Naval Department urging that the ship Lillie be sent here to replace the old hulk Nantucket, which has been | tine, 29 bbls rosin, 4 bbls tar, 17 bbls so successfully managed and run by crude turpentine. Chief Engineer W. A. Furlong and his assistants lack Scott and Ed Danforth. Their work on the old worn-out and wrecked machinery and engines of the Nantucket is enough to warrant the battalion receiving a new ship of the latest model. When the monitor was left here by Chief Engineer Hannum, of the United States Navy, he unloosed the machinery, stating that her wheels would never be turned again, as the ship was played out. Under the battalion's orders the three home engineers began work in earnest and have accomplished the most wonderful feat of any organization in the United States, making a successful cruise in 1893, 1894, 1895 and 1896 manning their own ship from end to end.

Music for the Jarvis Speaking.

The Wilmington Symphony Club, composed of the following members, lames M. Black, leader and violinist; George James, James Stevenson and Charlie Green, mandolins; Octave A. Wiggins, banjo: Charlie Hill, Reid French and Thomas M. Green, guitars, have tendered their services for the Jarvis speaking at the Opera House next Thursday night, and will render a programme of their best selections, The music will be a treat, and every one should go early so as to get the benefit of the music as well as the address which follows.

The Opera House will be open at 7.30 p. m., and the music entertainment will open about 8 o'clock. Speaking will begin at 8.30. Ladies specially invited.
