The German Ritual Controversy D'soussed

by the Sopreme Lodge. By Telegraph to the Morning Star. CLEVELAND, OHIO, August 29 .- The opening gun in the German ritual concroversy was fired at the meeting of the Supreme Lodge Knights of Pythias this morning by the committee appointed to corsider the charges against certain Chancellors. The committee reported that the juli-text of report made by Past Supreme Chancellor C. F. Laehr, of Virginia, be adopted; that Past Grand Chancellor Buchman, of Illinois, be pers maily reprimanded by Supreme Chancellor Colgrove or some officer designated by him, and that Past Grand

It was further recommended that in view of Ellenfoss' gross violation of Pythian laws and persistent disloyalty the Grand Lodge of Kentucky should take such action as will secure similar results touching his honor of Past Grand Chancellor, besides debarring him for ten years from the right of enjoying his Pythian honors. The report was re-

Contest for the Presidential Nomination by the Indianapolis Conventi n.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

INDIANAPOLIS, August 29 - Complications have arisen which make the outlook for a Presidential nominee on the gold Democratic ticket appear in a most interesting light and it now seems that there will be quite a contest in the con-vention cext week. National headquarters are hearly receiving the credentials of delegates. Reports to the effect that a large number of them will not be here, but will be represented by proxies, are denied most emphatically by the officials at headquarters.

The National Committee will meet at 10 a. m. Tuesday, at the Grand Hotel. The Executive Committee will meet at the same place Monday.

Thousands of People Assembled to He the Democratic Nominee for the Presidency Discuss the Silver Question and Other Leading Issues.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

HORNELLSVILLE, N. Y., August 29 .-There were few stops made by Mr. Bryan's train between Buffalo and Hornellsville. A tremendous crowd was gathered at the Hornellsville station, reached at 11.15 a, m. Mr. Bryan was loudly cheered as he descended from the train. On the platform he was greeted by a reception committee and by members of the Bryan and Sewall club. A procession of carriages was formed, headed by a band, and the candidate and housewife were conveyed to the house of Alderman Dolson, where a reception was held until noon. HORNELLSVILLE, N. Y., August 29.-Before a gigantic gathering of farmers at Maple City Park, near Hornellsville. this afternoon, William J. Bryan severely criticised the third ticket movement and those who are taking part in it. Mr. Bryan was at his best and spoke with an earnestness approaching fervor. He paid his compliments to those Democrats who want to nominate new candidates and worked his audience up to a high state of enthusiasm by his remarks. People from all over Steuben and neighoring counties gathered at the park to hear Mr. Bryan speak.

The candidate reached Hornellsville at 11.10 o'clock this morning from Niagara Falls where he spent the night. At the station a great crowd cheered him in a hearty manner. Mr. and Mrs. Bryan were entertained at luncheon by Alderman Charles A. Dolson, where a reception was also held for an hour. The grand stand in the fair grounds (Maple City Park) has a capacity of 8,000. Today it was packed and jammed, and stretching in a solid mass on the racing track and enclosure, were thousands more. It is certain that there were at least 7,000 people present, and the manner in which they showed their approval of Mr. Bryan's remarks gave them the title of being one of the most enthusitic audiences the candidate has addressed since he started out from Chicago after his nomination. From the time his carriage entered the gate until after he had taken his seat on the speaker's stand the cheering was continuous. The stand was mounted on a big truck and horses drew it down the track to a point directly in front of the grand stand, on the race track. The cheers that greeted the candidate when he was presented by Alderman Dolson were of the heartiest, and continued for some time. Mr. Bryan's voice was husky when he began, but it soon gained strength and came strong and clear before his discourse was finished.

Mr. Bryan spoke as follows: "Fellow citizens--I have not time to enter into an elaborate discussion of the issues presented to the people in this campaign, but I desire to call attention to a few things which may assist you in deciding on which side you should cast your influence. There are certain things which you have a right to consider. It is the object (or at least it should be) of the public speakers to help their audiences to understand the merits of disputed questions, and it is one of the evidences of sincerity of purpose that the person discussing the public issues shall discuss them plainly and clearly, so that every one can understand just what is said and just what is meant. When ambiguous language is used, when obscure expressions are emploved, it is an assured fact that the person using them has something to conceal rather than to make plain. The Good Book speaks of certain persons who love darkness rather than light, and JAMESTOWN, N. Y., Aug. 29.-Mr. and Mrs. Bryan were conveyed from the fair grounds to the railroad station, receiving a most enthusiastic ovation all along the route, and at once started for James.

There were few stops. A big crowd had gathered at Wellsville, but the train whirled past so rapidly that all the candidate heard was the echo of cheers and the faint strains of a bard. Cuba was the first stop. A big crowd was there and Mr. Bryan shook hands with many. The train reached Olean at 6.30 and the candidate was given a big reception. Mr. Bryan spoke from the rear platform of his car. Three thousand people were in the crowd and they cheered with Vigor.

Mr. Bryan arrived at the Jamestown station at 7.40 p. m, and was greeted with cheers by a thousand people crowded there and along an embankment overlooking the tracks. He and Mrs. Bryan were taken to the Sherman House, where, after a quick supper, they were conveyed to Celoron, on Chautauqua Lake, on a special trolley car.

The convention hall at Celoron has seating capacity of 8,000, but fully 10. 000 people were jammed in it long before the Bryan party came at 9 o'clock. Outside there were thousands struggling to get to the doors. The party was entirely without police protection and had to fight hard to keep from being crushed by the crowd which swarmed around them. When Mr. Bryan stepped upon the platform he was greeted with a fierce shrill cheer, which in its intensity suggested the Chicago Convention. Every one stood on their chairs, waving handkerchiefs, and the cheer was kept up for several minutes. After this began trouble which came almost to being a panic, and under the conditions there a panic would have surely resulted in loss of life. Mr. Frank H. Mott introduced Mr. Bryan, and the Presidential candidate stepped forward and after the cheer stood waiting for quiet. The people kept crowding in at the doors and press. ing to the front. Mr. Bryan begged those in the aisles to go out and what their opinion is worth? But lest a panic should result and Mott and Mr. Sibley, took turns at exhorting the people to keep back, but they were not heeded. One excited man in the gallery got a hearing and cried: 'Go out for heaven's sake; there will be a panic and people will be killed." Others made simithe lack of candor and directness that lar appeals. Mr. Bryan declared that he would not speak under such dangerous conditions. Mr. Sibley announced that Mr. Bryan would leave the hall and talk in the open air if the people would go out. Finally the intelligence was conveyed to the people that Mr. Bryan would talk outside after

> NEW YORK, August 29.-The New York Financier says this week: The movement of money out of the Clearing House banks since July 18 has reduced their deposits $54,000,000, and in the same length of time loans have shrunk $24,000,000. Despite this heavy drain. however, the bank statement for the current week is a repetition in its favorable features of the one preceding it, and the banks, at what might be called the apex of the present stringent situation, hold nearly nine millions more cash than the law requires. It is true that this cash is not equally distributed, and that many of the institutions are below their legal reserve, but the showing is encouraging in many ways.

the changes in the present statement are similar to those of the previous week. The banks lost heavily to the in terior, but the net decrease of $2.027. 400 in fcash was smaller than was expected. There was a gain of $549,000 in specie, which seems to have been made in lots varying from fifty to one hundred thousand dollars among the larger banks.

The sharp contraction reflected was made necessary in order to maintain reserves. The loan contraction and that loss of cash to the interior of course depressed deposits, but the shrinkage of $6 363,800 in the; item isapparently larger than the operation men tioned called for.

circulation as fast as possible, the increase for the week being $689,700, for $400,000 of which the Third National and the American Exchange National are responsible. It is encouraging to note that the decrease in reserve was only $436.450 and the excess is still $8,-834.200, which is above the average at this season for a long series of years preceding the 1893 panic. The heavy ir flow of foreign gold now aggregating nearly $15,000,000 will have a marked effect on succeeding bank statements, and money rates promise to fall materially before the end of the season There is doubt that the imports will continue until the legitimate demand for money is fully satisfied. Nothing but an unforeseen panic can put rates back to the figures they have held for several weeks past.
