What Electoral College Figures Show.

FIFTEEN STATES CERTAIN.

Populists Cannot Fail to Add Four More.

A FAIR FIGHT FOR THE REST.

Changes In Political Sentiment That Insure Democratic Success—Accurate Computations Based on Assured Data-Greater Part of Doubtful States Lean Toward Silver-Bryan Could Win Without New York, Illinois and Indiana.

[From the New York Journal.] It has been said that the political figurers may as well give up their calculations this year, as the election is one in which the issues are novel, party lines broken and new deals made in the game of politics. While this is in a measure true the conclusion reached is incorrect. Except in a few states the Democracy is as powerful as ever, and in some parts of the country, where it has formerly for years had barely a standing, its strength has greatly increased. The marked enthusiasm of the large majority of the Democratic national convention means something. It indicates a Democratic revival in the west and south. The Populist power is shown by the elec-tions of 1892 and 1894. Its union on the Democratic candidate is just so much solid gain. If the bolting Democrats should put a third candidate into the field, its only effeet would be to draw to the ballot box the few Democrats who, dissatisfied with the action at Chicago, but not prepared to swallow protection, plutocracy and paternalism in McKinley, might otherwise remain away from the polls. If no third candidate should be in the field, some disaffected Democrats might vote for McKinley, but quite as many would vote with their party rather than lose their votes. Hence there is good ground now for an intelligent judgment on the outlook, based on former votes and the ascertained strength of parties. The questions that present themselves in considering the chances of success are: 1. Have the Populists lost or gained strength since the election of 1892? 2. Will the Populist support of the Democratic candidate for president, William J. Bryan, be general? 3. Will the defection from the Democratic party, caused by the action of the Chicago convention, be great enough to offset the increase of strength gained from the Populist vote? 1. Are the Populists growing? The total popular vote in 1892 was

 Republican
 5,176,108

 Populist
 1,041,028

The Democratic and Populist vote combined was 6,597,946, or 1,421,838 in excess The total Populist vote in 1894 was

1,363,452, or 322,424 larger than in 1892. In view of the large Populist vote, it is significant that the Democratic vote in 1892 showed an increase of 18,685 over the vote of 1888, while the Republican vote decreased 264,108 from the vote at the election of four years previous. In the states which will be the battle ground of the election the increase or de pared with 1892, is as	follows	s: In-	De-

In 1802.	In 1894.	crease.	crease.
California 25,872	51,801	25,952
Colorado 53,584	82,111	28,527
Idaho 13,520	7,121		3,39
Illinois 22,207	59,798	87,586
Indiana 22,208,	29,858	7,180
Iowa 20,505	82,118	11,523
Kansas (1895)163,111	118,329		44,78
Michigan 19,892	30,012	10, 120
Minnesota 29,813	87,931	58,618
Montana 7,334	15,240	7,906
Nebraska 83,134	97,815	14,681
Nevada 7,264	5,523		1,74
North Dakota 17,700	9.354		8,34
Ohio (1895) 14,850	52,675	37,825
Oregon 20,005	26,033		96
South Dakota 26,544	7.5 2.6 2.0 2.0	24
Washington 19,165	25,140	5,975
West Virginia 4,166
Wisconsin 9,900		15,005
Wyoming 7.722		7	5.5

These figures do not correctly show in all cases the actual Populistic increase or lecrease. In Colorado, for instance, the Populist vote of 1892 shows the fusion Democratic and Populist vote. In 1894 (the congressional election) the Democrats had no candidate and divided their votes between the Republicans and Populists. In Idaho the Democratic and Populist votes were bunched together in 1892 and separated in 1894. The Kansas vote of 1892 shows the combined Democratic and Populist vote, while in 1895 they were divided. In Nebraska in 1892 there was a bitter fight among the Democrats over the question of fusion on the Populist electoral ticket, the local Democratic leaders fearing they might lose their power in their organization if fusion prevailed. The combination was defeated, but the Democratic vote, which had been 80,552 in 1888 and 71,881 in 1890, dwindled down to 24,943. In 1894, on a union with the Populists on governor, it was 97,815, and 6,985 votes were cast for a silver Democratic candidate. The Democratic Populist governor carried

In North Dakota the Democratic and Populist votes were counted together as Populists in 1892 and separately in 1894. In Nevada in 1894 the vote of 5,523 was cast for Governor Jones, the silver candi-date. Seven hundred and eleven votes were cast for a Populist.

In arriving at the total Populist vote of 1,363,452, in 1894, some Democratic votes are therefore included in cases where Democrats supported Populist candidates. But this is offset by the fact that in North Carolina, where the Republicans fused with the Populists in electing a chief justice of the supreme court, and in other states where the Republicans combined with the Populists in electing judges and congressmen the votes were counted as Republican and no enumeration was made of the Populist votes. Hence the total of 1,363,452 is as nearly accurate as possible. The extent and enthusiasm of the last St. Louis convention, as well as the proof given by these figures, show that the Populist strength has not diminished since its large vote of 1892.

2. Will the Populist support of Bryan be general? It is as ridiculous to suppose that the Populists will not support Bryan as it was to imagine that the Chicago Democratic convention would not avail itself of its ample majority to make good its two-thirds vote, to lay down a platform in accordance with its own views and to select its own standard bearer, or as it was to predict that the St. Louis Populist convention would ow away its chances of success and nominate a candidate who could not be elected in preference to a candidate with a good prospect of success. From the first the Populist convention was in favor of Bryan's nomination, but its members desired to act in a manner that would preserve their or organization intact and not merge it in the Democratic organization. The Texans were more earnest than others on this point, because of their great strength in their state and the much larger strength of the Democracy. But with them, as with all, the talk of a middle of the road candidate for the presidency was as nonsensical as the talk of a "side ditch" bolt from the action of the convention is now.

The nomination of an independent Populist candidate for vice president accomplishes all the so called middle of the road delegates wanted. It preserves the identity of the party, and instead of injuriously affecting the president's vote will serve to increase it.
The last vote in Texas for Governor was, in round numbers: Democratic, 242,000,

Populist, 160,000, and Republican, 55,000. A Populist bolt in Texas would mean the cutting down of the Populist vote 30 per cent and the consequent increase of the

With the Democratic vote in the west strongthened and increased by free silver a straight Populist nominee for president would only lose the Populists the four states they carried with Democratic help in 1892—Colorado, Idaho, Kansas and Ne-ocrats defeat Bryan? In considering the amount of danger to the Chicago ticket from the disaffection of the gold Democrats, it is important to remember that such disaffection is serious in only a limited number of states and is

Of the New England and middle states Maine, New Hampshire, Vermont, Massachusetts and Pennsylvania elected the Republican electoral tickets in 1892 and may be conceded to the Republicans now.

Any gold Democracy movement in those states is immaterial. If half the Democrats should repudiate the Chicago candidates, they could only areal! the Republican may be a could only area! they could only swell the Republican majorities. Connecticut, New York and New Jersey are, on the other hand, very important Democratic states. With Dela-ware, Maryland and West Virginia, their electoral votes were cast for Cleveland in

In the other western and Pacific states combination of the Democratic and Populist votes in 1892 would have made these changes in the results:

California, carried by the Democrats by 144 plurality, would have given 25,496 plurality over the Republicans. Illinois, carried by the Democrats by 26,993 plurality, would have given them a Indiana's Democratic plurality of 7,125 would have been increased to 29,883. Iowa's Republican plurality of 22,965 would have been reduced to 2,370. Michigan's Republican plurality of 20, 903 would have been changed to a plurality of 7,410 against the Republicans. Montana, instead of giving 1,270 plurality for the Republicans, would have given plurality of 6,064 for the Democrats.

Nebraska's Republican plurality of 4,093 over the Populists would have given a plurality of 20,850 against the Republican Ohio would have reversed the Republican plurality of 1,072 to a plurality of 13,778 for the other side.

Oregon, which gave a mixed vote, show ing a small plurality for the Republicans, would have given a plurality of 6,206 against Harrison. South Dakota's plurality of 8,344 for the Republicans would have changed to 737

Washington's Republican plurality 3,658 would have been wiped out and other side.

Minnesota, Montana, Nebraska, North and South Dakota, Oregon, Washington and West Virginia are all counted

They are placed in the Democratic column for good and convincing reasons. Minnesota, because the Democratic and Populist vote of 1892, with both those parties inharmonious and dissatisfied, was ,410 larger than the Republican vote. Montana, because without the prestige of union and free silver coinage the Democratic and Populist vote combined was 6,064 larger than the Republican vote in 1892 for president, 2,489 larger in the con-gressional election of 1894 and 7,257 larger n the last election for governor. Nebraska, because the combined vote was 20,850 larger than the Republican vote in 1892, 10,187 larger in 1894 for governor and 19,614 larger last year on supreme court judge.

North Dakota, because fusion without

South Dakota, because the Democrat and Populists together had a plurality over the Republicans in 1892 under adverse circumstances that kept Democrats from the polls and reduced their vote more than 60 per cent. Washington, because it has shown large Democratic and Populist pluralities over the Republicans in 1892 and all subsequent West Virginia, because its straight Democrats gave Cleveland a plurality, beause all its state officers and judiciary are Democratic and because in eight elections only one has been Republican in its result.

Still not enough to elect McKinley. On the other hand, it is seriously questioned whether New York, with its deadly Republican local feud and a Democracy growing in enthusiasm for Bryan, whose only crimes appear to be his youth and his eloquence, will be found in the Republican column. Many Democrats deny that Ohio can be safely counted for McKinley, while. every man with a knowledge of politics can judge whether it will not be more probable that Iowa, Michigan and Wisconsin will be found rolling on to the Democratic shore on the great western tidal wave than that Delaware, Illinois, Indiana, Nebraska, North Carolina, Oregon and Louisiana will range themselves in the Republican column.
