WHOLE NO. 9,013

Attention is called to the following REDUCED RATES of Subscription to THE MORNING STAR:

TO MAIL SUBSCRIBERS.

TO CITY SUBSCRIBERS.
The STAR will be delivered by carrier at any point in the city at 13 cents per week, or 45 cents per month.

Our opinion is that Mr. Dugald Crawford, of St. Louis, who discharged a lot of his clerks because they said they were going to vote for Bryan, is the most, if not the best advertised retail man in that burg. But when they made it so hot for him, Mr. Crawford crawled, and told the men they could go back to work and do their own voting without his assistance.

Mr. Edward Lauderbach, chairman of the Republican committee of New York, is getting warm under the collar and declares that if Bryan is elected "we will not abide by that decision." But what is Mr. Lauderbach going to do about it? Our impression is that in that event, there will be lots of people who will see that he does abide by it.

Hon. Tom Reed says he is "not one of those who discuss Mexico, China and such countries." Tom is quite right, and shows that he has a good deal more sense than other Republican stumpers, who would find all their time sufficiently employed in covering up or defending the reeking record of their party.

The presumption is that the ex-Confederates who join Hanna's pilgrim parties to Canton will be forgiven. It is said that Mr. McKinley even enjoys the rebel yell—doubtless a good deal more than he did some thirty odd years ago, when he heard it under different circumstances.

There are some amusing features in this campaign. One of them is the Republican leaders posing as moralists. In the early days, by the way, they used to call the Republican party "the God-and-morality" party. But with its history it is amusing to see them playing this role now.

For the benefit of Gov. O'Ferrall, of Virginia, who is now for gold, with one eye on Senator Daniel's seat in the Senate, the Richmond Dispatch is reproducing some of his silver speeches in Congress, which must be interesting reading for him and also for other people.

Senator Quay says McKinley is already elected, and the Republicans who have great confidence in Quay's prognosticating powers, say that settles it. But they keep pegging away all the same, which leads to the suspicion that they are not quite sure that that does settle it.

Perhaps Mr. Hanna is sending those delegations of pilgrims to Canton to show that the workmen have lots of money to spend.

Registration in Chicago has been increased about 60,000 over the last election.

—Mr. Leger Meyer has returned from New York. He has bought a complete stock of all the latest styles of goods for his merchant tailoring establishment just opened on Market street, near Bellamy's drug store.

LOCAL DOTS.

Items of Interest Gathered Here and There and Briefly Noted.

—To-day.

—To-day, Saturday.

—To-day, Saturday, the 17th of October.

—Yes, to-day, Saturday, is the last day for registration.

—Gallant Cy. Watson! He is still in the ring.

—Register to-day. Those who are not on the books before 4 p. m. will have no vote.

—If your name is not on the registration books before 4 o'clock p. m. to-day you cannot vote.

—The Criminal Court, after disposing of a few cost cases yesterday, adjourned for the term at noon.

—One of the span-poles of the street railway on Castle street left yesterday forenoon while a car was passing, and narrowly missed the car.

—If you have registered, don't be satisfied with that. Use your influence with those white men who have not registered. Remember, to-day is the last day.

—The news from Raleigh, printed and circulated in the "Extra" issued from the STAR office yesterday, was received with rejoicing by the Democrats of Wilmington.

—Every Democrat who wishes to enjoy the privilege of voting against Daniel L. Russell must have his name on the registration books. This is the last day of registration.

—There will be no fusion between Democrats and Populists except for Presidential electors. Our State and Congressional tickets will stand as are, every candidate being a straight Silver Democrat.

—Mr. Albert Hiram Birdseye, son of Mr. Samuel R. Birdseye, formerly of Wilmington, N. C., and Miss Mary Anna Martin, a member of one of the oldest and most prominent families of Florida, were married Wednesday of last week in the Episcopal church at Ocala.

—Every Democrat or Populist who fails to vote for the joint electoral ticket in its entirety endangers the election of William J. Bryan. In 1892, in the State of Ohio, which polls nearly a million votes, the election was so close that Cleveland got one of the twenty-three electors.

—There are several hundred unregistered Democrats in Wilmington who think the election of Daniel L. Russell would be a public calamity. If they wish to vote as they think, they must register to-day, the 17th. It is positively the last day. Hours from 9 a. m. to 4 p. m.

FINALLY SETTLED.

DEMOCRATS CAN NOW GO TO WORK.

There Will Be No Change in Our State or Congressional Tickets—There Will Be No Fusion Except on the Electoral Ticket.

The STAR is glad to announce that all talk of fusion has ended, as the following telegraphic correspondence will show:

WILMINGTON, N. C., Oct. 15.
Hon. Clement Manly, Chairman, Etc., Raleigh, N. C.:

Can we go to work now with the distinct understanding that there will be no change whatever in our ticket?

WM. H. BERNARD, of State Executive Committee.

To the above the following laconic, but highly satisfactory, reply was received:

RALEIGH, N. C., Oct. 16.
Wm. H. Bernard, Wilmington, N. C.:

YES.

CLEMENT MANLY, Chmn. State Dem. Ex. Committee.

Lookout for Colonists.

It is developed that the large excursion of negroes from South Carolina on Thursday, was part of a colonization scheme on the part of the Republicans. It was not disguised. About 90 per cent. of those who came here then are still in the city. The Democratic Committee caught on to this early yesterday morning. They have located a part of these and expect to have a full roster to-day. If they register to-day it is not likely that they will return home by Christmas. They will be prosecuted to a man and Judge Meares will give them the full benefit of the law.

The Man of Gallies.

The many Wilmingtonians who heard Hon. Geo. R. Weddell, of Washington, D. C., last year will remember how much they enjoyed his lecture on "The Man of Gallies," and will be glad to learn that he speaks this time on "Saul of Tarsus," a lecture which those of our citizens who have heard it say can scarcely be said to be second even to his great lectures.

Something for Boys.

A meeting for boys only will be held at the Y. M. C. A. to-morrow, Sunday afternoon, at 11:30 o'clock. All boys are invited to be on hand. Some of the boys of Wilmington, who have attended boys' meetings there in the past, will be very glad to know that they are to be resumed and that all boys can attend. There should be a large crowd at this first meeting.

To Be Married.

Invitations have been sent out to the marriage of Miss Annie Belle Sackett to Mr. William Goodridge Sale, to take place in the First Presbyterian Church, Lynchburg, Va., October 28th. Mr. Sale is one of the operators in the Western Union Telegraph office in this city, and has hosts of friends here who extend hearty congratulations to his prospective good fortune.

Deer Slayed From Charlotte.

A jovial party of hunters from Charlotte, N. C., arrived in the city last evening from Pender county, where they spent a week enjoying a hunt, which proved very successful. The members of the party are Messrs. W. L. Pharr, Jno. O. Alexander and D. P. Lee. They averaged one deer for every day spent in the woods. Messrs. Alexander and Lee are venerable citizens and Mr. Pharr is a young man. They report that the South Carolina negroes are being colonized there to stuff ballot boxes, that they will slip up, as committees have been appointed to watch them close.
