DONT BE FOOLED.

We can understand how a man who lives in the North and owns millions of dollars may, in a campaign like this, when it is a contest between aggressive, arrogant, corporate wealth on one side, and the people on the other, prefer the Republican party to the Democratic party, although he may call himself a Democrat, because the Republican party represents the wealth and the Democratic party the people, but we cannot understand how any Southerd man, much less Southern Democrat, who is not hopelessly blind or unpatriotically selfish can do it. The man who lives and has his income by dealing in money is apt to view things, his politics included, from a cold money stand point, and is more apt than others to align himself with that party which shows the most leaning towards his dollars, regardless of the bearing that leaning may have on the welfare of others or on the country, and while there are many of these both in the North and in the South who have heretofore acted with the Democratic party who are now acting with the Republican party directly or indirectly, either supporting McKinley or McKinley's aids-Palmer and Buckner-there would be if the Republican party had adopted the financial plack in the Democratic platform and the Democratic party had adopted the gold plank of the Republican platform many of the money dealers who were Republicans now supporting the Democratic party, simply from a money standpoint, for that is the all absorbing in every election since 1868, hide, question with them. There is no hair, tail and all, the only difference principle in money, there is no senti- being that the tail is a little longer, ment in money, there is no soul in money, no patriotism in money. John M. Palmer, one of its representatives in this campaign, the man | by Hal Ayer and S. Otho Wilson, the who claims to be its special repre- tail. It anything it has more meansentative, for he poses as the "sound ness and devilment in it than ever money" candidate, said in a speech | before for it has assistants in meanunder a righteous monarchy than before. under such principles as the Chicago convention declares for," and its representatives, of high and low Hanna put up to be voted for. We ignorance and fears to secure their dinary negro registration, the defec would be sorry to believe that there votes for a party and for men who are many of that kind of "Demo- care no more for them the day after crats" in the South, but there may the election than they do for a dead be some. But if there are, we still | dog; nor perhaps as much, for some believe that the large majority of of them might skin the carcass of the those who are supporting the dog and sell the hide.

Palmer-Buckner decoy ticket are honest and that they do not fully realize the extent of the deception that has been practiced upon them, nor the full consequences of the support they give that ticket or the | State might not be repeated? support they give McKinley, if they himself a Democrat, there is more involved than dollars, whether he be worth millions (and very few Southern men are) or hasn't money enough to buy a second shirt. The question of home rule, selt-government, white supremacy, is involved, and that amounts to something more than dollars, and the man who opposes the Democratic party in this contest is striking at these, although he may not so see it.

They will say that they are oppospreserve the Democratic party. What | spired. folly. Is putting the Republican party in power, giving it full possession of the ship, the way to preserve their own party and secure possesslon and command of the ship?

But there is no one with any sense who now believes that this was the object in view when this revolt against the Democratic party was fomented by the money power of the East, for it has been candidly admitted that the object was to defeat the ticket nominated at Chicago, in order that the same power might continue to dictate the financial policies of this Government. To aid in this they have sent their hired emissaries from the North to strengthen the revolt in the South and thus aid McKinley. They do this while posing as Democrats, and pretending to be anxious for the perpetuation of the Democratic party, which would be, it perpetuated as they want it perpetuated, the creature and tool of Wall street, which pays them for the service they render.

We have had a number of these emissaries in North Carolina, and some natives. Among them was a Mr. Lindley Vinton, imported, who spoke in a number of places in this State, including this city. He is now doing missionary work in West Virginia. He was down here delivering "sound money" speeches for the sound money men, and was travelling with a native patriot who had but recently joined the "sound make the deception more complete. Mr. Vinton didn't chip in anything about McKinley in his speeches, but on passing through Washington he told a Washington Star reporter that "the chances are excellent for Mc-Kinley carrying the State." He then went on to tell about the large registration of negro voters, and the defection of Democrats, as the basis of his confidence in Mr. McKinley's

"excellent chances." With him "sound money" means McKinley, for Palmer and Buckner are in it only as aids to McKinley, and he is practically right, for the "sound money" campaign is simply a diversion in favor of McKinley and the Republican party. They are using the catch phrase "sound money" as Hanna is using the Amer. ican flag, to deceive people and rope them into the McKinley

Are men who call themselves Southern Democrats prepared for

Are they prepared to cast their votes, directly or indirectly, for the election of McKinley and for the restoration of the Republican party, which it took us twenty-five years to drive out of power?

Are they willing to permit themselves, under the deceptive plea of "sound money," to be used as tools by the plotters for this purpose?

This means to us more than money. It means that self-government, home rule and white supremacy are involved and that the man who permits himself to be made a tool of by these plotters is striking a deadly blow at these, a blow the effect of which will be felt in the future if not right now. In this emergency every white man who loves the South should be with the South and her people, and with the Democratic party, which has always been her friend and defender. No delusive cry of "sound money" should lure or drive him into the camp of the enemy.

The Republican party, as we see it in North Carolina to-day, is the same old dog that we have had to cudgel and the head somewhat more snappy and venomous. Russell is the head. the Populist contingent, represented recently that he would "rather live ness and devilment that it never had polls will be attended to by the Re- of things that I was not to eat, but he

Holden was not by nature a tyrant, but he was a weak, pliant man who went with his party and permitted himself to be influenced and controlled by political adventurers who following a victorious army had got temporary foothold in our State and in our State councils, and by mercenary, self-seeking natives who were as unprincipled and as unscrupulous as the adventurers with ing the national Democratic party to whom they associated and con-

Daniel L. Russell is not a weak nor a pliant man. He has a marked individuality.

He has a will power that brooks

no opposition. Assertive in the extreme and recklessly bold, he has a vaulting ambition and his next step will be to climb into the United States Senate if he secure the Gubernatorial prize for which he is struggling so desperately now in the face of obstacles and odds that would have discouraged and deterred a less nervy and determined man.

The Governorship under him would be used simply as a stepping-stone to the Senate, and as far as his influence and control over legislation went they would be used to strengthen and perpetuate Republican rule, to control the ballot box, in the interest of his party.

The time to guard against all this, and the possibility of the frightful partisan rule of the past, which forms such a dark and dismal page in North Carolina's history, is now, when the true patriotic sons of North Carolina can prevent it by going to the ballot box and voting against Russell and the whole conspiring

HAL AYER AND HOLTON.

Hal. Ayer, Chairman of the Populist State Committee, and Holton, enlightenment of Democrats, who Chairman of the Republican State were supposed to be the only un- Committee, are working hand in hand. Mr. Holton is now distributing throughout the State another "confidential" circular to Populists, money" contingent. This was to written and signed by Hal. Ayer, as Chairman of the Populist Committee, The presumption is that this circular is to offset and in as far as it can neutralize the effect of Hon. W. H. Guthrie's address to the people of North Carolina.

This is another illustration of how he is "playing a game of politics" by playing into Holton's hand to help ditor, and to help defeat free silver by aiding in the election of Republican Congressmen committed to the gold-standard.

apology and attempted defence for his co operation and close fellowship with Holis that the Republican ton party is a better friend to the Populist party than the Democratic party is and a better friend to free silver. If he believes that the Republican party is a better friend to free silver than the Democratic party is then why does he contradict and stultify himself by pretending to work for the election of Wm. J. Bryan, and why does he advocate the election of Bryan in his paper? If he is honest why does he attack the letter of W. A. Guthrie, (which he refused to publish) because Mr. Guthrie appealed to Populists to vote for free silver men and against gold standard

This whole campaign has been full of double-dealing hypocrisy and treachery in which the Populist machine managers and the Republican machine managers in Raleigh have been in thorough accord from the beginning and will be in accord until the votes are counted and the results of the election proclaimed. If the secret history of it could be written it would be one of basest infamy, and if the honest people of North Carolina do not rebuke it the shame will be theirs.

BOGUS TICKETS.

Announcement comes from Raleigh that 100,000 bogus tickets have been sent into this State, bearing the names of the Populist electors only.

Of course, the Cabarrus county man, who is charged with this fraud didn't foot the bill and didn't undertake the job of distributing these bogus ballots and getting them to the polls to be voted, and neither is he paying the men who will peddle them at the polls.

The money for all this will come out of the Hanna campaign fund, and the necessary work of distributing and getting them peddled at the publican committee at Raleigh.

Hanna and the so-called "sound money" emissaries who have been tion of the "sound money Demo crats," supplemented by trickery and fraud, upon which they are counting more than upon anything else.

With a Republican Legislature and | tures of villainy will be developed before election day, and some perhaps not until the day of election, when they think it will be too late

Let every Democrat keep his eyes open, watch these villains and see, in as far as he, as a true son of North General Sickels expressed it, by stored to power at Washington, it Carolina can prevent it, that we are not beaten in this election by fraud

> The Republican campaign managers in Chicago concede, according to the correspondent of the Washington Star, a gold McKinley paper, that Bryan has gained in Illinois, but say the election will be decided by the "reticent" vote. Why, this is the State they were claiming a short while ago by a majority ranging all the way from 100,000 to 150,000. There must be a great many "reticent" people in Suckerdom. By the way, we have remarked that there has been a re markable lack of McKinley enthusiasm. Even little Comptroller Eckels couldn't stir up much.

The Philadelphia Enquirer, Re publican, is raising the cry of "stop thief." It excitedly announces that the Democrats are putting $4,000, 000 in the doubtful Middle States, and expect to carry them for Bryan with this money. Considering the fact that the Democratic National Committee has been taunted by the Republican organs with scarcely being able to raise money enough to pay its postage bills this is a splen did autumnal joke.
