The following is from the Philadelphia Ledger, the day after the election: "The first thing the factories will do this morning will be to take down the orders marked 'Not to be filled if Bryan is elected' and set their men to work." This was one of the meanest methods resorted to to influence the labor vote against Bryan. But there was no "coercion" in that! Oh, no! That's something the dear souls who had such a high regard for the sacredness of the ballot never thought of! They would not coerce a workman for the world, only just remind him that if he didn't vote their way he would lose his job.

We observe from the official returns of Mecklenburg county that the esteemed Generals Palmer and Buckner received 26 votes in the city of Charlotte and 29 votes in the entire county. Will our esteemed contemporaries, the Observer and the News, send out a "tracer" and use diligent effort to ascertain what became of the other 300 to 400 Mecklenburg Democrats who were supposed to be for the esteemed Generals? We are ever so anxious to know.

The Augusta Chronicle appropri ately remarks that the Democratic party cannot be too grateful to Wm. R. Hearst, editor of the New York Journal. True. Mr. Hearst enjoys the distinction of having published the only Democratic paper in New York and the only paper which stood by the people in the contest. It is a great paper.

"Now for business revival," exclaims the New York Herald. All right, let it come right along, and not stand on the order of its coming. We're all ready for it.

For fear that some who have handsome flowers may not have been visited by the committee of ladies having in charge the flower display for the chrysanthemum show, the STAR is requested to say that any persons who have flowers are requested to exhibit them. It they do not wish to compete for one of the prizes, the ladies will be glad to display the flowers, and will also be obliged for any cut flowers to be used for decoration. Flowers can be sent to Mrs. Jno. H. Rehder, Mrs. S. H. Fishblate or Mrs. A. D. McClure on next Thursday morning, November 12th, or they will be sent for if either of the above ladies are notified. All friends of the Oxford Orphan Asylum are requested to do what they can to obtain a large and handsome exhibition. No Interference With Employes. To the credit of the management of the Atlantic Coast Line, be it said, there was nothing approximating coercion of employes in connection with the recent election. In fact, every man in its employ voted according to his convictions without even the slightest apprehension that it would affect his relations to the Coast Line. A few of the employes voted for McKinley and a few for Palmer; but an overwhelming majority of them voted for Bryan, The STAR knows this statement is correct; and it believes it applies, also, to the other railroads running into Wilmington.

Death of Mrs. A. D. Cassux. The death is announced of Mrs. Sarah W. Cazaux, wife of Capt. A. D. Cazaux, of Wilmington. She died at the residence of the family on Wrightsville Sound early yesterday morning. Mrs. Cazaux had been sick for some time, but her death was sudden and unexpected. To day we print a special telegram which is approximately correct. It will be seen that the Populists have it in their power to elect a United States Senator, as the Democrats will vote with them in that issue rather than support Pritchard or any other gold standard Republican.

A ROTTEN TRIUMPH.

REPUBLICAN RASCALITY DEFEATED THE DEMOCRATS.

Resudulent Begistra ion and Voting of Disand find Negrate Carried the Election tor Russell-Chairman Manly's Statement-Political Complexion of the Ligislature. [Special Star Telegrams]

RALEIGH, N. C. November 6 .- Chairman Manly gave out the following interview this afternoon : "The political battle of this year i over. In the national contest we made an arrangement with the People's party for the electoral ticket. We have elected the ticket by about 15,000 votes. Whatever the action of other States has been in the support of Mr. Bryan, our candidate in this year of 1896, the Democracy of this State has done its duty. The arrangement between the two parties for their joint support of Mr. Bryan has been honorably carried out by each of them, and when on September 10th I stated in the public press that the sunrise of November 4th would see Democracy hosorable in the discharge of its agreement, it is gratifying to know that the result justified the prediction.

"We have lost the State ticket by small majority of counted votes, Watson being about 5 000 votes behind Russell. But the people of this State can truly feel and know that the Democratic ticket, composed of the best men in the land, was elected by the honest vote of the State, and that fraudulent registration and voting of disqualified negrors has defeated our candidates. On this rotten base stands the Republi can triumph. No truer or more bonorable man could have been selected than Watson as the leader of the ticket. His illorss in the thick of the fight was a great trial to him and a great loss to the party; and this man, who from his boyhood has been true to North Carolina and her people, in war and in peace, has been defeated by wards packed with illegal negro voters in the various cities in this State, worked by corrupt election machinery. The retures fully show this, and further show that in every white county, with rare of Mr. Geo. A. Burns. exceptions, Democracy made its splen-ticket so near to victory." Major Grant is the only Republican who does not concede Bryan's victory in the State. He thinks McKinley will get two or more electors on account of scratching. He says an official count will be necessary. All indications point to a majority of 15,000 in the State for construction bonds were redeemed by the State Treasurer to day. Logue Harris figures the representaion of the three parties in the Legislature this way: Democrats, fifty; Popuists, fifty five, and Republicans, sixtyive. Democrats and Populists would by a combination be ab'e to defeat Pritchard. IT Butler is opposed to

Bryan. All the headquarters are practically closed. Holton and Grant left to day. Chairman Manly leaves to-morrow. Twenty-one thousand eight hundred dollars in old North Carolina Railway
