The German Government is delighted with the result of the election in this country. All the gold countries are pleased with it.

Mr. Coffin ran for coroner in a New Jersey town and the blockhead voters who couldn't see the harmony of the combination, defeated it.

Lord Rothschild, in London, received the news of "McKinley's election with delight." Of course. That meant more soft snaps for him.

The New York Sun rises to exclaim: "The National Democrats the only Democrats." Gracious ! How the party must have "swunk."

The conclusion of the Hanna programme was played the day after the election when "the mills started up" and began to fill the "conditional orders "

The snob papers of New York puffed William H. Vanderbilt because he rode four miles to vote against Bryan. It isn't often that the New York millionaries take as much interest in an election as that.

Come to think of it, it would be land if he had to escort Mr. Bryan terday.
