To-night at the Opera House. The bright, new and up-to-date farce comedy, "A Night's Frolic," will be presented at the Opera House to-night by a company of farceurs under the management of Wilson & Thayer. When Augustus Thomas framed "A Night's Frolic," he constructed it to bring forth laughter, and laugh it has made millions. Full of witty sayings, funny scenes and ludicrous situations, it never tails to create mirth. The plot is comedy and the characters comical. Mr. Thomas, the author, is one of the foremost of American dramatists, having written many of the successful plays of the day "Alabama," "The Burglar," "The Capitol," etc. The company which will present the roaring farce is composed of did it if wearing a serene countenance, artists of acknowledged ability and all who attend the show to-night may expect to see and have "A Night's Frolic."

A CAPABLE AND TRUSTED FOR DO NG WHAT

With Using His

Judge W. B. Fh. Democrat, who, ha leave of absence from in Treasury Department, il during the campaign for Sewall, and was summarily rem day before the election, has written following letter to Secretary Carlisle WASHINGTON, D. C. Nov. 7.

Hon. John G. Carlisle, Secretary of the Treasury, City: SIR-Our Government guarantees to all its citizens the privilege of free speech, so that every American has the natural right to express in a proper manner his political opinions. In accepting office the citizen forfeits neither his civil nor his religious liberty. The Civil Service law was intended not to destroy these rights, but to protect them, so that the minor official should at least be as secure in defending the creed and nominee of his party as would be a Cabinet officer in exercising the same inalienable rights. No objection on your part to my ac-tivity in the campaign which has closed was ever made known to me pending the campaign. On the contrary, I was informed that you held to the view that you could not consistently remove any man from office for exercising the same rights which you yourself were exercising. My removal from office, the first intimation of which was obtained from the newpapers while on the train on my return to Washington from my home. was therefore a complete surprise to self the long friendship I had manifested for you, the interest I had taken, and the sacrifices of time and money made by me in promoting your ambito me that I was at least entitled to some warning and notice before being kicked out of office, without even the opportunity of declining to resign.

Had I known or suspected that I could not hold office under this administration of an American freeman, I would have promptly tendered you my resignation at the opening of this campaign.

Inasmuch as other appointees of the present administration, including many in your own department, have been permitted to take an active part against Mr. Bryan in the campaign, not only on tion, without rebuke or removal, it is have used your great office to suppress punish those who dare to differ from you-a thing insupportable in free government-by terrorizing over the weak and humble. For such abuse of public office, which is a public trust, you cannot but be held accountable at the bar of public opinion as well as by the ver-

and at the same time exercise the rights lict of history. In conclusion. I can only say that, humble as I am, I would rather be a discharged employe of the Treasury Department-discharged for doing my duly as I see it for my people-than to be Secretary of the Treasury with a ecord of self-stultification, such as you have made for yourself, staring me in

This much of a protest I deem it proper to make against your treacherous and tyrannous action.

Very truly yours, W. B. FLEMING.

LOST IN LAST THREE DAYS.

What Chairman Jones Bays of Bryan's Grea Battle-He Attributes the Loss of Workingmen's Votes to the Placing of Many Commercial Orders Contingent

Upon McKinley's Election. HOPE, ARK., November 9 .- A public eception was tendered Senator James K. Jones at the Opera House in this city this afternoon. The meeting was arranged for the purpose of allowing the Senator's friends and neighbors to show their appreciation of his work in the recent campaign, and from every point it was a great success. People came into town from all over Hempstead county to welcome the Senator, and the little Opera House was literally packed, many ladies and children being present, all anxious to see Senator Jones. After a cordial greeting. Senator lones spoke for an hour or more on the campaign and the obstacles that had to be met. He said that the result was victory for the Democratic party. He said that while they had lost the election they had not lost the fight. The cause of silver was stronger to-day than it was when the campaign opened, and victory was assured in 1900.

He paid a high tribute to William J. Bryan and said he had made one of the most wonderful fights that had ever been made by any leader. He said that a large number of commercial orders placed previous to election day and contingent upon McKinley's election had been made use of in influencing the votes of workingmen, and had caused thousands of Bryan men to vote for McKinley, and that Bryan lost the election by the changes made during the three last days of the campaign.

The Senator did not make any effort at a speech, but talked to his friends in a conversational tone. His remarks, nevertheless, elicited generous applause. His farmer friends were out in force, and many Populists and Republicans were in the audience, and i sined in to make the welcome a hearty one. Senator Jones will remain in Hope several days before leaving for Washington.

Round trip tickets will be sold over the C. F. & Y. V. R. R. to Fayetteville, on account of the Fair, at the following rates, including admission to the Fair: Wilmington, $3 40; Montague, $2 00; that may be so, but the "sound morals"—oh, hush.
