THE FLOWER SHOW.

Scene of Enchantment at the Y. M. C. A. Building-Many Visitors-Randsoms Displays-Prints Awarded-The Show to Continue . This Evening.

The handsome parlors of the Young Men's Christian Association presented a scene of enchantment last evening. The auspicious occasion was the opening of the Chrysanthemum Show, given for the benefit of the Oxford Orphan

The halls, parlors and adjoining rooms of the building were tastefully festoone with ferns, palms, etc., and the soft glow of the incandescent electric lights upon the plants, and the fragrant odor from the flowers fall went to perfect a "Palace of Eschantment." At every turn the eye was greeted with the rarest and most beautiful crysanthemums of all colors

Before the opening of the doors a committee of three gentlemen-Major W. A. Johnson and Messrs. Junius Davis and Clayton Giles-awarded the following prizes: First prize, ten dollars, to Mr. Will Rehder, for the finest display of growing chrysanthemums.

Second prize, five dollars, to Mr. Lot Williams, of Wilson, N. C. for the finest display of cut chrysanthemums. Third prize, five dollars, to Mrs.W. H Pemberton, of Fayetteville, for the finest single growing chrysanthemum. Special prize, five dollars, to Miss Fannie Johnson and Miss Lucy Moore, for the finest display of palms and ferns. During the early part of the evening the visitors were entertained with a stercopticon exhibition, the finest ever given in this city. This part of the evening's entertainment was in charge of Mr. Jos. . Caffrey, with the compliments of the B. T. Babbitt soap house, which Mr. Caffrey represents. He was ably assisted by a full orchestra, which as each scene was flashed upon the canvas would play appropriate music.

After the stereopicon exhibition those present were left to wend their way among the beautiful flowers. The southern section of the parlors was taken up with a handsome display of ferns, palms. crysanthems, etc., from the hot houses of Mr. Will Rehder, florist. Among the handsome displays of flowers were Rountree and Mrs. Samuel Hall. The cities of Baltimore, Philadelphia, Wilson and Fayetteville were also represented. One of the most handsome exhibits was a cluster of artificial fruit and flowers made of paper, mounted on a pedestal of cotton, the work of Mrs. Julia Booker. This handsome ornament will be sold for the benefit of the orphans. The flowers will be sold after the entertainment to-night. The following ladies are in charge: Governing Committee-Mrs. A. D. McClure, chairman; Mrs. C. C. Brown, Mrs. Jas. F. Post, Jr., Mrs. S. H. Fishblate, Mrs. John H. Rehder, Miss Kate

Brown and Mrs. J. F. Post, Jr., chairmen; Mrs. W. W. Hodges, Mrs. M. S. Willard, Mrs. N. Jacobi, Mrs. J. L. Cantwell, Mrs. M. C. S. Noble, Mrs. S. H. Burt, Mrs. L. S. Belden, Mrs. R. H. Interesting Disclosures-Republicans and lists Received Pay For ing For Each Other. [Special Star Correspondence.]

RALEIGH, N. C., Nov. 12. Governor-elect Russell and nearly all the newly elected officers have filed itemized statements of their election expenditures. The time allowed for filing these accounts expires to-morrow night, and the law says that any candidate failing to do so shall fortest his office. Richmond Pearson and Rev. W. A. Martin are the only candidates who have failed to do so. The statements rendered are exceedingly interesting. They reveal the fact that Republicans received pay from Populists for doing faithful work and vice versa. Otho Wilson's Hayseeder was a good thing, judging from the accounts. Re-publicans and Populists both contributed fancy prices to the publication.

Judge Russell's expenditures in the campaign amounted in all to $599. Of course the amount of $3,000, which Maj. Grant said it cost him to get the nomi nation, is not put down. Judge Russell gave $100 to the Republican committee, $50 as subscription to various newspapers, $402 for personal expenses and $30 to Ki Gudger, which the Judge says he hopes to get back. Linney's expense account is by far the largest. It is $1,100. He gave three preachers $5 each. One of them, he says, is a Hardshell Baptist and a Democrat. He gave Hal Ayer $50 for extra copies of the Caucasian.

J. J. Martin, the Republican elector. outs down "whiskey" as an item in his expense account. J. E Fowler, Populist Congressman n the Third, files his expenses at $198.
