The Baltimore students who showed their esteem for Rip by unhooking Joe Jefferson's horses, and pulling the carriage around town themselves, were conferring a marked distinction on Mr. Jefferson. They also distinguished themselves as much in need of a keeper. A man never honors another by degrading himself. Joe was doubtless disgusted, but couldn't help himself, as the young men had unhitched the horses and started off before he became aware of what they were doing.

The frog industry, which has for some time been hopping lively in New Jersey, is spreading into Maryland and promises to be a flourishing one. These frogs are shipped to the large cities where they are in great demand and bring good prices. They do not serve only the hind pedals as formerly but barbecue the vocalist and serve him whole.

Hon. Henry Watterson sees danger ahead for this country in the sectional spirit between the East and the West. In the meantime he is trying to make himself comfortable and get as much fun out of life as he can in a country where the wine is as thin as it is over there in Switzerland.

It is said that some of the Georgia statesmen, who voted for Alexander Stephens Clay for Senator, thought they were voting for Alec Stephens, of whose demise they hadn't heard. But as this story comes from South Carolina, its accuracy may be questioned.

Mr. John Wanamaker, of Philadelphia, says he is willing to serve as U. S. Senator "if the people want him." But he isn't going around asking the people whether they "want him" very bad. He is in the ring and is going to take his chances on that.

Hon. Bourke Cockran, of New York, advises the Democrats in Congress to "pass the Revenue bill." He hardly thinks that, under the circumstances, Bourke's advice will pass among the Democrats in Congress.

If the X ray restores the sight of the blind it is now predicted it will, there will be hope for some of those people who voted at the last election for the perpetuation of the British money standard in this country.

Li Hung Chang is getting disgusted and wants to retire. Secretary Carlisle is not the only disappointed statesman.

The Republican National Committee spent $2,500,000 and has about $90,000 to start business on next Tuesday.

Confederate Veterans and Mech. Estimated Obituaries of Wilmington.
A death occurred in Wilmington yesterday which was heard of with sincere sorrow by every working man in the city. It was the passing away of Mr. John McEvoy, who has been a machinist and carpenter at the Atlantic Coast Line shops for the past thirty years, and was a true, honorable and upright man in every walk of life and highly respected by his fellow employees. He was 74 years old at the time of his death, which occurred at 10 o'clock yesterday at his residence, No. 810 North Second street.
Mr. McEvoy was a native of Ireland and served in the British army. Coming to this country, when the war between the States began he volunteered in the Confederate service and was promoted to a lieutenant in a company in the Second regiment, N. C. State Troops, and served with credit and distinction throughout the war. He was a member of the Hibernian Benevolent Society ever since its organization in this city thirty years ago. His face was always familiar in the ranks of the Confederate Veterans and the Hibernian Benevolent Society. He leaves a wife and one daughter, Mrs. Jas. C. Rowan.

KIRMESS AND CARNIVAL.

A Splendid Entertainment to be Given by Ladies in Aid of the Cornelius Hardest Monument Fund.
It is not very often that our people have an opportunity of enjoying such an entertainment as is now being prepared for them by the ladies of this city, and never has one been offered which more strongly appealed to their pride and patriotism.
Beginning on the 14th of December, and continuing for four nights, there will be a grand spectacular Kirmess and Carnival of the Nations, under the direction of Mr. McDonald, of New York, a professional trainer, who has managed similar entertainments in all the large cities, and who made such a brilliant success of the one presented in Richmond, Va., a year ago.
The object of the entertainment is to complete the fund already raised to erect monument to Cornelius Hardest, the great Revolutionary patriot and statesman of the Cape Fear. So, that who patronize the enterprise will not only witness an interesting and beautiful series of performances; but will be contributing to a truly patriotic purpose, the neglect of which has long been a subject of reproach to the State, and especially to this community.
The Kirmess will consist of a series of dances in costume, selected from the most picturesque national dances, including those of Greece, Egypt, Spain, Japan, Sweden, Germany, as also Gypsy and Indian dances.
The number of ladies interested in the entertainment is very large, and its success is assured.
Connected with it and in the City Hall adjoining the Opera House, where it will be given, there will be the Kirmess Ten, where supper will be furnished on orders, and where booths of the different nations will be placed, from which many beautiful things may be bought.
It is hoped and expected that the Opera House and City Hall will be crowded to overflowing every evening during the Kirmess, as they ought to be when such attractions for so noble an object are offered.
The committees are as follows:
Executive—Mr. W. F. Robertson (Chairman), Messrs. G. W. Kiddler, Clayton Giles, Wm. Calder, Jas. Sprunt, P. H. Hoge, J. K. Nye and Miss Nellie Draper.
Costumes—Mrs. J. K. Nye.
Music—Mrs. G. W. Kiddler.
Advertising—Col. Walker Taylor (Chairman), Col. A. M. Waddell, Messrs. W. F. Robertson, Geo. Elliott, Jas. H. Cowan, A. M. Waddell, Jr., Capt. A. J. DeRosier.
Programme—Mr. Geo. Elliott (Editor), Messrs. H. Parsley, D. Lippitt, W. Williams, D. Munds, and John T. Rankin.
Supper and Booth—Messrs. C. H. King, W. R. Kennen, T. H. McKoy, Fred Fosgate, E. J. Powers, F. Rheinhardt, W. E. Storm.
House—Mr. R. S. Sweet (Chairman), Mr. W. Merrill and Messrs. H. Parsley, J. L. James and G. Elliott.
Tickets—Mr. W. A. Whiting.
Secretary—Mrs. J. K. Nye.

RALEIGH NEWS BUDGET.

DELEGATES APPOINTED BY GOV. CARR TO THE TAMPA CONGRESS.
The Oconee News Budget has published the names of the delegates to the Tampa Convention. The names of the delegates are: W. G. Curtis, Southport; Jas. L. Fowle, Washington; Maj. A. J. Galloway, Goldsboro; Col. R. B. Creech, Elizabeth City; W. S. Battle, Rocky Mount; J. E. Pope, Raleigh; Peter D. Rice, Greensboro; Dr. J. H. McAllen, Charlotte; Wm. M. Cooke, and Wm. E. Breeze, Asheville.
Mr. R. C. Rivers, foreman and business manager of the Oconee, has returned from Elliott City, where he went to see Senator Butler relative to the trouble of the paper. Senator Butler was unaware that the Oconee had been levied upon. He made arrangements to have the paper taken out of the hands of the publisher and to be done to-day. Editor Ayer's course in regard to the matter the first day, but finally declined to do so.
The Republicans now assert that they will have seventy-one members of the Legislature at the State Convention. The prospect of an additional member from Jackson county.
D. C. Mangum, a local liquor dealer, made an assignment to-day, naming J. C. L. Harris as trustee. The Southern Distillery Company, of Wilmington, N. C., is a creditor to the extent of $375.
The Langdon-Hinsler-Waites suits will hardly come to trial at the December term of Federal Court. All the papers have not been served as yet.
The State and Federal laws seem to conflict at the time when the paper shall meet in this city and cast their vote. The Federal law says that the electors shall meet in Raleigh on the second Monday of January while the State law says they must meet here at noon on the Tuesday preceding the first Wednesday of December.
Governor Carr holds that they must meet here in December, in compliance with the State law.
Rev. Charles Utley, the Coplanist of the first Baptist church, desires to state whether he will vote for Pritchard.

THE MORNING STAR.

The elections are over, but there will be many events of great interest during the coming twelve months.
Congress meets the first Monday in December. The North Carolina Legislature assemble early in January. It will elect a United States Senator, and there will be a great struggle between the friends of silver and the friends of gold.
Governor-elect Russell will be inaugurated, and everybody will be anxious to know what will be his policy.
There are many other questions of great public interest to be discussed and settled, and those who wish to keep abreast of the times must have a daily newspaper.
From all over the State THE MORNING STAR has received praise and congratulations for the consistent and determined fight it made for Bimetallism and true Democracy in the recent campaign. More than this, the increase in its circulation during the past few months has never, we feel sure, been equalled in the history of North Carolina daily newspapers.
Are you a subscriber to THE MORNING STAR? If not, why not? Do you want a first-class daily paper at $5.00 per year, or $1.25 for three months? If so, subscribe to THE MORNING STAR.
Do you want a paper that prints the latest telegraphic news, the best local news, reliable market reports, excellent short stories, and the choicest miscellaneous matter? If so, subscribe to THE MORNING STAR. Do not forget that THE MORNING STAR is the cheapest daily of its class in North Carolina. Its price is $5.00, while the published price of others ranges from $7.00 to $8.00.

Time Proves All Things.

Push, pluck and energy wins. We have not been in the mercantile business for the past eight years for nothing; we have made quite a snug little sum, and we lay our success to the fact that we have treated all alike, done business on the square, sold our goods at a fair and honest profit, and carrying these methods in our daily business we have built up a large and splendid cash trade. We claim to do the leading retail business in the city, paying cash for the goods we buy and selling them for the same. The holiday season is now drawing near, and we are specially anxious to move a big portion of our stock before it passes. We have a lovely line of Dolls of all grades and small Toys of all kinds that we have in our windows, a sample of which we would be glad to show. Our line of Notices is a very interesting stock in our store.
