Fatal Accident at the Wilmington Cotton-Seed Oil Milis.

George Malloy, a young colored man employed in the cotton-seed oil mills situated in the northern part of the city, was instantly killed and his body torn to pieces while at work in the mill, about 9 o'clock yesterday morning.

Malloy, it appears from the evidence Notwithstanding the great "ver- given before Coroner Jacobs and a jary of inquest, was standing on a ladder in the list room of the mill adjusting a belt on a pulley. At another pulle, some distance from him, William Manning, another employe, was placing the same belt around a connecting puller. While the two men were thus engaged some one gave the signal to the engineer to start the engine, which was done and Malloy was caught in the belt and beaten to pieces by the rapidly moving machinery. Bafore the engine could be stopped the unfortunate man's body was torn into fragments and scattered around the lint

Marriage of Miss Auguste McPherson

Mr. J. H. Boatweight, Jr. One of the most beautiful and brilliant weddings that has taken place in this city recently was that of Mr. J. H. Boatwright, Jr., one of the Seaboard Air Line officials at Portsmouth, Va., and Miss Augusta McPherson, neice of Mr. Jao. H. Hardie, of this city. The marriage was a full dress affair at St. James' Episcopal Church at 545 o'clock last evening. Rev. Robt. Strange, D. D., performed the ceremony. The church, which had been profusely decorated for the occasion with chrysanthemums and evergreens, was crowded to its utmost with friends of the couple, The bride walked up the aisle leaning on the arm of her uncle, Mr. Jao. H. Hardin, who presented her, while Mr. E. H. Munson played a wedding march on the organ. Mr. Victor T. Boatwright was best min and Miss Margaret McPherson maid of honor. The following ladies and gentlemen composed the other couples: Misses Eliza McPherson, Hannah Bolles, Mary Calder, Alice Boatwright and Carrie Myers. Messrs. W. M. Riddick, of Portsmouth, Va.; Gilbert H. Green, of Rock Hill, S. C.; E1. Daniel, Favetteville; Jas. Wright, Portsmouth, Va., and W. A. Dick, of this city. The flower and ribbon girls were little Misses Belle Latimer, Jennie Hardin, Louise Hardin and Bessie Latimer.

The ushers were Messrs. C. C. Chadbourn, Henry N. Parsley, Swift M. Boatwright and W. M. Atkinson.

A reception was given at the residence, on North Sixth street, where a large number of friends of the happy couple assembled to wish them happiness and prosperity. The presents were very pretty and costly.

At 7 o'clock the newly married couple took their departure in a private car for a bridal tour through the North. The STAR extends its best wishes for bright and happy future.

STATE OFFICERS PREPARING THEIR ANNUAL REPORTS.

Important Decisions of the Supreme Court -Republicans Confident of Prischerd'el Bleetlon-Populists Claim the Speakership of the House-Charman Ayer Unable to Give Figures as to the Complexion of the Legislaturs. [Special Star Correspondence.]

RALEIGH, N. C., Nov. 21. Among the decisions handed down y the Supreme Court last Tuesd ty were rules against the sher ff of Cherckse and Surry counties for failure to comply with orders of the Court. The two sheriffs were summoned to appear here at the February term. The penalty for the offence of which they are charged s $100 fine. This is the first time since 1878 that the Supreme Court has proceeded against a sheriff in this manner. An election is being held in Cary, this county, to-day. At the last general election the Republican and Demccratic candidates for magistrate received a tie vote and a new election was ordered. Quite a number of Raleighites will go to Richmond Thursday to witness the foot ball contest between the elevens of the Universities of Virginia and North Carolina. The Carolina boys have made decided improvement in their play during the past ten days, and the boys are The State officers are busily engaged in getting up their annual reports. This year the reports will be put out earlier than usual. Governor Carr makes his biennial report to the Legislature before turning over his office to his successor. Chairman Aver says be is unable to give any figures as to the complexion of the Legislature. Strange to say, no one save those at Republican headquarters claim to know and they cannot give the number of Populists and Democrats The Republicans say they have seventy-one on joint ballot. Populists are claiming the speakership this early in advance. We have heard them claim before. But the people have long since learned the proclivities of the Populists. If the party had nothing but a jack-knife it would trade that. The speakership is on sale, like many other honorable offices.

To-morrow | The case is without precedent in English common law courts. The Biblical Recorder says to-day:

We have never had any doubt but that members of the last General Assembly and of the one just elected are largely in favor of reducing appropriations to higher education, with the view ultimately of cutting them off entirely."

The Caucasian will say to-morrow: We repudiate the charges that any Populist member of the Legislature is pledged to vote for a gold-bug Senator. If any one is pledged, who has got the pledge then? We challenge the man who holds such pledges to give the name of a single member as pledged. In fact, we denounce the claim as false and an insult to the People's party. If there is any doubt about where any candidate stands, let him be required to make a pledge like Zeb Vance made. There never was a time when it was more important for the people to be certain where a man stands before they send him to the Senate than now. We have no fear that any Populist will vote to send a gold-bug to the Senate." The paper states plainly that Populists do not want any advice from Democrats as to the election of Senator. The Caucasian says Pritchard was converted by the gold men, but did not have the courage of his convictions. It says he made a few speeches, confining himself to manufacturing towns, and that he could not be gotten to speak where he was likely to have a large Populist audience.

THE MORNING STAR.

The elections are over, but there will be many events of great interest during the coming twelve months. Congress meets the first Monday in December. The North Carolina Legislature assembles early in January. It will elect a United States Senator, and there will be a great struggle between the friends of silver and the friends of gold.

Governor-elect Russell will be inaugurated, and everybody will be anxious to know what will be his policy. There are many other questions of great public interest to be discussed and settled, and those who wish to keep abreast of the times must have a daily newspaper. From all over the State THE MORNING STAR has received praise and congratulations for the consistent and determined fight it made for Bimetallism and true Democracy in the recent campaign. More than this, the increase in its circulation during the past few months has never, we feel sure, been equalled in the history of North Carolina daily newspapers.

Are you a subscriber to THE MORNING STAR? If not, why not? Do you want a first-class daily paper at $5.00 per year, or $1.25 for three months? If so, subscribe to THE MORNING STAR.

Do you want a paper that prints the latest telegraphic news, the best local news, reliable market reports, excellent short stories, and the choicest miscellaneous matter? If so, subscribe to THE MORNING STAR. Do not forget that THE MORNING STAR is the cheapest daily of its class

INTERVENTION FOR CUBA.

Sens'or Lindsay, of Kentucky, Says Tha Congress Should Take Decisive Action. FRANKFORT, Ky., Nov. 23.-United States Senator William Lindsay, a strong administration man, expects decisive action on the part of Congress regarding Cuba at the approaching session. In an interview he said: "The revolution now in progress in Cuba must result in the independence of the island or in the practical extermination of the Cuban people. Humanity demands that the useless destruction of property and the cruel waste of human life should come to an end.

"If negotiations with Spain will not avail, then there should be intervention. In this movement the United States must take the lead."
