each played good bail and in a manner which showed very clearly they knew what they were about. McKee, the

'Varsity's quarter back and captain, played a gritty and heady game of ball

Wilmington, it is a tie between Robbins right place at the right time and tackling like a fiend. Peschau work was first class, he never failing to grasp every weak spot at the right time. King played his usual fine game at centre, breaking through the line and following the ball with the eye of an eagle. The playing of Watson was strong and determined, netting long linnie Maddern Fiske in "The Right to Happiness," Minnie Maddern Fiske, who is with out a doubt the most artistic actress on the American stage to-day, will appear in our city again this season, on next Monday evening, the 30th itst., in her new play, an adaptation from the German, by Marguerite Merrington, entitled, "The Right to Happiness." Mrs. Fiske's charming portrayal of that very difficult role, Marie Deloche, in "The Queen of Liars," at our Opera House last season, is still fresh in the memory of those of our theatre-goers who were so fortunate as to be auditors on that occasion, and the simple announcement that the charming artiste is again to appear in our city should be sufficient to attract an audience of immense proportions. The tour of Minnie Maddern Fiske this season is under the direction of Mr. A. M. Palmer, of Palmer's Theatre, New York. And that manager's own company of capable performers will be in her support. Among them may be mentioned James M. Colville, long the leading man of Clara Morris; Barton Hill, an actor of great talent and a metropolitan favorite; Alfred Hickman, the original "Little Billee" in the New York production of "Trilby," and other well known gentlemen, including Belle Stokes and Mary Maddern. Reserved seat sale for this engagemen opens this morning at 7 o'clock at Gerken's. There will be no advance in prices.

FOOT BALL GAME

Won by the Home Team With a Score of Six to Nothing-A Large Gathering at the Ball Grounds. Wilmington six, Carolina nothing, This score tells the result of the hardest fought athletic battle ever played on Wilmington soil. The University boys, with brilliant interference and magnificent team work, failed to conquer the strong, sturdy Wilmingtonians. The entire game was characterized by fairness of playing and equally fairness of decisions on the part of the referee and umpire. Eleven hundred people witnessed the game, a jolly crowd, over which fi sated the royal purple and old gold, with an blending of white and blue. After some discussion regarding the length of the halves to be played, the minutes would be the proper caper; so at 8.16 Referee W. J. Bellamy called the game. Wilmington won the toss and chose to defend the south goal. Wm. J. Bellamy (U. N. C.) did the honors as referee, J. D. Bellamy, Jr. 8rd, filled the umpire's position and S. Merrill acted
