The people of St. Louis got a glimpse of those spots on the sun a few days ago, but it didn't scare 'em up as it did the Florida darkeys when they saw them. The St. Louis people saw about 27,000 miles of spot one way and 9,000 another, and several smaller spots, and doubtless concluded that the sun must be doing a spot business. The spot area covers about 68,000 miles.

The Michigan man in Washington who was ambitious to inscribe his name on the shaft of fame did it. He wrote it four times, but about that time a prying policeman spied him and it cost him $20, $5 a write. Ambitious Michigan men should always provide themselves with a copy of the town ordinances when they visit strange towns.

Mr. H. C. McQueen is on the sick list.
— Rev. Robt. Stranahan, D. D., is able to be out again after a brief sickness.
— Mr. Lindsey Russell, formerly of this city, now of Detroit, Mich., is in the city.
— Messrs. E. H. and J. J. Adkins, of Southport, were registered here yesterday.
— Mr. Ben W. Southerland, of Goldboro, was among the arrivals in the city yesterday.
— Mr. C. P. Grim, of Philadelphia, contractor for the erection of the em-placements for the disappearing guns at the mouth of the Cape Fear, was among hotel registrations yesterday.
— Judge James D. McIver, of Carthage, who will preside over the Supreme Court which convenes here tomorrow, and H. C. Richardson, Esq., of Clinton, Solicitor of the Sixth Judicial District, arrived yesterday.

Formerly of Wilmington.

Mr. Samuel R. Birdsey, whose business failure at Ocala, Florida, was announced in the telegraphic department of the STAR yesterday, is well known in Wilmington, where he formerly lived and was senior partner in the dry goods house of Birdsey & Robinson. Both Mr. Birdsey and his wife, who is a daughter of the late John W. Sanford, of Fayetteville, have many friends here who regret to hear of Mr. Birdsey's trouble.
New Laces and Embroideries have been received by C. W. Polvogt & Co., who have their Bargain Week and January Clearing Sale during this week.

Read C. W. Polvogt & Co.'s advertisement and see how cheap they are selling their Table Linens, Towels, White Goods, Carpets and Notions.

January Clearing Sale for one week at C. W. Polvogt & Co.'s. Greatest bargains ever offered to the ladies of this city.

Out-of-town people will do well to visit the store of C. W. Polvogt & Co., this week is their Bargain Week.

LOCAL DOTS.

Items of Interest Gathered Here and There and Briefly Noted.

— For other locals see fourth page.
— See fourth page for other new advertisements.
— Rev. J. T. Kindall, of Goldsboro, will conduct services at Bladen street M. E. Church to-night.
— A select party of young gentlemen will give a dance at Germania Hall next Wednesday evening.
— The Superior Court for New Hanover county, Judge McIver presiding, will convene to-morrow morning.
— The chicken coop at Mr. Jas.
Monroe's residence, on North Third street, was robbed Friday night of several fine fowls.
— "The World" closed its engagement yesterday at the Opera House after an afternoon and night performance. There was small attendance.

— It is seriously stated that a Republican member of the Legislature has introduced a bill to prohibit the sale of "concealed" weapons. This is "hot stuff."
— Jas. Fennell, colored, was before Justice Bunting yesterday, charged with assault and battery. He was adjudged guilty, but was let off upon payment of the costs of the action.

— In the City Court yesterday Wm. Griffin and Frank Green, colored, were charged with fighting. They were sentenced to pay a fine of five dollars each or work ten days on the streets.

— Dockery received a good vote on the first ballot in the Populist caucus at Raleigh. The following was the vote in detail: Thompson, 15; Dockery, 13; Mott, 3; Guthrie, 3; Hileman, 1. There were ten absentees, five sick in Raleigh and five at home.

— The STAR regrets to learn that its Raleigh correspondent is one of the victims of the "grip," now so prevalent at the capital, and has been confined to his bed several days. This explains why our Raleigh news service has been up to the usual standard.

— The Associated Banks of New York city now hold $53,099,525 in excess of the 25 per cent. legal requirement. This is an enormous sum of idle money to be held in one city, although it is but a small part of the aggregate of such money held in New York.

— The Charitable Circle, King's Daughters and Sons, under whose auspices the comedy, "The Coming Woman," was so successfully presented about two weeks ago, has arranged to have a repetition of the entertainment at Abbe Chadbourne Memorial Hall, next Tuesday evening. Admission 25 cents.

— The Legislature is moving along as leisurely as if they had a six months' session ahead of them. The Senate now meets at noon, while the House assemblies at 11 a. m. If both Houses would meet at 9 a. m. they could dispatch all the business necessary within the allotted sixty days and do it "decently and in order."

Charity Sunday.
Once more "Charity Sunday" makes its claims upon the benevolent people of our city. It is the one day in the year when all the white churches in our community take up collections for the help of the poor through the Associated Charities. The work of the association is practically applied Christianity. It knows the poor and is helping them without inflicting upon them the evils that indiscriminate charity always brings. After three years steady, earnest work, it claims from our citizens increased confidence and support. The Associated Charities does not stir your emotions with the piteous tale of a street beggar and force you to give a dole to quiet your conscience and relieve your perplexity, but in the name of the Lord it earnestly begs your aid in a reasonable, scientific, steady effort to alleviate the weak and to diminish his suffering. "And the second is like unto it, thou shalt love thy neighbor as thyself."

The Colored Baptists.

Rev. S. N. Vass and Rev. Joseph Perry, representing the Baptist Sunday school interests in all the South and North Carolina, respectively, are in the city and will preach and lecture during the week at the various colored Baptist churches.
They will remain in the city the entire week, conducting a Sunday school institute in each of the colored Baptist churches. The announcements will be made from the pulpits of the several churches.
Those in need of Carpets, Blankets and Comforts would do well to visit C. W. Polvogt & Co.'s this week. It is their Bargain Week and January Clearing Sale.
No hours will sell you goods as cheap as C. W. Polvogt & Co.'s this week. It is their Bargain Week. Terms strictly cash.

TWO CONFIDENCE MEN.

ONE GOT AWAY, THE OTHER WAS CAUGHT.

One of the Swindlers Played a Successful Game on Mr. F. P. Lamb and Mr. John H. Kuck and Skipped—The Other Arrested While Attempting to Pass a Bogus Check.
One of the boldest swindlers that has occurred in Wilmington for years was perpetrated Friday afternoon, Mr. F. P.
Lamb, of this city, and Mr. John E.
Schmidt, of Asheville, being the victims.

Last Tuesday Mr. John E. Schmidt, of Asheville, while in the city on his way to Charlotte, fell in with a white man who gave him the name as John Hoffmann. Hoffmann proved a "good fellow," and prevailed upon Mr. Schmidt to remain in Wilmington and take charge of a store which he (Hoffmann) intended to open. Several times Schmidt and Hoffmann met in the office of Mr. F. Richter, whom Hoffmann had informed he intended embarking in business in the city, as he wanted a good paying investment for his money.
Of which he had plenty. Hoffmann borrowed money from Schmidt, one time the pretext that he couldn't get a five-dollar bill changed, and again that he was awaiting money from his bankers, until he had $45.10, about all of Schmidt's money.

Thursday last Hoffmann, accompanied by Mr. Schmidt and Mr. Richter, went into the store of Mr. John H. Kuck, on Water street near Market, with a view to buying out Mr. Kuck. Mr. Kuck and his clerk, Mr. F. P. Lamb, were soon convinced that Hoffmann was a capitalist.

Friday afternoon Hoffmann alone again visited Mr. Kuck's store and inquired of Mr. Lamb, the clerk, for Mr.
Kuck. Mr. Lamb informed him that Mr. Kuck was at dinner. Hoffmann then explained that he wanted Mr. Kuck to go up to the bank with him, as he wanted to draw some money, of which he had a large sum in the bank, but not speaking English plainly could not make himself understood. He then said he had a few small debts to pay and asked Mr. Lamb to loan him ten dollars until he could go to the bank. Mr. Lamb gave him the money and Hoffmann left the store. A short time afterwards Hoffmann returned to the store and again inquired for Mr. Kuck, and was again informed that Mr. Kuck hadn't returned from dinner. Hoffmann complained of a few more private debts he wished to pay and exhibited a receipt from the National Bank of Wilmington, showing that he had forwarded a draft for $890 for collection at Cleveland, Ohio, and then asked Mr. Lamb for another loan of twelve dollars. Mr. Lamb not having twelve dollars in change, gave him a twenty-dollar bill, feeling perfectly safe in doing so, and Hoffmann on more left the store, thanking Mr. Lamb for his kindness.

Very soon Mr. Kuck returned from dinner and Mr. Lamb informed him of the money he had loaned Hoffmann. Mr.
Kuck replied that it was all right and perfectly safe. But as time went by and Hoffmann failed to return Mr. Lamb became uneasy and went out to search for Hoffmann, and meeting Mr. Schmidt on the street, found out that they were both in the "same boat," having been taken in by a clever swindler.
The police were at once notified and affidavits sworn out for Hoffmann's arrest, but he managed to get out of the city before the warrant was served.
He has been tracked by the authorities as far as Florence, S. C. Hoffmann is described as a German about 30 years of age, with a reddish mustache. While in the city he stayed at the Atlantic Cafe. After his flight a package which he had left in the care of Mr. Henry Gieschen was opened and found to contain the receipt of the National Bank of Wilmington for the bogus draft and a receipt from the German-American Trust and Savings Bank of Charleston, S. C., under date of January 11, 1897, showing that this bank had received of one Joe. Baumann a draft for $4,000.
This evidently shows that Hoffman has been experimenting in Charleston. A blank check on the Dime Savings Bank of Charleston, S. C., was also found in the package.
It seems that Hoffmann went to the National Bank of Wilmington in this city and said he wished to draw on a party in Cleveland, Ohio. The cashier informed him that they could wire for it, but Hoffmann said it was unnecessary, and gave him a draft for $890 to be forwarded to Cleveland. This draft is undoubtedly bogus.

ANOTHER SWINDLER.

About 8:00 o'clock last night a telephone message was received at the City Hall asking that an officer be sent down to the Palace Bakery, corner Second and Market streets. Sergeant of Police Gore went down to the bakery and was informed by Mr. W. A. Farris, the proprietor, that there was a man stopping at the Bonitz House whom he (Farris) knew to be a confidence man and would probably try to work off forged checks.
He was registered at the Bonitz under an alias, R. F. Lee, of Raleigh. Sergeant Gore at once went and notified Chief Melton, who happened to be in the Opera House at the time. Chief Melton and Sergeant Gore learned from Mr. Dick Hines, a clerk at the Bonitz Hotel, that the man Lee had been with him and had tried to pass a check for $15 at Mr. R. V. Cox's saloon, corner Princess and Water streets.
They then went around Mr. Cox's place of business and found that Lee had been there, but had gone away, promising to come back later. Lee was then traced to Front and Ann streets. Later in the night Chief Melton and Sergeant Gore went back to Mr. Cox's, to await Lee's arrival. Lee passed by the saloon but did not go in. He then went down Water street, with Chief Melton and Sergeant Gore watching his every movement, and stopped

Harry Skinner secured another bolter to-day. Senator W. H. Odum, of Anson, comes out in a letter this morning announcing that he will support Pritchard.
Mr. Odum has not been connected with either of the caucuses. He was confined to bed the night the bolters went out, and has been in ever since.
Congressman Skinner said this morning that the nomination of Thompson last night rather improved Pritchard's chances. This statement will cause the most sober to laugh. Skinner seems to think that Pritchard is the man who will win. Thompson has accepted the nomination.
Harris of Hyde went into the majority caucus last night. He announced that he had not been for Pritchard and would not abide by the action of the caucus. Some one asked him why he remained in the caucus and he replied that he had as much right in there as any Populist.
It is difficult to say whether C.
Thompson can be elected. The Republicans are badly worried, and they show it. They profess to believe, however, that Pritchard is as sure a winner as ever. If all the Republicans stand by Pritchard, which is extremely doubtful, he can win by a very small majority. But he is almost certain that Brown and two others will not support him. It remains to be seen whether the Democrats will back C. Thompson. From what can be ascertained there are several Democratic members who are opposed to him. The Democrats will caucus at 8 o'clock to-night and finally determine whom they will support.
Mr. Grant said to-day that he did not think Pritchard's chances were impaired. He said: "When the nomination elects Senator Pritchard will form an administration party. Russell will be at the head of it. Everybody will understand that that means so far as offices are concerned." The Pritchard Populists are not without reward.

C. F. & Y. V. RAILROAD.

The Recent Hearing of the United States Circuit Court—Judge Simonon Gave No Intimation That His Decree Would Be For Sale of the Road in Its Entirety.
Judge C. H. Simonon left for his home, Charleston, S. C., yesterday afternoon.
At no time during the session of the Court did anything fall from him intimating that his decree would be for the sale of the C. F. & Y. V. railway as a whole, though the drift of the argument seemed to show that such a decision might be expected. Additional ground for this expectation is found in the fact that Judge Simonon's first decree, issued after the hearing at Asheville, expressed the opinion that the road should be sold as a whole, if it were possible under the circumstances.
The special term of the Court in Wilmington, of January 14th and 15th was called solely for the purpose of hearing argument upon the questions arising out of the report of the special master, which report had been ordered to be prepared with a view to ascertaining the values of the different divisions and branches. The Court took the papers, following counsel thirty days in which to file briefs in addition to the oral arguments made before the Court. After the expiration of this time, the Court will proceed to draft its decree.
In case an appeal is taken from Judge Simonon's decision, the case will come up before the Circuit Court of Appeals, which sits at Richmond, Va.

Funeral of Rev. Dr. Huske.

At 8:30 o'clock this afternoon the funeral of the late Dr. Jos. C. Huske at Fayetteville, will be conducted from St.
John's Episcopal Church. The body will lie in state before the altar from 10 to 3 p. m. In order to allow the community to pass by the casket and look for the last time upon the venerable features of their departed friend. Users for the occasion will be chosen from the Fayetteville Independent Light Infantry, of which Dr. Huske was Chaplain. That organization will also furnish a guard of honor.

Death of Mrs. John H. Hardin.

The STAR is pained to announce the death of Mrs. John H. Hardin, which took place after an illness of several months, at 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon. The deceased lady was a daughter of Capt. E. W. Manning. She leaves her husband and three children to mourn her loss.
Mrs. Hardin was a member of the First Baptist Church, from which the funeral will be conducted at 8 o'clock this afternoon, Rev. W. B. Oliver officiating.

Powers, Gibbs & Co.

The announcement of Powers, Gibbs & Co., manufacturers of high grade fertilizers, appears in the STAR to-day Their plant near this city is one of the largest in the South, and is complete in all its appointments. The business is conducted in a thoroughly systematic manner and the success of the firm is conclusively established by the fact that there was an increase of fifty per cent. in the sales of 1896.

Water Mains.

The old four-inch water mains removed from Fifth street between Dock and Nun will be distributed as follows:
Oa Dock between Fifth and Sixth,
Orange between Third and Fourth, Orange between Water and Front. They will be used to reinforce the larger mains with which the fire hydrants are connected in the localities mentioned and to increase the water supply.

DIED.

HARDIN—On January 16th, at 4:15 p. m., FANNIE D. HARDIN, wife of John H. Hardin, aged 81 years, 11 months.
Funeral services (Sunday) afternoon at 8 o'clock from the First Baptist Church. Relatives and friends respectfully invited to attend.

ing.

Powers, Gibbs & Co.

& Co., manufacturers of high grade fer-
the sales of 1896.

Water Mains.

and Nun will be distributed as follows:
Oa Dock between Fifth and Sixth,
Orange between Third and Fourth,
to increase the water supply.
