One of the charges against Judge Reese, of Georgia, was that he swore in a manner highly unbecoming a Judge when a waiter at a hotel spilled a plate of hot soup down his back, which caused the Judge to get his back up. But it cannot be denied that pouring hot soup down a Judge's back was some provocation to make him forget temporarily his judicial dignity and to go outside of the law books for language to render an opinion of the fellow who did it.

The Rev. Merle St. Croix Wright, too much suicide now without giv-the trouble is it isn't the people whose departure would benefit it would meet that kill themselves.

Death of Mr. E. O. Robinson, in Bal-

Mr. A. B. Robinson, of the Postal Telegraph Company, received a telegram yesterday conveying the distressing intelligence of the death of his brother, Mr. E. O. Robinson, in Baltimore yesterday morning. The illness is all the more painful from the fact that the family had no knowledge of the young man's illness. In fact his death was very sudden, one report having it that he dropped dead in the store of his employer.

He had been in Baltimore for the last three years, engaged in the drug business. Before leaving this city he was in the employ of Mr. J. Hicks Bustin-gton, W. H. Green & Co. and R. R. Bel-

SUPERIOR COURT.

The First of the Bank Tax Cases Tried—Arguments by Counsel—The Jury's Verdict—Case to be Carried to the Supreme Court.

Hearing in the City of Wilmington back tax case, commenced Wednesday, was resumed and concluded in the Superior Court yesterday. Argument on the status of limitation was resumed by Mr. Jas. D. Bellamy for the defence.
George Rountree, Esq., followed for the plaintiff, and was replied to by Col. T. W.
Stange for the defence. Col. Stange also claimed that under section 3, chapter 198, Private Acts of the General Assembly, 1888-89, the case should be dismissed, as the act referred to had not been repealed.

Mr. A. G. Ricard, for the plaintiff, concluded the discussion and argued that chapter 182, of the Acts of the General Assembly of 1895, was itself a repeal of the act quoted by Col. Stange.

Judge Melver overruled his decision on the foregoing questions.

The amount of tax not paid on the property for the years named in the complaint was then given in by the plaintiff as evidence. The defence objected to the offering as evidence of the tax for the years 1875 and 1876, as the tax had been listed by I. S. Murphy, trustee. The Court overruled the objection and the defence excepted.

Court at 12:30 o'clock took a recess, so as to give counsel time to get together, examine the records and agree upon the amount of taxes.

At 2:40 p. m. Court reassembled. Judge Melver asked if there was any substantial controversy as to the amount of taxes. Counsel on both sides answered that there was none. It was admitted by both sides that there had been a sale of the property for all the years named, and that the amount of the tax had been paid, but that the defendants had paid the tax on the property since 1892.

The plaintiff then rested and the defence then commenced its case by offering as evidence the deeds of the city on the property for the years 1875, 1876, 1877 and 1878, but the plaintiff objected, claiming that the person (the city attorney) who made out the deeds, had no authority to do so. The Court sustained the objection and the defence excepted.

A deed of 1881, signed by the city clerk and treasurer and tax collector, was next introduced by the defence. As the deed had not been acknowledged, probated or recorded, the plaintiff again objected, which objection was also sustained.

Geo. Rountree, Esq., asked the Court to restrain the jury if they believed the evidence to return a verdict for the plaintiff.

Mr. Jas. D. Bellamy asked the Court to instruct the jury if they believed the evidence, that the tax had been paid, to return a verdict for the defendants.

The question of interest on the tax was then argued by Col. Stange and Mr. Bellamy for the defence, and Messrs. Rountree and Ricard for the plaintiff.

Judge Melver ruled that the ten years statute of limitation, section 953 of the Code, would apply in the case, but the three years statute of limitation, section 155 of the Code, would not apply. The latter ruling, the judge said, if he saw fit, he would set aside before adjournment of Court.

The following issue was given to the jury and answered in accordance with the judge's instructions:

Are the defendants indebted to the plaintiff, and if so in what sum?
Answer—$16,000, with interest thereon at six per cent. from 31st day of December, 1886, also $119,800, with six per cent. interest thereon from 31st day of December, 1891, and also $119,800 with six per cent. interest thereon from 31st day of December, 1892.

The case will be carried up to the Supreme Court.

Other cases were disposed of by the Court as follows:

E. R. London, et al., vs. A. T. London.
Verdict for plaintiff.

East Carolina Piscatorial Association vs. Thos. Perritt. Case set at the foot of next Tuesday's docket.

As the clock struck ten o'clock recess was taken until 10 o'clock, when the case against R. F. Holmes will once more be called.

Advertisements Moved.
A man moved into Wilmington some weeks ago from a neighboring town. As he was comparatively unknown in the city, it would be reasonable to suppose that he was in doubt as to where he should purchase his supplies. But he didn't experience a moment's hesitation. He gave his trade at once to a certain grocer and will doubtless continue to patronize him as long as mutual satisfaction shall be enjoyed.

The explanation is that the gentleman in question reads a daily paper, as a great many people do these days, and the grocer advertises in that daily paper, not occasionally, but regularly, not because other merchants advertise, but because experience has shown that properly managed advertising pays and pays well.

It is not that the merchant takes up so much space. His space, from the newspaper's point of view, is entirely too small for the amount of business he does. But small or large, it is filled every day, and in such a way, the result of painstaking care, that the reader's attention is caught and held.

Almost any kind of advertising pays, provided it has the effect of bringing the advertiser's name before the public, but it pays a great deal better when it is carefully and judiciously done.

CHARLOTTE THREATENED.

A Bill to Amend the City Charter—Held and Pops. At a Hearing for Pop-A Police Board Proposed.

A bill introduced an act to amend the charter of the city of Charlotte is to be introduced in the General Assembly. It provides for a police board of three members with power very much like those exercised by the police board of Wilmington. The Chairman of the Democratic, Republican and Populist county committees are to appoint one member each. This board will elect or appoint all the salaried officers and "hands" and the "pickings" will deliberate the hours and stomachs of Rads, and Pops. The bill fixes the salaries as follows:

"Section 3. The annual salary of the Mayor shall be $900; that of Chief of Police $1200. Chief Engineer and Health Officer $1000. Tax Collector $1000. Clerk and Treasurer $1500.
Chief of Fire Department $1000. Assistant Chief of Fire Department $750 all other regular firemen $600 per annum, call men $180 per annum, cotton weigher $750 per annum, policemen $900 each, policemen $730 each, city attorney $800 and reasonable compensation for services rendered to the city in actual litigation or in matters extraordinary, and the Mayor and Board of Aldermen shall have no power to remove any of the officers or men elected or appointed by said Police Board or Superintendent, but they may be removed at the discretion of the Police Board."

The Observer makes this comment on the bill:

"Mr. Harvey Wilson's plan to take charge of Charlotte is rather a bold stroke, even for a Populist to make.
It will not float, however, because there are too many snags attached to it. The Legislature of North Carolina has too much intelligence to pass a bill of that kind. The members of that body know Charlotte. It is a city of the State.
They know that the town does not deserve to be put in chains, and they will not permit it."

The STAR thinks it more than likely that the bill will not become a law in its present shape; but if the Observer supposes the Republicans and Populists are not going to enjoy the municipal mush Charlotte is in a sad state of depression. It is a sad state of depression that the spoilsmen will serve Charlotte just as they have served Wilmington.

SPANISH OUTRAGES.

Horrible Deeds of the Soldiers at Hela Del Sur—Women at Their Mercy—Many Women Die from Their Treatment.

CINCINNATI, Jan. 20.—A special to the Commercial Tribune from Key West says:

Among the passengers on to-night's boat from Havana was Jose Micaela, from the interior, south of Havana. He reports a fight at Hela Del Sur. In the southern part of Havana province, two weeks ago, that the officials in Havana were not reported. A Spanish cavalry force of some six hundred men camping there were surprised by 400 Cubans under Col. Sanchez, one of Micaela's old officers. The Spanish forces fought bravely but retreated within half an hour with twenty men killed. The Cubans centered by the night. The Cubans pursued, but were drawn into ambush and punished terribly, losing 50 men.
They withdrew and the Spanish troops re-entered their old camp and began merry-making in honor of the victory.
Late that night the insurgents again attacked and surprised the camp, forcing their way to the commanding officer's quarters before their presence was discovered. Then the terror-stricken Spanish soldiers fled, flinging down their weapons. The insurgents pursued them for miles, killing and wounding over 100. The captured officers were finally released on parole. The Cubans were received by the people at deliverers. After remaining there two days they moved northward. Three days after that a Spanish force commanded by the Guerilla Captain Felix De Grata, marched in.

After securing the Mayor and other officers as prisoners he secured the leading women of the place and then gave the town over to his soldiers. For the next twenty-four hours the Spanish guerrillas had their own way with helpless women and girls. Seven men and four lads were brutally killed while attempting to protect their relatives.
Many women died from their treatment, and the young men were driven to the rather than submit to the insults of the soldiers. The Mayor was hanged in front of his door, his wife and daughter being compelled to witness the execution. The Captain charged that he gave aid to the rebels. Two of the other officials were badly beaten and then released with a caution that the next visit meant death.
The insurgents have set a price upon the head of this Captain and if caught his trial will be short.
