OUTLINES.

Cyrus E. Breder, the defaulting cashier of the First National Bank of Bithichem Pa., has not committed suicide as his friends believed. - Captain General Weyler says he is disposed to finish the rebellion at once in Santa Cara province; the Government has promised reforms, but only upon the trumph of the Spanish arms. - Jas. J. Cornett's headquarters will probably be established at Walley's Hot Mineral Springs. Nevada: the location of the approaching battle-ground has not been decided upon. - The steamer Three Friends has been seized by the Governnent at Licksonville Fla on the charge of piracy. - Officials of the Navy Department are confident that there is no defect whatever in the battleship Indiana and that her return to port was simply a manifestation of excessive caution on the part of her officers - Senate and House - Another instalment of the speech of Senator Thurston designed to prevent the sale of the Uaion Pacific Railroad; the Nicaragua Canal bill allowed to go over; resolution offered by Mr. Morgan relating to the capture of the Competitor by a Spanish ship of war; the House in Committee of the Waole concluded consideration of the bill making appropriations for the expenses of the District of Columbia, Editor Larry Godkin, of the New York Post, is very much disturbed by the bimetallic utterances of Senators Hoar and Chandler in the Senate. He should be composed. This is nothing but a little side act of these Senators to keep up the delusion that the Republican party is really desirous of doing something for silver.

Out of the 18,000,000 people in Spain there are 8,725,519 persons who have no business but are principally engaged in killing time and picking up something to eat the eastest way they can. That is doubtless the stock from which they recruit the armies for Cuba.

Work on the Fort floations at Fort Caswell Being Pushed Along.

The government work in the vicinity of Fort Caswell is being pushed vigorously. Col. D. P. Heap has lately returned from a visit of inspection and reports that the line of railroad track leading from the landing to the site of the fortification has been completed to nearly its full length. Temporary quarters for the workmen have been erected and repairs to the wharf bave been completed. Contractor J. L. Grim, who is at present in Philadelphia, writes that his concrete mixtures, englues and other machinery are on the way and will probably reach their destination before the end of the month. The contract for the stone to be used has been awarded to the Mt. Airy Granite Company and the work of moving it will be begun by the Cape Fear & Yadkin Valley Railroad about the middle of the month.

At the Opera House. We are sorry to say that last night was the farewell performance of the Sisson Comedy Company. Mr. Sisson and his company of clever players have made lots of triends during their short stay in the city, and we can assure them they will always be welcome. We hope it will not be long before we will once more have the pleasure of seeing them before the footlights again. Yesterday afternoon at the matinee the company played "Nannette" to a crowded house. After the performance about fifty ladies and little folks had the pleasure of shakcharming little soubrette, Miss Wallace, bidding them good by and hoping it would not be long before they return.

Extensive Improvements to Naval Reserves Armory. Extensive improvements are now being made to the Naval Reserves armory, in the old court house building, on Princess street.
