Negroes Try to Rescue a Prisoner From

Officers of the Law. Yesterday afternoon about 2.30 o'clock

Deputy Sheriffs J. P. Flynn and Wm. Fonfield, colored, arrested William Pearsall, colored, on a warrant charging him with disorderly conduct. Pearsall was arrested on the corner of Front and Dock streets, and went along quietly with the officers until he reached the corner of Front and Market streets, when he struck Deputy Flynn in the mouth. Officer Flynn drew his club and struck Pearsall over the head four or five times. Pearsall then started fighting the officers, and a large crowd of colored people at once gathered and tried to rescue the prisouer. With the assistance of two or three outsiders Pearsall was carried to Justice Bunting's office, from where he was sent to jail. ST. MARY'S SCHOOL

Bishop Cheshire Will Canvass the State in

Its Behalf. The Bishop of North Carolina, the Rt. Rev. Joseph Blount Cheshire, Ir., D. D., the Bishop of the Diocese of North Carolina, is in the city. He is the president of the Board of Trustees of St. Mary's School, representing the two Dioceses of the Episcopal church in North Carolina and the missionary jurisdiction of Asheville. Financially embarrassed by these hard times, chiefly through the falling off of patronage, Dr. Smedes has turned over St. Mary's to the church. Grateful for the great good St. Mare's School has done for the church for the past fifty years, proud of the elevating and refining influences it has exerted upon womanhood in North Carolina the church has accepted this rust, and is now making some effort to meet the responsibilities. At the request of the Board of Trustees Bishop Cheshire has put aside all his regular work, and for the next thirty or forty days will canvass the whole State of North Carolina in behalf of St Mary's School. He will preach in St. Tames' church this morning and in St. Paul's to-night. All interested in the religious education of women, especially all interested in the moral training of the daughters of the Episcopal Church. would do well to hear him.

DAUGHTERS OF THE CONFEDERACY. Proposition of the Ladies' Memorial As sociation to Consolidate Accepted. The Daughters of the Confederacy held their regular monthly meeting Friday afternoon at the Wilmington Light Infantry armory. The minutes of the previous meeting were read and approved. A communication was received from the officers of the Ladies' Memorial Association, stating that if the Daughters of the Confederacy would assame the duties of the Memorial Association the association would disband and all of its members eligible would join the Daughters of the Confederacy. On motion, it was agreed to accept the offer of the Ladies' Memorial Association, and to change the name of the Memorial Committee of the Daughters of the Confederacy to the Memorial Association in order to preserve the name.
