The frequency with which knocked-out Corbettassures knocker Bob that Bob "licked him fairly and squarely" may indicate that Jim thinks Bob may have some doubts about it. But as Bob has the stakes and the "honor-unless Jim continues to hanker for a second punching and worries him too much.

On the 16th of June Great Britain will celebrate the 60th anniversary of Queen Victoria's coronation.
John Ball is arranging for a grand layout to make the world believe he is very happy and very proud that he has a Queen. Some of these days he will dispense with that kind of figureheads.

The Connecticut legislator who opposed giving protection to eagles because "eagles stick their teeth into everything they get their hands on" was in downright earnest, if he happened to be a little out on teeth, etc. He was not an Irishman either but a native woden nutmegger.

The revenue handlers in China have the reputation of being the champion thieves of all countries.
The stealings are on such a colossal scale that it is said to cost the Government $2,000,000 more to collect the tribute than from two provinces alone than the tribute amounts to.

A Georgia rhymer wrote for the Atlanta Constitution an effusion entitled "A Health to St. Patrick." The rhyme and the sentiment are all right, but we don't see, any use in wishing health to a gentleman who has been dead as long he has been.

A contemporary observes that there are many men in the United States who could do their country more service by holding a plow than by holding an office. But a good many of this kind wouldn't know how to hold a plow.

Sarah Bernhard suggests as a solution of the high hat problem that ladies wear mantillas at places of public amusement. Sarah is level-headed. Compared with the two or three-story hat the mantilla is a daisy.

There are several thousand Republicans in this country, not counting others, who will agree with Senator Gallinger that civil service as it is administered, is a "monumental humbug."

Mr. John C. Tipton has purchased the Lincoln Democrat, changing the name to the Lincoln Journal.
It will be edited by him and published by the Lincoln Printing Company.

The Baltimore Manufacturers' Record says Southern railroads have ordered 200,000 tons of steel rails for extensions and improvements.
It takes 15,000,000 cross ties annually to supply the demands of the railroads, which means the cutting down 200,000 acres of timber.

LOCAL DOTS.

Items of Interest Gathered Here and There and Briefly Noted.

—The annual report of the Wilmington Homestead and Loan Association is printed in this morning's issue.
—A biting wind swept the streets yesterday and everybody was free to admit that it was a "regular March day." —Rev. Robt. Strange, D. D., rector of St. James' church, will preach a sermon Sunday night to men only on the seventh commandment.

—Spirits turpentine advanced yesterday one-half cent per gallon over the prices of the day before. The receipts were light, only 90 barrels.

—A small colored girl was found sleeping on the street last night. She was carried to the City Hall, as she was unable to tell the name of her parents or where she lived.

—The address of Mr. John Dyer, which was delivered St. Patrick's Day at the annual meeting of the Hibernian Society, will be found on the third page of the Star.

—The receipts of cotton here yesterday were 108 bales, against 209 bales on the same day last year. The local market closed firm at seven cents for middling, this grade selling on the same day of last year at seven and a half cents.

PERSONAL PARAGRAPHS

Pertinent Paragraphs Pertaining Primarily to People and Pointedly Printed.

—Rev. Levi Branson, of Raleigh, arrived last evening.

boro, was here yesterday.
—Mr. Pinck C. Ennis, of Raleigh, arrived in the city last evening.
—Mr. E. B. Wright, of Hab, was one of yesterday's visitors to the city.
—Little Will P. Moore, Jr., who has been on the sick list, is again better.
—M. N. A. McLean and son, of Lumberton, were among yesterday's arrivals.

—Mr. J. L. Castine, of Rocky Point, was observed on our streets yesterday.
—Mr. J. D. Currie, registering from North Carolina, was in the city yesterday.
—Messrs. J. A. Cavenaugh and L. D. Cherry, of Log Creek, were in the city yesterday.

—Mrs. M. A. Ibrie, of Pittsboro, is now here, on a visit to her sister, Mrs.
Thos. C. James.
—Mr. William McQueen, one of the substantial citizens of Rowland, was on our streets yesterday.

—Mrs. H. K. Galpin, of Chicago, Ill., will arrive this evening on a visit to her sister, Mrs. W. P. Monroe.
—Miss Alice Pigford returned last night from Washington, D. C., where she has been visiting relatives.

—Mrs. J. L. Clute and son, who have been visiting the family of Mr. W.
H. Alderman, left yesterday for their home near Marion, Va.
—Mr. B. M. DeWitt, who has been in the city several weeks taking orders for standard works of fiction, will leave to-day for Newbern.

—Mrs. R. J. Scarborough and Mrs. A. Gehret, of Philadelphia, are visiting Mrs. Scarborough's daughter, Mrs. W. E. Perdew.
—The Star had the pleasure of a call yesterday from Rev. F. A. Bishop, of Newbern. He is here on a short visit to friends and relatives.

—Mr. G. T. Smith, formerly travelling representative of the Raleigh Traveling Recorder, but now travelling for a stationery house, was in the city yesterday conferring with business men.

Acknowledgments.
The Star is under obligations to Mr.
D. J. Baker, representing the J. L. Hill Printing Company, of Richmond, Va., for a handsome volume printed in memorial of the Sixth Annual Reunion of the United Confederate Veterans at Richmond from June 30th to July 2d, 1896.

The work contains several beautiful colored engravings, together with numerous cuts of officials and participants in the Reunion exercises and of the business men of Richmond.

From a mechanical point of view the volume is almost beyond criticism, and the contents are far more interesting, particularly to those who were fortunate enough to attend the Reunion.
Mr. Baker has been in this city for several days collecting data for a new city directory which his firm will bring out at an early date.

Committed to Jail.
Tom Lique, who shot Henry Johnson in the leg Tuesday afternoon, was arranged in the Police Court yesterday.
After hearing the testimony of several witnesses, Mayor Harris placed the witness under a $800 justified bond for his appearance at the next term of the Criminal Court. Before, however, he could be committed to jail in default of bond, he was arrested by Deputy Sheriff Wm. Fontfield, colored, on a warrant charging him with stealing the pistol with which he shot Johnson. He was tried by Justice Banting and sent to jail, in default of a $50 bond, to await a trial on this charge.

Henry Johnson, the injured man, was released from custody.

Funeral of the Late Rufus Chesten.
The funeral of the lamented Rufus Chesten was held yesterday morning at 10 o'clock at St. Andrew's Presbyterian church. The service was conducted by the pastor, Rev. A. D. McClure, assisted by Rev. W. B. Oliver, pastor of the First Baptist church, and Rev. R. A.
Willis, pastor of Grace M. E. church.
From the church the remains were borne to Oakdale Cemetery, where they were interred. The pall bearers were Messrs. H. L. Festerson and R. A. Pickett, honorary, and Messrs. Jas. B. Smith, Joseph D. Smith, Eugene Filmyaw, A. B.
Sandlin, S. M. Bostwright, and C. H.
Schulken, Jr., active.

Magistrate's Court.
Abraham Nutt, who it was alleged, stole Mr. Tom Sykes' trunk Monday night from the Rock Spring Hotel, was tried by Justice Banting yesterday, but was discharged. He was then tried for carrying a concealed deadly weapon, a pair of lead knucks. Upon this charge he was committed to jail in default of a $50 bond for trial at the next term of the Criminal Court.

per at $5.00 per year, or $1.25 for three months? If so, subscribe to THE MORNING STAR.
Do you want a paper that prints the latest telegraphic news, the best local news, reliable market reports, excellent short stories, and the choice miscellaneous matter? If so, subscribe to THE MORNING STAR.
Do not forget that THE MORNING STAR is the cheapest daily of its class in North Carolina. Its price is $5.00, while the published price of others ranges from $7.00 to $8.00.

To-day is election day, the day when the fathers, or any rate half of them, of the city are to be chosen. The inspector of election, most of whom qualified before Justice of the Peace P. B. Rice, are as follows:
First Ward, Upper Division—Mike Carroll and W. J. Beach, Democrats, and R. F. Holmes and S. Salver, colored, Republicans.
First Ward, Lower Division—J. D.
Orrell and F. T. Skipper, Democrats, and O. D. Tellair and George Dry, colored, Republicans.

Second Ward—C. E. Wood and R.
K. Bryan, Jr., Democrats, and Washington McNeill and Chas. R. Mallett, colored, Republicans.
Third Ward—Jno. R. Tarantaine and Harry Hill, Democrats, and Julius Murray and Joseph Anderson, colored, Republicans.

Fourth Ward—W. P. Oldham and W. F. Keitchum, Democrats, and Wm.
Johnson and John McCas, colored, Republicans.
Fifth Ward—Martin Daniels and Frank Swann, Democrats, and Wm. H.
Dadley, Jr., and Andrew J. Allen, colored, Republicans.

The voting precincts are as follows:
Upper Division First Ward—At Wm.
McEvay's office on Fourth street, between Bladen and Harnett.
Lower Division First Ward—Phoenix Engine House.
Second Ward—At old Court House.
Third Ward—Giblem Lodge.
Fourth Ward—At office near corner Front and Orange.
Fifth Ward—Cape Fear Engine House, on Sixth and Castle streets.

There was practically no change in the political camp yesterday. All day long politicians could be seen grouping around the street corners discussing the situation. It was rumored early in the day that ex-Mayor S. H. Fishblade would run as an independent candidate for alderman in the Third ward and that the Democratic Executive Committee had decided to have only one candidate in each ward.

A conference of the leading Republicans was held last night at the Orton House, and it is generally known among themselves who will be the five aldermen appointed by the Governor, but they refuse to impart the information to others. The commissions of these aldermen will reach the city to-day. It is now conceded by the Republicans that Dr. S. P. Wright will be mayor. Governor Russell will probably arrive in the city from Raleigh to-night.

OPERA HOUSE.

The Barlow Brothers' Minstrel To-Morrow
Evening.
To-morrow evening the Barlow Brothers' Minstrel will be the attraction at the Opera House, and, as this is to be the last minstrel performance of the season, a large crowd will no doubt be on hand to pay homage to them.
The Columbus (Ohio) State Journal says: "A well pleased audience was in attendance on the first night of the Barlow Brothers' combination. Barlow Brothers are always popular in Columbia, and they sustained their reputation by presenting a high class programme.
The extensive repertoire included many new songs and the wit and the jokes of the company were very much appreciated. The program included a good humor for two hours and a half.
The specialty work of Harry Ward was especially good. It is one of the best minstrel companies on the road, and as good as will be seen this year." Prices for this engagement will be 75, 50 and 25 cents. Reserved seat sale opens this morning at Gerken's. The dress circle will be reserved for the best element of our colored citizens. Parquet for whites only.

Amateur Theatrical.
The Thespians of this city are now hard at work rehearsing for "Gloriana," a three-act farce comedy, which they will present after Easter. The company is composed largely of the players who presented the comedy "Charley's Aunt" last December, and this alone should be a sufficient guarantee for the success of "Gloriana." The ladies and gentlemen who will appear in this play are Mrs. DeBrazas Catlar, Jr., Misses Dena Angel and Cammie Lord and Messrs. Geo. B. Elliott, Jas. H.
Cowan, Thos. H. Wright, Seymour Merrill, Beverly Mason, W. F. Robertson and W. M. Atkinson.

Look Out for Your Trunks.
Another trunk was stolen last night, though under somewhat different circumstances from those of the one stolen a few nights ago. It was the property of Linda Price, colored, who was a passenger on the 845 A. C. L. train yesterday afternoon. A colored man offered his services to place the trunk on a wagon. On getting it into his possession he promptly and rapidly retired via the Seaboard Air Line depot to the shelter of Dross Neck, where at last accounts the woman was instituting a vigorous search for her stolen property.

Important Meeting of Fruit Growers and Truckers.
A very important meeting of the East Carolina Fruit Growers' and Truckers' Association will be held at Faison today. Important matters pertaining to the central office and shipping matter will come up for consideration.
Mr. S. W. Westbrook went up last night to attend the meeting. Mr. G. W.
Westbrook, one of the directors and a member of the Executive Committee, will go this morning.

Sale of Real Estate Not Offended.
The sale of the lot on Front street, lying north of the Seaboard Air Line offices and advertised for sale at auction at 12 o'clock yesterday, was not affected.
The auctioneers, Messrs. Cronly & Morris, bid them in at $2,800 each.

BOARD OF AGRICULTURE

CLEAN SWEEP MADE OF ALL INCUM-BENTS SAID ONE.

No Exhibit at the Tennessee Exposition—Negroes Dissatisfied at the Election of Dr. Alexander—Murder Trial—Negro Editor Dead.

[Special Star Telegram.] RALEIGH, N. C., March 24.—The Board of Agriculture to-day elected all the officers of the Agricultural Department. It made a clean sweep of all incumbents save Curator Brimley, who is retained. The Board decided not to make an exhibit at the Tennessee Exposition because there is a suit yet undecided before the United States Supreme Court, which may result in declaring the tonnage tax unconstitutional and there would be risk of short finances. This tax is the sole revenue of the department. The Board arranged to lend the Agricultural College $5,000 for a hospital building and new boilers.

Negro leaders here are talking a good deal to-day of the election of Dr. Alexander as superintendent of the hospital for the insane at Goldsboro, and say it is in direct violation of the pledge made to negro members of the Legislature to secure their votes.

William S. Mitchell, associate editor of the Gazette, James H. Young's negro paper here, died to-day of galloping consumption.

Thomas Burch, the negro who was shot in the back of the head in a store here which he was robbing, pleaded guilty this afternoon of burglary in the second degree and was given fifteen years in the penitentiary.

The trustees of the Agricultural College meet to-morrow.
The effort to secure an army post here is being renewed.

The trial of John Groves, white, for the murder of a negro, began here this afternoon. The court room is packed and the interest is great.

Quiet and Accurate Work.
The Postal Telegraph and Commercial Cable Company, on the occasion of the international chess match between the United States and England, February 19th and 18th, transmitted messages over 3,466 miles of wire, from Brooklyn, N. Y., to London, Eng. Twenty players were engaged in the game, and the moves were reproduced in fifteen seconds without an error being made.
Truly space is being annihilated and the uttermost ends of the earth brought together.

A Fruitless Search.
It was reported to Chief of Police Milton yesterday that William Bell, colored, who is wanted by the authorities for robbing W. A. McQuillan, also colored, on the public highway the 4th of the present month, was in the city at Adolphus Thomas' saloon, on Water street, between Market and Dock. Last night, shortly after 9 o'clock, Chief Milton and Police Officers R. M. Murray, Geo. J. McClammy and H. Wood searched Thomas' saloon, but could find no trace of him.

One Cent a Word.
Hereafter advertisements to go in our "Business Locals" department will be charged one cent per word for each insertion; but no advertisement, however short, will be taken for less than 30 cents.
This is a reduction from former rates and it is also a convenience to advertisers who can calculate the exact cost of their advertisements, which must be paid for always in advance.

If there is anything you want, advertise for it. Is there anything you don't want? Advertise it in the Business Locals of the Star. One cent a word. But no ad. taken for
