Rainfall for the day, 0.12 inches.
1st of month to date, 2.17 inches.

Water conditions for twelve hours ended at 8 p. m., May 26th, furnished by the Weather Bureau office:

The high barometer area continues central over the Ohio valley, and is still casting cool, fair weather to prevail over all sections east and south of the lakes.
Over the central western valleys and the Southwest the barometer is falling slowly under an entering storm from the Northwest, with a warm wave prevailing generally and fair weather continuing.

Light local showers only have fallen over Missouri and along the West Gulf coast. Conditions continue for generally fair, warmer weather over this locality Thursday, with light and variable winds.

COTTON REGION BULLETIN.
Fair weather prevailed over the cotton belt, with a general fall in temperature over the eastern portion. Temperatures are rising rapidly over the Southwest.

FAYETTEVILLE, N. C., May 25.—At 8 a. m. the stage of water in the Cape Fear river was 4.3 feet.

FORECAST FOR TO-DAY.
For North Carolina, fair, except possibly showers near the coast; warmer; southeasterly winds, becoming easterly.

OUTLINES.
Seven paragraphs of the Tariff bill were considered yesterday, the committee being sustained in each instance, despite the opposition, led by Senator Vest, of Missouri. — James E. Boyd, of North Carolina, has been nominated for assistant attorney general, and Kenneth R. Pendleton, collector of customs, District of Albemarle, N. C. — Rev.

home of a farmer near Duluth demolished the building and killed the farmer and two sons; his wife and another son were badly hurt. — Representatives of nearly all the tobacco manufacturers in the United States met in Washington to protest against the proposed increase tax on tobacco. — Gen. Lee reports that the supplies now on hand for relief of American citizens in distress in Cuba are abundant and will last some time.

In the trial of H. O. Havemeyer, of the Sugar Trust, the Government rested its case; counsel for defence moved that the judge instruct the jury to find defendant not guilty, and stated grounds therefor; the district attorney will reply to the motion to-day. — Queen Victoria's birthday was celebrated in London yesterday; the ceremony was an usually imposing. — The strike of garment makers in New York city is broken; 3000 operators will resume work to-day. — Mrs. Henalig committed suicide in Brooklyn by jumping from a roof of a three-story building; her four-month-old child clasped in her arms escaped without a scratch.

Texas is tackling the proposition to pay officers salaries instead of fees. Texas is level-headed in this.

Amanda Kash, of Kentucky, was all right until she began to extem-porize it and then they convicted her of counterfeiting her name.

The latest victim of the cigarette habit, was a Stockton, N. J., boy aged 15 years, who went up into the attic and hanged himself.

The miners of Butte, Mont., are always prepared to give a big blow-out on short notice. They burn annually 1,500,000 pounds of powder.

Kansas has added another to her collection of human freaks. It is a young man who had a "young lady" and a pretty one, too, arrested for "forcibly and intentionally hugging him."

Gen. Weyer characterizes the effort to extend relief to suffering Americans in Cuba by this Government as "unjustified interference." It is interfering with Weyer's plan of starvation.

Some of the thrifty Londoners are expecting to turn their good Queen to profitable account at the jubilee show. They have pre-empted such sites as they could along the line of march and are asking from $25 to $50 for sitting room. For small flats that would not rent for more than $350 a year they are asking from $500 to a $1,000 (according to locality) for the month of June.
And there are fools who buy seats and rent houses at these figures.

The airship seems to have been taking a rest for it is a couple of weeks or more since any one has seen it, but it is expected to heave out in sight pretty soon. A San Francisco dispatch says one is now being rigged up at Grand Island, in California, which will soon soar aloft to scout across the continent.
It will be run by a gasoline engine and have aluminum propellers. Next month is the time.

Two St. Louis men were smart enough to sell a calculating machine to the Londoners for $200,000, but were not smart enough to slip the customs officers at New York with the $3,000 worth of diamonds they were carrying in their belts, to make presents to the St. Louis "Sunday School Union," of which one of them is President. What a nice lot of diamonds the children may lose.

C. Columbus can retire now, for the University of Pennsylvania is preparing to celebrate, on the 1st of June, the 900th anniversary of the discovery of America by the Norse-sented by proxy. This is all right until the Chinese come in and lay the Norseman out.

The Augusta Chronicle very pertinently asks why it is that jurists, attorneys and judges who find it their duty to convict and sentence men to death are so ready to sign petitions for their pardon. That is a question which has been frequently asked in this State recently.

A Barter Column.

In the Police Court yesterday Willie Wilkins, a colored boy about 18 years of age, was arraigned, charged with breaking into the store of Mr. B.
Belouis, on Market street, between Front and Second, and stealing a bottle of brandy, a bottle of whiskey and a pistol. Lee Hardin, another colored boy, and the prosecutor's main witness, swore that Wilkins stole the goods, while Wilkins swore that Hardin stole them; but as the stolen articles had been traced to Wilkins, Mayor Wright placed him under $200 bond for his appearance at the next term of the Criminal Court. He failed to give bond and was committed to jail. Wilkins is the boy who robbed the store of Messrs.
B. F. Penney & Co., a few months ago, but through some slip in the testimony escaped punishment.

A Wilmington Author.

A neatly bound book is offered for sale at the book store, with the title "Another Comforter." It is a study of the mission of the Holy Spirit, and the author is Rev. A. D. McClure, pastor of St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church. The writing of the book was suggested to Mr. McClure by the ignorance of the power and mission of the third member of the Trinity, which is so widely prevalent even among Christians. The writer's experience as editorial writer for several years on the North Carolina Presbyterian, added to his thorough training in the theological department of Princeton College, ought to command a good sale for the book. It is published by the Fleming H. Revell Company, publishers of evangelical literature.

One Cent a Word.
Hereafter advertisements to go in our "Business Locals" department will be charged one cent per word for each insertion; but no advertisement, however short, will be taken for less than 20 cents.
This is a reduction from former rates and it is also a convenience to adversers who can calculate the exact cost of their advertisements, which must be paid for always in advance.

Sale of the W. & B. Railway.
A dispatch to the STAR from Charleston, S. C., says: "In the United States Circuit Court here to-day, Judge Simmons issued a decree ordering the sale of the Wilmington, Newbern & Norfolk Railway. No date was fixed, but it was understood that the property will be placed on the block about the first of August."

St. James Assession Day.
This being Assession Day, divine ser-

WEDDING BELLS

Marriage of Miss Dana Angel to Dr. Geo. G.
Blount and Mrs. Grace B. Wilson to Mr. W. N. Marston.

St. James Episcopal Church yesterday morning was the scene of a happy and pretty wedding—the marriage of Dr.
Geo. G. Blount, of Washington, N. C., and Miss Dana Angel, of this city. The interior of the church, artistically decorated with ferns, cut flowers, etc., presented a rare picture. At 8:15 o'clock the organ, under the skillful management of Miss Belle Anderson, sent forth the beautiful strains of Mendelssohn's wedding march and the bridal party, in harmony with this classic music, entered the church. First came the bridesmaid, Miss Nora Angel, sister of the bride, beautifully attired in white, then followed the flower girls, Miss Muse Blount, sister of the groom, and Miss Ida Brown, after which the bride, leaving on the arm of her brother, Mr.
Henry M. Angel, of Goldsboro, and preceded by the maid of honor, Miss Cammie Lord, costumed in a handsome pink gown and carrying a bouquet of "La France" roses, marched up the main aisle to the altar, where she was met by the groom, under the escort of his brother, Mr. Samuel Blount, and the usher—Messrs. R. B. Mason, Thos. A.
T. C. DeRosset and Chas. C. Davis —grouped around the altar. Rev. Robt.
Strange, D. D., then joined the contracting parties in the holy bonds of mari-mony, and as the last of the marriage vows were uttered the church bell mercifully pealed forth the happy tidings.

From the church Mr. and Mrs.
Blount, accompanied by a large number of friends and relatives, proceeded to the Atlantic Coast Line depot, where they embarked on the 9:30 o'clock North bound train for Washington, the home of the groom, where they will reside in the future. At the train the bridal couple were showered with rice and many other tokens of good luck.

The bride is one of Wilmington's most popular and charming young ladies, and the groom one of Washington's rising young physicians.

The bride was given away by her brother, Mr. Henry W. Angel, and carried in her hand a large bouquet of bride's roses. Mr. and Mrs. Blount were the recipients of many costly and handsome presents.

WILSON-MARSTON.
At the residence of Mrs. M. M. Ball, 318 Church street, at 8 o'clock yesterday morning a quiet but very happy event was celebrated. The parlor and hallways were fragrant with beautiful flowers, loving remembrances from friends, many of them at a distance. A few intimate acquaintances were present and on their faces was written that joyous anticipation which continues always warm on occasions like this one. The event was the marriage of Mr. W. A. Marston, of Richmond, Va., and Miss Grace Estelle Wilson, of this city. Rev. A. D. McClure, Pastor of St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church, performed the ceremony. The bride was becomingly attired in a travelling suit of blue lace and silk trimmings and carried a bouquet of La France roses.

The groom is a well known business man, being manager of the great fishing department of the Julius Meyer & Sons' dry goods establishment, Richmond, Va.

The bride is a young lady of shining qualities and amiable disposition, and has numerous friends in the city.

Mr. and Mrs. Marston left at 9:30 o'clock for the Atlantic Coast Line for Richmond, their future home. Miss Katie Bill accompanied them as far as Tarboro.

BOARD OF ALDERMEN.
Special Meeting—The Tax Ordinance Adopted—Other Matters Disposed Of.

A called meeting of the Board of Aldermen was held last night shortly after 8 o'clock. Present: Mayor Hewlett and Aldermen Twining, Hewlett, Benson, Norwood, Green and Walker.

Mayor Hewlett, in calling the meeting to order, stated that it had been called for the special purpose of considering the tax ordinance for the year 1897.
Clerk F. B. Rice then read the ordinance, which, with the exception of a few slight changes and the reduction of the tax levy from 1 1/2 to 1 1/4 per cent., is the same as last year, 1896.

Upon the conclusion of the reading of the ordinance Alderman Green moved its adoption as a whole, which motion was seconded by Alderman Hewlett and adopted by the Board.

An application from A. D. Wessell for permission to build a temporary shed, nine feet high, on a lot on Second street, between Market and Dock, was referred to the Fire Committee.

Permission was granted L. H. Vol-lers to build a two-story frame dwelling on Sixth street, between Dock and Orange.

On motion of Alderman Walker, the time for meeting was changed from 8 p. m. to 4 p. m. until September 1st.

The meeting closed at 7 o'clock adjourned.

See Bill at Hilton Park.

The Mutuals and Manhattan (colored clubs) played a hotly contested game of ball at Hilton Park yesterday afternoon.
It took ten innings to decide the game, ending with a score of 10 to 9 in favor of the Mutuals. There was a large crowd of spectators.

Another game will be played by the same teams this afternoon; game beginning at 4:30 o'clock. Ladies will be admitted free of charge.

Magistrate's Court.
Justice McGowan disposed of two cases yesterday:

Mary S. Pearson, colored, was adjudged guilty of assault and battery and was required to pay the costs of the action.

Geo. Mack, colored, charged with disorderly conduct, was also adjudged guilty, but judgment was suspended upon payment of the costs.

THE PUBLIC SCHOOLS.

Materialism—Ladies Night by Pupils of Union School—Largely attended and Very Much Enjoyed.

The closing exercises of the Union School took place last night, and long before the hour for commencing, arrived the commodious hall of the school building was packed with people, which forcibly showed that a pleasant evening's entertainment was expected. And their expectations were fully realized, for one has seldom seen so interesting school closing as was presented by the scholars of the Union last night, under the direction of Prof. Noble and his efficient corps of teachers.

These school exhibitions have been a source of pleasure to citizens for many years past, and last night was no exception.

The stage was tastefully decorated with nature's green—ferns, bamboo and cut flowers—and lighted with rays from several large plano and banquet lamps presented a scene of enchantment.

The exercises opened with the "Song of the Roses," sung by the entire school.
Next followed a catchy little piece, entitled "Milking Song," participated in by Master Louis Orrell and Miss Nora Baker. These two young people acquitted themselves with credit and received the hearty plaudits and favorable comment of all present.

The third and last part of the entertainment was a pleasing cantata, "Fairy of the Fountains, or Diamonds and Tears," and was rendered with the following cast, each member of which was handsomely attired in a costume suitable to his or her part.

"Prince Clever," Edward P. Bailey,
"Lilla," Aabel Lutimer; "Flirta," Atala Humphrey; "Dame Bastler," Ella
James; "Bye Bye," J. D. Smith, Jr.; "Bo Peep," Mary Waite; "Fairy of the Fountain," Lizzie Kirkham. Hunters—Malcolm Parker, Ashley Bowden, Raymond Motte, Zach Bell, Spears Hicks, Herwood Orrell, Clarence Hayes, Ullie McGowan, Frank Pleasant.

Winnipeg yesterday fell down below Cincinnati, giving the Reds second place, and Brooklyn pushed Philadelphia aside and took fifth place, Boston and Cleveland both having an equal claim to fourth place, while Chicago ascended above Washington.

Umpire Timothy Horst seems to be fated. Two weeks ago he was arrested in Cleveland, along with the Cleveland and Washington teams for playing ball on Sunday, and yesterday he came near getting scalped, as the following telegraphic report from Pittsburg will show:
"Umpire Horst was in the hands of a mob after to-day's game, and was saved from serious injury by the Pittsburg players dragging him into the club house. The general sentiment after yesterday's game was that Horst's favors gave the Orioles the victory, and a repetition to-day capped the climax in the minds of the crowd, and about five hundred waited around the club house for the umpire after the game. Horst became incensed and struck one of the crowd, and was immediately jumped on by the mob. Ten policemen were called to escort him to his hotel."

SALEM FEMALE COLLEGE.
Diplomas Presented to Members of the Graduating Class—Hon. W. W. Estlin Delivered the Annual Address.
[Special Star Telegram.]

WINSTON, May 26.—To-day's exercises concluded the happy and truly successful ninety-fifth commencement of Salem Female College. Hon. W. W.
Estlin, the brilliant Congressman from the Fifth North Carolina district, delivered the annual address. His subject was "The Glory of Woman." The reputation of Mr. Estlin as an orator had preceded him, and his reputation was well sustained in his effort to-day.

At the conclusion of his address Principal Clewell, on behalf of her college, presented a gold watch and chain to Miss Fannie Johnson, of Asheville, a member of the graduating class.
Prof. Clewell then tendered thanks to all who had contributed to the success of the commencement and expressed pleasure at the presence of an unusually large number of visitors. He said the college has had a very successful year.
The class work has never been better.

With touching and timely remarks Bishop Washburn presented diplomas to the thirty-one members of the graduating class and also to five who completed the course in bookkeeping, one in stenography, five in vocal music, two in instrumental music and two in elocution.
There was sung the farewell class song; followed by the benediction by Rev. J. F. George, of St. Paul's Episcopal Church, and on the most pleasant occasions of the venerable educational institution for women was at an end.
