OUTLINES.

A terrific cyclone visited Hanover and Caroline counties, Virginia, yesterday; 2000 was hurt. The sugar schedule of the tariff bill debated in the Senate, there was a sharp exchange between Tillman and Hoar. In the House a monster petition, containing over six thousand names, appealing to Congress to recognize the Cape Fear insurgents as belligerents was presented. Jan. Price, a noted bank thief, arrested in New York City. A treaty for the cession of Hawaii to the United States will be sent to the Senate soon

Left for Georgetown, D. C.

Major D. O'Connor and Mrs. O'Connor left last evening on the 7.15 A. C. L. train for an extensive trip. They will go first to Georgetown, D. C., to be present at the commencement exercises of Georgetown University, from which institution their daughter, Miss Mae O'Connor, graduates this year. After the commencement is over the three will go on a tour of the North and West, visiting the lakes and stopping over at several of the large cities, Milwaukee and others.

Mrs. S. D. Bradford, of Southport, also left last evening to go to the commencement of Georgetown University, where her daughter is a student.

Struck by Lightning.

During the storm Saturday afternoon the water-tank on an iron platform seventy-five feet high, at the compress of Messrs. Alex. Sprant & Son, was struck by lightning and a hole knocked in the top and a wooden brace knocked off, but fortunately, as the tank contains 10,000 gallons of water and was very nearly full, no other damage was done.
The tank supplies water for the pipes of the automatic sprinklers, which run through the compress. The lightning struck the tank about 4 o'clock.

Are You Going?

The Sunday school of St. Andrew's Presbyterian church will go to Lake Waccamaw on the annual excursion day after to-morrow. The lake is a most desirable place to which to run an excusion, and there will doubtless be a large number who will go.

The train will leave the Front street depot at 9 o'clock. See ad. for further particulars.

BURGLARS WERE BUSY.

A NUMBER OF SMALL ROBBERIES LAST SUNDAY.

Several Business Houses and Two Residences Entered—A Safe Opened and Plundered of Its Contents.

The wheel of fortune allotted to Wilmington Sunday eight robberies, which was certainly, to say the least, an unusual occurrence. The chief feature of the different burglaries was the boldness of the participants. The following is the Sabbath day record:

—Mr. Jas. W. Plummer, Jr., keeps a confectionery store on Princess street, between Front and Second. During the morning Sunday Mr. T. W. Wood, who occupies part of the store, and Mr. Jas.
W. Plummer, Sr., were sitting in the rear of the store—Mr. Plummer reading the morning paper and Mr. Wood writing at a desk, near an iron safe, writing. Mr. Wood upon finishing writing arose, and after locking the safe, which had a combination lock, departed. In the meantime Mr. Archie McLean, of Lumberton, came in the store, and he and Mr. Plummer engaged in a friendly conversation until 13:45 o'clock, when he and Mr. Plummer took their departure—Mr. Plummer going home to dinner and Mr. McLean going to the Ortoe, where he was stopping during his stay in the city. Mr. Plummer, before leaving, locked the different doors of the store, but Mr. Wood returned shortly after 3 o'clock—a little over an hour—he found one of the doors of the store which opens into a back yard and which only could have been opened from the inside as it fastens by an iron brace, open: the door of the combination safe was also open, and an iron box, which had been in the safe containing $18.75, taken out of the safe, broken open and robbed of its contents.
Investigation showed that entrance had probably been effected by the thief or thieves through a broken window of a rear room connecting with the store.
A cold chisel was found near the recently robbed safe, and on the safe three keys, one of which exactly fitted the door of the rear room leading into the back yard. The discovery of the keys made supposition plausible that the thief or thieves, effected an entrance through that door, and that the broken window and a supposed barfoot track—which could have been more easily manufactured by other means than a foot—was the work of a cool-headed miscreant. The easy opening of the safe and the utter disregard for $3 in pennies, which were in the safe, go to show that the robbery was either done by an expert or one that had by some hook or crook discovered the combination of the safe which Mr. Wood is almost positive he set, using the one number, or day combination, which if not operated correctly makes the opening of the lock an impossibility without using the entire combination, or resorting to dynamite or something of the like nature. Of the money in the safe $15.49 belonged to Mr. Jas. W. Plummer, and $3.26 to Mr. Wood.

In connection with the Plummer robbery occurred the breaking into of the real estate office of Mr. W. M. Cumming, next door to Mr. Plummer, on the eastern side. Saturday night Mr. W. A. McGowan, head clerk, left the office about 10 o'clock, after seeing that the doors and windows of the office were securely fastened, but Mr. Cumming, happened to go to the office about 8:30 o'clock Sunday afternoon, a short while after the discovery of the robbery at Mr. Plummer's and found that the appearance of Mr.
Cumming's office showed decided signs of a recent visit from some thief or thieves. Drawers of the different desks were open and the contents ransacked, but the only thing missing was three keys, which afterwards turned out to be the keys found on the top of Mr. Plummer's safe. A broken pane of glass in a window of the rear office, opening into an alley, seemed to tell the story of the entrance. Although the window-pane was broken the broken glass was on the outside of the window, showing that an expert, assisted by a small boy who could have entered through the hole made, had been at work at that entrance to Mr. Cumming's office had been made by means of a false key, and the breaking of the window-pane was only a blind. Luckily for Mr. Cumming, the thief or thieves in their eager search overlooked five dollars in money which was lying near.

C. W. YATES' STORE ENTERED.

Between noon and 5 o'clock Sunday the book store of Mr. C. W. Yates, on Market street, between Front and Second, was entered from the rear, and the store broken open, but nothing obtained, as Mr. Yates had taken the precaution to remove the contents upon his departure from the store at noon. The intruders were evidently not of a literary or artistic turn of mind, as no books, pictures or other articles were missing.
An entrance was made by removing without breaking a pane of glass set in the skylight over the back room of the store, which fronts into an alley running from Front to Second street, and then by breaking open a window in the rear part of the store, fastened by means of a wooden bar. A brick wall near the store furnished the means by which the intruders reached the shed of the room.
Upon the roof of the room, which was tiled, could be plainly seen the tracks of two barfooted people—one small and one large. The burglary was discovered by a clerk in the store.

MILKRIEN ESTABLISHMENT PLUN-DERED.

Sunday morning Mrs. Frank Jones, who resides on Dick street, near Second, happened to look out the back way of her residence and saw the window of Mrs. E. M. Strook's milkery establishment a large hole in the second story of a building on Second street, near Dock, open, and a ladder, which had been in the yard, leaning against the building directly under the open window. Mrs. Jones immediately informed Mrs. Sarah Judge, who is an occupant of the building, of the occurrence. Mrs. Judge sent word to Mrs. Strook, at Eden Piner's, No. 618 Princess street, where Mrs.

Strook resides. Upon arriving Mrs.
Strook discovered that she, too, had been robbed. A show case, containing a heavy tin money box, was broken open, and the box was missing. The box was, however, found in the yard, with the top cut to pieces, presumably by means of some sharp instrument, and its contents, $3 in money, a note for $60, bearing interest at 8 per cent, a certificate from the defunct First National Bank, a gold bracelet and a gold ring, were missing. Mrs.
Strook left her place of business Saturday night about 10 o'clock.

BARBER SHOP ENTERED.

Churchill Moore's barber shop, on Front street, between Market and Dock, was again entered Sunday morning. As of yore the entrance was made through a window, which opened into a backyard.
The money drawer was broken open and robbed of its contents—only a five-cent piece with a hole in it. Other drawers were broken open and ransacked. The robbery was discovered Sunday morning about 9 o'clock by James S. McKathern, colored, a barber in the employ of Moore.

OTHER ROBBERIES.

The country produce store of Adam Brown, colored, at Front street market, was also robbed Sunday morning. A side window of the store, which leads into the entrance of the market house was broken open. The money-drawer was forced open, and a vain attempt to crack the safe was made. The only articles missing are three boxes of cigars and a toy bank containing a small sum of money. The robbery of this place was discovered Sunday morning at 7 o'clock by one of Brown's sons.

The kitchen to the residence of Mr. W. F.
Robertson, corner Second and Orange streets, was entered last Saturday night or early Sunday morning, and robbed of a quantity of groceries and jam.
A residence in the Southern portion of the city was entered early Sunday morning, and the pantry relieved of most of its contents.

average in all branches, was awarded to Dr. DeVal Jones, of Newbern.

The prize of G. F. Harvey & Co., Saratoga, N. Y., for the second highest average in all branches, was awarded to Dr.
Charles Robinson, of Chapel Hill.

The prize of Wm. H. Anthony & Co., Indianapolis, Ind., for best examination in surgery, was awarded to Dr.
Chas. Robinson, of Chapel Hill.

Prize of Lee Bros. & Co., of Philadelphia, Pa., for best examination in porting medicine, was awarded to Dr. James Sawyer, of Asheville.

North Carolina Medical Journal's prize for best examination in anatomy was awarded to Dr. R. E. Zachary, of Brevard.

Appointment to the Wilmington City Hospital was awarded to Dr. Zachary.

There were eighty two applicants, but only sixty-four were granted licenses.

Dr. Camp P. Battle, Jr., of Raleigh, was elected by the Board of Examiners to fill the vacancy on the Board caused by the death of Dr. J. M. Hays, of Greensboro.

The Board passed suitable resolutions on the death of Dr. Hays.

Dr. T. S. Burbank, of this city, member of the Board, returned yesterday from Morehead.

Among those who were granted license was Mr. R. Clinton Banting, of this city. The examination this year is said to have been the most rigid one held in a number of years, yet notwithstanding, Dr. Banting, who has had only two years instruction in medical science at Davidson College, passed a successful as well as a high examination. Dr.
Banting will soon leave to take a post graduate course at Bellevue College. The STAR wishes him success.

Killed a Battlesnake.

Master Gus Reiger, Jr., 11 years old, son of Capt. A. W. Reiger, who resides on his rice plantation, across the river in Brunswick, while walking in the front yard near his feet a huge rattlesnake, which gave the usual warning.
With a cool head and steady nerve Gus returned to the house, procured his father's gun, and dispatched the snake, which measured nearly five feet, and had eleven rattles and a button.
