OUTLINES.

The Senate made rapid work on the Tariff bill yesterday, the motion to re-surrect the free list was rejected; the paraphrase proposing a duty on tea was over; the tax on oranges, lemons, grape fruit, was fixed at one cent per pound. The Knights of Pythias Grand Lodge of North Carolina, in session at Charlotte, elected officers and selected Wilmington as the next place of meeting. — Stewart L. Woodford, a prominent lawyer and politician of New York, has been nominated minister to Spain. — C. D. Collins, a wealthy Tennesseean, was lured by his probable death by Maria Easley, of Memphis, with whom he had been on terms of friendship; after beating his companion into insensibility with a hammer Easley robbed his victim of $5,000, but two men in the assault Easley was arrested.

The treaty for the annexation of Hawaii to the United States was signed and sent to the Senate; before the final signature of the document, the Japanese Government through its legation in Washington presented a formal protest against the agreement; sentiment in the Senate is said to be in favor of the ratification of the treaty, but there is some opposition. — The earthquake in India was very destructive; towns were levelled to the ground and whole villages subsided. — The Strasburg statue, in Paris, was injured by a bomb explosion yesterday, but no other damage was done. — Yesterday's New York market: Money on call was easy at 10 1/2 per cent; last loan at 11 and closed offered at 1 per cent; cotton steady—middling 7 1/2; flour was firm and slightly easier; wheat—spot was weaker, No. 1 Northern New York 87c distant; corn—spot firm No. 2—at elevator and 81 1/2c distant; rosin was quiet—strained common to good $1.78 @ 1.76; spirits turpentine quiet at 37 1/2 @ 38c.

It is about time to look for some pretty warm weather. A New Jersey weatherist predicts a prolonged cool spell, two months of it.

Senator Tillman didn't succeed in getting his sugar investigation, but he had the fun of making some vigorous thrusts with that pitchfork.

committed suicide. After his long waiting he seemed to have abandoned hope of getting out of Boston any other way.

Rev. Parkhurst says he is going to retire from politics and devote himself to religion. But politics will proceed all the same. Tom Watson still survives.

Ex-Congressman Sorg, the wealthy tobacco manufacturer of Ohio, is entering the senatorial ring to give Hanna a tussle. Sorg has the sorghum, and doesn't mind using it in emergencies.

Senator McEnery, in his sugar-trust speech in the Senate the other day, said the "poor man's" sugar contains 16 per cent of water. He didn't volunteer any information as to the percentage of sand.

That Indiana prophet, Collicott, who had arranged for the final smash up of the earth last Saturday is now revising his prophesy to find out what was the matter with the earth that it failed to respond.

A good many small men in England will participate in the Queen's jubilee show, but the biggest man in England, W. A. Gladstone, has not been invited. Perhaps the little fellows didn't want to be dwarfed by having him figure in it.

Not satisfied with starting up new cotton mills and other industries, Mexico started up a brand new volcano the other day near the town of Tehuacan. It is putting a move on people and making things right lively in that locality.

The unsophisticated traveller in Germany is aided in telling which railway car to climb into by the color of the car, the color corresponding with the color of the second class green, third class white.

That Kansas City ostrich man who has for several years been swallowing a miscellaneous assortment of tacks, nails, screws, broken glass, jack knives, &c., put his digestive organs to too severe a test, overloaded and had to be opened out to relieve him of the cargo he had at various times taken on. That part of the job was a success, for the doctors took from him odds and ends enough to stock a junk shop. They are now waiting to see if the "ostrich" will survive the unloading.

A contemporary calls matting the "poor man's carpet" and scores the Dingley tariff builders for putting a tariff on it that will place it beyond the reach of many poor people. Perhaps the fellows who put up that job think the poor man has no business to have a carpet, and that he is lucky to have a floor without a carpet. If this plundering protection policy continues long that is about the way it will pan out.

Since the reported attempted assassination of President Faure, of France, Queen Victoria has become nervous, and it is thought she may not appear in the jubilee show.
Well, there is nothing to prevent sticking a dummy in the carriage and going on with the show. The Britisheers will enjoy it quite as much.

That New York burglar thought he was playing it smart on the lady of the house when in reply to her inquiry "who is that?" he answered "me, dearie," but he wasn't, for she wasn't used to that kind of talk and yelled loud enough to waken every one for a block around.

Hon. David B. Hill emerges from his "Roost" to venture the prediction that "prosperity will come to us in the future." As the "future" is a somewhat elongated concept, Mr.
Hill doesn't much risk his reputation as a prophet.

Hon. John Wanamaker does not believe that whistling will bring prosperity to the country. He is right. Neither will putting heavier burdens upon the people for the benefit of fellows who chipped into the Republican campaign fund bring it.

For the ten months ending April 30th our exports of manufactures amounted in value to $234,023,006, an increase of $40,000,000 over the corresponding ten months of the preceding year. And yet some of our manufacturers are howling for more protection.
