OUTLINES
The Senate yesterday adjourned upon official announcement of the death of Senator Hanna of Tennessee no business was transacted.

Senator Hanna says this is no time for increasing wages. No time is a good time for men of the Hanna kind to increase wages. Whether it is a good time or not to increase wages it is a very good time not to increase taxes, which Mr. Hanna and his associates are doing.

Nicola Tesla, the electrician, is so absent-minded that sometimes when he takes a bath he forgets to take his clothes off. That may be annoying, but not so much so as if he forgot to put his clothes on, as an absent-minded old gentleman in New Orleans sometimes did.

Senator Hanna thinks that the sooner Congress adjourns the better it will be for the business of the country. It would have been a good thing for the business of the country if this Congress had never met.

The Michigan man who traded off his wife for a horse wanted something which he could drive that couldn't talk back.

A Disagreeable Affair.

A disagreeable case was enacted late yesterday afternoon on Princess street near Water. A white man, one of the excursionists, in a playful mood, turned over a bale of hay on which sat a small colored boy, and the boy at once commenced to yell, when he had not even been hurt. The excursionist and two companions had turned away and were walking up Princess street, when a negro man snaked up behind the excusionist, and hit him with his fist behind the ear, knocking him down on the Belgian blocks with which Princess street is paved. The excursionist then walked off, but one of the injured man's companions drew a pistol and started after the negro, as did also two other white men who were passing by. The negro, aided by a number of negro excursionists and the like, made his escape luckily so, for a crowd of about forty white men soon gathered and if the miscreant had been loosed it would have fared bad with him. The man who was knocked down remained on the ground for about three minutes and was only able to rise with the assistance of others.
His face, which came in contact with the street curbing when he fell, was cut in several places. During all the disturbance there was no policeman in sight, though several vain attempts were made to find one.

Justice Fowler's Case.
The case brought by Mr. Otto Brack, agent for the Robert Porter Brewing Company, against Messrs. Louis Weil and F. Richter, agents for the Anheuser and the Bartholomew brewing companies, respectively, to recover a sum of $200,000 in the possession of the two defendants, was called for trial yesterday morning in Justice Fowler's court, but owing to some irregularity in the proceeding, the counsel for Mr. Brack, Messrs. Ballamy & Bellamy, entered a non-suit. Messrs. John D. Bellamy and A. J. Marshall represented the defendants.

We publish to day the brief, but appropriate and eloquent speech delivered by Maj. Chas. M. Stedman on the dedication of the Schenck Museum, at the Guilford Battle ground on the 3rd inst. His many friends in this section of the State, where he is so well known, will read with interest his latest tribute to his mother State and to the heroes who in two wars made glorious history for her, for the South and for our country.

The Baltimore & Ohio Railroad wants to surprise Mr. McKinley with a Southern watermelon, and offers $45 for the largest sample. Here is a chance for some enterprising citizen in those sections where they grow so large that after they are scalloped out the darkeys use the bells for canoes, especially if they have caught on to the art of stimulating the growth of the melon by bottle nursing.

Gen. Weyler offers to pardon every reb who comes in and lays down his arms, and to permit any one who brings a horse or cattle to sell the horse or cattle. But he has the reputation of being such a liar that none of them will believe him and consequently are not coming in.

A SUCCESSFUL AFFAIR.

Entertainment Given by the King's Daughters for the Shelter of the Cross on Ocean View.

The entertainment given by the King's Daughters at the Clarendon Yacht Club house last night was what might be aptly termed a "rousing" success. The club house was a perfect blaze of light, and long before the appointed hour the crowd commenced to assemble until when the time arrived for the curtain to be pulled on the first scene, the house was simply "jammed." The ladies had erected a very neat platform in the southwest slope of the building, which was tastefully decorated and centrally located in showing the pictures of advantage. The programmes were features of the entertainment, being "blue-prints" of original sketches by Mr. Gaston L.
Myers, assisted by Mr. Adam Empland, and were so much admired that the quantity offered by the ladies at ten cents each was soon taken, and orders were being solicited for an additional supply as soon as possible.

Capt. W. R. Kenan, in his own happy manner, reminded the audience that a war for offerings for this most worthy object had been placed at the door and he was glad to be able to state that quite a nice sum was realized for the Shelter.
This was the first opportunity people have had to witness the portrait of Chas. Dana Gibson's noted pictures and judging from the hearty applause given each number they were more than pleased. The first number on the programme was "Gold is not the only game," Miss Walker, Mr. R. B. Mason and Miss Lottie Polvot, which was heartily applauded.

Mr. Nell Emerson then delighted the audience with an excellent recitation of "Clarence's Dream."
The next picture on the programme was "A Little Story by a sleeve," Miss Annie Kidder and Messrs. Robt. Pegrum and H. M. Chase, which was encored.

Little Miss Alice Craft's recitation, "A School Day," was one of the most pleasant features of the programme, and the little lady was loudly applauded.
"Their Message of Mind," Miss Sue Baldwin and Messrs. Bradley and Miller was next on the programme and was much enjoyed. Messrs. E. Hunt and Thomas followed with selections on guitar and mandolin.

The next picture proved to be one of the most interesting on the list: "In Days to come the Churches may be Fuller," Miss Sarah Kenan, and was heartily encored.
"Peppermint Sicks," by Messrs.
Bridgers, Waters, West, Chadbourne, Rheinstein, Bleudenthal and Kidder, was very laughable and came in for a large share of applause.

The concluding picture of the programme was entitled "Extra from the Will," Misses Bellamy and Lucile Polvot and Mr. H. H. McIlhenny, and also came in for the hearty endorsement it merited.

Much credit is due to Miss Carrie Myers who so ably planned this pleasant entertainment and carried it out, assisted by Miss Annie Bionat DeRosset and other members of the King's Daughters, and it is to be hoped we shall have the pleasure of witnessing several such entertainments for such a worthy cause as the Shelter during the Summer.

State Firemen's Association That always interesting meeting, the State Firemen's Association, will begin at Fayetteville on the 10th of August, just one month from to-day. Wilmington firemen will be especially interested, as they will be manfully to reflect credit on the city from which they go. Howard Relief Fire Engine Company have already been out several nights for practice, but next week they will get down to work and meet frequently and regularly in order to get in perfect trim for the great event.

The other companies will meet Monday night next to consider the advantages of participating in the contests.
All the companies will send delegates whether their representatives engage in the tournament or not.

World's Be Parried Over.
Brunswick county cattle must know the fate that awaits them here, for it is usually a very hard matter to get them across the river. Yesterday a drove of eight refused to be driven into the water in which cattle are commonly ferried over, and the only way they could be got over was by fording the river. They were driven in at the landing opposite Market street dock, but the tide was making in and they landed at Princess street dock climbing up out of the water with a tremendous splashing.
The incident attracted quite a crowd of interested onlookers.

Information for Mariners.
Schooner Ida E. Latham, at New York July 4, from Savannah, reports June 28 lat. 35.39, long 74, passed the stern of a vessel, upper part painted green, apparently not long in the water.
It was a menace to navigation.

A quantity of large Southern pine timber 12x12 by 40 feet long, and 12x12 by 60 feet long, apparently in the water but a short time, was drifting about July 1, north of Lookout Station, N. C.
Probably the deck load of a vessel wrecked south of Beaufort, N. C.

of their advertisements, which must be paid for always in advance.

MOONLIGHT EXCURSION.

A Delightful Trip on the Seamer Wilmington—Music, Dancing and Surf Bathing at Ocean View.

The evening was too pleasant and the prospect of having a good time too bright for people to refrain from going down the river on Capt. J. W. Harper's moonlight excursion last night. And by the time the Wilmington was scheduled to leave there was a good-sized crowd gathered on her decks.
The night was all one could ask—a trifle cool if anything on the Wilmington, swept as it was by the bracing breeze from the ocean. The moon rode high in the heavens, giving all due appropriateness to the name of the excusionist.

At the Beach there was enjoyment for all; music and dancing for those who indulged, surf-bathing by the moonlight for those to whom that sport has charms, and quiet, restful watching of the wild waves, silvered by the rays from the queen of night, for the older and more settled mind.

The boat left the beach promptly at 11:30 p. m., and landed her passengers in the city at 12:30 a. m., after an evening most pleasantly spent.

Painful Accident to Mr. N. Paul.
Mr. N. Paul, who has a confectionery store on Princess street between Second and Third, met with a painful accident last night.

Mr. Paul resides nearly opposite his store, and shortly after 8 o'clock started to walk across a street from his house to the store, and about the same time a street car, going up Princess street, and a horse and buggy, coming down the street, approached, and just as Mr. Paul stepped from the curb of the sidewalk into the street, the horse became frightened at the fast approaching car and commenced to rear and plunge.
Mr. S. P. Cowan, the only occupant of the buggy, perceiving the danger Mr.
Paul was in, leaped to him, but the warning came too late, as the horse ran by Mr. Paul at the rate of speed and one of the spurs of the buggy struck him in the side, knocking him down.
Mr. Paul was not seriously hurt, but was considerably bruised. He was carried to his house, and his injuries attended to by Dr. T. S. Burbank, who fortunately was a passenger on the street car at the time of the accident.

Mr. Paul's injuries are of a painful nature and will necessitate his remaining confined to his house for two or three days. Mr. Cowan offered every assistance to Mr. Paul.

LOCAL DOTS.

Items of Interest Gathered Here and There and Briefly Noted.

Native-grown grapes are beginning to be seen on the city markets.

See in the commercial columns this morning the weekly statement of cotton and naval stores.

Rev. John J. Douglass, of Clinton, N. C., will preach at the First Baptist Church to-morrow at 11 a. m. and 8:15 p. m.

The O. A. N. ball team and the Wilmington club will play the second of a series of three games this afternoon at the ball park of the former.

The receipts of cotton at this port for the season to date have been 384-368 bales, against 171,054 for last year.
The exports for the same period foot up $37,431 bales, against 166,738 bales.

Mr. I. Shrier offers for rent the rooms in the upper story of the handsome new building he is erecting on North Front street. The rooms would be especially suitable as a boarding house.

The Carolina Cycle Club will have a bicycle run to the second toll house and return on next Monday night.
They will meet on Eighth and Market streets. Ladies and gentlemen will both go.

Mr. J. S. Armstrong has been appointed a member of the finance committee of the North Carolina Railroad, and the National Bank of Wilmington has been designated as the depository of the company.

Mr. D. J. Corbett, Sr., writing from "Nat Moore," says: "Crops in the Catawack section are fine. Dry weather is an excellent fertilizer for us. I think people are opposed to the additional school tax."

Mr. H. M. Tate, the second saloon keeper to move to this city in Fayetteville within the past few days, is opening up at No. 8 North Water street, immediately north of Mr. John H.
Kuch's store.

John Slade, second mate of the British barge Cabana, now at this port, was tried by Justice Banting yesterday for assault and battery. He was adjudged guilty, but judgment was suspended upon payment of costs, which he paid.

The colored Odd Fellow's excusion from Newbern left in return yesterday afternoon. It has been remarked that frequently the colored excursionist becomes so attached to the city during the short stay that he doesn't go back at all.

The gentlemen interested in the building of the new ice factory (as told in the STAR Thursday) are confident of success, and state that the factory is sure to be built, as about all of the amount necessary to warrant the undertaking has been subscribed.

On the question of levying an additional school tax, although the election is only thirty days off, some of the North Carolina papers do not seem to know that such an election is to be held, and still others "straddle," as usual.

On warm days, of which there have been not a few this Summer, the average man would like to know what the temperature is. And for the convenience of his customers Mr. H. J. Gerken has placed an elegant new thermometer in front of his cigar emporium. Add to the thermometer the forecast which will be posted above it daily and it will be seen that all necessary information about the weather can be had at Gerken's.

Excursion From Goldsboro.
Messrs. B. H. and C. B. Hatch's second annual excursion from Goldsboro landed in the city yesterday morning at 11 o'clock. The train comprised nine coaches packed with people, and a refreshment car. Nearly all of the party went direct to Ocean View to enjoy the delightful sea breeze and a refreshing dip. After spending about four hours yesterday afternoon in the city, they returned last night at eight o'clock.

It is said that the Hatch Bros. and Mr. Martin, the manager of the Mount Olive excursion in the city several days ago, made a wager as to the size of their respective excursions, and the Hatch Bros. being the largest they were declared the winners.

CAPE FEAR AND YADKIN.
The New York Bondholders Gain a Point in Court.

The Baltimore Sun of yesterday says:
"The suit of the New York reorganization committee of the Cape Fear and Yadkin Valley Railway Company to recover from the Baltimore reorganization committee of the railway $53,000 of the series A bonds of the road was decided against the Baltimore committee yesterday by Judge Morris, in the United States Circuit Court. The Baltimore committee refused to deliver the bonds, as their original holders had signed the Baltimore reorganization plan. Judge
