Mecklenburg Camp B-joying the Sea Breezs at Ocean View-Will Visit Carolina Beach Friday.

Mecklenburg Camp of Confederate Veterans arrived yesterday at 19.05 p. m., in special cars attached to the regular Seaboard Air Line train. There were about seventy-five veterans in the party and a sufficient number of their families and friends to swell the number to 250. Small contingents of veterans were taken on at Rockingham and

Some of the officers with the party are Commander S. H. Hilton and Brigade Quartermaster M. L. Davis, of the Meckienburg Camp, and Major Edward Sally, of the Rockingham contingent." Major General W. L. DeRosset and others of the Cape Fear Camp were at the depot to greet the visitors, who were taken by street car to the Seacoast road. A special was provided to take them to

Wrightsville Beach, where they arrived shortly after I o'clock. The Camp will remain at Wrightsville Beach till Friday. Owing to failuse to get tents to encamp in, the Veterans are obliged to put up at the boarding houses and private homes on the Beach. But they have determined to go into camp every Summer hereafter, either at Wrightsville or Carolina Beach, and next time they will not be without their tents. Friday the visitors will try the pleasure of a ride down the Cape Fear and out to sea on the steamer Wilmington. They will leave at 9 80 and have a busy day visiting the numerous places on the Cape Fear which have interesting war associations. They will go first to Carolina Beach, afterwards touching at Fort Anderson, Fort Fisher, Southport, Fort Caswell, Bald Head, and then around the Bell buoy and ten miles to sea. Mr. G. McP. Batte, travelling passenger agent of the Seaboard Air Line, accompanied the camp and was using his friendly offices in procuring all the concessions possible for the gallant old soldiers.

Mr. Batte informs the STAR that the Oueen City Guards will visit Carolina Beach and Ocean View sometime in August.

FIREMEN'S TOURNAMENT.

Who May Come-The Entries Made -The Print List.

FAYETTEVILLE, N. C., July 24th. Wilmington Star, Wilmington, N.C. As a matter of interest to very many of your readers, I would ask of you to publish this communication in regard to matters connected with the approaching Convention and Tournament of the North Carolina State Firemen's Association at Fayettevilla on August 3rd, 4th

As President of the Association it has been my privilege to visit the principal towns and cities in the State during the last thirty days, and I can assure, not only the Firemen, but all lovers of manly sport and competitive excitement, that the coming Tournament will double in numbers and attendance all previous events the entries are unprecedented and go far to show the annual increasing interest in fire department matters. Up to this date, ten days before the asociation meets, the following entries have been made: By Newbern, two engines, two horse hose wagons and two hand reel teams; by Wilmington, one engine, one horse hose wagon and one hook and ladder truck; by Goldsboro. one horse hose wagon; by Durham, one horse hose wagon and two hand reel teams; by Greensboro, one engine, two horse hose wagons, two hand reel teams and one hook and ladder truck; by Wilson, one hand reel team; by Winston, one engine, one horse hose wagon and one book and ladder truck; by Salem, one hand reel team; by Salisbury, one hand reel team; by Charlotte, one hand reel team; by Fayetteville, one engine, one horse hose wagon and two hand reel teams, and from South Carolina, by Florence, one hand reel team; by Sumter, two hand reel teams and two horse hose wagons; with several South Caroina and North Carolina departments still to officially hear from. Nothing ike this has ever been known in our volunteer service, and it will be a revelation to many of our North Carolina people. In addition to the tournament entries, the convention is composed of all the white fire companies in the State (59), and each company has two delegates and two alternates in that body. Our people are exerting themselves to the utmost to prepare to take care of the visiting firemen and citizens and it goes without saying that they will do so. Railroad rates are low, one fare for the round trip, and hotel rates are also down in accordance with the times. $1.00 to $1.50 per day. The inter-State feature is an attractive one and will draw a large number of South Carolina eighbors, both firemen and citizens. ayetteville is preparing to do her duty as a host and we cordially invite all to come and see the most interesting of all modern competitive exhibitions. Our prize list amounts to about $1,000 and the tournament will occupy fully two days. Wednesday and Thursday, August 4th and 5th. Tuesday, August 8d

ASSESSMENT AND RATES.

Assessment of Western Union Telegraph Company Doubled - Postal Company May Charge Twenty Cents Per

The News and Observer gives the folowing relative to the recent action of the Railroad Commission The valuation of the property of the Western Union Telegraph Company was fixed at about $380,000-just double the valuation of last year. Other telegraph companies are assessed at practically the same valuation as last year. Cars of the Pallman Car Company, operated in and through the State, were placed at about $200,000, also just twice what it was in 1896. Seamboat property is assessed at about the same as in 1896. The telephone property rate has not vet been fixed. The Bell Company was given until Saturday to file its statem ent. The Commissioners will meet again Saturday, July 31, for the purpose of nearing any exceptions that may be made to the assessments.

The rate of 15 cents for telegrams of 10 words to and from points within the State is to apply only to the Western Union. The Postal and other miscellaneous companies of the State are allowed to charge a rate of 20 cents. For messages of over 10 words one cent will be charged for each additional word. This applies to all companies. Whenever a message is sent over two or more lines the joint rate shall not exceed 80
