To prevent accidents from going over Niagara Falls it has been suggested that a wire cable be suspended across the river just above the water, which persons in danger of going over might catch hold of and work themselves ashore or hold on till assistance came. To make the cable useful at night it is proposed to light the river at that point with electric lights.

A story has been published that the United States engineer, formerly in charge of the harbor improvements at Savannah, Ga., is short in his accounts about $1,000,000. The officer is now with the United States embassy in London. The charge is said to be false, but it may be incidentally remarked that a $1,000,000 short would be a pretty long short.

Tom Reed asks "what is prosperity" and answers by saying that it is when every one is at work. Correct, provided the workers get wages enough to live decently and comfortably, and the protected and favored employers do not pocket all the profits.

A curled walnut tree has recently been sold standing in Letcher county, Ky., for $400. It will cost $1,- 000 to cut it into slabs to carry to the nearest railroad point, and the buyers expect to make $15,000 worth of furniture out of it.

Although thirty five thousand additional seats have been put in the public schools of New York city during the summer, there are still between 8,000 and 15,000 children of school age for whom there are no accommodations.

The pitchfork seems to run in the Tillman family. A cousin of Senator Tillman has secured a divorce from his wife because she persisted in disciplining him with a pitchfork.

Items of Interest Gathered Here and There and Briefly Noted.

—Passengers on the W. & W. train arriving here at 5:45 yesterday afternoon, reported fine showers up the road.

—The Naval Reserves armory was draped in mourning yesterday and day before, out of respect to the memory of the late Edward Daniel.

—Rain last night prevented a crowd of young folks from enjoying the pleasure of a truller party. The event will, however, take place Monday night.

—Charlie Morton, a colored boy, aged about 13 years, while fishing yesterday afternoon, struck a large bass-book in one of his fingers. A kind hearted gentleman paid the boy's care for the City Hospital.

—The report which got abroad Thursday to the effect that Jim Vesey, colored, one of the convicts working on the Atlantic Coast Line track road, had escaped, was yesterday released from castody, he having proven his claim as a naturalized American citizen to be true.
Matthews was born in England, but claims Cleveland, O., as his home, where he says he will know.

Slow Transportation Delayed Because of Low Tide.
The river steamers are still waiting for higher water, which will be necessary before they can resume their usual operations. The A. P. Hart, however, brought in a cargo yesterday from White Hall, where the freight was taken on from the E. A. Harris, which, as it drew less water than the Hart, is plying between White Hall and Fayetteville.

Excursion from Charlotte.
An excursion from Charlotte, the last of the season, will be run to Wilmington and seaside resorts on Tuesday, September 20th. There will be ten coaches, and the indications are that a big crowd will attend the excursion. The managers are Messrs. Mack Taylor, J. M. Goods and Capt. C. S. Taylor.

One Can't be Waxed.
Heretofore advertisements to go in our Business Local's department will be charged one cent per word for each insertion; but no advertisement, however short, will be taken for less than 50 cent this year.

There will be two excursions to Niagara Falls, leaving Portsmouth on October 4th and 11th. The Seaboard Air Line will make special rates for this trip for any one wishing to go. Rate from Portsmouth is only $11.50.

Shipping Released.
Charles Matthews, white, the stowaway found on board the British steamer Pera during trip of that vessel from Cardiff to this port, and who was locked up in the guard house Wednesday afternoon, was yesterday released from cas-
naturalized American citizen to be true.
Matthews was born in England, but
claims Cleveland, O., as his home, where
he says he will know.

COTTON FACTS AND FIGURES.

—Yesterday was a great day for receipts of cotton. The figures at the Produce Exchange showed the receipts to be 3,870 bales, and there were 176 car loads or 6,881 bales, which came in on extra cotton trains too late to be posted at the Exchange. The total receipts therefore were 7,051 bales. There were two other extra cotton trains expected to arrive last night.

—The receipts for the past week were greater by a half than they were for the corresponding week of last year, the figures being 18,618 bales against 10,691.
Receipts for the cotton year, 23,550 bales this year; 20,799 last year.

BASE BALL AT HILTON.

The "Old Maids" and "New Women" Game Won by the Latter—Five Six-Juvenile's Game.
The game of base ball at Hilton Park yesterday afternoon was a regular melo-dram—also because it caused roar after roar of genuine, unadulterated laughter to ascend heavenward from many throats, and there was just enough excitement to hold the interest of the spectators and to make some of the situations very dramatic. The two teams that met upon the diamond were strong ones and strong in spirit, and the game was a good one—but the costumes of the players, nine of which were dubbed "Old Maids" and the other nine "New Women," was something side splitting, and looked like eighteen pictures taken out of some current magazine of the last century. The game was called at 4 o'clock, with Mr.
W. F. Robertson officiating as umpire, and all the players holding up their respective skirts as if afraid of rats. After five innings the game was called on account of the near approach of the 4th of July, and the standing 9 to 6 in favor of the "New Women." The line up was as follows:

Old Maids—O'Dham, c. Bagge, p.; Sta-clair, 1st b. Galloway, 2nd b. Schalken-Sg b; Steverson, s.; Litta, l. i.; Hill
c. i.; Black, f. i.
New Women—Zellers, c. Sweeney, p.; Wooten, 1st b. Moore, 2nd b. James, 3rd b.; Dobser, s. a. Brown, l. i.; Moore, c. i.; Marshall, r. f.

By innings the game resulted as follows:
1 2 3 4 5 Total
New Women.....0 4 2 8 0 Old Maids.....0 0 0 3 3 6

Struck out by Sweeney, 8; by Bagge, 6.
Sweeney and Bagge each gave two base balls.

JUVENILE'S GAME.

Yesterday afternoon, at the ball grounds of the O. A. N.'s, the Confederate Greys and the North Carolina Giants, two juvenile base ball teams, met, but the Greys proved superior to the Giants by a score of 15 to 4. The game was called at the end of the sixth inning on account of the darkness.

Wood and Stevenson were the battery for the victors, and Duck and Crozier for the vanquished. Wood succeeded in convincing nine of his opponents that they desired to strike out, and Duck likewise made the same impression upon four of his.

Benefit, the Magician.

The coming of Bancroft, the magician, at the Opera House Monday evening is hailed with delight by theatre-goers who appreciate a good and refined magical entertainment. Mr. Bancroft's performances in this city are his second appearance in Wilmington, and judging from the fine production which is presented here last season the "standing room only" sign will be displayed early in the game Monday night.

Bancroft occupies a prominent and popular field in the amusement world by virtue of the unprecedented lavishness with which he has surrounded his exhibition of mystery and bewilderment. With a marvellous display of power, and a combination of art and successful practice, and combined with rare gifts as an entertainer, he has spread an exposure in surrounding his mysterious talents with a scenic production of unexampled magnificence. His programme this season is of unusual interest and includes many new features that charm and beguile, evoking laugher and admiration, and affording an evening of merry enjoyment.

One of the magician's most startling illusions is performed with a live lion, which will be on exhibition all day Monday in the show window of S. A.
Schloss's store.

Funeral of the Late W. W. Mintz.
The remains of the late W. W. Mintz, who died Tuesday in Savannah, were brought here yesterday for interment, arriving at 11:15 p. m. over the W. C. & A. Railroad. They were accompanied by the wife of the deceased, a son, Mr.
Albert Mintz and one or two others of the family connection. The funeral party proceeded to the residence of Bellevue, where the interment was made.
Rev. F. H. Farrington, pastor of South Side Baptist church, conducting the services. The Odd Fellows' ritual for funerals was observed. Mr. J. M.
McGowan, of Wilmington Lodge No. 139, and Mr. S. A. Craig, of Orion Lodge No. 67, acting in their official capacities of Chaplain and Noble Grand respectively.

The pall-bearers were Messrs. S. A.
Craig, G. H. Wade and Geo. Smith, of Orion Lodge No. 67, and Mr. J. M. Mc-Gowan, of Wilmington Lodge No. 139.

Funeral of the Late Edward Daniel.

The funeral services for the late Edward Daniel, who died at his residence in this city on Wednesday last, were conducted yesterday morning at 10 o'clock from St. James' church, and the large attendance attested the worth and popularity of the deceased.

Bishop A. A. Watson conducted the services and a choir consisting of Mr. J.
Van B. Metts, Mrs. J. H. Watters, Mrs.
A. M. Waddell and Mr. A. S. Holden rendered feelingly the hymns "Nearer My God to Thee" and "Bark, Hark, My Soul."

As the last hymn was being sung the casket was slowly and tenderly carried to the hearse and the funeral procession then moved to Oakdale cemetery, where the interment was made. The mound was covered with the most beautiful floral decorations.

The pall-bearers were Messrs. D. T.
Croly, U. M. Robinson, F. H. Stedman, W. A. Dick, Seymour W. Merrill, C. C. Chadbourn, R. L. Williams, H. H.
Melby and B. G. Emple.

Hoffer was too puzzling to the Phillies in their first game yesterday with Baltimore, but in the second things changed and it was Dackie, Philadelphia's new 'un, who was the puzzle.
Nichols played with New York yesterday until he became tired and then Baege had a go, while Sullivan, on the other hand, worked hard to defeat the Banatters, but without effect.

Lots of people yesterday were expecting to hear of Boston's downfall on account of Rusie being in the game, but they were sadly mistaken. Amos will probably act this afternoon, and Baltimore will no doubt trot out the best—

BOARD OF ALDERMEN.

Called Meeting.—An Amendment to the Ordinance of the Board of Aldermen.
A called meeting of the Board of Aldermen was held yesterday afternoon at 5 o'clock. Present, Mayor Wright, Aldermen Twining, Benson, Green, Norwood.

After some discussion the Board adopted by a unanimous vote the following:

"Be it ordained, by the Mayor and Board of Aldermen of the City of Wilmington, and it is hereby ordained by authority of the same:

"That said division 2 of section 5 of the Municipal Ordinance as passed October 23, 1896, be, and the same is amended as follows: Strike out the word 'quarters', in line two of said sub-division 'e' and insert the words 'in line four, and inserting in lieu thereof the word 'six'."

"Amend sub-division 6 of said ordinance as follows: Strike out the words 'meat-bones' wherever they occur in said sub-division."

The Mayor stated that several merchants had been compelled to carry over large stocks of cannon crackers by reason of the cannon cracker ordinance, passed as it was last year after the stocking had been laid in, and that in view of these facts he thought it best to draw the ordinance before the time for ordering holiday goods arrives, so as to let the merchants know exactly what they have to depend on. This plan was approved by the Board, and Mayor Wright appointed as a committee to prepare the ordinance Aldermen Twining, Green and Norwood.

The meeting then adjourned.
THE FIRE YESTERDAY MORNING.
A fire in Messrs. Boney & Harper's Grist Mill—Damage $1,000—Another Small Fire in the Afternoon.

About 6:30 yesterday morning fire was discovered in the grist mill of Messrs.
Boney & Harper, on Nutt street, between Walnut and Malboro, and an alarm of fire sent in from box 23 which quickly brought forth the department.
The flames, which were located underneath the flooring in the rear of the second story of the building, were quickly suppressed, but only after hard work.

At the time of the fire the mill was ranning, and it is supposed that the friction caused by the slipping of a pulley connected with some part of the machinery caused it. The damage was mostly by water, and is estimated at about $800, fully covered by insurance. The mill shut down the remainder of the day, but will be in operation this morning.

A small fire, caused by sparks from a blazing chimney, on the roof of a one-story frame dwelling on Harnett street, between Sixth and Seventh, called the department out again in the afternoon about 4:10 o'clock. The house was occupied by Ben Smith, colored. The damage was nominal.

The funeral services over the remains of the late Mr. Edward Daniel, who passed away last Wednesday morning at St. Vincent's Hospital, Norfolk, Va., were conducted yesterday morning at 10 o'clock from St. James' church, and the large attendance attested the worth
and popularity of the deceased.

Bishop A. A. Watson conducted the
services and a choir consisting of Mr. J.
Van B. Metts, Mrs. J. H. Watters, Mrs.
rendered feelingly the hymns "Nearer

casket was slowly and tenderly carried
to the hearse and the funeral procession
then moved to Oakdale cemetery, where

RALIGH NEWS BUDGET.

A Long Lost Sword Found—The Posthumous Meeting of the Seaboard and Roanoke Stockholders—Sovereign Grand Lodge, I. O. O. F.—Tombstones.
(Special Star Correspondence.)

RALIGH, N. C., Sept. 17.
Major H. S. Barrage, of Portland, Me., who some weeks ago wrote Governor Russell, making inquiries about a sword which was taken from him at Petersburg, Va., November, 1854, by Lieut. Teague of the North Carolina troops, has at last found the long lost prize. It was ascertained that Lieut.
Teague went from this State to Baton, Mo., and the sword was located. It was in the possession of the Masonic order there. Lieut. Barrage expresses his thanks to the Governor for the interest manifested by himself and other North Carolinians in securing the sword for him.

Miss Ethel Wainwright, a daughter of the late Capt. J. J. Froy, of this city, who has been living in Virginia has returned to Raleigh and will make her home here.

Three Raleigh ladies who are visiting relatives in Mississippi are finding difficulty in returning home, owing to the strict quarantine regulations prevailing there.

Mr. W. D. Ashe went to Baltimore this morning to attend the sessions of the American Bynal Association.
Mr. Ashe, who is the State geologist, carried with him exhibits of North Carolina botanical specimens.

There is much interest manifested in Raleigh in the forthcoming meeting of the stockholders of the Seaboard & Roanoke railroad at Norfolk. Much action in the road is owned here. A director to succeed W. W. Fuller, of Durham, will be chosen. Ryan has the sympathy of a lot of Raleigh speculators of the Seaboard. Many people believe here that Ryan is backed by the South.

The man who was shot at Wyatt's will recover.
Dr. Kirby Smith, who has charge of the criminal insane at the penitentiary, went to New York to day.

Messrs. F. H. Kippe and Jas. White, of Reading, Penn., were here to day inspecting farming land with a view of making extensive purchases. They were accompanied by Mr. E. C. Robinson, of the Immigration Department, of the Seaboard, who is showing them the country. The gentlemen have also visited Vauugh and Southern Pines. They are much pleased with the country.

Mr. Chas. F. Lumsden, who is a delegate from the State to the Sovereign Grand Lodge, I. O. O. F., left this morning for Springfield, Ill., to attend the annual session. Past Grand Sir C. M.
Busbee leaves this evening for Springfield. The Sovereign Grand Lodge is the best of all subordinate Lodges of the world and has a membership of 1,000,000.

Two Cotton Steamers Clear.
Messrs. Alexander Sprunt & Son have cleared the first cotton steamer of the season. It was the British steamship Hankenburg, Captain Watson, which cleared for Bremen, Germany, with 7,888 bales of cotton, valued at $387,968.
The British steamship Naparima, Captain Grenlay, was also cleared last night by Messrs. Alex. Sprunt & Son, for Genet, Belgium, with 4,740 bales of cotton, valued at $168,750.

Rain was never more welcome than that which began to fall yesterday evening about 8 o'clock. The dust on the streets had gotten almost past endurance and the heat was most oppressive. The Summer is probably at an end at last; and now we may look for some Autumn weather. And, speaking about the weather, the equinoctial storm hasn't turned up yet.

Accident at Pollockville.
The Newbern Journal has the following:
Thursday morning John Henry Smith, a colored man working at the gin of Mr.
John Pease, raised the front of the gin to clear the saws of something and was caught by the saws and his left arm torn to pieces from the shoulder to the tips of his fingers and his body from his breast to the hip, was completely gashed to the full depth of the saw. It seems an impossibility for him to live. His wounds were treated by Drs. Geo. R.
Hughes and C. J. Mattocks.

Lamm Haynes, the Convicted Murderer.
The murderer Lamm Haynes, who is to be hanged September 24th at Whiteville, Columbus county, N. C., for the murder of John Lee, the Truckers murderer, is reported to be a very stubborn and unaccommodating man. He has revealed nothing of value since his conviction and sentence. He has said he knows about the murder, but he has refused to say whether he will permit his question to die with him.

PRAYER FOR RAIN.
In addition to parties in the country having to haul water for miles, the wells and cisterns of a good many residents of the city are giving out, which, coupled with the damage to crops, is making the drought now prevalent assume a fearful aspect, and causes one of the STAR readers to suggest that prayer be offered in our churches on Sunday for rain.
