THE PUBLIC SCHOOLS.

Fall Session Opens at 9 O'clock To-morrow-Attendance Promises to by Uausually Large-School Buildings Thoroughly Renovated.

The public schools of the city will open to-morrow morning at 9 o'clock. From all indications there will be a large number of pupils in attendance and there is little likelihood of there being any vacant seats in any of the schools. Teachers and pupils have had a four months' vacation and will resume their work greatly refreshed by their long rest rom school duties. Daring the vacation many of the teachers have been attending the Summer schools in order to get better fitted for the discharge of their duties in the school room. The school committees have had all of the schools thoroughly renovated and put in readiness for the session's work. The superintendent is confi dently expecting a prosperous year, and believes that with diligence and application on the part of both pupil and eacher the session just opening will be like each of those in the past, an improvement on the one preceding it. As previously, strict order and decorum will be aimed at, and no pupil will be retained in school whose conduct is not satisfactory.

OPERA HOUSE. "The Last Sircks" to be Presented Wednesday Night.

Wednesday evening, at the Opera House, Jacob Litt's successful and thrilling drama, "The Last Stroke," which deals with Cuba's gallant fight for freedom, will be presented by a strong company of players and with lavish scenery and startling mechanical effects. "A arrived in the city last night and have play that makes the audience cheer" is the way one of the New York papers | Hilton. The coming of the show was spoke of "The Last Stroke" during its run in that city last season. No melodrama given in the metropolis in years has stirred the audiences to such wild outbursts of enthusiasm. "The Last Stroke, while dealing with Cuba's struggle, is really a stirring and intensely patriotic play, abounding in scenes p. m. which make even the blood of a blase play-goer jump through his veins at accelerated speed. It is an elaborate and costly scenic production and it is the most important venture of Manager ness in stage setting and appropriate year, as it is well known, the three-time champions beat Cleveland four straight and got the cup for the first time. The receipts are divided among the players, the victorious club getting 60 per cent,

To-day ushers out the league games for '97 and the strife is o'er, although there are several postponed games that ought to be played, but will probably not be, as the outcome will in no way effect the standing. The Orioles merely went through the necessary movements yesterday, and that was all. The day was on the stormy order and less than
