A Philadelphia policeman aroused the indignation of a lot of people the other day by jumping on and dragging to the calaboose an innocent lodking little fellow in knee breeches. They felt very much like mobbing the cop, but when they reached the station house and discovered that the little fellow in short pants was "Dublin Joe," a notorious pick-pocket, about forty years old, who had his pockets stuffed with stolen truck, they changed their minds and conciuded that it isn't safe all the time to judge a man by the cut of his

Charters have been secured and a company formed to build a railroad up the North Pacific to Bering Straits, which it will cross by bridges and make connection with the Russian Trans Siberian road, on which work is now progressing, thus making continuous rail travel from this country to Europe. It is expected that the Trans-Siberian road will be completed by 1905, when the trip around the globe can be made in thirty one days at a cost of $500.

A leprosy conference just held in Berlin has decided that although that disease is contagious it is not hereditary, and announced that it has discovered the cause of leprosy in a bacillus. Port Beceipes of Cotton Heavier Than They Were Last Year

The receipts of cotton at all the ports for the last three days are considerably heavier than for the three correspondunusual as the difference has been heretofore almost uniformly in favor of last year. The comparative figures as posted on 'Change yesterday are 69 853 bales for Monday this year, against 65,188 bales for same day last year: 81,894 on Tuesday, against 66.950; 55,183, against 45,888.

To Be Considered. Whether or not a paid fire department will prove more efficient than the present system will depend largely on the character and capacity of those who compose it. If the wretched partisanship that has been shown in the selection of the present police force of Wilmington were followed in the appointment of firemen for a paid department, the property owners would soon be disgusted with the change.

VENERABLE CITIZEN DEAD. Mr. Jao. S. James Pass d Away in the 924

Y ar of His Age. Born March 10th, 1806, in that part of the present county of Pender known as Holly Shelter, he was descended from one of the oldest and most patriotic families of that section. His grandfather. John James, was a captain in the Revolutionary army, and was killed, at the head of his company, in an encounter with Tories.

In the war of 1819 his father was a soldier, and his two brothers served in the war with Mexico. Three sons represented him in the Confederate army. In 1884 he was married to his cousin Miss Martha Tillinghast, and after fiftytwo years of devoted and happy wedlock she preceded him three years ago to the rest that remaineth for the people of God.

Previous to the war he was engaged in mercantile pursuits; subsequent to the period of reconstruction he was for many years chairman of the Board of Magistrates of New Hanover county, and also an inspector of naval stores.

He passed away on vesterday afternoon, his dying bed surrounded by two sons, three daughters and thirteen grandchildren, exemplifying the inspired assurance of the Psalmist that to "Keep innocency and do the thing that is right will bring a man peace at the last." He was loved because he was loving; respected because he was manly, and true, and just; and he was venerable because the silvery balo of age was the reflection of a character pure, and strong, and helpful to his fellow man. His latter years were burdened by grievous physical ailments, which were hardly felt amidst the tender ministrations of his large and loving family, and particularly by the pathetic and really angelic watchfulness of a little grand daughter, to whom he was most devotedly attached. Mr. James was the oldest citizen of sey, where she has been spending the Wilmington, and with him pisses away, almost the last link that binds us to - O. H. A Darkey in a Show Window.

Mr. B. F. Penny's clothing store had quite a novel attraction yesterday in the shape of a miniature darkey in red trousers and a cap. By some ingenious arrangement the darkey's eyes can be made to move about in their sockets, looking in first one direction and then the other, and the effect is very amusing. Numbers of people stopped yesterday to take a look.

graphs are taken, viz: I thought perhaps a short report just as a review of the work since I was elected treasurer, and the same Fall was elected president of this noble work, would be interesting. I opened the books for the Circle, then called "The Blessed Ten," April 2 1890, with $85.40 in the bank. We gave several entertainments. Our object being a Summer home on the beach, for the poor, Mr. Foster hearing of our desire, encouraged our work and on the 26th of March, 1890, gave us a deed of the land and drawing up a subscription paper headed it with $50.00, which paper Miss Sue Cumming, Mr. Dick (who through the whole work was of the greatest possible help) and myself took from mill to mill, from store to store. The subscription paper, which you can all see how successful we were, is on the table. If you wish to see it, with deeds, etc. The first payment was made July 19th, of $50.00; the fifth and last payment was made March 28th, 1891, of $340.27; making in all $740.27. The name was the next question. What should we call it? The question was 'discussed for some time. Miss Agnes Daniel said she thought "A Shelter," with some other name, by her lovely neice and maid of honor, when it was suggested "The Silver Cross" the emblem of our order, and so on the 15th of August, 1890, the "Shelter of the Silver Cross" was solemnly dedicated by Dr. Strange.

The season was so short we did but little work, closing that year the last of September—the only year we have kept t open so late. Of course the first two grouped themselves gracefully, and the or three years were, I might say, almost experimental: but those who have work ed with us for the past four or five years can see for themselves. There is much more I could say, but I will not trespass longer on your time except to give you as near as I can the expenses for the past seven years, end ing with the close of the season September 4.h. 1897. I will not go over the year's work, but give you the sum total. My book is for your inspection if you like. The number of inmates I have not been able to keep a strict account of except the past two years, which has been 578, and for the three previous years I am almost certain there were quite as things, while the decorations were many: We can count for the last five years 15 000 poor mothers with their children who have been made happy and comfortable for a week or more. The sewerage system and water works which were used at the Shelter during | gave several fine concert selections, and the past Summer were obtained with the following donations, viz: T. M. REV. T. PAGE RICAUD. Seventy-eighth Birthday-Over Fifty Years a Mason-Celebrated by St. John's Lodge

With a Beception and Barquet. Yesterday marked the 78th birthday of one of Wilmington's most highly respected citizens-Rev. T. Page Ricaud. For over fifty-three years of his eventful life he has been a Mason, and last night at the lodge room of St. John's Lodge No. 1, A. F. and A. Masons a Masonic reception was tendered the venerable gentleman, which certainly early hour this morning.

testified love and esteem. The meeting was called to order by Mr. R. C. Merritt, W. M., who stated its purpose and also that the lodge had decided to present Mr. Ricaud with a certificate of honor. Mr. E. S. Martin was called upon to present the certificate, which he did in a few able remarks, alluding to the life and character of Mr. Ricaud. Mr. Ricaud accepted the certificate in a short, but eloquent speech. Speeches were then made by Mr. C. H. Robinson, P. G. M., of Wilmington Lodge: Mr. W. M. Poisson, of St. John's Lodge: Mr. M. S. Willard, W. M., of Orient Lodge, and others, after which choice refreshments were served. The reception last night was eminently fit and proper, inasmuch as it did tribute to a man honored alike in the Masonic fraternity and among the peopleat large. Mr. Ricaud's life has been one of great usefulness-a blessing to his day and generation. He has spent his years and strength in that noblest of callings, the preaching of the gospel. His declining years are sweetened by the affection of tour children, A. G. Ricaud, Esq., and Miss Rosa Ricaud, of this city, Mr. T. P. Ricaud, Jr., of Bennettsville, S. C., and Mrs. S. R. Farrior, of Kenansville.

Eight thirty o'clock was the hour named for the marriage, and sharply at that time the organ, concealed behind a wall of rare flowers, responded to the skilled touch of Mr. E. P. Boatwright and sent forth, clear and sweetly, the strains of Wagner's wedding march, which gave notice that the happy event was about to take place. Up the center aisle came the ushers, Messrs. G. Henry Haar, Earnest Strunk, Ino. F. Rulfs and J. C. Haar, each attired in the conventional black and with a small white carnation displayed upon the lapel of each coat. Next came the two bridesmalds, Misses Emma Hutaff and Elise Ortman, attended upon by the two groomsmen, Messrs. Martin Schnibben and Will Rehder. The bride, habited becomingly in a handsome gown of white organdie, with orange blossom trimmings and diamonds, and carrying a choice bunch of bride roses, followed, accompanied attired in white organdie, but with pearl trimmings, and carrying a bouquet of bridesmaid roses. who succeeded Hon. Holmes Conrad, is an Ohio man. He is familiarly dubbed "next to Mark Hanna, McKinley's rightand man." He has just returned from Onio, where he has been for the past ten days, doing missionary work for Hanna. Speaking of his visit to-day, Mr. Richard said that he was actually appalled at the apathy existing among the Republicans in Ohio. It seems to be conceded that nearly all the big cities in the State will go Democratic, and the Republican leaders are almost hopeless of good results from the farming element. There is no doubt now that the administration and the Republican leaders here are throughly alarmed at the condition of affairs in the Buckeye State. The opinion grows stronger each day that Van Wyck, the Tammany candicate, will be elected in New York, and this also helps the Democratic chances in Ohio. Maryland is also counted upon to go Democratic, and with the certainty that Virginia will do so, there is every indication that the McKinley administration will get a big black eye in November. If there is anything you want, advertise for it. Is there anything you don't want? Advertise it in the Business Locals of the STAR. One cent a word. But no ad. taken for ess than 20 cents.
