Luetgert seems to be in demand not only by the museum men but also by some of the women who want to possess themselves of a freak. It s said that he has received letters from forty women offering to marry him. They must take it for granted that Mrs. Luetgert number 2 is dead, and if so must be pretty well satisfied that he put her out of the way. Some odd freaks among the Chicago women, too, if this story about the etters isn't a lie.

Secretary Sherman says the Wolott commission was not authorized o make any definite propositions as to a monetary conference. It is somewhat remarkable that no remarks on this line were made while before the bust was announced.

OPERA HOUSE.

Guy Woodward and Company Open a Week's Engagement To-morrow Night.

To-morrow night Guy Woodward and his merry company will open their week's engagement at popular prices in Mr. Anderson Russell's merry comedy, "A Practical Joke."

The Columbia, S. C., State says in speaking of the company: At the Opera House last evening an audience equal to any seen in the house on gala occasions laughed itself hourse. The Woodward-Warren Company opened its week's engagement, presenting the laughable play, "A Practical loke," and the favorite comedian, Guy Woodward, had everything his own way for two hours. What was more he had his auditors with him.

By 5.80 o'clock in the afternoon the whole house had been sold; not a seat was to be had and the S. R. O. sign was hung out, attesting the popularity of Mr. Woodward in Columbia. When the curtain rose the house was jammed. Guy has gained about 40 pounds since he was here last, but he is the same inimitable comedian and from first to last he kept his audience in a roar of laughter. This season he is supported by a strong com pany, carefully selected and handsomely costumed. All the costumes are up todate, fresh and attractive. In the company again is Bessie Warren, who has considerably improved in her work. A young Nashville girl who is talented and pretty is Miss Ruth Sheppard. Mr. Woodward saw merit in her work and was fortunate in securing her. Miss Sadie Handy is the pretty and darling little soubrette of the company. She did some clever work last night. Her imitation of Cora Lipman's 'Gay Paree' song in the "Giri from Paris" took well. That was admitted by several who have enjoyed Cora's original. The company claims-and justly those Elections Next Tuesday.

Elections of more or less importance take place next Tuesday in a number of States, and the outcome, as viewed by Court of Appeals) the chances seem about even. In Ohio it looks as if the Republicans will elect their candidate for Governor, but may lose the Legislature, which means the defeat of Hanna. Iowa, Massachusetts and Pennsylvania will be carried by the Republicans. Kentucky. Maryland and Virginia will be Democratic. In Nebraska there is a fusion of the Silver forces (Democrats, Populists and Republicans), and they will elect their ticket. This summary is not given by the STAR as a betting estimate, but is a forecast based on present

Dath of Mrs. El sabsth A. MeDuffie. The STAR regrets to announce the death of Mrs. Einzabeth A. McDuffie. She entered into rest last night at 9.50 o'clock at her residence on Chesnut, between Ninth and Tenth streets. The deceased was 75 years of age.

She had been married twice, her first husband having been Mr. Henry Bishop. Their union was blessed with three children, Rev. F. A. Bishop of Newbern, Mr. Henry Bishop, of this city, and Mr. Charles Bishop, of Myrtle Grove Sound. Her second husband was the late Geo. McDuffie and their surviving children are Mrs. E. F. Norfolk, Va., which had been extended to Dr. Strange, had been acted upon, and was informed that the call has not as yet been accepted, although Dr.

Strange has it under consideration. A committee of five gentlemen, Col. James G. Burr, Capt. John Cowan and Messrs. E. J. Powers, J. H. Boatwright and J. V. Grainger, representing the congregation of St. James' Church, called at the residence and presented to Dr. Strange resolutions adopted by the congregation of St. James' Church, in meeting assembled last Friday night, requesting him to withhold his resignation as rector of that church. Col. James G. Burr, representing the committee, presented the resolutions and made the following beautiful and touching address:

DR STRANGE:-I have been requested, as the oldest active member of St. lames' Parish, to sav a few words on this occasion, which I do very willingly, but I am quite sure that nothing I may say can add to what has been so forcibly expressed in those resolutions.

They convey to you, sir, the feelings, the wishes and desires not of the church only but of the whole community, and you will see in them a reflection of the sentiments of the people of Wilmington in regard to yourself, as the Minister of God and as the private citizen. Death of Mrs. W. N. Hatch, of Asheville Mrs. Margaret Morrison Hatch, wife of Mr. W. N. Hatch, of Asheville, died last Friday night after a prolonged illness. The sad news was received here by a telegram to Mr. Joseph H. McRee, who is a brother of the deceased and with whom the STAR deeply sympathizes in this bereavement.

a grand-daughter of Dr. J.F. McRee, Sr, who was also widely and most favorably known in Wilmington. Her husband and five children, the eldest of whom is Mr. J. McRee Hatch,

Mrs. Hatch was Miss Margaret Mc.

Ree, a daughter of Dr. J. F. McRee, a of this city, survive her. While Mrs. Hatch had been living in Asheville since her marriage she never lost her hold upon the friendship and affection of a great many people in the place where she was born and reared. So that there are many hearts saddened by the news that she is no more. She was a member of the Episcopal church at Asheville, and in her church relations as well as in her ordinary relations with friends and acquaintances, she manifested a loveliness of spirit and disposition that won for her the affectionate regard of all who knew her. Mr. J. H. McRee left yesterday after. noon to attend the funeral, which will doubtless be held to-day. Mr. McRee Hatch had been at the bedside of his mother for several days. The Shipping in October.
