POLICEMAN ARRESTED.

Bound Over to the Criminal Court for Assault With a Deadly Weapon.
Policeman W. D. George was arraigned before Justice John J. Fowler yesterday afternoon, charged with assaulting "Cucky" Sampson, colored, with a deadly weapon, and was bound over to the next term of the Criminal Court in the sum of $50 for his appearance there. The time of the alleged assault dates back to last Sunday afternoon, when Policeman George (as told in the STAR) attempted to arrest "Cucky" Sampson, as Sampson was present when John Faircloth, colored, stabbed Walter Banks, also colored, so seriously at the corner of Front and Princess streets about two weeks ago. Sampson, however, made his escape and Policeman George shot at him.

Upon trial yesterday the State proved by different witnesses that last Sunday afternoon, near Front street market, that Policeman George caught Sampson, but let him loose, and that the policeman pointed a pistol at him; that policeman George made the remark that if he saw Sampson again that he would shoot him; and that later the policeman saw Sampson on Surry street. Sampson ran and the policeman shot directly at him, the bullet from the pistol striking the ground near the two men and ahead of Sampson. Policeman George stated that he never tried to hit Sampson, but only shot to frighten him.

After hearing the evidence Justice Fowler announced his decision as above and adjourned court, whereupon policeman George at once arrested Sampson and carried him to the guard house and locked him up. The charge upon which Sampson is being held is for assaulting a countryman several weeks ago.

A RARE MUSICAL TREAT.

At the Opera House tomorrow night—Arnold-Welles Play-RS. at Popular Prices.
The above company will open a week's engagement at the Opera House tomorrow night, and from reports from other cities it is one of the best 10, 20 and 30 cent attractions on the road each and every member of the company has been carefully selected with especial regard for his or her respective fitness for the parts entrusted them. Aside from the dramatic ability, special artists have been engaged to appear between the acts, the principal one of which is the celebrated and only Miss Emma Wells, the world famous four voiced vocalist.

Ladies will be admitted free to-morrow night if accompanied by a person holding a paid 80 cent ticket which must be purchased before 7 p. m. to-morrow night. This is done to avoid the crush and confusion at the Opera House box office.

Seats are now on sale at Gerken's, and any lady who has failed to receive a free ticket can secure one by applying at the place of sale. The play to-morrow night will be the very funny comedy "Hand and Glove," or "The Rival Detectives," it contains a hearty laugh in every line.

Deaths during the past week were caused by the following diseases, viz: Pneumonia, two; consumption, one; old age, one; diarrhoea, one; inflammation of the bowels, one; apoplexy, one; enteric colitis, one; laryngitis, one; tuberculosis, one.

THE BODY IDENTIFIED.

The Young White Man Killed By a Navassa Citizen of Wilmington—Mr. J. D. McDuffie—The Remains Brought to Wilmington and Interred in Oakdale Cemetery.

The young white man killed Friday morning by a freight train on the W. C. & A. railroad, near the eight mile post, or what is known as "Susic curve," and being unknown at that time was interred a few hours later not far from the scene of the accident, turned out yesterday to be Mr. J. D. Dalie McDuffie, of this city.

Among those who visited the scene of the accident Friday morning, being transported to and from there on a special train, was Dr. D. W. Balluck, who examined the body of the unknown man, and when he returned to the city brought with him a portion of the clothing and ring as at which the train, Mr. J. D. Dalie McDuffie, wore when he left home Thursday night.

Upon the identification of the clothing and ring Mr. Ed. Borden, Superintendent of Transportation of the Atlantic Coast Line, sent a special train, in charge of Capt. Bob Branch, yardmaster, and with Mrs. Williams and Mr. Henry Bishop, sister and half brother respectively of Mr. McDuffie, on board to the spot where the interment was taken place and the body was exhumed and at once recognized by Mrs. Williams and Mr. Bishop as that of young McDuffie. As permission for the disinterment had previously been obtained from Ed. David, a colored magistrate at Navassa, the corpse was placed on board the special train and brought to this city, reaching here shortly before 9 o'clock p. m.

The body was carried out to Oakdale cemetery, where the interment took place, and where services were conducted by Rev. R. A. Willis, pastor of Grace M. E. church, and Rev. T. H. Sutcliffe, pastor of Market Street M. E. church. The pall-bearers were Messrs. J. M. McGowan, A. J. Marshall, J. J. Turp, A. J. Yopp, John White and R. B. Clow.

The deceased was at one time a member of the police force and lately had been employed by Mr. R. B. Clow. Since the death of his mother, which occurred about three weeks ago, he had been very despondent.

OUT OF POLITICS.

Aid Paid Fire Department—The Only Test for Freedom to Be Emolument.
If a paid fire department is established in this city, the men to fulfill the duties of firemen will have to be chosen strictly on account of their qualifications as firemen, and cannot be selected for political reasons or on account of favoritism. The article of requirements necessary for the equipment of a full paid fire department, as submitted by the Southeastern Fire Association, expressly states that the men employed as firemen must be selected on account of their qualifications as firemen, while the plan as laid down by Chief Joyner, and which Mayor S. W. Wright and Mr. W. H. Chadbourne, chairman of the Board of Audit and Finance, has accepted, is also to the same effect.

Chief Joyner stated that no electioneering should be allowed around the engine houses, and that the firemen should be kept entirely out of politics, except that they be allowed to vote, and that the retaining of their positions should depend upon them alone, according to their efficiency.

Mr. John Carver is joined by a Bone.
About seven o'clock last night at Front street market Mr. John Carver was struck back of the ear with a stone thrown by Ed. Russ, aged about 18 years. The youth had first been struck with a broom-handle and retaliated with the stone. Mr. Carver's injuries were quite serious and a physician had to be called. A warrant was issued for the arrest of Russ, but before it was served, he surrendered himself to Justice of the Peace A. J. Hewlett, who recognized him for appearance at trial at 9 p. m. Monday.

FOOT BALL TO-DAY.

Thanksgiving day is being looked forward to with a great deal of pleasure by the lovers of football in this city. The A. C. L. and O. A. N. teams will meet in a mighty combat for supremacy, and no doubt a large crowd will be out to cheer their favorites. Both teams were out for secret signal practice last night, and the practice proved satisfactory, showing the met to be in excellent form. The game will be played at the O. A. N. Athletic park, and the management has arranged ample seating accommodations for all.

Funeral of the Late Mrs. Hines.

The funeral of the late Mrs. M. A. Hines, who died last Thursday night, took place yesterday from the residence of Mr. G. J. Beach, 939 North Fourth street. The solemn services were conducted by Rev. J. W. Kramer, pastor of Brooklyn Baptist church.

The interment was made at Oakdale cemetery and the pall bearers were Messrs. Robert Merritt, Hill Terry, S. W. Holden, S. L. Smith, W. G. Craig and James D. Motter.

Montary Record.

The records in the office of Dr. W. D. McMillan, Superintendent of Health, for the past week show that there were ten deaths, one white and nine colored, and seven births, all colored. Deaths during the past week were caused by the following diseases, viz: Pneumonia, two; consumption, one; old age, one; diarrhoea, one; inflammation of the bowels, one; apoplexy, one; enteric colitis, one; laryngitis, one; tuberculosis, one.

PLEASURE YACHT REPUBLIC

Towed Into Wilmington in a Dismasted Condition.
The pleasure yacht Republic, owned by Mr. George Matthews, of New York, and bound from Mobile, Ala., to New York, Conn., was towed up to the city yesterday in a dismantled condition. Capt. Randlette's account of the vessel's mishap is a very thrilling one.

The Republic sailed from Mobile on the 8th, and met fair winds until she reached the straits of Florida, where she lost her foremast in a severe gale of wind. After necessary repairs she kept her course without further trouble until 4 o'clock on the morning of the 16th, when she found herself off a strong northerly gale which carried away both boats.

The Captain thought best to veer around and fly from the wind. He passed inside of Flying Pan light ship at 12 m. The wind was still blowing and the starboard was lost here. All the afternoon and night the heavy gale kept blowing. At 3:30 p. m. on the 17th Cape Fear light was sighted and the yacht came to anchor in eight fathoms water. She lay there that night and next day. At 10 p. m. Thursday night the wind had increased to such violence that everything went before it. The masts were broken off almost on a level with the deck. The vessel was spoken by the Florence & Lillian, also bound for New London, who advised Capt. Randlette to abandon his ship. He refused to do so, saying that the men might go, but he would stay. The men decided to stay, but all hands were put to work cutting away the wreck as the gale just raged. At daylight on the 19th the two masts were up. The vessel was towed into Southport by the tug Isabel, information as to the yacht's condition being carried into Southport by the Florence & Lillian.

Yesterday morning the Republic was towed up to the city by the steamer Wilmington and is now lying at Skinner's ship yard awaiting orders from her owners.

The Republic is 100 feet long and 9 1/2 tons register. She is handsomely equipped from end to end, the main cabin being especially well furnished.

Capt. Randlette was in Wilmington in 1873 on the U. S. steamship Jolly. He is an nephew of Miss Amy Bradley, of this city.

VESSELS IN COLLISION.

Norwegian Barque Vasa Sunk—American Baboosah Capsized—Spruce Damaged—No Lives Lost.
The Norwegian barque Vasa, which sailed from Wilmington last Monday for Manchester, Eng., with a cargo of rosin, collided with the schooner Chas. H. Spruce, Georgetown to Boston about 9 miles from Frytown Light on Wednesday at 12:15 p. m. and sustained damages from which she sank during Wednesday night. The Spruce lost her rigging, but otherwise was not damaged.

Captain Terjesen, of the Vasa, and Captain Harper, of the Spruce, were both up to the city yesterday, but were unwilling to talk about the accident. The Spruce it is claimed, had the right of way as she was moving on a starboard track and it is further claimed that the Vasa would not respond to the rudder, otherwise she would have escaped disaster. Both Captains filed their protests yesterday. Capt. Terjesen with the Norwegian Consul, Mr. Alex S. Heide, and Capt. Harper with Mr. W. H. Hines, Notary Public.

The tug Barko of the Cape Fear Towing and Transportation Company was out yesterday to try to find the Vasa. The Spruce is undergoing temporary repairs and will probably pass out from Southport some time Wednesday.

The cargo of the Vasa consisted of 4,908 barrels of rosin, valued at $3,073.30 and shipped by Mr. Matt. J. Heyer for the S. P. Spotted Co.

An Unhappy Prisoner.

Deputy Sheriff Wm. Givens, colored, had a lively fight with a prisoner last night. The fight was a most violent man-to-man fight and was waged in jail, where he now quietly reposes.

For several days Deputy Givens had been looking for Oscar Stamps, colored, wanted by the county authorities on the charge of assault with a deadly weapon. Last night about 8 o'clock at Front street market, Deputy Givens came up with Stamps and arrested him, but he (Stamps) showed a disposition to resist arrest and the officer summoned Ed Smith, colored, to assist him. Stamps drew a knife on Smith and threatened to cut him, but Deputy Givens drew Stamps and disarmed him. Stamps consented to resist no more, and was taken to the jail, where it was found that the officer had to club him. Deputy Givens and Smith, however, managed to lead Stamps in jail, although he raised a disturbance during the entire distance travelled and attracted quite a large crowd of people.

Dr. Blue Mountain Joe.

Asent the performances of the above show which shortly begins an engagement in this city last night on the 7th. Mr. G. L. Winkler, of the New York Herald, arrived in the city last evening and paid the STAR office a pleasant call. He is making a tour of the South, looking after the circulation of the Herald. This is the main purpose of his tour, but he is getting up information that can be of possible use. He came here after visiting Washington, Richmond, Danville and one or two other cities. He will go from here to Charleston, thence to Savannah, and on through the Southern country.

Manager Mission Circle.

The Mission Circle will give a delightful entertainment at Luther Memorial building on the night of the 24th. There will be an interesting programme of recitations, vocal and instrumental music, and refreshments will be served. An autograph quilt with nearly 1,000 names will be exhibited.

Bob Lincoln objects to his new son-in-law on the ground that he lacks social position, and the young man is a boss base ball player, too. We judge from this that Bob Lincoln doesn't dwell much on ancestral reminiscences, for that young man has much more social position than Bob's father had at his age. But Bob's father wasn't a snob, and elevation never gave him the big head.

It is hard to satisfy Ohio men. They not only want all the offices going, but some of them want big chunks of the earth, too. A couple of them have tarred up as claimants for 7,000,000 acres of land out West, embracing the cities of St. Paul and Minneapolis. Anybody but an Ohio man would be satisfied with 2,000,000 or 3,000,000 acres with one nice town thrown in.

Indiana boasts of a remarkable justice of the peace, who has reached the age of 94 years, and has married 3,297 couples, not one of which has been divorced, and decided 8,776 cases, not one of which has been reversed by higher courts. And yet this stout tier and wise judge has never achieved more than J. P. fame.

Durrant's lawyers are said to have struck on another scheme to give him a longer lease of life. They are going to move to have him tried for the murder of Minnie Williams, which he is charged. But justice will probably be satisfied with bagging him once, and dispose with the second trial.

Hoos. Mark Hanna expresses the opinion that the tariff question is settled for at least a decade. Mark is a pretty robust machine manipulator but he hasn't yet established a reputation as a prophet.
