The Greates. Product of North Carolina Surnamed the Carolina Twins to Remain H re O to Week Linger

A brief description might be of interest to the subscribers to the STAR Sae is a paysical wonder-or rather two wonders in one-and is undoubtedly a rival to the famous Siamese twins. There is a total absence of anything that is vulgar or repulsive about her whose tour bright eyes and dezzing rows of pearly teeth light up a fair creole complexion with an animetion that is really attractive. Here is a woman with one body but two separate heads that are possessed with marvellous intelligence that predominates in both brains.

Some of the sweetest music ever sung by a high soprano and a pure contralto is produced. The notes issue from two heads, and yet but one trunk supplies the nerve. Some may have an idea that she or they are repulsive. If this prejudice should carry any so far as to avoid her, they will be the losers. It is declared that no person of ordinary intelshort time without yielding to the charm of her manner, and the fascingtion of her double smiles.
