AN ELEGANT RECEPTION.

Celebrating the Home-coming of Mr. and Mrs. John H. Kuck, Recently Married in Charleston.

Just a week ago last night Miss Dina

Bokelmann, of Charleston, was married to Mr. Jno. H. Kuck, of this city, the ceremony taking place at the residence of Mr. D. Schroeder in Charleston. Last night from 9 till 12 o'clock Mr. and Mrs. Kuck gave their recep tion at their elegant new home, 518 Grace street, and it was the verdict of all of the numerous guests that an evening was never more delightfully spent. Mrs. Kuck was attired in white organdie over white satin, with diamond ornaments, the gifts of the groom, and her gracious manners won the hearts of all who attended. Mr. and Mrs. Kuck were assisted in receiving by Miss Minnie Glameyer. white organdie with pearl trimmings and diamonds: Miss Elese Ortmann. white organdie and diamonds, and Messrs. The guests upon arrival were ushered into the parlors, where the most sincere congratulations were tendered. The array of presents was unusually large Mr. Hall arrived here last night .. and included remembrances from Charleston, Chicago, New York, Baltimore, and even from Germany, one of the presents being a handsome china tea set from Mr. and Mrs. H. Michaelis, of Bremen. Germany.

After a short while all repaired to the dining room, where tables adorned with ivy and palms were burdened with refreshments. Toasts appropriate to the occasion were given and responded to with royal good feeling by Mr. D Schroeder of Charleston, and Messrs, J. W. Duls, L. Hansen, J. G. L. Geischen, Henry Haar, and others; while a pleasant letter of congratulation was read from Rev. K. Boldt, of Charleston, formerly of this city.

The evening was a pleasant one to all concerned, but a feature that was a pleasure and at the same time a surprise to the bride and groom was the presence of Mr. and Mrs. D. Schroedaughter Hetty, who was one of the flower girls at the wedding.

SUIT FOR DAMAGES.

Trial of Case of Hiram Moore Versus Wilmington Seacoast Railroad Co.

IN THE SUPERIOR COURT

The Jury-Testimony in the Case-Wi nesses for Plaintiff and Defendant-Other Cases Disposed of At Yesterday's Session.

Yesterday's session of the New Han over Superior Court was devoted almost entirely to the hearing of the case of Hiram Moore vs. the Wilming son Seacoast Railroad Company, in volving $10,000 damages claimed by Mr. Moore to have been sustained by himself June 25th of last year when he says he was knocked from the trestle of the defendant company between Wrightsville and the Beach. Reference was made to the case in yesterday's court report

The case was called very soon after the Court convened, and the follow ing jury was drawn to hear the cause R. F. Gore, B. H. Scott, Thos. Ennett, F. E. Starkey, Lewis Gordon, W. G. T. Keen, Gaston Hicks, P. J. Smith, Nicholas Morris, A. C. Penton, J. H. Strauss and R. W. Best.

Mr. Moore took the stand as the ing confined to his room several days first witness in his own behalf. He told of the accident and its effects in detail. In referring to his injuries he said that his head was cut badly in several places, and that his left arm was fractured between the elbow and shoulder. Several pieces of shell were taken from his head about month after the accident, and his arm has, he said, never regained its usual strength. He was confined to his home for three months. Mr. Hall Not Carried Home.

W. T. Hall, the Pender county trucker whose leg was fractured in two places Tuesday evening, was not carried to his home yesterday as his friends had intended. The attending physician would not allow Mr. Hall to undertake the trip and thinks it will be as least ten days before he can be carried home. Yesterday the man was moved from the Market street cart house to the home of Joseph S. Sneeden at 616 South Second street. He and Mr. Sneeden are friends, and it was through the invitation of the latter that Mr. Hall was carried there. A brother of Furney George, a young white man in the employ of the Butter's Lumber Company, Hub, N. C., was fatally scalded by the explosion of a steam pipe at the company's mill at six o'clock Monday morning. He died at 1.30 o'clock the same afternoon.

The remains were taken to Jacksonville, the young man's former home, for interment. They arrived here at 1.25 o'clock Tuesday over the C. & A. and were taken out to Jacksonville on the W. & N. train leaving here at 2.25 P. M.

rated Ben Shepard, an aged colored man, from the charge of stealing wood. Mr. Fowler told a STAR representative that he never knew of more contrary swearing in his life than that done by some of the witnesses. The warrant for Ben was issued on testimony of Frank Robinson, John Hall and Geo. Rogers, all colored. In the trial it appeared that Shepard bought the wood and that one of the parties instrumental in getting the warrant actually received a portion of the purchase money which the old negro paid for the wood.

CAPE FEAR AND YADKIN.

Raleigh Opinion That It Will Be Under Control of the Seaboard Very Soon.

The following is from the News and Observer of yesterday

"It is learned on good authority that the sale of the Cape Fear and Yadkin Valley Railroad to the Seaboard Air Line will be consummated within the next few days. The decision of the Circuit Court of Appeals, in favor of the Baltimore plan, will be handed down when that court meets on the first Monday in February. The Seaboard Air Line system is now making preparations to take possession of the Cape Fear and Yadkin Valley road at an early date.'

This seems very positive; but where did our contemporary get its information? It is not usual for Courts to make public their decisions before they are filed, and it is presumed the News and Observer bases its statement on the very general opinion that the decision of Judge Simonton favoring the sale of the road as an entirety would be sustained by the Circuit Court of Appeals. This is the "Baltimore plan," and the one almost universally favored by the people of this State who are interested, either directly or indirectly, in the Cape Fear and Yadkin Valley road. And all these hope that the road will be sold as a whole, and, next to that, they hope that the road will be controlled by some system that will do nothing to divert business from Wilmington

It will be remembered that in the decree of Judge Simonton it is provided that no bid for the road less than $2,000,000 will be considered. Should there be competition at the sale the bids will, of course, run above that sum. And, without vouching for its accuracy, the STAR will state that it has heard it intimated that there will be more than one bidder for the pro-

BOUND OVER TO COURT.

Participants in the Cutting Affair Which Took Place Last Tuesday.

The participants in the cutting affair in which Emeline Brown was badly cut, a report of which was published in vesterday's MORNING STAR, were tried before Justices Bunting and Fowler yesterday. Mr. Bunting attended to Sue Campbell's case and Mr. Fowler to that of Clayton McLaren. Sue Campbell was bound over to the Criminal Court in a bond of $100, which she gave. It will be remembered that she attacked Emeline Brown with a large meat knife, inflicting severe wounds.

Justice Fowler heard two charges against Clayton McLaren, one for assault with deadly weapon and the other carrying concealed weapon. McLaren waived examination and was bound over to court in both cases in the sum of $50 each. He gave bond and was set at liberty.

Will Re-open Next Week.

Mr. A. F. Johnson, one of the proprietors of the extensive strawberry crate manufactory at Clayton, spent vesterday in the city looking after business pertaining to the factory. To a STAR representative he said that the new factory was now about complete and will be opened with a full corps of laborers early next week.

It will be remembered that the former factory building was destroyed by fire some time last November. Mr. Johnson is an old subscriber to the STAR and had many nice things to say about the paper.

An Admirable Paper.'

Oxford Orphan's Friend: "A few days ago the WILMINGTON STAR made its appearance in new, neat, plain type. While neatness in every respect, and plain clear type have been for years characteristic features of this admirable paper, yet we note with pleasure this additional improvement. We extend to the STAR our kindest wishes for its continued success. May its brilliant illuminations in the homes of thousands of families extend through many years, and may its three decades of existence be but a commencement of its usefulness."

MEETING

Citizens Protest Against Action of the Board of Aldermen Making Vaccination Compulsory.

ANOTHER MEETING CALLED.

To Assemble To-night to Hear the Report of the Committee Appointed to Lay the Protest Before the City Authorities To-day.

About 300 people, of whom a small majority were white, assembled in mass meeting in the City Hall, at 8 o'clock last night, to make a public protest against the action of the Board of Aldermen in making vaccination compulsory. Mr. Jno. G. Marshall, on request, called the meeting to order and explained why a meeting had been called. He asked Mr. J. W. Millis to take the chair and by a unanimous vote Mr. Millis was made permanent chairman. Mr. E. F. Johnson was requested to act as secretary. Mr. Millis re-stated the object of the meeting and Geo. L. Peschau, Esq., on invitation, addressed the assembly on the legal aspects of the ordinance. Mr. Peschau prefaced his remarks by saying that he understood the object of the meeting to be a purely peaceable one, and with such an understanding he was willing to give his opinion of the law. He went on to explain that, by the Code, the criminal jurisdiction of the Mayor is that of a justice of the peace, but the cases must be those where the punishment cannot exceed a fine of $50 or imprisonment for thirty days. The ordinance, as passed by the Board of Aldermen. provides for both, depriving the Mayor of final jurisdiction. It has been ruled that "municipal laws" must be executed by the municipality itself unless some statute provides expressly otherwise. The same case lays down the rule that the Superior Court in such cases has no original jurisdiction. If the Superior Court in the present case has no original jurisdiction and the Mayor's Court, owing to the cumulative nature of the punishment, hasn't the jurisdiction either, it does not appear how the punishment is ever to be executed. Mr. Peschau argued strongly against violence and urged his hearers to fight the ordinance in law if at all. His remarks were loudly

Mr. A. S. King said that the ordinance was an invasion of the rights of the people—the rights their forefathers had fought and died for. Compulsory vaccination he condemned as scandalous and outrageous. He would not object to it if it was necessary. It was merely a scheme of the physicians. He declared that the thing to do was to sign the protest as previously prepared and act as law-abiding citizens. He said, further, that we are not in a free land when such measures are put upon us, and he concluded in the words of Patrick Henry, "Give me liberty, or give me death!" (Applause.)

The secretary then read the resolutions adopted on the night before. On motion of Dr. W. H. Moore, colored, the resolutions were adopted, and it was ordered that a written copy be sent to all the papers for publica-

On motion of Mr. A. S. King, a committee was appointed to bring the resolutions before the Board of Aldermen. The chairman named on the committee Messrs. S. W. Holden, J.T. Smith, A. S. King, J. D. Duke, J. W. McCartney and John Smith, and the following colored citizens: S. J. Bell, H. S. Gause, Wm. H. Moore, Jack Moore, A. S. Henderson, and

Wm. Quick. On motion another meeting was called for to-night to hear the committee's report. The resolutions will be circulated to-day for signatures.

OPERA HOUSE TO-NIGHT.

First Presentation of "Aben Ali"-A Large Audience Assured.

The event to which people have been looking forward for some days-'Aben Ali"-will have its first presentation at the Opera House to-night, and judging from the lacerated condition of the box-sheet the audience will be a large one.

The last rehearsal was held last night, and the whole performance went off very smoothly indeed; and all attending will see a most finished and highly artistic presentation tonight. The photographs of the different characters and choruses on exhibition at Mr. I. Shrier's and Mr. Gerken's stores were viewed by large crowds yesterday, and many favorable comments were passed upon the pretty poses, laughable make-ups and fetching attitudes of the characters.

The box sheet for Friday night's performance opens this morning at Gerken's at 7 o'clock. There are also still some very desirable seats left for to-night's performance.

Clam Shipments.

Clam shipping is going on at a lively rate at present as is usually the case at this season of the year. The following clam boats have been in port this week with loads of clams: "K. T. Willis," "Bessie Moore," "Ruth Darling," "Berta M. T.," "The M. & L.," "Mary Wheeler." The clams are brought to the city in bulk, put up in sacks holding a bushel and a half each, and shipped to the Northern markets. Some of them, especially the "little neck" variety command good prices.

On account Mardigras, New Orleans, La., February 22nd, the Seaboard Air Line will sell tickets from all coupon offices on its line to New Orleans, at rate of one fare for the round trip.

State Convention in March.

The State Committee of the Young Men's Christian Association has deeided to hold the State Convention at Asheville, March tenth to thirteenth. A letter received here yesterday from State Secretary W. M. Lewis, made this announcement and also divulged the fact that an effort is being made to put Secretary Diggs on the programme. He has been requested to open a discussion with a ten minutes address on 'Recent Progress in Bible Work." He is also requested to take part in a Woman's Meeting on Sunday afternoon of Convention week. Mr. Diggs has no idea that he will be able at attend. Delegates from the Wilmington Association will be appointed at the next business meeting. Secretary Lewis wrote yesterday that there was a fight before the committee between Asheville and Gastonia as the place of meeting, but that Asheville had the strongest pull.

WEDDING IN DURHAM.

Miss Maude Patterson Harton United Marriage to Mr. Simon W. Sanders of Wilmington.

A lovely marriage ceremonial in Durham yesterday united in the holy bonds of matrimony one of Wilmington's most esteemed business men and a cultured lady of Durham. They were Mr. Simon Warren Sanders and Miss Maude Patterson Har-

The bride is the daughter of Mr. W. T. Harton, of Durham, the groom is a prominent grocer doing business at the corner of Second and Market

The ceremony yesterday was at 10 FINE MIXED NUTS o'clock in the first Baptist Church and Rev. W. C. Tyree the pastor, was the ofciating minister.

The usual beauty of the church auditorium was greatly enhanced by the tasteful grouping of rare flowers -geraniums, ferns, palms and other foliage plants. The pulpit rostrum was banked with these flowers. In fact, the decorations are said by those who attended to have been especially beautiful. There was a large company of friends gathered to witness the marriage service, which was beautifully executed. The bridal party entered the church and approached the altar in time to the joyous strains of the wedding march executed on the massive pipe organ. The ushers preceded the bridal party to the altar.

The bride was unattended save that master Ernest Rogers and little Miss Jessie Kramer were just in advance of her bearing flowers which were freely strewn in her path. Miss Nellie Bernard as maid of honor followed, leaning on the arm of Mr. Leo Harton, brother of the bride. They were met at the altar by the groom and best man, Dr. E. S. Pigford, of this city. In the marriage service the bride was gracefully given away by her brother, Mr. Leo Harton. When the ceremony was concluded the party drove at once to the depot where they boarded the Southern train bound for this city, arriving here at 5:50 and are now at Mr. Sanders' home, No. 411 North Third st. There was quite a party of friends at the Durham depot to see them off and wish them a long and happy wedded life. They left midst a perfect storm of rice and lots of old slippers were thrown and other rites harbingering happiness were merrily performed. The Morning Star joins a host of friends in extending hearty congratulations to our esteemed townsman and cordially welcoming his charming bride to the city.

In every community in Christendom there is a busy-body known in common as a liar. One of these busy-bodies abides in Wilmington, and if they ever had a conscience it has long ago been reduced to insensibility. The only way they handle the truth is to compound one grain of it with one thousand grains of exaggeration. This so-called liar has started the rumor that my little boy. Willie, had small-pox. I have no doubt but that this was done to injure doubt but that this was done to injure my business; and no attention would have been paid to the matter, but my lish the above card. Respectfully,
