fir Telegraph to the Morning Sta-ATLASTA Fex. May 25 Lieutenant Colonel William P. Hall, Adjutant General and executive head of the department of the Gulf, has this to say regarding the report from Madrid that Spanish prisoners of war in the United States have complained that they are treated as convicts.

The prisoners at the post are well treated. The ten officers now there are confined in two large rooms and have every convenience. They have a sepagate bed, but are given regular rations. The ordinary prisoners are well cared for and get their rations three times a day. All letters they write are read by the officials before being mailed, and if any one had complained it would hardly get to Spain." All prisoners of war are at Fort Mcl'herson.

FOR VOLUNTEERS.

Troops to be Drilled and Seasoned to Constitute a Reserve Force.

SEVENTY - FIVE THOUSAND.

The Army of Invasion-No News of the Fleets Cervera's Ships Believed to be Lying in Santiago Harbor Change in Army Plans.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star WASHINGTON, May 25. The event I the day in the war situation was the assuance of a proclamation by the resident calling for 75,000 more volinteers. It added a new and stirring phase to the lethargic conditions which have prevailed of late and came with almost startling unexpectedness even o many of the highest officials in the

The proclamation means not only he assembling of a large force of roops, but also the appointment of a umber of major generals, brigadier enerals, colonels, majors, staff and ield officers for the organization of his additional force of 75,000 into army corps, divisions, brigades and giments

The reusons leading up to the call naturally were sources of much conecture, as it was at first felt that the essebility of foreign complications was a factor in bringing about this new move. It speedily developed, owever, that the call was not due to any latent or serious emergency, but was rather in the line of getting together a large bady of men, to be drilled and seasoned, and to constitute a sort of second reserve to be drawn upon later when the campaigns were fully under way. Secretary Alger stated that the determination to issue can vassed more or less for some weeks, but it was not until a few hours before the call itself appeared, that the movement was finally decided

Coming thus unexpectedly the War Department had made no preparations for the call and it will be ome days before the details are worked out as to the quotas from each State, the calls to the respective Governors of the States, the mustering points and the general points of con-

the civil war, and are not to be reorganizations of the several States. will be an encouragement to the organization of independent volunteer as State troops, as the Governors will | the post. The organization and division of this extensive force is yet to be arranged by the Adjutant General's office. Generally speaking, however, he 75 000 men will suffice for the ormation of seventy five regiments With three regiments to a brigade, which is the present basis of organizaion, this makes twenty live brigades. in turn, eight divisions of three and out of these divisions the entire force will be divided into three army corps. This general division is, of course, tentative, but it shows the general formation of this body of troops. The new force will equire, either by appointment or by dicers already appointed, three major penerals and about twenty four brigdier generals. The law authorizes he President to appoint one major general for each army corps, and one gadier general for each brigade. It was stated at the War Depart nent that the details for the work of organizing this new force would not e actively taken up for the present. ust now the Adjutant General's of fice is engaged in completing the en listment of the 125,000 volunteers unfer the first call. It will take some ame to complete this work, and not until then will the real work of organizing the volunteers under the second all begin.

An Army of Invasion

Reports were current to-day that an army of invasion was about to start for uba and Porto Rico. It was based n the conjecture which has been current of late, but officials in authority give it no endorsement, as it was manifestly contrary to public policy to give any advance information of such movement even if it were contem plated. The report that Gen. Miles and his staff would leave to night was specifically denied, although it is probable that the commanding General will leave for the South at an early Cervera's Fleet.

At the close of the day at the Navy Department the situation as to the leets, both American and Spanish, was precisely as it was this morning, so far as the officials know, the only notable difference being an apparent strengthening of the con idence of the officials in their be sef that Cervera's squadron is lying in the Santiago harbor. In this hope and belief, the officials found great comfort, knowing the abilities of the American naval commanders in Cuban waters to keep the Spanish Admiral bottled up in his narrow necked har bor until they shall surrender or be starved out. If Cervera is actually at buy the officials feel not the slightest apprehension of any relief coming to him from the outside in the shape of another Spanish squadron from Ca-The reason for this belief their unquestioned ability hold Cervera in check with only a few vessels, perhaps a couple of monitors and torpedo boats, thus leaving the remainder of the big armored fleet to take care of any reinforcements that might attempt to come from Spain to Cervera's aid. The force that could be spared for this service without endangering the integrity of the blockade at Havana or permitting the escape of Cervera would be much larger than the entire Spanish naval force now in Spanish waters capable

Change in Army Plans. Within the past few weeks, in fact ever since the determination was positively reached to invade Cuba before the dry season next Fall, there have been published intimations that the delay or what appeared to be the delay in beginning the invasion was attributable to the navy.

It can be stated on the highest authority that the impression thus created is wholly unjust to the navy and without warrant, in fact. The naval officers, one and all, take special pride in the degree of readiness in which the navy was found at the outbreak of hostilities, and there never has been a moment even when Sampson's forces were at Porto Rico, when the navy was not prepared on instant orders to aid the army. Neither has the army been at fault in this matter. It was at first propose to throw a small force of men, about 10,000, into Cuba immediately and allow the remainder of the army of occupation to wait until next Fall be fore going over. There were various reasons for abandoning this plan, such as the discovery of the insufficient sup port that could be rendered the American force by the insurgents, and the fact was brought out with appalling force that to delay the campaign meant the absolute extermination of the starving reconcentrados, and there were beside other reasons for making haste. These considerations caused a complete change in the army plans, and that involved delay.

To equip an army of 100,000 men in thirty days and put them in a con-dition to light trained veteran soldiers on their own soil was no small undertaking, so that in the opinion of some of the highest officers of the administration there is no reasonable grounds for pressing the criticism that there is or has been undue delay in beginning the military campaign, either on the part of the army or navy. Recommendation has been made that contracts be awarded for supply ng the armor for the three battleships under construction as follows: To the Carnegie Company 1153 tons for the Illinois and 2,558.96 tons for the Wisconsin; Bethlehem 1,405 tons for the Illinois and 2,558 tons for the Alabama;

TWO MURDERS COMMITTED.

REIGN OF TERROR

Sailors and Marines Made a Raid on the Jail Looking for a Negro Murderer. Intense Feeling-More Trouble Anticipated.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star. KEY WEST, FLA., May 25.-Key West is suffering from a reign of terror. Two murders were committed feel that unless the town is promptly put under martial law a state of riot may prevail at any moment.

The police force consists of three men, with grievances of their own, and with streets and grog-shops in ested with turbulent jackies, negroes and roughs of many classes, the danger o the respectable classes is no mean

In consequence of last night's bloodshed, Commander Fosythe has already asked for a guard of twenty-five marines to protect the naval station and government dock, and strong efforts are being made by citizens to have martial law declared.

William Carne, a seaman on the auxiliary gunboat Morrill, and Vladmir Lehuitsky a sailor on another sunboat, were attacked last night in a uban coffee shop by Charles Kithen, a local negro. Lchuitsky was illed and Carne badly wounded. Kitchen made his escape. The cause of the trouble is said to have been Kitchen's jealousy of his negro wife. John J. Dorsey, a reputable ma-chinist of Manateo, Fla., about 55 years of age, was found dead early this morning in a vacant lot near the Key West Hotel. Robbery is supposed have led to the murder. Charles Wallace, the leader of a gang of young Key West toughs has been ar-rested, charged with the crime. Withn the past month three so-called 'peace guardians' have resigned office, complaining that they have long been paid in city scrip at the rate of fifty dollars per month which is discounted at one-half. A new trio of policemen were obtained and these now show signs of rebellion, declaring #### that they are suffering under like lisadvantages and will resign.

Situation Serious. 9.45 P. M.-What threatens to deelop into an ugly affair, if not a lynching, occurred to night, and at this writing the situation is decidedly

A report was circulated that a maine had been shot and killed by a negro. The report reached the sailors and marines, the latter of whom were arriving here, and they formed into two battalions and marched on the iail with loaded revolvers. Sheriff Knight met them at the door nd parleyed with them, assuring them that the negro was not in cusody. The invaders drew off a short distance and selected two blue-jackets and one marine to go through the jail. The sheriff was powerless to resist and made no attempt to do so. Twelve negroes were found in the jail. but as the identity of the supposed murderer was a mystery, the party was halted. Some of the more turbu ent spirits suggested a lynching of a aegro on principle, but the sheriff promising to find and produce the assailant if the story were true, the party eft and scoured the town in the hope ### of coming upon their man.

Intense Feeling Against Negroes. The feeling among the jackies and he marines against the negro population is intense, aggravated by the assault of Charles Kitchen, a negro, on a seaman, which resulted in the killing of the latter, and the sailors are look ing for Kitchen as well as the other mysterious negro. 11 P. M. —On leaving the jail, the party met another jackie, who thought he could identify the supposed murlerer, another march on the jail took place, and the man looked over the slored prisoners, but failed to idenify any of them. Some of the cooler ads then advised giving the sheriff a chance to get Kitchen. The party ventually dispersed at a late hour without further trouble, although deermined to avenge the assaults and ndignities from negroes. The latter re keeping well under cover to night.

Senator Teller, Colorado, objected.

Senator Daniel, Virginia, in reiterating Senator Teller's objection. sounded the first note of delay against the measure that has been heard since the debate upon it began. He declared that there was no emergency which required the immediate passage bill, and frankly announced that if certain provisions of the bill put into it by the during the night and the best citizens | Democrats on the Finance Committee were not agreed to by the would offer amendments to the measure that probably would precipitate debate. He strongly intimated, too, that if the war should be prolonged, it might not be necessary to provide so much revenue as the pending bill would raise, and he indicated a desire to await developments that in all likelihood were close at hand before passing upon a bill that meant so much to the people as this one. The general features of known as yet what form this action the pending bill were debated to-day by Senator Stewart and Senator Allen and Senator Caffery. #### USE NO LATHER. Chinese Shave Frequently With a Wet

Towel to Soften the Face. Considering that the inhabitants of the middle kingdom use the razor more than any other nation in the world, it is passing strange that they never discovered the advantages of lathering first, says the Windsor Magazine. Dabbing a warm wet cloth on the chin or the scalp is a poor substitute for scap. Hair cutting, as we practice it in the west, is to them "all unknown," except in a few localities where foreigners are numerous. A traveler when in the province of Kwantung sent for a man to shear his locks, and he began nibbling away at his scalp without troubling about such a triffing as a comb. At the third snip the man stopped him and asked him if he had ever cut a foreigner's hair before. Oh, yes. When was that? Oh, last year, when he cut the hair of a German customs officer who had died.

But in the matter of shaving there are few more deft-considering the latherless way he does it and the fact that he uses a little three cornered soft iron knife as a razor—than the Chinese figaro. Was not the chief of all his tribe ennobled by an emperor ages back for dexterously cleaving a mosquito that had settled on the imperial nose? One advantage gained by patronizing the Chinese barber-in the case of Europeans-is he doesn't mind coming to your room every morning and shaving you before you wash and dress. But the native also generally waits to be rasee before washing, even if he has to wait a week.

Mathew's House.

Some years ago a San Francisco banker maintained a country house upon what were supposed to be entirely original lines. It was, however, a poor imitation of the establishment of Mr. Mathew of Thomaston, Ireland, who lived in the earlier years of the last century. Mr. Mathew inherited an annual income of about $125,000. For many years he lived abroad in a very frugal manner in order to accumulate an amount that would enable him to indulge in a form of hospitality in his own country in harmony with the plan he had devised. His house in Ireland might be compared in size with a modern hotel. Each of those he wanted to visit him had a suit of apartments and ordered his meals at the hour that best suited him. He could eat alone or he could invite others to join him. All the visitors hunted, shot, fished. played billiards or cards at will, and all brought their own horses.

drinks were served without stint. Mr. Mathew as host completely effaced himself. He mingled with his visitors as one whose stay was as definitely fixed as theirs. In fact, he conducted his house as if it were a hotel, with the exception that all was without charge. No servant was allowed to accept a tip. Violation of this rule was followed by the instant dismissal of the offender. This establishment, unlike other country houses of Ireland of the period, was conducted with perfect order and method and without waste. His hospitality was lavish and attracted to Mr. Mathew all of the more famous men of the time. The great sum that he had put aside during his residence abroad enabled Ed. Guyon and Wm. C. Moore him to indulge his hospitable instincts until he died .- New York Sun.

My strongest impression was of the deep mutual love evidently subsisting between Mrs. Carlyle and her husband.

Every subject we discussed seemed to recall thoughts of him. If the piano
