War Department Orders Companies in the First and Second Regiments to Be Recruited to 106 Men Each.
[Special Star Telegram.]
RALEIGH, N. C., June 1.—The War Department will recruit the First and Second regiments, despite the Governor's protest.
The War Department telegraphs that one officer, one non commissioned officer and one or two privates from each company in both regiments be sent to their respective homes to recruit the companies from 81 to 109 men. This will take 788 men out of the call for the second quota; but 768 will be left, and from these will be organized two battalions of seven companies, under the command of a lieutenant colonel and two majors. The Governor wants to throw these with the negro battalion and organize a regiment.
Colonel Burgwyn telegraphs from Washington that the War Department has ordered uniforms, arms and complete equipments for the Second regiment.
