MELTON CASE.

To be Brought Before the Board of Aldermen To-morrow Night. Policeman R. H. Benson says that he will bring the matter of the charges against Chief of Police Jno. R. Melton before the Board of Aldermen at their regular monthly meeting tomorrow night.

It will be remembered that the Police Committee had the charges up for investigation and through Mayor Wright dismissed the case. At the time Officer Benson declared his intention to carry the matter to the Board of Aldermen and he now assures a STAR reporter that he will carry out his orignal announcement in leaving no stone unturned in his efforts to have the chief reprimanded or punished for his alleged conduct. The charge, it will be remembered by STAR readers, is that Mr. Melton, several weeks since, behaved in a manner very unbecoming his office as chief of police in abusing Mr. Benson and challenging him to fight a duel.

MR. MARK FARMER DROWNED.

Sad Fate of One of Wilson's Young Men. Wilson, N. C., June 4.—The sad news of the drowning of Mr. Mark Farmer reached our town this morning at 10:30 o'clock. Mr. Farmer was boat riding at Barefoots Mill three miles from town with his friend, Mr. Charlie Townsend. A leak in the boat caused it to sink and as Mr. Farmer could not swim, he was lost. Mr. Townsend came near being drowned, but was rescued at the last moment. Mr. Farmer was 18 years of age and had just returned from the University. He was a son of Mr. W. E. Farmer, for many years Coast Line Agent at this place.

Young Mr. Farmer was a brother of Mr. Graham Farmer of this city who received the news of the sad accident vesterday morning by telegram and eft last night for Wilson. The young nan is well known here, having been messenger boy at the 'Atlantic Coast Line, and that he was exceedingly popular was shown from the sincere grief which found expression on all sides yesterday when the news of his drowning reached the city.

The STAR sympathizes sincerel with the sorrowing family.

N. C. VOLUNTEERS.

The Half Holiday.

Many of the business hopses are giving their employes half holidays. The real estate concerns, which take Friday afternoon off, began some time ago. So did the hardware houses which take Saturday afternoon. The banks beginning yesterday closed at 12 o'clock so as to give the force of derks and bookkeepers an afternoon or themselves. The Produce Exchange took its second half holiday yesterday afternoon. The dry goods houses are going to depart from what has been the custom with them heretofore and for the present will not take the half holiday.

The Embezzler Weirse.

MOVEMENT OF TRUCK.

Large Shipments of Beans and Potatoes from Newbern.

The Journal says: "There is a heavy movement of potatoes and beans from here to Northern markets. Last night the steamer Neuse was unable to take away all that was offered, but took away a comfortable cargo of about six thousand packages of potatoes and beans. Thursday, the A. & N. C. ran three truck trains to accommodate the demand, and to-day will likely run the same number, as there was heavy hauling last evening by truckers to the railroad.

ACCIDENTION THE RIVER.

Two Rowboats in Collision-Four Men Narrowly Escape Drowning-An Exciting Episode.

In the middle of the Cape Fear, off the foot of Dock street, yesterday was enacted an exciting episode in which several men stood a lively chance of going to the bottom of the river. Capt. Eben Harker with a crew of fishermen was in a boat trying to get a tow from the tug Jacob Brandow which was pulling the British schooner Leonard Parker out to sea. Enoch Griffin, colored, and another colored man, were also trying to get the benefit of an easy ride down the river. The two boats fouled each other with the result that Capt. Harker's boat was overturned and Griffin's was placed in such peril that its occupants were compelled to abandon it and seek safety on the schooner by means of lines thrown them. Of the men in the overturned boat, Capt. Harker and John Martin succeed in getting into the boat abandoned by Griffin. The others were hauled aboard the schooner and were carried down the river as far as Kidder's mill where they were overtaken by a skiff manned by William Allen and others and brought back to the city. Eight or ten dollars worth of provisions were lost from Capt. Harker's boat.

Mr. Jake Solomon Has a Lively Tussle With a Negro Thief on Dock Street.

A young colored buck who thought he would get a bicycle lamp without paying for it last night by stealing it rom a wheel in front of S. & B. Solomon's shoe store on Market street, got more than he bargained for. A little boy who works in the store saw the attempted theft and gave the information to the owner of the wheel, Mr. Jake Solomon. Mr. Solomon gave chase to the negro and followed him into the alley just south of Poezolt's tailoring establishment. The negro halted, and, drawing a knife, threatened to cut his pursuer, who answered by knocking him down. Then the would-be-thief got himself together again and made another effort to get | Wrightsville beach. away. Mr. Solomon, like grim, fate was gaining on him, however, and again he showed fight only to get another blow in the face that made him see stars. Finally, in front of Mr. T. J. Gore's store on Water and Dock streets, the negro was finally cornered and taken inside of the store where he was placed in charge of two colored men. These, while waiting for an officer, let the prisoner go and the last attempt to catch him was not so successful as the first.

In the scuffle Mr. Solomon had a gash three or four inches long cut in his vest and also a knife thrust made in one of his shoes. But he doesn't mind this as he has the satisfaction of knowing that the darkey was very thoroughly and deservingly thrashed.

A FITTING TRIBUTE.

What the Tammany Times has to Say of the Late Sol C. Weill.

The following tribute to the memory of the late Sol C. Weill accompanied by an excellent half tone illustration, appears in a recent issue of the The Tammany Times:

The death of Solomon C. Weill, the Democratic Assemblyman from the Nineteenth District, is a loss, not alone to the Democracy of the city and State, but to the community at large. Mr. Weill was a prominent member of his party, a leading, able and widely respected practitioner at the bar, and a valuable citizen. His standing in the community was of the very highest and he enjoyed the esteem and respect of the best men of all parties. He was born in Charlotte, Mecklenburg county, N. C., on May 18th, 1864. He has, since 1886, been engaged in the practice of law, and was the senior member of the firm of Weill & Mayer, of 40 Wall street.
